Barnabas, ... of the country of Cyprus. Ac. 4. 36.—Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phœnicia, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only. Ac. 11. 19.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John to their minister.

Ac. 12. 25.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Barjesus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

Ac. 4. 8.

10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one. Mat. 13. 38.—Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. Jno. 8. 44.—He that committeth sin is of the devil. 1 Jno. 3. 8.

11 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

Ex. 10. 21-23.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departing from them returned to Jerusalem.

And went not with them to the work. Ac. 15. 38.—No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God. Luk. 9. 62.—Mark ... is profitable to me for the ministry. 2 Ti. 4. 11.

14 ¶ But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.

Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures, opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ. Ac. 17. 2.—He reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks. Ac. 18. 4.

15 And after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

[Jesus], as his custom was, went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read. Luk. 4. 16.

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

The Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth. De. 7. 6.

18 And about the time of forty years suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

Your children shall wander in the wilderness forty years, and bear your whoredoms, until your carcases be wasted in the wilderness. After the number of the days in which ye searched the land, even forty days, each day for a year, shall ye bear your iniquities, even forty years, and ye shall know my breach of promise. Nu. 14. 33, 34.—Your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work. Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways. Ps. 95. 9, 10.—The children of Israel did eat manna forty years... until they came unto the borders of the land of Canaan. Ex. 16. 35.—The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 2 Pe. 3. 9.

19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, he divided their land to them by lot.

The Lord thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and hath cast out many nations before thee, the Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than thou. De. 7. 1.—These are the kings of the country which Joshua and the children of Israel smote on this side Jordan on the west, from Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon even unto the mount Halak, that goeth up to Seir; which Joshua gave unto the tribes of Israel for a possession according to their divisions; in the mountains, and in the valleys, and in the plains, and in the springs, and in the wilderness, and in the south country; the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. Jos. 12. 7, 8.—The men of Jericho fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I delivered them into your hand. And I sent the hornet before you, which drave them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites; but not with thy sword, nor with thy bow. Jos. 24. 11, 12.—These are the countries which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them. By lot was their inheritance, as the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe. Jos. 14. 1, 2.

20 And after that he gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet.

The Lord raised up judges, which delivered them out of the hand of those that spoiled them. Ju. 2. 16.—When the children of Israel cried unto the Lord, the Lord raised up a deliverer to the children of Israel, who delivered them, even Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother. And the Spirit of the Lord came upon him, and he judged Israel, and went out to war. Ju. 3. 9, 10.

All Israel from Dan even to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of the Lord. 1 Sa. 3. 20.

21 And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: now make us a king to judge us like all the nations. 1 Sa. 8. 5.—Samuel took a vial of oil, and poured it upon his head, and kissed him, and said, Is it not because the Lord hath anointed thee to be captain over his inheritance? 1 Sa. 10. 1.—I gave thee a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath. Ho. 13. 11.

22 And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee: for thou hast rejected the word of the Lord, and the Lord hath rejected thee from being king over Israel. 1 Sa. 15. 26.—Saul took a sword, and fell upon it. 1 Sa. 31. 4.—Thy kingdom shall not continue: the Lord hath sought him a man after his own heart, and the Lord hath commanded him to be captain over his people, because thou hast not kept that which the Lord commanded thee. 1 Sa. 13. 14.

The Lord said unto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? fill thine horn with oil, and go, I will send thee to Jesse the Beth-lehemit: for I have provided me a king among his sons. Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and the Spirit of the Lord came upon David from that day forward. 1 Sa. 16. 1, 13.

They anointed David king over Israel. 2 Sa. 5. 3.—I have found David my servant; with my holy oil have I anointed him. Ps. 89. 20.

23 Of this man's seed hath God according to his promise raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus.

There shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. Is. 11. 1.—Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. Je. 23. 5.

I will set up thy seed after thee, and I will establish his kingdom. 2 Sa. 7. 12.—The Lord hath sworn in truth unto David; he will not turn from it; Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne. Ps. 132. 11.—The Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David. Lu. 1. 32.

Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh. Ro. 1. 3.—Thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins. Mat. 1. 21.—So all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob. Ro. 11. 26.

24 When John had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee. Mar. 1. 2.—He came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. Lu. 3. 3. There went out unto him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins. Mar. 1. 5.

25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire. Mat. 3. 11.—He confessed, ... I am not the Christ. He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose. Jno. 1. 20, 27.

26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.

Go ... to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Mat. 10. 6.—Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities. Ac. 3. 26.

Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Is. 55. 1.—Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Mat. 11. 28.

27 For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.

Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. Lu. 23. 34.—These things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me. Jno. 16. 3.—Through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers. Ac. 3. 17.

We speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, ... which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. 1 Co. 2. 7, 8.—Their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which veil is done away in Christ. 2 Co. 3. 14.

All this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Mat. 26. 56.—The chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him. These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me. Lu. 24. 20, 44.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain.

Pilate ... said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the king of the Jews? And they cried out again, Crucify him. Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him. Mar. 15. 12–14.

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst. When Jesus ... had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost. These things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken. And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced. Jno. 19. 28, 30, 36, 37.

When Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and laid it in his own new tomb. Mat. 27. 59, 60.

30 But God raised him from the dead:

He is risen, as he said. Mat. 28. 6.—Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it. Ac. 2. 24.

31 And he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people.

Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead. Ac. 10. 41.—The apostles whom he had chosen, to whom ... he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days. Ac. 1. 2, 3.—He was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: after that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once. ... After that, he was seen of James; then of all the apostles. 1 Co. 15. 5–7.—This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses. Ac. 2. 32.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers,

Behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. Lu. 2. 10, 11.—I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel. Ge. 3. 15.

In thee shall all families of the earth be blessed. Ge. 12. 3.—The promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. Ro. 4. 13.—To Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. Ga. 3. 16.

33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee. Ps. 2. 7.—Unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son? He. 1. 5.—Christ glorified not himself to be made a high priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee. He. 5. 5.

34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David.

I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. Is. 55. 3.—Thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever. 2 Sa. 7. 16.—The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever. Re. 11. 15.—He hath made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure. 2 Sa. 23. 5.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

Ps. 16. 10.

David ... being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne; he seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption. Ac. 2. 29–31.

36 For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David. 1 Kt. 2. 10.

37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

38 ¶ Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins:

John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. Jno. 1. 29.—Your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake. 1 Jno. 2. 12.—God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. Eph. 4. 32.

He hath made us accepted in the beloved. In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace. Eph. 1. 6, 7.—By one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before, This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them; and their sins and iniquities will I remember no more. He. 10. 14–17.

39 And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

By his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many:

for he shall bear their iniquities. Is. 53. 11.—The just shall live by his faith. Ra. 2. 4.

A man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. Ga. 2. 16.—As many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them. Ga. 3. 10, 12.—We conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law. Ro. 3. 28.

Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Ro. 5. 1.—What the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh. Ro. 8. 3.—Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. Ro. 10. 4.—There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. Ro. 8. 1, 4.—For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God. Eph. 2. 8.

The law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God. He. 7. 19. The law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect. It is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins. He. 10. 1, 4.—By the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. Ro. 3. 20.

The scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. Ga. 3. 22.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets;

41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

Behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder: for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid. Is. 29. 14.—Hear the word of the Lord, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem. Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste. Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place. For the Lord shall rise up as in mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may do his work, his strange work. Is. 28. 14, 16, 17, 21.

Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously; for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you. Hab. 1. 5.

42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.

Mat. 24. 13.

Barnabas... when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord. Ac. 11. 22, 23.—Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith. Ac. 14. 22.—If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed. Jno. 8. 31.—We desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end: that ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises. He. 6. 11, 12.

I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Ro. 8. 38, 39.

The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men. Tit. 2. 11.—Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled. He. 12. 15.—This is the true grace of God wherein ye stand. 1 Pe. 5. 12.—Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace. Ga. 5. 4.

44 ¶ And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.

Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities. Ac. 3. 26.—That repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. Lu. 24. 47.—To the Jew first, and also to the Greek. Ro. 1. 16.

Thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee. Is. 55. 5.—The children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Mat. 8. 12.—The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. Mat. 21. 43.—Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you. Ro. 10. 19; De. 32. 21.

When they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles. Ac. 18. 6.—Be it known... unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it. Ac. 28. 28.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth. Is. 49. 6; 42. 6.—A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel. Lu. 2. 32.—Their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. Ro. 10. 18.

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.

Behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. Lu. 2. 10.—That the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name. And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people. And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people. And again, Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust. Ro. 15. 9-12.—There was great joy in that city. Ac. 8. 8.—The Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved. Ac. 2. 47.

Other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. Jno. 10. 16.—Whom he did predestinate, them he also called. Ro. 8. 30.—God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: whereunto he called you by our Gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Th. 2. 13, 14.—Ye will not come to me that ye might have life. Jno. 5. 40.

By grace ye are saved. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. Eph. 2. 5, 10; Phi. 2. 13; Jas. 1. 18.

Ordained. Ro. 13. 1.—Appointed. Ac. 22. 10; 28. 23; 20. 13; Mat. 28. 16.—Determined. Ac. 15. 2.—Set under authority. Lu. 7. 8.—Addicted themselves. 1 Co. 16. 15.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me. 2 Ti. 3. 11.

51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.

Whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city. Mar. 6. 11.—The very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you. Lu. 10. 11.

52 And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Ghost.

They of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost. For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Ac. 10. 45, 46.—They, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, praising God. Ac. 2. 46, 47.—After that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise. Eph. 1. 13.—Rejoice and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. Mat. 5. 12.

CHAPTER XIV.

AND it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

They went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Mar. 16. 20.—God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost. He. 2. 4.—Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word, by stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus. Ac. 4. 29, 30.—We were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention. 1 Th. 2. 2.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword. For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law. And a man's foes shall be they of his own household. Mat. 10. 34, 36.—There was a division among the people because of him. Jno. 7. 43.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:

Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. But beware of men. When they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another. Mat. 10. 16, 17, 23.

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 ¶ And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

Ac. 3. 2.

9 The same heard Paul speak: who steadfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed,

He did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief. Mat. 13. 58.—The blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord. Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you. Mat. 9. 28, 29.—Thy faith hath made thee whole. Mat. 9. 22.

10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

Then shall the lame man leap as a hart. Is. 35. 6.—Eneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately. Ac. 9. 34.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.

Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him. Da. 2. 46, Gr.

14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man. Ac. 10. 26.—Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are. Ja. 5. 17.—I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God. Re. 19. 10.

Why have they provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with strange vanities? Je. 8. 19.—They are altogether brutish and foolish: the stock is a doctrine of vanities. Je. 10. 8.—Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? art not thou he, O Lord our God? therefore we will wait upon thee: for thou hast made all these things. Je. 14. 22.—We know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one. 1 Co. 8. 4.—Ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God. 1 Th. 1. 9.

In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. Ge. 1. 1.—By the word of the Lord were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth. Ps. 33. 6.—Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the Lord his God: which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is. Ps. 146. 5, 6.

16 Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust: and they walked in their own counsels. Ps. 81. 12.—The times of this ignorance God winked at. Ac. 17. 30.—He sheweth his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel. He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the Lord. Ps. 147. 19, 20.

The time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries. 1 Pe. 4. 3.

17 Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

The invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse. Ro. 1. 20.

Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: thou settlest the furrows thereof: thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing thereof. Ps. 65. 10.—Your Father ... sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. Mat. 5. 45.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

When the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming. Ac. 13. 45.—At Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me. 2 Th. 3. 11.—Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. 2 Co. 4. 10.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, Mat. 28. 10, Gr.

22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

Paul and Barnabas ... persuaded them to continue in the grace of God. Ac. 13. 43.—Exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord. Ac. 11. 23.

I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me. Je. 32. 40.—If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. Mat. 16. 24. Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations. And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me. Lk. 22. 28, 29.

It is a faithful saying: ... If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us. 2 Th. 2. 11, 12.—If children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. Ro. 8. 17.

In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world. Jno. 16. 33.—All that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. 2 Th. 3. 12.—Rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. 1 Pe. 4. 13.

23 And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

Ordain elders in every city. ... If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children, not accused of riot or unruly. Tit. 1. 5, 6.—Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine. 1 Th. 5. 17; Phi. 1. 1.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia:

26 And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

There were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, ... and Saul. As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them. And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. Ac. 13. 1-3.—Paul ... departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God. Ac. 15. 40.—I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 1 Co. 15. 10.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

All the multitude ... gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them. Ac. 15. 12.—Particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry. Ac. 21. 19.

I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord. Thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place. 2 Co. 2. 12, 14. To the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth; I know thy works; behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it. Re. 3. 7, 8.

By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God. Eph. 2. 8.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

CHAPTER XV.

AND certain men which came down from Judæa taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

This is my covenant, which ye shall keep, between me and you and thy seed after thee; Every man child among you shall be circumcised. And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a token of the covenant betwixt me and you. And he that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man child in your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed. He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant. And the uncircumcised man child whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken my covenant. Ge. 17. 10, 14; Le. 12. 3.—Moses ... gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers.) Jno. 7. 22.

Circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision. Therefore if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision? And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law? For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: but he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God. Ro. 2. 25-29.—What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision? Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God. It is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. Ro. 3. 1, 2, 30.—Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin. Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness. How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also: and the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised. Ro. 4. 8-12.

Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. 1 Co. 7. 19.—In Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature. Gal. 6. 15.—Faith which worketh by love. Gal. 5. 6.—In time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands. ... He is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us; having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances. Eph. 2. 11, 14, 15.—There is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all. Col. 3. 11.—Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ. Col. 2. 8, 11.—I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. Gal. 5. 2.

Let no man ... judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. Col. 2. 16, 17.

2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question.

I went up ... to Jerusalem with Barnabas ... I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain. But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised: and that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage: to whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you. Gal. 2. 1, 5.—The wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable. Ja. 3. 17.

3 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

Joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth. Lu. 15. 7.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the circumcision. For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh. Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more: circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee; concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless. But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, and be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith. Phi. 3. 2-9.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago

God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

The Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. ... And we entered into the man's house: and he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter; who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved. Ac. 11. 12-14.

8 And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us;

The Lord searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee. 1 Ch. 28. 9.

He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. This spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive. Jno. 7. 38, 39.—When they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. Ac. 2. 37, 38.—The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God. Ro. 8. 16.—While Peter yet spake, ... the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word. Ac. 10. 44.

By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts. He. 11. 4.

Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God. Ac. 8. 21.

9 And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.

What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common. Ac. 10. 15.—To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. Ac. 10. 43.

Sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints. 1 Co. 1. 2.—How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? He. 9. 14.—Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently. 1 Pe. 1. 22.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

The law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect. He. 10. 1.—Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: that the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. Gal. 3. 13, 14.—Stand fast ... in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage. Gal. 5. 1.

I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. Gal. 5. 3.—As many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. Gal. 3. 10.—Whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. Ja. 2. 10.

11 But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.

Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus. Ro. 3. 24.—That no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. Gal. 3. 11.—Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. Gal. 2. 16.—Where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: that as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 5. 20, 21.—By grace are ye saved through faith. Eph. 2. 8.—The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men. Tit. 2. 11.—After that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost. Tit. 3. 4, 5.

They sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation. Re. 5. 9; Jno. 6. 44; Ac. 4. 12.

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me:

Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. Ac. 12. 17.

14 Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name.

1 Pe. 2. 9, 10.
This people have I formed for myself; they shall shew forth my praise. Is. 43. 21.—As many as were ordained to eternal life believed. Ac. 13. 48.—Many are called, but few are chosen. Mat. 22. 14.

15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:

In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old: that they may possess the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen, which are called by my name, saith the Lord that doeth this. Amos 9. 11, 12.

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.

The determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God. Ac. 2. 23. God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: whereunto he called you by our gospel. 2 Th. 2. 13, 14.—Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ; and to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ: to the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God, according to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord. Eph. 3. 8-11.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God :

20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood.

Thou shalt have no other gods before me. Ex. 20. 3.—I have a few things against thee [Pergamos], because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication. I have a few things against thee [Thyatira], because thou sufferest that woman Jezabel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols. Re. 2. 14, 20.

The things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils. If any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not, for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake. 1 Co. 10. 20, 28.

Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, ... shall inherit the kingdom of God. 1 Co. 6. 9, 10.—Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body. What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Co. 6. 18, 20.

The works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, ... of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. Gal. 5. 19, 21.—Fornication, and all uncleanness, ... let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints. Eph. 5. 3. Mortify ... your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness. Col. 3. 5.—This is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication. 1 Th. 4. 3.

The time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, ... and abominable idolatries. 1 Pe. 4. 3.

It shall be a perpetual statute for your generations throughout all your dwellings, that ye eat neither fat nor blood. Le. 3. 17.—Ye shall not eat the blood; ye shall pour it upon the earth as water. Be sure that thou eat not the blood: for the blood is the life; and thou mayest not eat the life with the flesh. De. 12. 16, 23.—Ye shall not eat of anything that dieth of itself: thou shalt give it unto the stranger that is in thy gates, that he may eat it; or thou mayest sell it unto an alien: for thou art a holy people unto the Lord thy God. De. 14. 21.

Every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving: for it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer. 1 Ti. 4. 4, 5.

21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day.

As his custom was, [Jesus] went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up to read, Lu. 4. 16.

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren:

They appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. Ac. 1. 23.

23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia:

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:

Neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised: and that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage. Gal. 2. 3, 4.—I would they were even cut off which trouble you. Gal. 5. 12.—As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh. Gal. 6. 12, 13.—There be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. Gal. 1. 7, 8.

If ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace. Gal. 5. 2, 4.—Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross. Col. 2. 14.

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26 Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Jews ... raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts. Ac. 13. 50.—There came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead. Ac. 14. 19.—Why stand we in jeopardy every hour? I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. After the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus. 1 Co. 15. 30, 32.—Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft. Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one. Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep; in journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; in weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. 2 Co. 11. 23–27.—I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. Ac. 21. 13.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

When he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth. Jno. 16. 13.—By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name. Ro. 1. 5.—The priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the Lord of hosts. Mal. 2. 7.

29 That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

Ac. 15. 20.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

He that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort. 1 Co. 14. 3.—Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. Ac. 14. 22.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.

34 Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. Ac. 13. 5.—It came to pass in Iconium that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed. They ... fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about: and there they preached the gospel. And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia: and thence sailed to Antioch. Ac. 14. 1, 6, 7, 24-26.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark.

Marcus, sister's son to Barnabas, ... if he come unto you, receive him. Col. 4. 10.—Take Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry. 2 Ti. 4. 11.—Marcus, my fellowlabourer. Phile. 24.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

John departing from them returned to Jerusalem. Ac. 13. 13.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus;

They provoked his spirit, so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips. Ps. 106. 33.—We also are men of like passions with you. Ac. 14. 15.—There is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not. Ec. 7. 20.

Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips. Ps. 141. 3.

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches.

So were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily. Ac. 16. 5.

CHAPTER XVI.

THEN came he to Derbe and Lystra: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timotheus, the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greek:

Two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus. Ac. 19. 22.—Timotheus my workfellow. Ro. 16. 21.—My beloved son, and faithful in the Lord. 1 Co. 4. 17.—My own son in the faith. 1 Ti. 1. 2; 2 Ti. 1. 2.—Our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ. 1 Th. 3. 2.—I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also. 2 Ti. 1. 5.

2 Which was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.

3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and took and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

Unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law. 1 Co. 9. 20.—Neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised. Ga. 2. 3.—Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. Ga. 5. 2.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem.

It seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things; that ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication. Ac. 15. 28, 29; 14. 23.

5 And so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia,

And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples. Ac. 18. 23; 5. 4.

7 After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mysia came down to Troas.

I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord. 2 Co. 2. 12.

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

When [Jesus] saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd. Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest. Mat. 9. 36, 38.—How shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? and how shall they preach, except they be sent? Ro. 10. 14, 15.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis;

12 And from thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 ¶ And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures. Lu. 24. 45.—The preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the Lord. Pr. 16. 1.—Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law. Ps. 119. 18.—Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power. Ps. 110. 3.—I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. 1 Co. 3. 6.—Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phi. 2. 12, 13.—God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Co. 4. 6.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.

Mat. 28. 19.

God said unto Abraham, Thou shalt keep my covenant therefore, thou, and thy seed after thee in their generations. This is my covenant, which ye shall keep, between me and you and thy seed after thee; Every man child among you shall be circumcised. Ge. 17. 9, 10.—The promise is unto you, and to your children. Ac. 2. 39.

Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. He. 13. 2.

16 ¶ And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying:

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

These signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils. Mar. 16. 17.

19 ¶ And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the marketplace unto the rulers,

The love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. 1 Ti. 6. 10.—A certain man named Demetrius a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen; whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth. Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands: so that this our craft is in danger to be set at nought. Ac. 19. 24, 27.

Ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake. Mat. 10. 18.

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city,

When Ahab said unto Elijah, Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel? 1 Ki. 18. 17.—They drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also. Ac. 17. 6.

21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat them.

Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. Re. 2. 10.

23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely:

24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

25 ¶ And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

They departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name. Ac. 5. 41.—We glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience. Ro. 5. 3.—Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and long-suffering with joyfulness. Col. 1. 11.—Rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. 1 Pe. 4. 13.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

Call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me. Ps. 50. 15.—Pray for them which despite-fully use you, and persecute you. Mat. 5. 44.—If I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all. Phi. 2. 17.

Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice... The Lord is at hand. Be careful for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Phi. 4. 4-7.—Rejoice evermore. Pray without ceasing. In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. 1 Th. 5. 16-18.—Count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. Ja. 1. 2, 3.

When they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost. Ac. 4. 31. The angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth. Ac. 5. 19.—The angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands. Ac. 12. 7.

The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry. The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles. Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all. He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken. The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate. Ps. 34. 15, 17, 19, 20, 22.—The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth. He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them. The Lord preserveth all them that love him: but all the wicked will he destroy. Ps. 145. 18-20.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

When they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Ac. 2. 37.—[Saul] trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? Ac. 9. 6.

31 And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him. Jno. 3. 16, 36.—He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. Jno. 6. 47.—He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. 1 Jno. 5. 10; Ac. 4. 12.

Jesus said unto [Zacchæus], This day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham. Lu. 19. 9. Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter; who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved. Ac. 11. 13, 14.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul. Ps. 19. 7. I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. Ro. 1. 16.—Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever. 1 Pe. 1. 23.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Mat. 25. 40.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

We also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement. Ro. 5. 11.—In whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls. 1 Pe. 1. 8, 9.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

As they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned? When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman. Ac. 22. 25, 26.

Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves; be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. Mat. 10. 16.

38 And the sergeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

The whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts. Mat. 8. 34; Is. 60. 14; Re. 3. 9.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God. For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ. And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation. 2 Co. 1. 3-6.

Paul and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy, for your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now. Phi. 1. 1-5.

CHAPTER XVII.

NOW when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews :

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures.

Yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain : but even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention. For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile : but as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak ; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts. For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness ; God is witness. 1 Th. 2. 1-5.

3 Opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead ; and that this Jesus whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day. Lu. 24. 46 ; Mat. 11. 3.—If Christ be not raised, your faith is vain ; ye are yet in your sins. 1 Co. 15. 17.

4 And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas ; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

Some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not. Ac. 28. 24.—Our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance ; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake. And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost : so that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia. For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to Godward is spread abroad ; so that we need not to speak any thing. For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God. 1 Th. 1. 5-9.—When ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe. 1 Th. 2. 13.

5 ¶ But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

The unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren. Ac. 14. 2.
Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsmen. Ro. 16. 21.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also ;

Ac. 16. 19-21.

7 Whom Jason hath received : and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cæsar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus.

We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cæsar, saying that he himself is Christ a King. Lu. 23. 2.—The Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Cæsar's friend : whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Cæsar. Jno. 19. 12.—If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him : and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation. Jno. 11. 48.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶ And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea : who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ : for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth ; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. Ro. 1. 16.

11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily whether those things were so.

For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe. 1 Th. 2. 13.—Search the scriptures ; for in them ye think ye have eternal life : and they are they which testify of me. Jno. 5. 39.

12 Therefore many of them believed ; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins always : for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost. 1 Th. 2. 16.

14 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea : but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens : and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

Many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas. Ac. 13. 43.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say ? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods : because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

Declared to be the Son of God with power according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead. Ro. 1. 4.—If Christ be not raised, your faith is vain ; ye are yet in your sins. 1 Co. 15. 17.—Neither is there salvation in any other : for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. Ac. 4. 12.

19 And they took him and brought him unto Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is ?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears : we would know therefore what these things mean.

We preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumbling-block, and unto the Greeks foolishness. 1 Co. 1. 23.—Our Saviour Jesus Christ ... hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. 2 Ti. 1. 10.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear, some new thing.)

22 ¶ Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.

Be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you. 1 Pe. 3. 15.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands ;

O Father, Lord of heaven and earth. Mat. 11. 25.—The most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands ; as saith the prophet, Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool : what house will ye build me ? saith the Lord ; or what is the place of my rest ? Hath not my hand made all these things ? Ac. 7. 48, 50 ; Is. 66. 1, 2.

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things ;

I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before me. I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he goats out of thy folds. For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills. Ps. 50. 8, 10.

The Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life ; and man became a living soul. Ge. 2. 7.—In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind. Job 12. 10.

26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation ;

Shem, and Ham, and Japheth ... these are the three sons of Noah : and of them was the whole earth overspread. Ge. 9. 18, 19.—Have we not all one father ? hath not one God created us ? Mal. 2. 10.

Is there not an appointed time to man upon earth ? Job 7. 1. His days are determined, the number of his months are with thee, thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass. Job

14. 5.—Our God is in the heavens : he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased. Ps. 115. 3.—My times are in thy hand. Ps. 31. 15. When the Most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel. De. 32. 8.

27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us :

Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money ; come ye, buy, and eat ; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near. Is. 55. 1, 6.—Ye shall seek me and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart. Je. 29. 13.

He left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness. Ac. 14. 17.—The invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead ; so that they are without excuse. Ro. 1. 20.

28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being ; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

Upholding all things by the word of his power. He. 1. 3.—By him all things consist. Col. 1. 17.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

Is. 40. 18, 26.

30 And the times of this ignorance God winked at ; but now commandeth all men every where to repent :

In times past [God] suffered all nations to walk in their own ways. Ac. 14. 16.

Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand : repent ye, and believe the gospel. Mar. 1. 14, 15. That repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. Lu. 24. 47. The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world. Ti. 2. 11, 12.

The time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries. 1 Pe. 4. 3.

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained ; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

He cometh to judge the earth : he shall judge the world in righteousness, and the people with his truth. Ps. 96. 13.—He commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the judge of quick and dead. Ac. 10. 42.—In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel. Ro. 2. 16.

We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. 2 Co. 5. 10.—I charge thee therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom ; preach the word. 2 Ti. 4. 1, 2.—Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh ; and declared to be the Son of God with power ... by the resurrection from the dead. Ro. 1. 3, 4.—Whom

God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it. Ac. 2. 24.

32 ¶ And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

As he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee. Ac. 24. 25.

CHAPTER XVIII.

AFTER these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth;

2 And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and came unto them.

Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus: who have for my life laid down their own necks. Ro. 16. 3, 4.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he with them, and wrought; for by their occupation they were tentmakers.

Ye yourselves know that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me. Ac. 20. 34.—Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you. 2 Th. 3. 8.

Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us. For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat. For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies. Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread. 2 Th. 3. 9, 12.—In all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself. 2 Co. 11. 9.

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

They came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews: and Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures, opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ. Ac. 17. 1-3.

5 And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ.

Go not into the way of the Gentiles. ... But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Mat. 10. 5, 6.

6 And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

When the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming. Ac. 13. 45.—Whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet. Mat. 10. 14. They shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium. Ac. 13. 51.

Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children. Mat. 27. 25.

When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand. Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul. Eze. 3. 18, 19.—I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men. Ac. 20. 26.

Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. Ac. 13. 46.—Be it known ... unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it. Ac. 28. 28.

7 ¶ And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized.

Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. Ro. 10. 17.—The eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized? And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. Ac. 8. 36, 37.—He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Mar. 16. 16.

I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius. 1 Co. 1. 14.

9 Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

The Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome. Ac. 23. 11.—Praying ... that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in bonds: that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak. Eph. 6. 19, 20.—After that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention. 1 Th. 2. 2.—I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God. Ac. 20. 27.

10 For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.

No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord. Is. 54. 17.—They shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the Lord, to deliver thee. Je. 1. 19.—Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen. Mat. 28. 20.—The Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear; and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom. 2 Ti. 4. 17, 18.

If God be for us, who can be against us? Ro. 8. 31.

Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, ... unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia. 2 Co. 1. 1.

11 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 ¶ And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat,

The Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts. Ac. 13. 50. In Iconium, ... they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed. But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren. There came [to Lystra] certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul, drew him out the city, supposing he had been dead. Ac. 14. 1, 2, 19.—The Jews [at Thessalonica] which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar. When the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Beroa, they came thither also, and stirred up the people. Ac. 17. 5, 13.—When the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him. Ac. 21. 27.—The Jews ... both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men: forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost. 1 Th. 2. 14, 16.

Ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles. Mat. 10. 18.

13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:

15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

They brought none accusation of such things as I supposed: but had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. Ac. 25. 18, 19.

16 And he drave them from the judgment seat.

17 Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things.

Sosthenes our brother. 1 Co. 1. 1.

18 ¶ And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shorn his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow.

The Nazarite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put it in the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace offerings. Nu. 6. 18.—We have four men which have a vow on them; them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law. Ac. 21. 23, 24.—Unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law. 1 Co. 9. 20.

19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

They came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews: and Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures, opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead, and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ. Ac. 17. 1, 3.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not;

21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus.

He hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost. Ac. 20. 16.

I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will. 1 Co. 4. 19.—Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way unto you. 1 Th. 3. 11.—This will we do, if God permit. He. 6. 3.

Not my will, but thine, be done. Lu. 22. 42.—Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you. Ro. 1. 10.—Strive together with me in your prayers to God for me; that I may come unto you with joy by the will of God. Ro. 15. 30, 32.—I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you. I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly. Phi. 2. 19, 24.

Ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this or that. Ja. 4. 15.

22 And when he had landed at Caesarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.

They returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. Ac. 14. 21, 22.—We sent Timotheus ... to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith: that no man should be moved by these afflictions. When I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain. For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord. Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith. 1 Th. 3. 1, 3, 5, 8, 10.—He went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches. Ac. 15. 41.

24 ¶ And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

While one saith, I am of Paul; another I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal? Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. 1 Co. 3. 4, 7.—These things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written. 1 Co. 4. 6.

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom. Col. 3. 16.—Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. Tit. 1. 9.—Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. Jno. 5. 39.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John.

From a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. 2 Ti. 3. 15.

Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. 2 Ti. 4. 2.—Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord. Ro. 12. 11.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

Praying ... that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in bonds: that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak. Eph. 6. 18, 19, 20.

Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning. Pr. 9. 9.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace:

By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God. Eph. 2. 8.

28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was Christ.

Mat. 11. 3.

Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ. Ac. 9. 22.

CHAPTER XIX.

AND it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples,

Who ... is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. 1 Co. 3. 5, 6.

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost.

When the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John: who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost: (for as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.) Ac. 8. 14-16.

To one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; to another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; to another the working of miracles; to another prophesy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues. 1 Co. 12. 8-10.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John's baptism.

4 Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire. Mat. 3. 11.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

They were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. Ac. 2. 4. Desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy. He that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort. He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church. 1 Co. 14. 1, 3, 4.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God.

There came many to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets. Ac. 28. 23.

Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel. Mar. 1. 14, 15.

9 But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your heart. Ps. 95. 7, 8.—Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. He. 3. 12, 13.

The way of truth shall be evil spoken of. 2 Pe. 2. 2.—These speak evil of those things which they know not. Jude 10.—Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, and desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem. Ac. 9. 1, 2.—After the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers. Ac. 24. 14.—The way of God. Ac. 18. 26.—The way of salvation. Ac. 16. 17.

Concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against. Ac. 28. 22.—Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself. 1 Ti. 6. 5.

10 And this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

Remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears. Ac. 20. 31.—I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. Ro. 1. 16.

11 And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:

They went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Mar. 16. 20.—Long time ... abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands. Ac. 14. 3.

12 So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

Lay my staff upon the face of the child. 2 Ki. 4. 29.—They brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them. Ac. 5. 15.

13 ¶ Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

There came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, That God hath visited his people. Lu. 7. 16.—Fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles. Ac. 2. 43.

18 And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds.

He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whose confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy. Pr. 28. 13.—If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 Jo. 1. 9.

19 Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

My word ... shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. Is. 55. 11.

21 ¶ After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there. Ac. 20. 22.—I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem. Ac. 18. 21.—The Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome. Ac. 23. 11.—Having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you; whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you. ... But now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints. For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem. Ro. 15. 23–26.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

Erastus the chamberlain of the city. Ro. 16. 23.—Erastus abode at Corinth. 2 Ti. 4. 20.

23 And the same time there arose no small stir about that

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

A certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying: the same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation. And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour. And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the marketplace unto the rulers. Ac. 16. 16, 19.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

Gaius mine host, and of the whole church, saluteth you. Ro. 16. 23.—I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius. 1 Co. 1. 14.—There accompanied him into Asia ... of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe. Ac. 20. 4.—

Aristarchus my fellowprisoner. Col. 4. 10.—Aristarchus, ... my fellowlabourer. Philo. 24.

80 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

81 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

Hymeneus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme. 1 Ti. 1. 20.—Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil. 2 Ti. 4. 14.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

Every man is brutish in his knowledge: every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. They are vanity, and the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. Je. 10. 14, 15.

35 And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

We would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life: but we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead: who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us. 2 Co 1. 8, 10.

CHAPTER XX.

AND after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,

Ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, that ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory. 1 Th. 2. 11, 12.

3 And there abode three months. And when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

The Jews took counsel to kill him: but their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him. Ac. 9. 23, 24.—Certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. Ac. 23. 12.—The Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city [Antioch], and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts. Ac. 13. 50.—There was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them. There came ... Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead. Ac. 14. 5, 19.—The Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city [Thessalonica] on an uproar. When the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people. Ac. 17. 5, 13.—When Festus was come ... the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him, ... that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him. Ac. 25. 1, 3.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus; and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus.

Ac. 19. 29. Then came he to Derbe and Lystra: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timotheus, the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greek: which was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium. Ac. 16. 1, 2.

Tychicus ... a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellowservant in the Lord. Col. 4. 7.

Trophimus an Ephesian. Ac. 21. 29.

5 These going before tarried for us at Troas.

6 And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days.

Thou shalt keep the feast of unleavened bread: thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, ... in the time appointed of the month Abib; for in it thou camest out from Egypt. Ex. 23. 15.

7 And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season. 2 Ti.

4. 2.—The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, ... unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away. The same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you. Jno. 20. 1, 19, 26.—Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him. 1 Co. 16. 2.—I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day. He. 1. 10.

The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? 1 Co. 10. 16.—As often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. 1 Co. 11. 26.

8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

[Elijah] stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried unto the Lord, and said, O Lord my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul come into him again. 1 Ki. 17. 21.—[Elisha] stretched himself upon the child; and the flesh of the child waxed warm. 2 Ki. 4. 34.—The maid is not dead, but sleepeth. Mat. 9. 24.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and caten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not; but bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem. ... And he sailed from Ephesus. Ac. 18. 20, 21.—I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings. Ac. 24. 17.

17 ¶ And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

Ac. 14. 23.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

Ac. 18. 19.

Paul ... came to Ephesus. And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God. But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus. And this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks. Ac. 19. 1, 8–10.

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews:

2 Co. 1. 12. Ac. 20. 3.

God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit, in the gospel of his Son. Ro. 1. 9.—Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord. Ro. 12. 11.

I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am; and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 1 Co. 15. 9, 10.—Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them. But it shall not be so among you; but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister; and whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant: even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. Mat. 20. 25–28.—The elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder. ... Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. 1 Pe. 5. 1, 3, 5.

For a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations. 1 Pe. 1. 6.—Out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears. 2 Co. 2. 4.—Many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ. Phi. 3. 18.—Rivers of waters run down mine eyes, because they keep not thy law. Psa. 119. 186.—If ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride. Je. 13. 17.—He beheld the city, and wept over it. Lu. 19. 41.

Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one. Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep; in journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; in weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. 2 Co. 11. 24–27.

20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house, 21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent ye, and believe the gospel. Mar. 1. 14, 15.—Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Mar. 16. 15, 16.—And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. Lu. 24. 47.

Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins. Ac.

2. 38.—God ... now commandeth all men everywhere to repent. Ac. 17. 30.—Paul ... testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ. Ac. 18. 5.—Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house. Ac. 16. 31.

22 And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

Paul was pressed in the spirit. Ac. 18. 5.—Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem. Ac. 19. 21.—When he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done. Ac. 21. 14.

When the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem. Lu. 9. 51.—Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished. For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on: and they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again. Lu. 18. 31-33.

23 Save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me.

I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake. Ac. 9. 16.—[Agabus] took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles. Ac. 21. 4, 11.—No man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto. 1 Th. 3. 3.

24 But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. Ac. 21. 13.—Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. Ro. 8. 35, 37.—For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. 2 Co. 4. 16.—If I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all. Phi. 2. 17.—I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better: nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you. Phi. 1. 23, 24.—They overcame ... by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. Re. 12. 11.

Let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. He. 12. 1, 2.—I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. 2 Th. 4. 7.

Who ... hath made us able ministers of the new testament. 2 Co. 3. 6.—Hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; to wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. 2 Co. 5. 18, 19.—I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee; delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Ac. 26. 18, 18.—Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not. 2 Co. 4. 1.

Paul, an apostle, not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father. Ga. 1. 1.

Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. Lu. 2. 10, 11.—Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began, but is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel: whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles. For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed. 2 Th. 1. 9-12.

25 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

He went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God. Ac. 19. 8.—There came many to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus. Ac. 28. 23. The kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. Ro. 14. 17.—Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel. Mar. 1. 14, 15.—Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. Jno. 3. 5.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand. Eze. 3. 18.—When they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean. Ac. 18. 6.

27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.

[We] have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 2 Co. 4. 2.—If I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ. Ga. 1. 10.

28 ¶ Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.

Say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it. Col. 4. 17.—Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee. 1 Th. 4. 16.—I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway. 1 Co. 9. 27.—Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind. And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. 1 Pe. 5. 2, 4.

To one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; to another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; to another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues: but all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will. 1 Co. 12. 8-11.—God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues. 1 Co. 12. 28.—He ... called the elders of the church. Ac. 20. 17.

For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee. For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God. ... Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. Tit. 1. 5, 7, 9.—He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young. Is. 40. 11.—Feed my lambs. ... Feed my sheep. Jno. 21. 15, 16.—I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. Je. 3. 15.—He gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ. Eph. 4. 11, 12.

The church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. 1 Co. 1. 2.—They shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us. Mat. 1. 23.

In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace. Eph. 1. 7.—By his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. He. 9. 12.—Ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pe. 1. 18, 19.

They sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation. Re. 5. 9.

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

He that is a hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. Jno. 10. 12.—Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Mat. 7. 15.—There shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. 2 Pe. 2. 1.

Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the Lord. Je. 23. 1; Eze. 34. 1-10.

30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

All they which are in Asia be turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes. 2 Ti. 1. 15.—They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us. 1 Jno. 2. 19.—If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness; he is proud, knowing nothing, but dotting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself. 1 Ti. 6. 3-5.—Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck: of whom is Hymeneus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme. 1 Ti. 1. 19, 20.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

Watch thou in all things, ... do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. 2 Ti. 4. 5.—Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account. He. 13. 17.—While men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat. Mat. 13. 25.—When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand. Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul. Eze. 3. 18, 19.

This continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwell in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks. Ac. 19. 10.

Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus. Col. 1. 28.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee. 1 Ti. 4. 16.—Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth. Jno. 17. 17.—As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby. 1 Pe. 2. 2.—Built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto a holy temple in the Lord: in whom ye also are built together for the habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. 2. 20-22.—Unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy. Jude 24.—Kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation. 1 Pe. 1. 5.

That they may receive ... inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Ac. 26. 18.—The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints. Eph. 1. 18.—Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light. Col. 1. 12.—Of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ. Col. 3. 24.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. 1 Pe. 1. 3, 4.—There shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth. Re. 21. 27.—If children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ. Ro. 8. 17.

Behold, here I am: witness against me before the Lord, and before his anointed: whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any bribe to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you. 1 Sa. 12. 3.—In all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself. 2 Co. 11. 9.—If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things? If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ. 1 Co. 9. 11, 12.

Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. Lu. 12. 15.—Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind. 1 Pe. 5. 2.

34 Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

Because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers. Ac. 18. 3.—Ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God. 1 Th. 2. 9.—Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you. 2 Th. 3. 8.

85 I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

We ... that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Ro. 15. 1.

Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth. Eph. 4. 28.—Study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands. 1 Th. 4. 11.

When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee. But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind: and thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just. Lu. 14. 12–14.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

We kneeled down on the shore, and prayed. Ac. 21. 5.—I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Eph. 3. 14.

37 And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, 38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAPTER XXI.

AND it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara:

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there: save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. Ac. 20. 22, 23.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Cæsarea: and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him.

They chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch. Ac. 6. 5.—Philip ... preached unto him Jesus. Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Cæsarea. Ac. 8. 35, 40.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy.

This is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel; and it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy. Ac. 2. 16, 17; Joel 2. 28.

10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judæa a certain prophet, named Agabus.

In these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch. And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cæsar. Ac. 11. 27, 28.

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. Ro. 8. 35, 37.—None of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. Ac. 20. 24.—I die daily. 1 Co. 15. 31.—Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh. So then death worketh in us, but life in you. We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak; knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you. For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God. For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory. 2 Co. 4. 10–17.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Mat. 6. 10; Lu. 11. 2.—O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done. Mat. 26. 42; Lu. 22. 42.

15 And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cæsarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness. Pr. 16. 31.

17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto James; and all the elders were present.

Ac. 14. 23.

James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me. My sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God. Ac. 15. 13, 19.—Other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother. Ga. 1. 19.—James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars. Ga. 2. 9.

19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry.

The multitude ... gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them. Ac. 15. 12.—I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, through might, signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. Ro. 15. 18, 19; 2 Co. 12. 12.

The ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. Ac. 20. 24.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law:

Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. Ro. 10. 1, 2.

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

Stand fast ... in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage. Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace. For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. Ga. 5. 1-6.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;

24 They take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

This is the law of the Nazarite, when the days of his separation are fulfilled: he shall be brought unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: ... and the Nazarite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put it in the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace offerings. Nu. 6. 13, 18.—Having shorn his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow. Ac. 18. 18.

25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

My sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God: but that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood. Ac. 15. 19, 20.

If any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake. 1 Co. 10. 28.

Be sure that thou eat not the blood: for the blood is the life; and thou mayest not eat the life with the flesh. Thou shalt not eat it; thou shalt pour it upon the earth as water. Thou shalt not eat it; that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the Lord. De. 12. 23-25.—Fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints; neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks. For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. Eph. 5. 3-5.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of

Though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more. And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law; to them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law. To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some. And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you. 1 Co. 9. 19-23.—Neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised: and that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage: to whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you. Ga. 2. 3-5.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him, and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place:

We have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ring-leader of the sect of the Nazarenes: who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law. Ac. 24. 5, 6.—This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law: for we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us. Ac. 6. 13, 14.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

32 Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

The Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. Ac. 20. 23.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

Lu. 23. 18. Jno. 19. 15.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 Art not thou that Egyptian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought. Ac. 5. 36.

39 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

CHAPTER XXII.

MEN, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.

Be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear. 1 Pe. 3. 15.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)

3 I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I. 2 Co. 11. 22.—Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more: circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee: concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless. Phi. 3. 4-6. [I] profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers. Gal. 1. 14.

One in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people. Ac. 5. 34.

4 And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

As for Saul, he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison. Ac. 8. 3.—I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. Which thing I also did in Jerusalem; and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them. And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceeding mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities. Ac. 26. 9-11. I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry; who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. 1 Ti. 1. 12, 13. Ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it. Gal. 1. 13.—I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. 1 Co. 15. 9.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, and desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem. Ac. 9. 1, 2.

6 And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me. Mat. 25. 45.—Whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it. ... Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular. 1 Co. 12. 26, 27.—He that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye. Zec. 2. 8.—In all their affliction he was afflicted. Is. 63. 9.

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

The men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man. Ac. 9. 7.—1 Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves. Da. 10. 7.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

He trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? Ac. 9. 6.—When they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Ac. 2. 37.—Sirs, what must I do to be saved? Ac. 16. 30.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwelt there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

Ananias ... entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost. Ac. 9. 17.

14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and see that Just One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.

I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Ex. 3. 6.

He is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel. Ac. 9. 15.—I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee; delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Ac. 26. 16, 18.

Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? 1 Co. 9. 1.—Last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time. 1 Co. 15. 8.—Ye denied the Holy One and the Just. Ac. 3. 14.—Jesus Christ the righteous. 1 Jno. 2. 1.

For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you; this do in remembrance of me. 1 Co. 11. 23, 24.—I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ. Gal. 1. 12.

15 For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard.

The Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome. Ac. 23. 11

16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord.

Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. Ac. 2. 38.—The eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized? And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. Ac. 8. 36, 37.—The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 3. 21.—Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Ro. 10. 13.—Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. He. 10. 22.—The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanse us from all sin. 1 Jno. 1. 7.

[Abraham] received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also. Ro. 4. 11.—The Lord said unto [Ananias], ... Enquire ... for one called Saul, of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth. Ac. 9. 11.

17 And it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;

Whiles I was speaking in prayer, ... Gabriel ... touched me about the time of the evening oblation. ... And said, O Daniel, ... at the beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee. Da. 9. 21, 23.—Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour: and he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance. ... Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, and said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God. Ac. 10. 9, 10, 30, 31.

18 And saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

Whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet. Mat. 10. 14.

19 And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

They will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues: and ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles. Mat. 10. 17, 18.

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

They ... stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul. Ac. 7. 57, 58.—Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles. Ac. 8. 1.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

He is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel. Ac. 9. 15.—The Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them. ... Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldst be for salvation unto the ends of the earth. Ac. 13. 2, 46, 47:—

Ac. 18. 6.—Unto whom now I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Ac. 26. 17, 18.

The grace that is given to me of God, that I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God. Ro. 15. 15, 16.—The gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter; for he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles. Gal. 2. 7, 8.—I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power. Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ. Eph. 3. 7, 8.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live.

The multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him. Ac. 21. 36.—The Jews ... both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men: forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins away: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost. 1 Th. 2. 14, 16.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, 24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

Ac. 16. 37.

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAPTER XXIII.

▲ ND Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

Herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men. Ac. 24. 16.—Our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. 2 Co. 1. 12.—I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience. 2 Ti. 1. 3.—Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly. He. 13. 18.

Be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear: having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ. 1 Pe. 3. 15, 16.

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth.

Je. 20. 2.

One of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? Jno. 18. 22.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

They provoked [Moses'] spirit, so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips. Ps. 106. 33.

Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment. Le. 19. 35.—If there be a controversy between men, and they come unto judgment, that the judges may judge them; then they shall justify the righteous, and condemn the wicked. De. 25. 1.—Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity. Mat. 23. 27, 28.

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

Thou shalt not revile the gods, nor curse the ruler of thy people. Ex. 22. 28.—Curse not the king, no, not in thy thought. Ec. 10. 20.

Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation. For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: for he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. Ro. 13. 1-4.—Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work, to speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men. Tit. 3. 1, 2.—Them that ... despise government. Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities. 2 Pe. 2. 10.—Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme; or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well. For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: as free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God. Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king. 1 Pe. 2. 13-17.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

After the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. Ac. 26. 5.—And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust. Ac. 24. 15.—I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers. Ac. 26. 6.—For the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain. Ac. 28. 20.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.

Mat. 22. 23. Mar. 12. 18. Lu. 20. 27.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God.

Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought: but if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God. Ac. 5. 38, 39.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Mat. 28. 20.—They shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the Lord, to deliver thee. Je. 1. 19.—Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

for I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee. Ac. 18. 9, 10.—There stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve, saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cesar. Ac. 27. 23, 24.

Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house [at Rome], and received all that came in unto him, preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ. Ac. 28. 30, 31.

12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

The high priest and the chief of the Jews informed [Festus] against Paul, and besought him, and desired favour against him, that he would send him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him. Ac. 25. 2, 3.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him. The Lord will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged. Ps. 37. 32, 33.—There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the Lord. Pr. 21. 30.—Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us. Is. 8. 10.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cesar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee. Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved. Ac. 27. 24, 31.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Cæsarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting.

27 This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

Ac. 21. 33.

28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

Ac. 22. 30.

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

Ac. 25. 19; 26. 31.

30 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

33 Who, when they came to Cæsarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia;

I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia. Ac. 21. 39.

35 I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment hall.

CHAPTER XXIV.

AND after five days Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

The high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth. Ac. 23. 2.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldst hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes:

And the whole multitude of them arose, and led [Jesus] unto Pilate. And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cesar, saying that he himself is Christ a King. Lu. 23. 2.—They ... brought him to the council, and set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law: for we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us. Ac. 6. 12-14.—They caught Paul and Silas, ... and brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, and teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans. Ac. 16. 19-21.—They drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also; whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cesar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus. Ac. 17. 6, 7.

6 Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.

This is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place. Ac. 21. 28.

7 But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

Ac. 21. 33.

8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

Ac. 23. 30.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

Who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good? But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

but sanctify the Lord God in your hearts; and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear: having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evil doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ. For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing. 1 Pe. 3. 13, 17.

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification. Ac. 21. 26.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cesar, have I offended any thing at all. Ac. 25. 8.

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets:

15 And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

Mat. 22. 31, 32.

I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come: that Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles. Ac. 26. 23.—I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers: unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. Ac. 26. 6, 7.—Many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. Da. 12. 2.—The hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation. Jno. 5. 28, 29.

16 And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day. Ac. 23. 1.—Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck. 1 Th. 1. 19.—Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe. 1 Th. 2. 10.

17 Now after many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

The disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea: which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul. Ac. 11. 29, 30.—I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints. Ro. 15. 25.—Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints. 2 Co. 8. 4.—Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same which I also was forward to do. Ga. 2. 10.

18 Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

Ac. 21. 26.

19 Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council,

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

When Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. Ac. 23. 6.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself. Ac. 27. 3.—When we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him. Ac. 28. 16.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. Jno. 3. 16.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

The righteous Lord loveth righteousness; his countenance doth behold the upright. Ps. 11. 7.—When [the Spirit] is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment. Jno. 16. 8.—In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother. 1 Jno. 3. 10.

The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world. Tit. 2. 11, 12.—The time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none; and they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not; and they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away. 1 Co. 7. 29–31.—Every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection. 1 Co. 9. 25, 27.

We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences. 2 Co. 5. 10, 11.—When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats: and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal. Mat. 25. 31–33, 46.—I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire. Re. 20. 11, 12, 15.

The word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. He. 4. 12.—Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble. Ja. 2. 19.—He ... sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, and brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house. And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house. And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway. And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house. Ac. 16. 29, 31.

Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded; but ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof: I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh; when your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you. Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me. Pr. 1. 24.—Seek ye the Lord, while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near. Is. 55. 6.—Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able. Luk. 13. 24.—We then ... beseech you ... that ye receive not the grace of God in vain. (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.) 2 Co. 6. 1, 2.—Ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. Ja. 4. 14.

26 He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

Thou shalt take no gift: for the gift blindeth the wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous. Ex. 23. 8.

27 But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil; neither shalt thou speak in a cause to decline after many to wrest judgment. Ex. 23. 2.—Herod the king ... killed James the brother of John with the sword. And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. Ac. 12. 1–3.—Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified. Mar. 15. 15.

CHAPTER XXV.

NOW when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cæsarea to Jerusalem.

2 Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.

Certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. Ac. 23. 12.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cæsarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him. The Lord will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged. Ps. 37. 32, 33.—Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us. Is. 8. 10.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Cæsarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.

We have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes: who also hath gone about to profane the temple. Ac. 24. 5, 6.—Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. Mat. 5. 11, 12.

8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cæsar, have I offended any thing at all.

Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation. For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: for he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. Ro. 13. 1–5.

9 But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

Ac. 24. 27.

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cæsar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Cæsar.

The king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them: and when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds. Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Cæsar. Ac. 26. 30-32.—Yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans. Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me. But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Cæsar. Ac. 26. 17-19.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cæsar? unto Cæsar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Cæsarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

Ac. 24. 27.

15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

We preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness. 1 Co. 1. 23.

20 And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cæsar.

22 Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

He is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings. Ac. 9. 15.

23 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.

I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men. 1 Co. 4. 9.

Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live. Ac. 22. 22.

25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

Ac. 23. 9; 26. 31.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

CHAPTER XXVI.

THEN Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:

2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews;

5 Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.

I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day. Ac. 22. 3.—I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee. Ac. 23. 6.

6 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers :

Of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. Ac. 23. 6.—When thy days be fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom. 2 Sa. 7. 12.—Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. Is. 7. 14.—Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given : and the government shall be upon his shoulder : and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Is. 9. 6.

I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. Je. 23. 5.—Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel and to the house of Judah. In those days, and at that time, will I cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David ; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land. In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely : and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, The Lord our righteousness. Je. 33. 14-16.

We declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers, God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again ; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. Ac. 13. 32, 33.—Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers. Ro. 15. 8.

7 Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

There was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon ; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel. And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ. Lu. 2. 25, 26.—[Anna] was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day. And she gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem. Lu. 2. 37, 38.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead ?

Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept. Some man will say, How are the dead raised up ? and with what body do they come ? Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die : and that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain : but God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body. 1 Co. 15. 20, 35-38.

9 I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

The time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service. Jno. 16. 2.—Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious : but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. 1 Ti. 1. 13.

10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem : and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests ; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

Saul was consenting unto [Stephen's] death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem. As for Saul, he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison. Ac. 8. 1, 3.—Ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it. Gal. 1. 13.—Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem : and here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name. Ac. 9. 13, 14.

11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme ; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, 13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

Ac. 9. 3 ; 22. 6.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me ? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

Ac. 9. 4 ; 22. 7.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord ? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

Ac. 9. 5.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet : for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee ;

He trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do ? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do. Ac. 9. 6.

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee,

18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

The eyes of the blind shall be opened. Is. 35. 5.—I ... will give thee for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles ; to open the blind eyes. Is. 42. 6, 7.—To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins, through the tender mercy of our God ; whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us, to give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death. Lu. 1. 77-79.—I am the light of the world : he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. Jno. 8. 12.—God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Co. 4. 6.

If our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost : in whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. 2 Co. 4. 3, 4.—[I] cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers ; that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him : the eyes of your understanding being enlightened ; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints. Eph. 1. 16-18.

Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day :

we are not of the night, nor of darkness. 1 Th. 5. 5.—Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart. Eph. 4. 18.—Ye were sometime darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light. Eph. 5. 8.—Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son. Col. 1. 13.—Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light. 1 Pe. 2. 9.

For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. 1 Jno. 3. 8.—That they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will. 2 Ti. 2. 26.—We have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins. In whom also we have obtained an inheritance. Eph. 1. 7, 11.—Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light. Col. 1. 12.

An inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. 1 Pe. 1. 4.—Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord. He. 12. 14.—There shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life. Re. 21. 27.—Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Co. 1. 30.

19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

When it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace, to reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood. Gal. 1. 15, 16.

20 But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judæa, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

Straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God; .. and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ. He spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians. Ac. 9. 20, 22, 29.

These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Mat. 10. 5, 6.—Beginning at Jerusalem. Lu. 24. 47.—I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. Ro. 1. 16.—Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. Ac. 13. 46.

The times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent. Ac. 17. 30.—Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel. Mar. 1. 14, 15.—And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two. And they went out, and preached that men should repent. Mar. 6. 7, 12.

Take with you words, and turn to the Lord: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously. Ho. 14. 2.—Rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God. Joel. 2. 13.—Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Mat. 18. 3.—Bring forth .. fruits meet for repentance. [Answerable to amendment of life. Marg.] Mat. 3. 8.

21 For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

All the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut. And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. Ac. 21. 30, 31.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come:

Beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me. Lu. 24. 27, 44.—Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust. For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words? Jno. 5. 45–47.

Now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe. Ro. 3. 21, 22.—Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Mat. 28. 20.

23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken: ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory? Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. Lu. 24. 25, 26, 46, 47.

David speaketh concerning him: Thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption. Ac. 2. 25, 27, 31; Ps. 16. 10.—Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept. 1 Co. 15. 20.—He is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. Col. 1. 18.

Mine eyes have seen thy salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of all people; a light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel. Lu. 2. 30, 32.—The people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up. Mat. 4. 16.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

Many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him? Jno. 10. 20; Mar. 3. 21.—We preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness. 1 Co. 1. 23.—The natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 1 Co. 2. 14.—The preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness. 1 Co. 1. 18.—If our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: in whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. 2 Co. 4. 3, 4.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

Honour all men. 1 Pe. 2. 17. Ac. 23. 5.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persua^ded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.

Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and a holy, and observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly. Mar. 6. 20.—One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me. And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions. And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! Mar. 10. 21. 23.—He that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it; yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended. He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. Mat. 13. 20. 22.—Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Mat. 6. 24.—So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. Re. 3. 16. 20.—Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near. Is. 55. 6.

29 And Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ. Phi. 3. 8.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them:

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Cæsar.

I appeal unto Cæsar. Ac. 25. 11.

CHAPTER XXVII.

AND when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band.

When I found that he ... hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him. Ac. 25. 25.

2 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel. Ac. 19. 29.—Aristarchus, ... my fellow labourer. Phile. 24.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

[Felix] commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him. Ac. 24. 23.—When we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him. Ac. 28. 16.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmonc;

8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

On the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement; ... and ye shall afflict your souls. Le. 23. 27.

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south west and north west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Claudia, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve,

Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation? He. 1. 14.—The Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome. Ac. 23. 11.—The king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee. Da. 6. 16.—God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son. Ro. 1. 9.—I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience. 2 Ti. 1. 3.

Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. Is. 43. 1.—The foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. 2 Ti. 2. 19.—My beloved is mine, and I am his. Ca. 2. 16.—I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine. And all mine are thine, and thine are mine. Jno. 17. 9, 10.—Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light: which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God. 1 Pe. 2. 9, 10.—One shall say, I am the Lord's. Is. 44. 5.—I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people. He. 8. 10.

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints. O Lord, truly I am thy servant. Ps. 116. 15, 16.—Thou art my servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me. Is. 44. 21.—Our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. Da. 3. 17.

24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cæsar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee. Is. 43. 2.—Ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles. Mat. 10. 18.

I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken. And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt. Ge. 19. 21, 29.—The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. Ja. 5. 16.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

Blessed is she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord. Lu. 1. 45.—[Abraham] staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God: and being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. Ro. 4. 20, 21.—I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. 2 Ti. 1. 12.—God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good? Nu. 23. 19.

26 Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island.

When they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita. Ac. 28. 1.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship,

31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

Ac. 27. 22–25.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

The very hairs of your head are all numbered. Mat. 10. 30. Lu. 12. 7; 21. 18.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

The people will not eat until he come, because he doth bless the sacrifice; and afterwards they eat that he bidden. 1 Sa. 9. 13.—He took the seven loaves and the fishes, and gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude. Mat. 15. 36.

Meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth. For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving. 1 Ti. 4. 3, 4.

Whether ... ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. 1 Co. 10. 31.—Whosoever ... shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels. Mar. 8. 38.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

AND when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita.

2 And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.

They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them. Mar. 16. 18.—Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you. Lk. 10. 19.

6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.

He laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them. Mar. 6. 5.—They shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover. Mar. 16. 18.

Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: and the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up. Ja. 5. 14, 15.

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii forum, and The three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established; that is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me. Ro. 1. 11, 12.

In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. 1 Th. 5. 18.

David encouraged himself in the Lord his God. 1 Sa. 30. 6.—Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest. Jos. 1. 9.

16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

[Felix] commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him. Ac. 24. 23.—Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself. Ac. 27. 3.—The Lord was with Joseph, and shewed him mercy, and gave him favour in the sight of the keeper of the prison. Ge. 39. 21.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

Ac. 21. 33.

18 Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

When he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them: and when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds. Ac. 26. 30, 31.

19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Cæsar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

If I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Cæsar. Ac. 25. 11.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.

I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers: unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews. Ac. 26. 6, 7.—That I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in bonds. Eph. 6. 19, 20.

Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel: whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles. For the which cause I also suffer these things. 2 Ti. 1. 10, 12.

21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judæa concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against.

Simeon ... said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against. Lu. 2. 34.—We have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes. Ac. 24. 5.

Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. 1 Pe. 2. 12.—If ye be reprovèd for the name of Christ, happy are ye: for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified. 1 Pe. 4. 14.—Consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds. He. 12. 3.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

Beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. Lu. 24. 27.—They came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews: and Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures, opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ. Ac. 17. 1, 3.—He went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God. Ac. 19. 8.—Having ... obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come. Ac. 26. 22.

And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed. Da. 2. 44; Mat. 3. 2.

The Lord thy God will raise up unto thee a Prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; unto him ye shall hearken. De. 18. 15. Ps. 22. Is. 53.—Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. Je. 23. 5, 6.—I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. Eze. 34. 23.—Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy. Da. 9. 24.—Thou, Beth-lehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel: whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting. Mi. 5. 2.—I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the Lord of hosts. Hag. 2. 7.—Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; ... behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass. Zec. 9. 9.—Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in. Mal. 3. 1; Mat. 11. 3.

24 And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

The multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles. Ac. 14. 4.—When divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them. Ac. 19. 9.—Unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. He. 4. 2.—He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Mar. 16. 16.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers,

For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2 Pe. 1. 21; Mat. 10. 20.

26 Saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:

Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed. Is. 6. 9, 10.—Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding; which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not. Je. 5. 21.—Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not. Eze. 12. 2.

In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, etc. Mat. 13. 14; Mar. 4. 12.—Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand. Lu. 8. 10.—He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them. Jno. 12. 40.—According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear; unto this day. Ro. 11. 8.

27 For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

They willingly are ignorant. 2 Pe. 3. 5.—For this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: that they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. 2 Th. 2. 11, 12.

28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.

Mine eyes have seen thy salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of all people; a light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel. Lu. 2. 30-32.—The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. Mat. 21. 43.—Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldst be for salvation unto the ends of the earth. Ac. 13. 46, 47.—When they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles. Ac. 18. 6.—He said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles. Ac. 22. 21.—I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee; delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God. Ac. 26. 16-18.

Through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy. Ro. 11. 11.—It is a light thing that thou shouldst be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth. Is. 49. 6; Psa. 106. 4.—By the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole. This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. Ac. 4. 10-12.

29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

30 And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him,

Though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel. 1 Co. 9. 16.

31 Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

[Praying] for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel. Eph. 6. 19.

I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound. 2 Ti. 2. 9.—The things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel; so that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places; and many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear. Phi. 1. 12-14.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE

R O M A N S.

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God,

Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles. 2 Ti. 1. 11.—The Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Ac. 26. 17, 18. I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power. Eph. 3. 7.—The minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God. Ro. 15. 16.

The glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. 1 Ti. 1. 11.

2 (Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)

The scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. Ge. 3. 8.—The prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2 Pe. 1. 21.

The righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets. Ro. 3. 21.—Is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith. Ro. 16. 26.

3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh;

He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David. Luk. 1. 32.—The Word was made flesh. Jno. 1. 14.—God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law. Gal. 4. 4.

Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias. And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ. Mat. 1. 6, 16.

God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. 1 Ti. 3. 16.

4 And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:

This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Mat. 3. 17.—Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. Mat. 16. 16, 17.

He hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

Ac. 13. 33.—We have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God. 1 Jno. 4. 14, 15.

5 By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name:

By the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 1 Co. 15. 10.—Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ. Eph. 3. 8.

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ:

Whom he did predestinate, then he also called: and whom he called, then he also justified: and whom he justified, then he also glorified. Ro. 8. 30.—God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. 1 Co. 1. 9.—Walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory. 1 Th. 2. 12.—God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Th. 2. 13, 14.—Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. 2 Ti. 1. 9.—They that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful. Re. 17. 14.

7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The elect of God, holy and beloved. Col. 3. 12.—Holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling. He. 3. 1.—As he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation. 1 Pe. 1. 15.—God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. 1 Th. 4. 7.—Hath called us to glory and virtue. 2 Pe. 1. 3.

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. Jno. 14. 27.—Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Ro. 5. 1.

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace. Gal. 5. 22.—The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Phi. 4. 7.—The Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. 2 Th. 3. 16.

After this manner ... pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven. Mat. 6. 9.—Go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God. Jno. 20. 17.—For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. Ro. 8. 15.—[I] will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. 2 Co. 6. 18.—Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God. 1 Jno. 3. 1.

The God of all grace. 1 Pe. 5. 10.—Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus. Ro. 3. 24.—In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace. Eph. 1. 7. That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God. Eph. 2. 7, 8.

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 1. 4.—By him ... let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name. He. 13. 15.—Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Eph. 5. 20.

9 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;

Behold, my witness is in heaven, and my record is on high. Job. 16. 19.—I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost. Ro. 9. 1.—The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not. 2 Co. 11. 31.—Behold, before God, I lie not. Gal. 1. 20.

God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ. Phi. 1. 8.—God forbid that I should sin against the Lord in ceasing to pray for you. 1 Sa. 12. 23.—Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints. Eph. 6. 18.

10 Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you.

Having a great desire these many years to come unto you, That I may come unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed. Ro. 15. 23, 32.—Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith. 1 Th. 3. 10.

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. Phi. 4. 6.—Ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that. Ja. 4. 15.

11 For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

The manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; to another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; to another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues. 1 Co. 12. 7, 10.—When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. He gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: that we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine. Eph. 4. 8, 11, 14.—When Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied. Ac. 19. 6.

The Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil. 2 Th. 3. 3.—The God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. 1 Pe. 5. 10.

12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.

We were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith: for now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord. 1 Th. 3. 7, 8.—Them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ. 2 Pe. 1. 1.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

We would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us. 1 Th. 2. 18.—Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome. Ac. 19. 21.—From Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you. Ro. 15. 19, 22.

I desire fruit that may abound to your account. Phi. 4. 17.—Paul ... declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry. Ac. 21. 18, 19.—The seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord. 1 Co. 9. 2.—What manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God. 1 Th. 1. 9.

14 I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise.

Though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel! A dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me. 1 Co. 9. 16, 17.

I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee; delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Ac. 26. 15, 18.—The glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry; who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious. 1 Th. 1. 11, 13.—Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. 1 Co. 4. 1, 2.—The love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead: and that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. Now then are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. 2 Co. 5. 14, 15, 20.—As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. 1 Pe. 4. 10.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O Lord, thou knowest. I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation. Ps. 40. 9, 10.—I will speak of thy testimonies also before kings, and will not be ashamed. Ps. 119. 46.

Be not thou ... ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God. 2 Ti. 1. 8; Ps. 31. 17.—Whosoever ... shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels. Mar. 8. 38.

Thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins. Mat. 1. 21.—O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death? I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 7. 24, 25.—Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world. Gal. 1. 4.—That through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. He. 2. 14, 15.

The Lord shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion. Ps. 110. 2.—The preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. We preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness; but unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God. 1 Co. 1. 18, 23, 24.

I determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified. And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power: that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. 1 Co. 2. 2, 4, 5.

The weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds; casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ. 2 Co. 10. 4, 5.—Is not my word like as a fire? saith the Lord; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces? Je. 23. 29.

He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Mar. 16. 16.

Mine eyes have seen thy salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of all people; a light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel. Lu. 2. 30-32.—That repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. Lu. 24. 47.—Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities. Ac. 3. 26.

A man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law. Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also: seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. Ro. 3. 28-30.

17 For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

Now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference. Ro. 3. 21, 22.—That no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: For, The just shall live by faith. Gal. 3. 11; Hab. 2. 4.—Not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith. Phi. 3. 9.—Your faith groweth exceedingly. 2 Th. 1. 3.—The just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him. He. 10. 38.

He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life. Jno. 3. 36.

This is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. Je. 23. 6.—The righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. Ro. 10. 3, 4.—Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Co. 1. 30.—The righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ. 2 Pe. 1. 1.—The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works. Ps. 145. 17.—Be ye holy; for I am holy. 1 Pe. 1. 16.—He is faithful that promised. He. 10. 23.

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness;

That servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. Lu. 12. 47.—Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. Eph. 5. 6.

The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished. 2 Pe. 2. 9.

As many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. Gal. 3. 10.—That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. 2 Th. 2. 12.

19 Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them.

He left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness. Ac. 14. 17.

20 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:

The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge. There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard. Ps. 19. 1-3.

21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

They followed vanity, and became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the Lord had charged them, that they should not do like them. 2 Ki. 17. 15.—Walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart. Eph. 4. 17, 18.

This is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. Jno. 3. 19.

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness. And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain. 1 Co. 3. 18-20.—Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? ... The world by wisdom knew not God. 1 Co. 1. 20, 21.—The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the Lord; and what wisdom is in them? Je. 8. 9.

23 And changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

Ex. 20. 4, 5.

Let ye corrupt yourselves, and make you a graven image, the similitude of any figure, the likeness of male or female, the likeness of any beast that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged fowl that flieth in the air, the likeness of anything that creepeth on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth. De. 4. 16. 18.—They changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass. Ps. 106. 20. I went in and saw; and behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, pourtrayed upon the wall round about. Eze. 8. 10.—As we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device. Ac. 17. 29.

24 Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:

Le. 18. 22.

I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust. Ps. 81. 12.—Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. Eph. 4. 18. 19.—Every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour. 1 Th. 4. 4.

25 Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand? Is. 44. 20.—His molten image is falsehood. Je. 10. 14.

Ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God. 1 Th. 1. 9.—We are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. 1 Jno. 5. 20.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

For in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out before you. Le. 18. 24.—It is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret. Eph. 5. 12.—What they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves. Jude 10.

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

1 Co. 6. 9. 10.

Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. Jude 7.

28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient;

In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Th. 1. 8.

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, spiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:

32 Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

Ps. 10. 3. Ps. 31. 23.

In the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God. 2 Th. 3. 1-4.—The carnal mind is enmity against God. Ro. 8. 7.

The Lord thy God... repayeth them that hate him to their face, to destroy them: he will not be slack to him that hateth him, he will repay him to his face. De. 7. 10.—All they that hate me love death. Pr. 8. 36.—My people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge. Je. 4. 22.

CHAPTER II.

THEREFORE thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

Ro. 2. 26, 27; 3. 9-12.

David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, As the Lord liveth, the man that hath done this thing shall surely die. And Nathan said to David, Thou art the man. 2 Sa. 12. 5, 7.—Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. Mat. 7. 1, 2.—They which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one. Jno. 8. 9.

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things.

Mat. 10. 15. Ps. 62. 12.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

4 Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. Ec. 8. 11.—Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. Ro. 6. 1, 2.

He looketh upon men, and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not; he will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light. Lo, all these things worketh God oftentimes with man, to bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living. Job 33. 27-30.—He, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath. Ps. 78. 38.—I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the Lord, and the praises of the Lord, according to all that the Lord hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses. For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour. In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old. But they rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them. Is. 63. 7-10.

I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love. Ho. 11. 4.—The Lord God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth. Ex. 34. 6.—Therefore will the Lord wait, that he may be gracious unto you. Is. 30. 18.

The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. The long suffering of our Lord is salvation. 2 Pe. 3. 9, 15.

That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. 7.

5 But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

Pharaoh. Ex. 8. 15.

He, that being often reproved hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy. Pr. 29. 1.—When his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him. Da. 5. 20.—They refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear. Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the Lord of hosts hath sent in his spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the Lord of hosts. Zec. 7. 11, 12.—Exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. While it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation. He. 3. 13, 15.

Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days. Ja. 5. 3.—Is not this laid up in store with me, and sealed up among my treasures? To me belongeth vengeance, and recompence; their foot shall slide in due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste. De. 32. 34, 35.

Do ye not know their tokens, that the wicked is reserved to the day of destruction? they shall be brought forth to the day of wrath. Job. 21. 29, 30.—The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished. 2 Pe. 2. 9.—The great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand? Re. 6. 17.

It is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you; and to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Th. 1. 6-8.

6 Who will render to every man according to his deeds:

Unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for thou renderest to every man according to his work. Ps. 62. 12.—I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. Je. 17. 10.—Every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. 1 Co. 3. 8.

The Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works. Mat. 16. 27.—We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. 2 Co. 5. 10.—I will give unto every one of you according to your works. Re. 2. 23.—I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. Re. 20. 12.—Behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. Re. 22. 12.

7 To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life:

We faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding ~~and~~ eternal weight of glory; while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. 2 Co. 4. 16-18.—He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour. Jno. 12. 25, 26.—This corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. 1 Co. 15. 53, 54.

8 But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,

The wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness. Ro. 1. 18.

Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath. Ps. 90. 11; Re. 14. 10, 11.—Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him. Na. 1. 6.

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile;

Lu. 12. 47, 48.

The time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God? 1 Pe. 4. 17.—It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you. Mat. 11. 22.

10 But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile:

Faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Ja. 2. 17.—We through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. Gal. 5. 5, 6.—That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 7.

11 For there is no respect of persons with God.

The Lord your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and a terrible, which regardeth not persons, nor taketh reward. De. 10. 17.—The Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart. 1 Sa. 16. 7.—Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons. Ac. 10. 34.

That servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required. Lu. 12. 47, 48.

13 (For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

Mat. 7. 21, etc.

Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. Whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed. Ja. 1. 22, 25.

He that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. 1 Jno. 3. 7.—By the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. Ro. 3. 20.—That no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them. Gal. 3. 11, 12.

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Mat. 7. 21.

14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;)

16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel.

Ro. 2. 27; 1. 18, 19. Mat. 10. 15.

God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. Ec. 12. 14.—Nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad. Lu. 8. 17. Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God. 1 Co. 4. 5.

He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. Jno. 12. 48.

When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory, etc. Mat. 25. 31, etc.—The Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son. Jno. 5. 22.—He which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. Ac. 10. 42.—He hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. Ac. 17. 31.

I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. Re. 20. 12.

I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom. The Lord, the righteous judge. 2 Ti. 4. 1, 8.

The glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. 1 Ti. 1. 11.

17 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and retest in the law, and makest thy boast of God,

Think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. Mat. 3. 9.—The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet? Mat. 19. 20.—Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness. Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone. Ro. 9. 31, 32.

In the Lord shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory. Is. 45. 25.—They call themselves of the holy city, and stay themselves upon the God of Israel. Is. 48. 2.—We have one Father, even God. Jno. 8. 41.

18 And knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law;

What nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day? De. 4. 8.—He sheweth his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel. He hath not dealt so with any nation. Ps. 147. 19, 20.

19 And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,

Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? Some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also? Jno. 9. 34, 40.—They be blind leaders of the blind. Mat. 15. 14.

20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

That form of doctrine which was delivered you. Ro. 6. 17.—Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me. 2 Ti. 1. 13.

A form of godliness, but denying the power thereof. 2 Ti. 3. 5.

21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

Unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth? Ps. 50. 16.—Whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not. Mat. 23. 3.

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege?

Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings. Mal. 3. 8.

23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.

By this deed thou hast given great occasion to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme. 2 Sa. 12. 14.—I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, saith the Lord God, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes. Eze. 36. 23.

25 For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. Gal. 5. 3.

26 Therefore if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

Peter ... said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. Ac. 10. 34, 35.—Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised. Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. 1 Co. 7. 18, 19.

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here. The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here. Mat. 12. 41, 42.

28 For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

Think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. Mat. 3. 9.—If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham. Jno. 8. 39.—I will punish all them which are circumcised with the uncircumcised; Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are in the utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart. Je. 9. 25, 26.

They are not all Israel, which are of Israel: neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children. Ro. 9. 6, 7. In Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature. Gal. 6. 15.

Not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God, by the resurrection of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 3. 21.

I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan. Ro. 2. 9.

29 But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

We are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh. Phi. 3. 3.—In whom ... ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ. Col. 2. 11.—The letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. 2 Co. 3. 6.—The LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart. 1 Sa. 16. 7.—Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiffnecked. De. 10. 16.—The Lord thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the Lord thy God with all thine heart. De. 30. 6.

Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God. 1 Co. 4. 5.—For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth. 2 Co. 10. 18.—Not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts. 1 Th. 2. 4.

How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only? Jno. 5. 44.

CHAPTER III.

HAT advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God.

What nation is there so great, who hath God so nigh unto them, as the Lord our God is in all things that we call upon him for? And what nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day? De. 4. 7, 8.—He sheweth his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel. He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the Lord. Ps. 147. 19, 20.—As touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes. Ro. 11. 28. Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises. Ro. 9. 4.—Who received the lively oracles to give unto us. Ac. 7. 38.

3 For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?

Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report? Ro. 10. 16. The word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. He. 4. 2.—God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good? Nu. 23. 19.—If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. 2 Ti. 2. 13; Ps. 36. 5.

4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightiest overcome when thou art judged.

He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that God is true. Jno. 3. 33.—That thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest. Ps. 51. 4.

5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man)

God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: that as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 5. 8, 20, 21.

6 God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world?

Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right? Ge. 18. 25.—Doth God pervert judgment? or doth the Almighty pervert justice? Job 8. 3.—Wilt thou condemn him that is most just? Job 34. 17; Mat. 10. 15.

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? Shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid. Ro. 6. 1, 15.

9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin;

Ro. 1. 28-31; 2. 1.
The scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. Gal. 3. 22.

10 As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one :

There is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not. Ec. 7. 20.—There is none that doeth good. The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God. They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy : there is none that doeth good, no, not one. Ps. 14. 1-3.

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Ho. 4. 6.—My people is foolish, they have not known me ; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding : they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge. Je. 4. 22.—Therefore speak I to them in parables : because they seeing see not ; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand. And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand ; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive : for this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed ; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. Mat. 13. 13-15.—We know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true. 1 Jo. 5. 20.—The people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the Lord of hosts. Is. 9. 13.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable ; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

All we like sheep have gone astray ; we have turned every one to his own way. Is. 53. 6.

13 Their throat is an open sepulchre ; with their tongues they have used deceit ; the poison of asps is under their lips :

There is no faithfulness in their mouth ; their inward part is very wickedness ; their throat is an open sepulchre ; they flatter with their tongue. Ps. 5. 9.—Those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart ; and they defile the man. False witness, blasphemies. Mat. 15. 18, 19.

14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness :

15 Their feet are swift to shed blood :

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways :

Many sorrows shall be to the wicked. Ps. 32. 10.—The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God. Ps. 9. 17.—Thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction ; bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days. Ps. 55. 23.

17 And the way of peace have they not known :

There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked. Is. 57. 21 ; 59. 8.

18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.

Mat. 10. 28.

The fear of the Lord is to hate evil. Pr. 8. 13.—Let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear : for our God is a consuming fire. He. 12. 28, 29.

19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law : that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth. Ro. 2. 2.

20 Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight : for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

Enter not into judgment with thy servant : for in thy sight shall no man living be justified. Ps. 143. 2.—By him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Ac. 13. 39.

Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law : for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. Ga. 2. 16.—That no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident ; for, The just shall live by faith. Ga. 3. 11.

By grace are ye saved through faith ; and that not of yourselves : it is the gift of God : not of works, lest any man should boast. Eph. 2. 8, 9.—Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost. Tit. 3. 5.

21 But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets ;

We believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they. Ac. 15. 11.—Found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith. Phi. 3. 9.

None other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come. Ac. 26. 22.—Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures. Ro. 1. 2.—Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you. 1 Pe. 1. 10.

22 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe : for there is no difference :

Ro. 4. 1, etc.

There is no difference between the Jew and the Greek : for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. Ro. 10. 12.—There is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free : but Christ is all, and in all. Col. 3. 11.—In Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision ; but faith which worketh by love. Ga. 5. 6.

23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God ;

God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all. Ro. 11. 32.—The scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. Ga. 3. 22.—By whom ... we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Ro. 5. 2.

24 Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus :

By his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many ; for he shall bear their iniquities. Is. 53. 11.—It is of faith, that it might be by grace ; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed ; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham ; who is the father of us all. Ro. 4. 16.—By grace are ye saved through faith ; and that not of yourselves : it is the gift of God. Eph. 2. 8.—Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost ; being justified by his grace. Tit. 3. 5, 7.

The Son of man came ... to give his life a ransom for many. Mat. 20. 28.—In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace. Eph. 1. 7.—Who gave himself a ransom for all. 1 Ti. 2. 6.—Having obtained eternal redemption for us. He. 9. 12.

Ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold ; ... but with the precious blood of Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 18, 19.—Ye are bought with a price. 1 Co. 7. 23.

Washed, ... sanctified, ... justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Co. 6. 11.—Whom he justified, them he also glorified. Ro. 8. 30.

25 Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;

Jno. 3. 15, 36.

He shall kill the goat of the sin offering, that is for the people, and bring his blood within the vail, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat. Le. 16. 15.—He is the propitiation for our sins. 1 Jno. 2. 2.—Justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. Ro. 5. 9.—If we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 Jno. 1. 7.

Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. 1 Jno. 4. 10. The mercy seat. He. 9. 5.

Through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins: and by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Ac. 13. 38, 39.

26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. Is. 53. 5.—Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other. Ps. 85. 10.—The Lord is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make it honourable. Is. 42. 21.—A just God and a Saviour. Is. 45. 21.—It is God that justifieth. Ro. 8. 33.

27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.

In the Lord shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory. Is. 45. 25.—Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: ... he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. 1 Co. 1. 30, 31.—By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast. Eph. 2. 8, 9.

28 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

By him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Ac. 13. 39. For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: that the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. Ro. 8. 3, 4.—Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. Ga. 2. 16; Ro. 11. 6.

Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace. For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. Ga. 5. 4, 5.—He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. Jno. 5. 24.—[Abraham] staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; and being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness. Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him; but for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification. Ro. 4. 20, 25.—Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Ro. 5. 1.

29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

30 Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

There is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Ro. 10. 12, 13.—The scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. Ga. 3. 8, 28.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. Mat. 5. 17, 18.—I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them. He. 10. 16.—As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also. Ja. 2. 26.

CHAPTER IV.

WHAT shall we then say that Abraham, our father as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

Think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. Mat. 3. 9.—We are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh. Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more: circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee; concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless. Phi. 3. 3, 6.

2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

He brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be. And he believed in the Lord; and he counted it to him for righteousness. Ge. 15. 5, 6. The scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God. Ja. 2. 23.

4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

If it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work. Ro. 11. 6.

5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

When we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. Ro. 5. 6, 8, 10.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

7 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered. Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile. Ps. 32. 1, 2.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

This is my covenant, which ye shall keep, between me and you and thy seed after thee; Every man child among you shall be circumcised. Ge. 17. 10.—They which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. Ga. 3. 7; Ge. 15. 5, 6; Ro. 3. 22.—This day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham. Lu. 19. 9.

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

My covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many nations. And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession. Ge. 17. 4, 8.—If ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. Gal. 3. 29.—All things are your's; whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are your's; and ye are Christ's. 1 Co. 3. 21, 23.—His Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things. He. 1. 2.

14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

If the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise. Before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. Gal. 3. 18, 23, 24.

15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

By the law is the knowledge of sin. Ro. 3. 20.—The law entered, that the offence might abound. Ro. 5. 20.—The commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death. For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me. Ro. 7. 10, 11.—The strength of sin is the law. 1 Co. 15. 56.—The ministration of death. ... The ministration of condemnation. 2 Co. 3. 7, 9.

As many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions. Gal. 3. 10, 19.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,

As many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. Jno. 1. 12, 13.—Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus. Ro. 3. 24.—The scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. Gal. 3. 22.—They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed. Ro. 9. 8.

17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.

Thy name shall be Abraham; for a father of many nations have I made thee. Ge. 17. 5.

If the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you. Ro. 8. 11.

You hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins. Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved.) Eph. 2. 1, 5.

It shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God. Ro. 9. 26.—Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy. 1 Pe. 2. 10.

Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world. Ac. 15. 18; Ro. 8. 29.

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be.

He brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be. Ge. 15. 5.

19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb:

Abraham and Sarah were old and well stricken in age; and it ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women. Ge. 18. 11.—Through faith ... Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised. Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable. He. 11. 11, 12.

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;

21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform.

Our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased. Psa. 115. 3.—Is any thing too hard for the Lord?

Ge. 18. 14.—With God nothing shall be impossible. Blessed is she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord. Lu. 1. 37, 45.
Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead. He. 11. 19.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

Whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. Ro. 15. 4.—These things were our examples, ... and they are written for our admonition. 1 Co. 10. 6, 11.

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;

God raised him from the dead. Ac. 13. 30.

25 Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. Is. 53. 5, 6.—Christ died for the ungodly. Ro. 5. 6.

He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? Ro. 8. 32.—He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.—Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father. Gal. 1. 4.

Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. 1 Pe. 2. 24.—Christ ... hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God. 1 Pe. 3. 18.—Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. He. 9. 28.

Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God. 1 Pe. 1. 21.—If Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. 1 Co. 15. 17.

CHAPTER V.

THEREFORE being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:

Ro. 3. 20, 28.

The work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever. Is. 32. 17.—God ... hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ. 2 Co. 5. 18.—He is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us. Eph. 2. 14.—Having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself. Col. 1. 20.

2 By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

Ro. 8. 1.

I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved. Jno. 10. 9.—I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. Jno. 14. 6.—Through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Eph. 2. 18. In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him. Eph. 3. 12.—Boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus. He. 10. 19.—Accepted in the beloved. Eph. 1. 6.

Whom he justified, them he also glorified. Ro. 8. 30.—My heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope. For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore. Ps. 16. 9-11.—We might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us; which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast. He. 6. 18, 19.—If children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. Ro. 8. 17, 18.

Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation. Ro. 12. 12.—Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost. Ro. 15. 13.—Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: that the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory. 1 Pe. 1. 3-8.

We all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord. 2 Co. 3. 18.

3 And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

Ps. 34. 19. 1 Pe. 4. 16.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven. Mat. 5. 11, 12.—They departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name. Ac. 5. 41.

Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all. Phi. 2. 17.—Count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations. Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. Ja. 1. 2, 12.—If ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye. 1 Pe. 3. 14; Phi. 1. 29.—Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. Ja. 1. 3.—Patient continuance in well doing. Ro. 2. 7.

No chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby. He. 12. 11.—I waited patiently for the Lord; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry. He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings. And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God. Ps. 40. 1-3.

What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. Ro. 8. 31, 35-37.—Our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory. 2 Co. 4. 17.

4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

David said ... The Lord that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. 1 Sa. 17. 37.—The Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; ... and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom. 2 Th. 4. 17, 18.

As the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ. 2 Co. 1. 5.—It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness. The Lord is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him. The Lord is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him. La. 3. 22-25.—This is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us. 1 Jno. 5. 14; Ps. 39. 7.

That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 7.

5 And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

They shall not be ashamed that wait for me. Is. 49. 23.—I suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. 2 Th. 1. 12; Ps. 31. 17.

Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts. 2 Co. 1. 22.—Because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Gal. 4. 6.—The fruit of the Spirit is love. Gal. 5. 22.—Ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest of our inheritance. Eph. 1. 13, 14; 2 Th. 2. 16; He. 6. 18, 19.

As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. Ro. 8. 14, 17, 28.—We love him, because he first loved us. 1 Jno. 4. 19; Ps. 18. 1; 146. 8.

6 For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

When the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son. Gal. 4. 4.—Ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you, who by him do believe in God. 1 Pe. 1. 18-21.—The Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. Re. 13. 8.

You hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins; wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ. Eph. 2. 1-5.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

Jno. 3. 16.

Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Jno. 15. 13.—Christ... hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God. 1 Pe. 3. 18.—Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. 1 Jno. 3. 16.—In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. 1 Jno. 4. 9, 10.

9 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

Ro. 3. 20-28.

Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. Ro. 3. 25.—Now in Christ Jesus ye who sometime were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. Eph. 2. 13.—How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? He. 9. 14.—The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 Jno. 1. 7.—The wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men. Ro. 1. 18.—Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come. 1 Th. 1. 10.

10 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.

He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? Ro. 8. 32.—All things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; to wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them. 2 Co. 5. 18, 19.—That he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby. Eph. 2. 16. And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself;... and you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled. Col. 1. 20, 21.—He is able... to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. He. 7. 25.—When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Col. 3. 4; Mat. 24. 13.

11 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

Ps. 9. 2. Mat. 1. 21.

I will joy in the God of my salvation. Hab. 3. 18; 1 Pe. 1. 3-9. Behold, thou art called a Jew, and retest in the law, and makest thy boast of God. Ro. 2. 17.—Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also: seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. Ro. 3. 29, 30.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:

She took of the fruit thereof, and did eat; and gave also unto her husband with her, and he did eat. Ge. 3. 6.—In the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die. Ge. 2. 17.—The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 6. 23.—By man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. 1 Co. 15. 21.—I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me. Ps. 51. 5; 14. 1.

13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.

I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me. Ex. 20. 5.—The law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression. Ro. 4. 15. Sin is the transgression of the law. 1 Jno. 3. 4.

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.

All in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died. Ge. 7. 22.—He overthrew those cities, and all the inhabitants. Ge. 19. 25.—Every son that is born ye shall cast into the river. Ex. 1. 22.—The Lord smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt. Ex. 12. 29.

Should not I spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand? Jon. 4. 11.—The creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope. Ro. 8. 20. Since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. 1 Co. 15. 21, 22, 45.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.

In Adam all die. 1 Co. 15. 22.

He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. Is. 53. 11.—The Son of man came to give his life a ransom for many. Mat. 20. 28.—This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. Mat. 26. 28.

God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. Jno. 3. 16.—The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 6. 23.—God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) and hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: that in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. Eph. 2. 4-7.

I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb. And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Re. 7. 9, 13, 14.—A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation. Psa. 22. 30.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

Through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins: and by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Ac. 13. 38, 39.—Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Co. 6. 10, 11.—I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 1 Ti. 1. 13, 14.

17 For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)

Whom he justified, them he also glorified. Ro. 8. 30.—I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. Jno. 10. 10.

Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Mat. 25. 34.—Thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; and hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth. Re. 5. 9, 10.

18 Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.

If I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me. Jno. 12. 32.—That he by the grace of God should taste death for every man. He. 2. 9.—We trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. 1 Ti. 4. 10.

The spirit giveth life. 2 Co. 3. 6.—The life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Gal. 2. 20.—He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. 1 Jno. 5. 12.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

Being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Phi. 2. 8.—Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. Je. 23. 5, 6.—And by him all that believe, are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Ac. 13. 39; Ro. 3. 22; 5. 12, 15, 16.

20 Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:

By the law is the knowledge of sin. Ro. 3. 20.—The law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression. Ro. 4. 15.—Sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law sin was dead. Ro. 7. 8.—Her sins, which are many, are forgiven. Lu. 7. 47.—And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 1 Ti. 1. 14.

In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace; wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence. Eph. 1. 7, 8.—We ourselves also were sometime foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; that being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. Ti. 3. 3, 7.

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

The end of those things is death. Ro. 6. 21.

Grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. Jno. 1. 17.

CHAPTER VI.

WHAT shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

We be slanderously reported, and ... some affirm that we say, Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just. Ro. 3. 8.—What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid. Ro. 6. 15.

2 God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?

Ro. 6. 6, 11.

He died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. 2 Co. 5. 15.—Ye have been called unto liberty; only was not liberty for an occasion to the flesh. They that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. Ga. 5. 13, 24.—The world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. Ga. 6. 14.

Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin; that he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. 1 Pe. 4. 1, 2.—He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil. 1 Jno. 3. 8, 10.

3 Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death?

As many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. Ga. 3. 27.—Baptized unto Moses. 1 Co. 10. 2.—Ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. Col. 3. 3.

I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain. Ga. 2. 20, 21.—His own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness. 1 Pe. 2. 24.

4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead. Col. 2. 12.—The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 3. 21.

If the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you. Ro. 8. 11.—His glorious power. Col. 1. 11.—The working of his mighty power, which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead. Eph. 1. 19, 20.

Put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; and be renewed in the spirit of your mind; and ... put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Eph. 4. 22-24.—In Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature. Ga. 6. 15.

5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

Ro. 6. 11.

That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; if by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead. Phi. 3. 10, 11.

6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

I am crucified with Christ. Ga. 2. 20.—They that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. Ga. 5. 24. God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. Ga. 6. 14.

Put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts. Eph. 4. 22.—Mortify ... your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness. Ye have put off the old man with his deeds. Col. 3. 5, 9.—In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ. Col. 2. 11; Ro. 6. 22.

7 For he that is dead is freed from sin.

Ro. 6. 2, 11, 12. Justified (margin). Ro. 6. 18, 22.

There is ... now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. Ro. 8. 1.—He that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin. 1 Pe. 4. 1.

8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

If we be dead with him, we shall also live with him. 2 Ti. 2. 11. Because I live, ye shall live also. Jno. 14. 19.—I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Ga. 2. 20; Ro. 6. 5; Jno. 1. 4.

9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no dominion over him.

I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore. Re. 1. 18.

10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many. He. 9. 28. [God] hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church. Eph. 1. 22.—That every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Phi. 2. 11.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Ro. 6. 2, 6.

I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God. Ga. 2. 19.—Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. Phi. 1. 11.—Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 2. 5.

12 Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

Put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts. Eph. 4. 22.—I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul. 1 Pe. 2. 11.

Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. 1 Jno. 2. 15, 16.

The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world. Ti. 2. 11, 12.—We are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh. For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. Ro. 8. 12, 13.

They that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. Ga. 5. 24.—Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. Ga. 5. 16.

If ye will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you; then it shall come to pass, that those which ye let remain of them shall be pricks in your eyes, and thorns in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein ye dwell. Nu. 33. 55.

Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me. Ps. 19. 13.—Let not any iniquity have dominion over me. Ps. 119. 133.

I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection. 1 Co. 9. 27.

13 Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

Ro. 6. 19.

Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of a harlot? God forbid. 1 Co. 6. 15.—The tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth! And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell. Ja. 3. 5, 6.

Ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Co. 6. 20.—I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. Ro. 12. 1.—Bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ. 2 Co. 10. 5.

The love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead: and that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them and rose again. 2 Co. 5. 14, 15.—Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness. 1 Pe. 2. 24.—God, ... even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved.) Eph. 2. 5.

He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. Jno. 5. 24.—That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries. 1 Pe. 4. 2, 3.

14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

Ro. Ga. 5. 18.

... the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them, Ro. 10. 5.—That no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them. Ga. 3. 11, 12.—It is of faith, that it might be by grace. Ro. 4. 16.—The law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. Jno. 1. 17.

Thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins. Mat. 1. 21.—For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. 1 Jno. 3. 8, 9.—Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin. If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. Jno. 8. 34, 36.—I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah. And their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more. He. 8. 8, 12; Ro. 5. 20, 21; 7. 4-11.

15 What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

Ro. 6. 1, 2.

Being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ. 1 Co. 9. 21.

16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Mat. 6. 24.—Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin. Jno. 8. 34.—If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour. Jno. 12. 26.—This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord. Is. 54. 17; Ro. 6. 18, 21-23.

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you.

Ro. 1. 21-32.

The Lord looketh on the heart. 1 Sa. 16. 7.—Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; with good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men. Eph. 6. 5, 7.—Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me. 2 Ti. 1. 13.—Bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ. 2 Co. 10. 5.

18 Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

Ro. 6. 14, 20, 22.

It is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. Ro. 7. 17.

19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto. Ga. 3. 15.—I ... could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ. 1 Co. 3. 1.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness.

Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin. Jno. 8. 34.

21 What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you. Then shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord God, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel. Eze. 36. 26, 31, 32.—Remember, and be confounded, and never open thy mouth any more because of thy shame, when I am pacified toward thee for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord God. Eze. 16. 63.—Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth. Je. 31. 19; Ro. 6. 23.

22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

Ro. 6. 14, 18.

Whose I am, and whom I serve. Ac. 27. 23.—Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord. He. 12. 14.—His servants shall serve him. And they shall reign for ever and ever. Ro. 22. 3, 5; Ro. 6. 23.

23 For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die. Ge. 2. 17.—By one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. Ro. 5. 12.

If ye live after the flesh, ye shall die. Ro. 8. 13.—Sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Ja. 1. 15.—The fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death. Re. 21. 8.—They which commit such things are worthy of death. Ro. 1. 32.

If thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched: where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. Mar. 9. 43, 44.—These shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal. Mat. 25. 46; Ro. 7. 5.

This is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day. Jno. 6. 39, 40.—Thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him. And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent. Jno. 17. 2, 3.—God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. 1 Jno. 5. 11.—To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life. Ro. 2. 7.—An inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven. 1 Pe. 1. 4.

If by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ. That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 5. 17, 21.

CHAPTER VII.

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

Thou art called a Jew, and retest in the law, and makest thy boast of God, and knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law. Ro. 2. 17, 18.

2 For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord. 1 Co. 7. 39.

3 So then if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress; but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

Whosoever shall put away his wife, saying for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery. Mat. 5. 32.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God. I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not

I, but Christ liveth in me. Gal. 2. 19, 20.—As many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them; Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree. Gal. 3. 10-13. Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. 1 Pe. 2. 24.—Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances. Eph. 2. 15.—Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross. Col. 2. 14.

Christ ... loved the church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Eph. 5. 25-27.—The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. Ro. 8. 2.

If ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law. Gal. 5. 18. Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. Phi. 1. 11.—The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance. Gal. 5. 22, 23.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death.

We all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. Eph. 2. 3. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Jno. 3. 6.—They that are in the flesh cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Ro. 8. 9.—Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. The works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. Gal. 5. 16, 19, 21.—When lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin; and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Ja. 1. 15; Ro. 6. 21.

They that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. Gal. 5. 24.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

Ro. 7. 4.

He is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God. Ro. 2. 29.—We are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh. Phi. 3. 3.

Ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. 2 Co. 3. 6. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah. In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. He. 8. 13.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet.

By the law is the knowledge of sin. Ro. 3. 20.—Thou shalt not covet. Ex. 20. 17.

8 But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law sin was dead.

Where no law is, there is no transgression. Ro. 4. 15.—The carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. Ro. 8. 7.—The strength of sin is the law. 1 Co. 15. 56.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

He spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess. And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. Lu. 18. 9-13.

Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee; concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless. Phi. 3. 5, 6.

Ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition. Mat. 15. 6.—I have seen an end of all perfection: but thy commandment is exceeding broad. Ps. 119. 96.—Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery: but I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you. Mat. 5. 27, 28, 43, 44.

If I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment. Jno. 16. 7, 8; Ro. 2. 17-29; 3. 9, 20; 7. 10, 13.

10 And the commandment which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

Ye shall therefore keep my statutes, and my judgments: which if a man do, he shall live in them. Le. 18. 5; Eze. 20. 11, 13, 21.—A certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou? And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself. And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live. Lu. 10. 25-28.

As many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them. Gal. 3. 10, 12.

If there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law. But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. Gal. 3. 21, 22.—Cursed be he that confirmeth not all the words of this law to do them. De. 27. 26.—The law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression. Ro. 4. 15.—The letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. The ministration of death. The ministration of condemnation. 2 Co. 3. 6, 7, 9.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

Ro. 7. 7, 8, 13.

The serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? Ge. 3. 1.—The serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty. 2 Co. 11. 3; Ro. 7. 9, 10.

12 Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

Ro. 7. 7, 14.

What nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day? De. 4. 8.—Keep the commandments of the Lord, and his statutes, which I command thee this day for thy good. De. 10. 13. The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.... The judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb. Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward. Ps. 19. 8, 11.—We know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully. 1 Ti. 1. 8.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

Ro. 7. 10, 11.

Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man: but every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Ja. 1. 13-15; Ro. 7. 7.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin.

Mat. 5. 27, 28, 43, 44.

Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts. Ps. 51. 6. Less than the least of all saints. Eph. 3. 8; Ro. 7. 22, 24. I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes. Job 42. 6.—My soul cleaveth unto the dust. Ps. 119. 25.—Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips... for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts. Is. 6. 5.—O that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes! Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all thy commandments. Ps. 119. 5, 6.

15 For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

The flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. Gal. 5. 17.—I hate every false way. I hate vain thoughts: but thy law do I love. Ps. 119. 104, 113.—The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes. He deviseth mischief upon his bed; he setteth himself in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil. Ps. 36. 1, 4.—Iniquities prevail against me. Ps. 65. 3.—In many things we offend all. Ja. 3. 2.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

Ro. 7. 12, 14.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

Ro. 7. 18, 23.

18 For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

Ro. 8. 7, 8.

God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. Ge. 6. 5.—The imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth. Ge. 8. 21.—What is man, that he should be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous? Job 15. 14.—Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me. Ps. 51. 5.—Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin? Pr. 20. 9.—We are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags. Is. 64. 6.—The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? Je. 17. 9.—That which is born of the flesh is flesh. Jno. 3. 6.—By one man's disobedience many were made sinners. Ro. 5. 19.—We ... were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. Eph. 2. 3.

O that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes! Ps. 119. 5; Ro. 7. 14, 22, 23.

19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

Ro. 7. 15.

22 For I delight in the law of God after the inward man:

My foot hath held his steps, his way have I kept, and not declined. Neither have I gone back from the commandment of his lips; I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than

The hidden man of the heart. 1 Pe. 3. 4; 2 Co. 4. 16; Eph. 3. 16.

23 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

The flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. Ga. 5. 17; Ro. 6. 14, 15.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?

Ro. 7. 14.

25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 15. 57.—Thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins. Mat. 1. 21; Ro. 7. 14, 15.

CHAPTER VIII.

THERE is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

Ro. 8. 33, 34.

He that believeth on him is not condemned. Jno. 3. 18.—He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. Jno. 5. 24.—I am the vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. Jno. 15. 5, 6.—Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Co. 1. 30.—Found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ. Phi. 3. 9.—We know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness. And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true; and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. 1 Jno. 5. 19, 20.

If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. 2 Co. 5. 17.—In Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. Ga. 5. 6.—Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Tit. 2. 14.

As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also. Ja. 2. 26.—Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. Ga. 5. 16, 25.

2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

Ro. 8. 10, 11.

Ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. If the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away: how shall not the ministration of the Spirit be rather glorious? For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory. 2 Co. 3. 6-9.—The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound. Is. 61. 1.

The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace. Jno. 1. 14, 16.—He whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him. Jno. 3. 34.

He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.) Jno. 7. 38, 39.—I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Jno. 11. 25, 26.—Because I live, ye shall live also. At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. Jno. 14. 19, 20.—If I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. Jno. 16. 7.—God hath given to us eternal life, this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. 1 Jno. 5. 11, 12.—The last Adam was made a quickening spirit. 1 Co. 15. 45.

The Spirit of life from God entered into them. Re. 11. 11.—It is the Spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life. Jno. 6. 63.—Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever. 1 Pe. 1. 23.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ: according as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love. Eph. 1. 3, 4.

I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God. Ga. 2. 19.—Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage. Ga. 5. 1.

The truth shall make you free. Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin. If the Son ... shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. Jno. 8. 32, 34, 36.—Being ... made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness. Now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life. The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 6. 18, 22, 23.

The law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: that as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 5. 20, 21.—When we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death. The commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death. For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me. Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good. Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful. Ro. 7. 5, 10, 13.

The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 15. 56, 57; Ro. 7. 23, 25.

3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

Ro. 7. 10, 15.

By the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. Ro. 3. 20.—There is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof. For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God. He. 7. 18, 19.

The law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect. For then would they not have ceased to be offered? He. 10. 1, 2.—If there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law. Gal. 3. 21.

In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. 1 Jno. 4. 9, 10.—God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. Gal. 4. 4, 5.—The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. Jno. 1. 14.—The Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God. Jno. 5. 18.

Being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Phi. 2. 6, 8.—By him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Ac. 13. 39.

We have not a high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. He. 4. 15.—With him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left. And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors. Mar. 15. 27, 28.—He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.

Such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens. He. 7. 26.—Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. 1 Pe. 2. 24.—Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us. Gal. 3. 13.—We are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. By one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. He. 10. 10, 14.

Our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. For he that is dead is freed from sin. Ro. 6. 6, 7.—Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin; that he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. 1 Pe. 4. 1, 2.

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

Christ ... loved the church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Eph. 5. 25, 27.—Ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Co. 6. 11.

They being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them. But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, ... That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. Ro. 10. 3, 6, 9.

He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.

We are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh. Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more: circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee; concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless. But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Phi. 3. 3, 7.—Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. Mat. 5. 17.

5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Jno. 3. 6.—As is the earthly, such are they also that are earthly: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. 1 Co. 15. 48.—The natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 1 Co. 2. 14.

Many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things. Phi. 3. 18, 19. The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith. If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. Gal. 5. 22, 25.—Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. Col. 3. 2.

6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

Ro. 8. 13.

He that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. Gal. 6. 8.—What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. Ro. 6. 21.—When we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death. Ro. 7. 5.

Every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Ja. 1. 14, 15.—Put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof. Ro. 13. 14.—You hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins. Eph. 2. 1.

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace. Ga. 5. 22. justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Ro. 5. 1.—There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked. Is. 57. 21.—Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God. Ro. 6. 11-13.

7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

Know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God. Ja. 4. 4.—Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. 1 Jno. 2. 15, 16. Haters of God. Ro. 1. 30.—You, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled. Col. 1. 21.

A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Mat. 7. 18.—Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit. How can ye, being evil, speak good things? Mat. 12. 33, 34.—The Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him. Jno. 14. 17.—Our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. Ro. 6. 6; 8. 5; 1 Co. 2. 14.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

Ro. 7. 18.

Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. Jno. 3. 5, 7.—Before his translation [Enoch] had this testimony, that he pleased God. But without faith it is impossible to please him. He. 11. 5, 6.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? 1 Co. 3. 16.—Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you? 1 Co. 6. 19.—In whom ye also are builded together for a habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. 2. 22.—Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. 1 Jno. 4. 13.—He that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us. 1 Jno. 3. 24.

How much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him? Lu. 11. 13.—The Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name. Jno. 14. 26.—In whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest of our inheritance. Eph. 1. 13, 14.

He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. Jno. 6. 56.—God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him. Jno. 3. 34.—If I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. Jno. 16. 7.—I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. Jno. 14. 16, 17.

Because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Ga. 4. 6.—Ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God. 2 Co. 3. 3.—I and my Father are one. Jno. 10. 30.

No man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost. 1 Co. 12. 3.—And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. Ga. 5. 24.—Sensual, having not the Spirit. Jude 19.—Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Mat. 7. 22, 23.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

Ro. 8. 1, 9.

I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. Jno. 14. 20.—Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates? 2 Co. 13. 5.—I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, ... that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith. Eph. 3. 14, 16, 17.—Christ in you, the hope of glory. Col. 1. 27.—Conformed to the image of his Son. Ro. 8. 29.

By one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. Ro. 5. 12.—The soul that sinneth, it shall die. Eze. 18. 20.

As by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous. Where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: that as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 5. 19-21.—Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Ga. 2. 20.—He that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit. 1 Co. 6. 17.—I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Jno. 11. 25, 26.—Ye are come ... to the spirits of just men made perfect. He. 12. 22, 23.—Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. Ac. 7. 59.

Jno. 1. 4.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

Ro. 8. 9, 13.

Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father. If we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection. Ro. 6. 4, 5.—God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power. 1 Co. 6. 14.—He which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus. 2 Co. 4. 14.—When we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ. Eph. 2. 5.

Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself. Phi. 3. 21.—If we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. The dead in Christ shall rise first. 1 Th. 4. 14, 16.—Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept. 1 Co. 15. 20.—Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit. 1 Pe. 3. 18.—The Spirit of life from God entered into them. Ec. 11. 11.

We that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life. Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit. 2 Co. 5. 4, 5.—This corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. 1 Co. 15. 53.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

Ro. 8. 13.

Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Co. 6. 19, 20.—What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? O Lord, truly I am thy servant; ... thou hast loosed my bonds. Ps. 116. 12, 16.

13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

Ro. 8. 1, 2, 6, 26.

I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul. 1 Pe. 2. 11.—The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world. Tit. 2. 11, 12.—Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: for which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience: in the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them. But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds; and have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him. Col. 3. 5, 10.—I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway. 1 Co. 9. 27.

Ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit. 1 Pe. 1. 22.—God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth. 2 Th. 2. 13.—Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. Jno. 3. 5.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

Ro. 8. 1, 16.

I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them. And ye shall be my people, and I will be your God. Eze. 36. 27, 28.—No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him. Jno. 6. 44.—He hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love: having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself. Eph. 1. 4, 5.—Now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him: for we shall see him as he is. And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure. 1 Jno. 3. 2, 3.—If ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law. Ga. 5. 18.

15 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba,

The people saw the thunders, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw it, they removed, and stood afar off. And they said unto Moses, Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die. Ex. 20. 18, 19.—Ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest, and the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more: (for they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart: and so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake.) but ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, to the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven. He. 12. 18, 23.—These are the two covenants: the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar. Ga. 4. 24.—As many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. Ga. 3. 10.

We, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world: but when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Ga. 4. 3, 6.—As the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. He. 2. 14, 15.

He which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed: and no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love. 1 Jno. 4. 18.—I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son: ... and he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. Lu. 15. 18, 20.—Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him. Ps. 103. 13.—Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us ... come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need. He. 4. 14, 16.—We have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him. Eph. 3. 12.—When ye pray, say, Our Father. Lu. 11. 2. Praying in the Holy Ghost. Jude 20; Ro. 8. 26, 27.

There is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. Ro. 10. 12.—All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; and shall glorify thy name. Ps. 86. 9.

16 The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

In whom ... after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest of our inheritance. Eph. 1. 13, 14.—The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance. Ga. 5. 22, 23.—The love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. Ro. 5. 5.—Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. 1 Jno. 4. 13.—He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself. 1 Jno. 5. 10.—If our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God. 1 Jno. 3. 21.

17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

Ro. 8. 3, 29, 30.

If a son, then an heir of God through Christ. Ga. 4. 7; 3. 29. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ: ... having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself. In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated. Eph. 1. 3, 5, 11.—Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. 1 Pe. 1. 3, 4.—Heirs of salvation. He. 1. 14.—And heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him. Ja. 2. 5; Mat. 25. 34.—All things are your's; whether ... the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are your's; and ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's. 1 Co. 3. 21, 23.

Our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body. Phi. 3. 20, 21.—His Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things. He. 1. 2.—All things that the Father hath are mine. Jno. 16. 15.

Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory. The glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one. Jno. 17. 24, 22.—To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne. Re. 3. 21.—He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son. Re. 21. 7.

Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds. Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin. And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speareth unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him: for whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons. Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live? For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. Without which no man shall see the Lord. He. 12. 2, 10, 14.—Rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. 1 Pe. 4. 13; 5. 1, 4; Re. 1. 9.

It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him: if we suffer, we shall also reign with him. 2 Ti. 2. 11, 12.—We must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. Ac. 14. 22.

Ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: that the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 6, 7.—In nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation. Unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake. Phi. 1. 28, 29.

We see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man. For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. He. 2. 9, 10; Lu. 24. 26.—Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations. And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me; that ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel. Lu. 22. 28, 30.

He that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour. Jno. 12. 25, 26.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for their's is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted were the prophets which were before you. Mat. 5. 10, 12.—Our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. 2 Co. 4. 17, 18.

Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit. 1 Co. 2. 9, 10.—Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore. Ps. 16. 11.—We know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him: for we shall see him as he is. 1 Jno. 3. 2.—The city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. Re. 21. 23.

I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. 2 Ti. 2. 10.—The glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Th. 2. 14.—He was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. 2 Co. 12. 4.

By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward. He. 11. 24, 26.

19 For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

We, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness. 2 Pe. 3. 13; Is. 65. 17.

I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. Re. 21. 1, 5.

Ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree. Is. 55. 12, 13.—When the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord. And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you: whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began. Ac. 3. 19, 21.

They shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him. Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not. Mal. 3. 17, 18; Ro. 8. 22.—Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Mat. 13. 43.

Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. Beloved, now are we the sons of God; and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. 1 Jno. 3. 1, 2; Mat. 25. 31, 46.

20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope,

Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed. Ps. 102. 25, 26.

God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. Ge. 1. 31.

Cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life; thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee. Ge. 3. 17, 18.—The earth ... is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant. Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate. Is. 24. 5, 6.—How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, and the birds. Je. 12. 4.—The heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. 2 Pe. 3. 7; Ro. 8. 21.

21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

Ro. 8. 19, 20.

There shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away. Re. 21. 4.—And there shall be no more curse. Re. 22. 3.—I delight in the law of God after the inward man: but I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death? I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 7. 22-25; 8. 17, 18.

Behold I and the children which God hath given me. Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. He. 2. 13-15.

22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

Every creature. Mar. 16. 15, Gr.

The Lord hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land. By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood. Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away. Ho. 4. 1-3.—How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate. Joel 1. 18.—They have made it desolate, and being desolate it mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate. Je. 12. 11; Ro. 8. 20.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

Ro. 8. 15, 16.

After that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest of our inheritance. Eph. 1. 13, 14.—Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit. 2 Co. 5. 5.—Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God; who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts. 2 Co. 1. 21, 22.

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace. Gal. 5. 22.—The love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. Ro. 5. 5.—Whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Eph. 4. 30.—He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ. Phi. 1. 6.

Mine iniquities are gone over mine head: as a heavy burden they are too heavy for me. Lord, all my desire is before thee: and my groaning is not hid from thee. Ps. 38. 4, 9; Ro. 8. 21.—Now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations. 1 Pe. 1. 6.—We that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life. Earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven. 2 Co. 5. 4, 2.—I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better. Phi. 1. 23.

I have waited for thy salvation, O Lord. Ge. 49. 18; Ro. 8. 19.—Our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body. Phi. 3. 20, 21.—Behold I and the children which God hath given me. He. 2. 13.—Your redemption draweth nigh. Lu. 21. 28.—I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death. Ho. 13. 14.—Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection. Lu. 20. 36.

24 For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

He that beareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. Jno. 5. 24.

Who against hope believed in hope. Ro. 4. 18.—God, even our Father, ... hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace. 2 Th. 2. 16.—The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ. Tit. 2. 11-13. By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. Ro. 5. 2, 5.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation. 1 Pe. 1. 3, 5.—We through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. Gal. 5. 5.—Putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation. 1 Th. 5. 8.—Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the veil. He. 6. 19.—The hope which is laid up for you in heaven. Which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Col. 1. 5, 27.—We walk by faith, not by sight. 2 Co. 5. 7.

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. He. 11. 1.

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord. La. 3. 26.—Ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance. Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompense of reward. For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. He. 10. 34-36.—The Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ. 2 Th. 3. 5.

Let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. He. 12. 1, 2.

We desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end: that ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises. He. 6. 11, 12.—To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life. Ro. 2. 7.

He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the Lord hath spoken it. And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the Lord; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation. Is. 25. 8, 9.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. 2 Co. 12. 9.—When they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak. For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you. Mat. 10. 19, 20.

Ye know not what ye ask. Mat. 20. 22.—I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications. Zec. 12. 10.—Through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Eph. 2. 18; Ro. 8. 15.—Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit. Eph. 6. 18.

As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God? My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God? When I remember these things, I pour out my soul in me. Ps. 42. 1. 4.—I am so troubled that I cannot speak. Ps. 77. 4.—Hannah ... spake in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard. 1 Sa. 1. 13.

27 And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

The Lord searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts. 1 Ch. 28. 9.—I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins. Je. 17. 10.—I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts. Re. 2. 23.

Lord, all my desire is before thee; and my groaning is not hid from thee. Ps. 38. 9.—Whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. Jno. 14. 13.—The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord: but the prayer of the upright is his delight. Pr. 15. 8. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. Ja. 1. 6.—And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us. 1 Jno. 5. 14; Ro. 8. 34.

28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

All things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God. For which cause we faint not; but through our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory. 2 Co. 4. 15. 17.—All things are your's; whether ... the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are your's. 1 Co. 3. 21, 22.

We glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; and patience, experience; and experience, hope; and hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. Ro. 5. 3. 5.—No chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby. He. 12. 11.—It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes. Ps. 119. 71.

Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. Ja. 1. 12.—We love him, because he first loved us. 1 Jno. 4. 19.—Godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! 2 Co. 7. 10, 11.—Ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good. Ge. 50. 20.

Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. 2 Ti. 1. 9.—That the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth. Ro. 9. 11.—God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace. Ga. 1. 15.—God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Th. 2. 13, 14.—The vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory, even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles. Ro. 9. 23, 24.—The called of Jesus Christ: ... beloved of God, called to be saints. Ro. 1. 6, 7.—God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. 1 Th. 4. 7.—Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light. 1 Pe. 2. 9.—The God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. 1 Pe. 5. 10; 1 Th. 2. 12; 2 Pe. 1. 3; Ro. 8. 30.

Ye have been called unto liberty. Ga. 5. 13.—Let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body. Col. 3. 15.—Lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called. 1 Ti. 6. 12.—Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. Re. 3. 20.—Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. Re. 19. 9.—For this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance. He. 9. 15.—God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 1. 9, 8.—For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance. Ro. 11. 29.

29 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.

Ro. 8. 17, 28.

Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 2.—Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations. Je. 1. 5.—Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name. And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written, After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, ... that the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things. Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world. Ac. 15. 14, 18.—God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Ro. 11. 2.—All that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. Re. 13. 8.

He hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love: having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of the glory of his grace, ... in whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will: that we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. Eph. 1. 4. 6, 11, 12.—For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. Eph. 2. 10.

His divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue: whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. 2 Pe. 1. 3, 4.—We are buried with him by baptism into death; that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection: knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. For he that is dead is freed from sin. Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. Ro. 6. 4. 8.—We all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord. 2 Co. 3. 18.

That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death. Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body. Phi. 3. 10, 21.—Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. 1 Jno. 3. 2.

Whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother. Mat. 12. 50.—Go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God.

Jno. 20. 17.—Both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee. And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I and the children which God hath given me. Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same. He. 2. 11-14.

Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: ... all things were created by him, and for him. And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. Col. 1. 15, 16, 18.

Jesus Christ, ... the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. ... Him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, and hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father. Re. 1. 5, 6.—I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands. Re. 7. 9.

Ro. 8. 28.

God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Co. 1. 9, 30.—Ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Co. 6. 11.—God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace. Gal. 1. 15.—I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, and be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith. Phi. 3. 8, 9; Ro. 7. 20-25.

The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever. Ps. 138. 8; Ro. 8. 17, 29.—Walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory. 1 Th. 2. 12.—The glory which thou gavest me I have given them. Jno. 17. 22.

When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Col. 3. 4.—Our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself. Phi. 3. 20, 21.—In thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore. Ps. 16. 11.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

Fear not, Abram: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward. Ge. 15. 1.—The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? Ps. 27. 1.—The Lord is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me? Ps. 118. 6.—The Lord is with us: fear them not. Nu. 14. 9.—There be more with us than with him; with him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the Lord our God to help us, and to fight our battles. 2 Ch. 32. 7, 8.

Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world. 1 Jno. 4. 4.

32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. Jno. 3. 16.—This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Mat. 3. 17.—Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification. Ro. 4. 25.

Delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God. Ac. 2. 23.—He died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. 2 Co. 5. 15.—We trust in the living

God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. 1 Ti. 4. 10; Mat. 20. 28.

When we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. Ro. 5. 6, 10.

The gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 6. 23.—All things are your's; whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are your's; and ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's. 1 Co. 3. 21-23.—He that overcometh shall inherit all things. Re. 21. 7; Ro. 8. 17.

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth.

He is near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? let us stand together: who is mine adversary? let him come near to me. Behold, the Lord God will help me; who is he that shall condemn me? Is. 50. 8, 9.—No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord. Is. 54. 17.—He shewed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the Lord, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him. And the Lord said unto Satan, The Lord rebuke thee, O Satan; even the Lord that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire? Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel. And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment. Zec. 3. 1-4.—The accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb. Re. 12. 10, 11.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ: according as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love. Eph. 1. 3, 4.—God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth. 2 Th. 2. 13.—Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 2.

Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, Ro. 3. 24.—I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins. Is. 43. 25.

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

Ro. 8. 1.

We shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. Ro. 14. 10.—Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us. Gal. 3. 13.—He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.

Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification. Ro. 4. 25.—Declared to be the Son of God with power, ... by the resurrection from the dead. Ro. 1. 4.—If Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. 1 Co. 15. 17.—If, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. Ro. 5. 10.—Because I live, ye shall live also. Jno. 14. 19.

This man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God; from henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool. For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. He. 10. 12-14. Having ... boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; and having a high priest over the house of God; let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. He. 10. 19. 22.—I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. Ac. 7. 56.—The answer of a good conscience toward God, by the resurrection of Jesus Christ: who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him. 1 Pe. 3. 21, 22.

We have such a high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens. He. 8. 1.—When he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high. He. 1. 3.

He bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors. Is. 53. 12.—Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. He. 9. 24.—Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. He. 7. 25.

If any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 1 Jo. 2. 1.—I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren. Lu. 22. 32.—Now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are. I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil. Sanctify them through thy truth. Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; that they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory. Jno. 17. 11, 15, 17, 20, 21, 24.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Ro. 8. 39.

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: and I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. Jno. 10. 27, 28.—If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Jno. 15. 10, 13.—Having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end. Jno. 13. 1.—That ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge. Eph. 3. 17–19.—Why persecutest thou me? Ac. 9. 4.

In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world. Jno. 16. 33.—We glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; and patience, experience; and experience, hope: and hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. Ro. 5. 3, 5.

These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes. Re. 7. 14–17; Ro. 8. 17, 18, 28.

36 As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

Ps. 44. 22.

He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter. Is. 53. 7.—Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. Mat. 5.

11, 12.—And why stand we in jeopardy every hour? I die daily. 1 Co. 15. 30, 31.—We which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake. 2 Co. 4. 11.—That I may know him, ... and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death. Phi. 3. 10.

37 Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

Our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory. 2 Co. 4. 17. He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son. Re. 21. 7.—When this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 15. 54, 57.—Whatever is born of God overcometh the world, and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? 1 Jno. 5. 4, 5.—I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and ... and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; and cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. Re. 7. 9, 10, 14–17.

They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony. Re. 12. 11.—Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body. Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing. Eph. 5. 23, 25, 27.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Ro. 8. 35.

I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. 2 Ti. 1. 12.—We are confident, فاننا, rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. 2 Co. 5. 8.—For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. Ro. 14. 8.

That through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. He. 2. 14, 15.—The devil and his angels. Mat. 25. 41.—Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. 2 Co. 11. 14.

Others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection. He. 11. 35.—They overcame... by the blood of the Lamb, ... and they loved not their lives unto the death. Re. 12. 11.—The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations. 2 Pe. 2. 9.

We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Eph. 6. 12.—Having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it. Col. 2. 15.—Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him. 1 Pe. 3. 22.—Rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Ro. 13. 3.—I go bound in the Spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there: save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy. Ac. 20. 22, 24.—For this cause have I raised thee up, for to shew in thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth. As yet exaltest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go? Ex. 9. 16, 17.

The depths of Satan. Re. 2. 24.—There shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; inasmuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. Mat. 24. 24.

The Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom. 2 Ti. 4. 18.—Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him? Ja. 2. 5.

He... seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. Lu. 16. 23.—I have loved thee with an everlasting love. Je. 31. 3. God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved,) and hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: that in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. Eph. 2. 4-7.—In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. 1 Jno. 4. 9.—Your life is hid with Christ in God. Col. 3. 3.

CHAPTER IX.

I SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost,

We speak before God in Christ. 2 Co. 12. 19.—The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ... knoweth that I lie not. 2 Co. 11. 31; Ga. 1. 20.—God is my witness. Ro. 1. 9; Phi. 1. 8; 2 Co. 1. 23.

I charge thee... before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom. 2 Ti. 4. 1.—Why hath Satan lied thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost? ... thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God. Ac. 5. 3, 4.

2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

My heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. Ro. 10. 1.—Rivers of waters run down mine eyes, because they keep not thy law. Psa. 119. 136.—Oh that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people! Je. 9. 1.

Go... through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof. Eze. 9. 4.—He beheld the city, and wept over it. Lu. 19. 41.

3 For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

If thou wilt forgive their sin—; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written. Ex. 32. 32.—I suffer trouble, as an evil doer even unto bonds. ... I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. 2 Ti. 2. 9, 10.

Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake. Lu. 6. 22. Deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. 1 Co. 5. 5.—Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree. Gal. 3. 13.—My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? Mat. 27. 34.

I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience. 2 Ti. 1. 3.—I speak after the manner of men. Gal. 3. 15.

4 Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises;

Thou art a holy people unto the Lord thy God: the Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth. De. 7. 6.—By his strength he had power with God: yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept and made supplication unto him: he found him in Beth-el, and there he spake with us; even the Lord God of hosts; the Lord is his memorial. Ho. 12. 3, 5.

Thus saith the Lord, Israel is my son, even my firstborn. Ex. 4. 22.—I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn. Je. 31. 9.—Ye are the children of the Lord your God. De. 14. 1.

The Lord said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the holy place within the veil before the mercy seat, which is upon the ark; that he die not: for I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat. Le. 16. 2.—The priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud: for the glory of the Lord had filled the house of the Lord. 1 Ki. 8. 11.—To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary. Psa. 63. 2.—[God] delivered his strength into captivity, and his glory into the enemy's hand. Psa. 78. 61.—She named the child I-chu-bod, saying, The glory is departed from Israel: because the ark of God was taken. 1 Sam. 4. 21.

The Lord appeared to Abram, and said unto him, ... I will make my covenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly. Ge. 17. 1, 2.—The Lord appeared unto [Isaac] ... and said, I am the God of Abraham thy father: fear not, for I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham's sake. Ge. 26. 24.

I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed; and thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, ... and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. Ge. 28. 13, 14.—Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. Ac. 3. 25.—The children of Israel shall keep the sabbath, to observe the sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant. It is a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever. Ex. 31. 16, 17.—After the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with thee and with Israel. And he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten commandments. Ex. 34. 27, 28.—Enter into covenant with the Lord thy God, and into his oath, which the Lord thy God maketh with thee this day: that he may establish thee to day for a people unto himself, and that he may be unto thee a God, as he hath said unto thee, and as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. De. 29. 12, 13.

Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah: not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant. ... For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people. He. 8. 8-10; Je. 31. 33.

The first covenant had also ordinances of divine service. He. 9. 1.—Let no man... judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. Col. 2. 16, 17.—The covenants of promise. Eph. 2. 12. The promise which was made unto the fathers, God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David. Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. Ac. 13. 32-35; Mat. 11. 3.

5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

The Lord had a delight in thy fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day. De. 10. 15.—As touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes. Ro. 11. 28.—Jesus... the son of Joseph, which was the son of Heli. Lu. 3. 23, etc.—In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. Jno. 1. 1.—Feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Ac. 20. 28.—God was manifest in the flesh.

1 Ti. 3. 16.—Unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever. He. 1. 8.—Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. 1 Jno. 5. 20; Mat. 1. 23.

6 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel :

God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good? Nu. 23. 19.—What if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect? Ro. 3. 3.—Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. At this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. Ro. 11. 1, 2, 5.—Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people, and hath raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began. Lu. 1. 68-70.

He is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: but he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God. Ro. 2. 28, 29.—It is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all. Ro. 4. 16.—Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile! Jno. 1. 47; Ps. 73. 1.—As many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God. Gal. 6. 16.

7 Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.

As for Ishmael, I have heard thee; ... and I will make him a great nation. But my covenant will I establish with Isaac. Ge. 17. 20, 21.—In Isaac shall thy seed be called. Ge. 21. 12.

8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

Ro. 9. 7.
He who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise. Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. Gal. 4. 23, 28.—These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them. He. 11. 13.—Ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. Gal. 3. 26, 28, 29.

9 For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.

At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son. Ge. 18. 14.

10 And not only this; but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac; Ge. 25. 21.

11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth;)

By nature the children of wrath, even as others. Eph. 2. 3.—Even so ... at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work. What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded. Ro. 11. 5, 7.—He hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world. In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will. Eph. 1. 4, 11.—Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us. Ti. 3. 5.

12 It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger.

Ge. 25. 23.

13 As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith the Lord: yet I loved Jacob, and I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste. Mal. 1. 2, 3.

14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.

He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he. De. 32. 4.—The Lord is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him. Ps. 92. 15.

15 For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

I ... will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy. Ex. 33. 19.

16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

His mother said unto him, ... Go fetch me them. And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother. Ge. 27. 13, 14; Ro. 9. 12.—Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phi. 2. 12, 13.

17 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

Ex. 9. 16.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.

Ro. 9. 11.

As they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient. Ro. 1. 28.—They received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: that they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. 2 Th. 2. 10-12.

God left him, to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart. 2 Ch. 32. 31.

Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man: but every man is tempted when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Ja. 1. 13, 14.—When Pharaoh saw that there was respite, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the Lord had said. Ex. 8. 15.—They and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments. Ne. 9. 16.—They hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck. Je. 7. 26.

Harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness: when your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work. Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways: unto whom I sware in my wrath that they should not enter into my rest. Ps. 95. 8-11.

Despise thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God. Ro. 2. 4, 5.—If our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: in whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. 2 Co. 4. 3, 4.

Exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. He. 3. 13.—Ye will not come to me, that ye might have life. Jno. 5. 40.—Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel? For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye. Eze. 18. 31, 32.—This is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. 1 Ti. 2. 3, 4.—For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Th. 5. 9.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will?

If our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man) God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world? For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner? And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just. Ro. 3. 5-8; Ja. 1. 13.

O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mine indignation. I will send him against a hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets. Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few. Is. 10. 5-7.

The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! Mar. 14. 21.—Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain. Ac. 2. 23.

20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that repleiest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

Who will say unto him, What doest thou? If God will not withdraw his anger, the proud helpers do stoop under him. How much less shall I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him? Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I would make supplication to my judge. Job 9. 12-15.—God is greater than man. Why dost thou strive against him? for he giveth not account of any of his matters. Job 33. 12, 13.—There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves. For he will not lay upon man more than right; that he should enter into judgment with God. Job 34. 22, 23.—Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherd of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands? Is. 45. 9.

21 Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

O Lord, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand. Is. 64. 8.—O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the Lord. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel. Je. 18. 6.

You hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins; wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) and hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: that in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. Eph. 2. 1-7, 10.

22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction:

Ro. 2. 4, 5.

In very deed for this cause have I raised thee up, for to shew in thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth. Ex. 9. 16.—The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 2 Pe. 3. 9.—The longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing. 1 Pe. 3. 20.—The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished. ... As natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed. ... Whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not. 2 Pe. 2. 9, 12, 3.—The iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full. Ge. 15. 16.—Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost. 1 Th. 2. 16.—If the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men. Mat. 5. 13.

God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Th. 5. 9; 1 Pe. 2. 8; Jude 4.

23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory.

Eph. 2. 1-10.

The riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering. Ro. 2. 4.—The riches of his grace. Eph. 1. 7.—The riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Col. 1. 27.—Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness; giving thanks unto the Father, which hath us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light. Col. 1. 11, 12.

In a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour. If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work. 2 Ti. 2. 20, 21.

For we ourselves also were sometime foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; that being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. Ti. 3. 3, 7.

Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. ... Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. 1 Pe. 1. 2, 4.—God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Th. 2. 13, 14.—Ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Co. 6. 20; Ro. 8. 29, 30.

24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?

Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yea, of the Gentiles also: seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. Ro. 3. 29, 30.—For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. Ro. 10. 12.

Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers: and that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name. And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people. And again, Praise the Lord all ye Gentiles; and laud him all ye people. And again, Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust. Ro. 15. 8, 12.

Lo, we turn to the Gentiles. For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldst be for salvation unto the ends of the earth. Ac. 13. 46, 47.—Remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands; that at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world: but now in Christ Jesus ye who sometime were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. Eph. 2. 11, 13.—God... did visit the Gentiles to take out of them a people for his name. Ac. 15. 14.—That the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel. Eph. 3. 6.

25 As he saith also in Osee, I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.

And I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God. Ho. 2. 23. Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy. 1 Pe. 2. 10.

26 And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God.

The number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God. Ho. 1. 10.

27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:

Though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return: the consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness. For the Lord God of hosts shall make a consumption, even determined, in the midst of all the land. Is. 10. 22, 23.—Ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you. Eze. 5. 7.—Pray for us unto the Lord thy God, even for all this remnant; (for we are left but a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us.) Je. 42. 2; Ro. 9. 29; 11. 5.

28 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

This iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant. And he shall break it as the breaking of the potters' vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit. One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on a hill. Is. 80. 13, 14, 17.

After threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined. And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate. Da. 9. 26, 27.—Then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. Mat. 24. 21, 22; Is. 28. 22.—The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works. Ps. 145. 17.

29 And as Esaias said before, Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrah.

Except the Lord of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah. Is. 1. 9.—Suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. Jude 7.—It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. La. 3. 22.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith.

Esaias is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me. Ro. 10. 20.—Walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness to work all uncleanness with greediness. Eph. 4. 17, 19; Ro. 1. 18, 32.—Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, ... nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Co. 6. 9, 11; Ro. 9. 24.

I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith. Ro. 1. 16, 17.—I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, and be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith. Phi. 3. 8, 9.—Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference. Ro. 3. 22.

31 But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

Ro. 10. 2, 9.

Thou seest ... how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law. Ac. 21. 20.—Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother. And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth. Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come, take up the cross, and follow me. And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions. Mar. 10. 19, 22.

What nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day? De. 4. 8.—The law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect. He. 10. 1.—The law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. Gal. 3. 24.

By the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. Ro. 3. 20.—For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them. Gal. 3. 10, 12. For whosoever shall keep the whole law and yet offend in one is guilty of all. Ja. 2. 10.—Except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven. Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery: but I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. Mat. 5. 20, 27, 28.

Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace. Gal. 5. 4.

Behold, thou art called a Jew, and retest in the law, and makest thy boast of God, and knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law; and art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness, an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law. Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege? Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God? For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written. For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision. Ro. 2. 17-25.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone;

What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. Jno. 6. 28, 29.—Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed: not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all. Ro. 4. 16.

This child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel. Lu. 2. 34.—We preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness. 1 Co. 1. 23.

33 As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

He shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel. Is. 8. 14.—Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation, a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner-stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste. Is. 28. 16.—The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner. Psa. 118. 22.

When the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance. And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him. Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? Mat. 21. 38, 39, 42.

It is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded. Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner, and a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient. 1 Pe. 2. 6, 8.—I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. 2 Ti. 1. 12.

CHAPTER X.

BRETHREN, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

Ro. 9. 1, 3.

I exhort ... that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. 1 Ti. 2. 1, 3, 4.—Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you. Mat. 5. 44.—God forbid that I should sin against the Lord in ceasing to pray for you. 1 Sa. 12. 23.—He beheld the city, and wept over it, saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, O Jerusalem, what these things would do unto thee, thou hadst not been so long desolate.

know not what they do. Lu. 23. 34.

2 For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

Thou seest ... how many thousands of Jews there are which believe: and they are all zealous of the law. Ac. 21. 20.—I ... am a Jew ... taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers; and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day. Ac. 22. 3.—And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers. Gal. 1. 14.—Therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day. Jno. 5. 16; Ro. 9. 31.

3 For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

Ro. 9. 30.

He spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess. And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. I tell you this man went down to his house justified rather than the other. Lu. 18. 9-14; Ro. 2. 17; 3. 26.

4 For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

It is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins. Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me: in burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure. Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me), to do thy will, O God. He. 10. 4, 7.—Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. Mat. 5. 17. Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Mat. 3. 15.—As many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree. Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. Gal. 3. 10, 13, 24.

Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. Col. 2. 16, 17.—For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

Ye shall... keep my statutes, and my judgments: which if a man do, he shall live in them. Le. 18. 5.—A certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou? And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself. And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live. Lu. 10. 25-28.—The law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them. Ga. 3. 12.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:)

Ro. 9. 30.

This commandment which I command thee this day, it is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off. It is not in heaven, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it? Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it? But the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it. De. 30. 11-14.—I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. Jno. 6. 51.

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

It was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him; but for us also to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification. Ro. 4. 23-25.—Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him. Ro. 6. 9.

8 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith which we preach;

It is the word of the truth of the gospel; which is come unto you, as it is in all the world. Col. 1. 5, 6.

Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee. With my lips have I declared all the judgments of thy mouth. Ps. 119. 11, 13; Ro. 10. 10.

9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

Whosoever... shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven. Mat. 10. 32, 33.—Among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God. Jno. 12. 42, 43.

If Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. 1 Co. 15. 17.—Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved. Ac. 16. 31.—The eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized? And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. Ac. 8. 36, 37; 4. 23-25.

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

We have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ. Ga. 2. 16.—That we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.

I will shew thee my faith by my works. Ja. 2. 18.

11 For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation, a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste. Is. 28. 16.—They shall not be ashamed that wait for me. Is. 49. 23.

12 For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

The righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference. Ro. 3. 22.—There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. Ga. 3. 28; Ac. 15. 7-9.

There is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus. 1 Ti. 2. 5.—He is Lord of all. Ac. 10. 36. The exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. Eph. 2. 7.—The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth. Ps. 145. 18.—That call on the Lord out of a pure heart. 2 Ti. 2. 22.

13 For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

Whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be delivered. Joel 2. 32.—Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both their's and our's. 1 Co. 1. 2.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

Without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. He. 11. 6.—Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Mar. 16. 15, 16.—Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. Lu. 24. 46, 47.—The Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Ac. 26. 17, 18.

By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name. Ro. 1. 5.—The preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began, but now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith. Ro. 16. 25, 26.

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

Pray ye... the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest. Mat. 9. 38.—God... hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation. 2 Co. 5. 18.—How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth! Is. 52. 7.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men. Lu. 2. 14.—Came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh. Eph. 2. 17.—To you is the word of this salvation sent. Ac. 13. 26.

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?

Unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. He. 4. 2.—Though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him: that the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed? Jno. 12. 37, 38; Is. 53. 1.

Preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all). Ac. 10. 36.

17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

Ro. 10. 14.

After that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. 1 Co. 1. 21.—We give thanks to God, ... since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, ... for the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel; which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth. Col. 1. 3-6.

God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: whereunto he called you by our gospel. 2 Th. 2. 13, 14.—Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, ... and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls. Ja. 1. 18, 19, 21.—Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you. 1 Pe. 1. 23, 25.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

There were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. ... The multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language. Ac. 2. 5, 6.—They that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word. Ac. 8. 4.—They ... preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans. Philip ... preached in all the cities, till he came to Caesarea. Ac. 8. 25, 40.—Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus. And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God. Ac. 9. 19, 20.

They which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only. Ac. 11. 19.—When they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. Ac. 13. 5.

I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house, testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. Ac. 20. 20, 21.—Shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance. Ac. 26. 20.

When we came to Rome, ... Paul called the chief of the Jews together, ... to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening. Ac. 28. 16, 17, 23.—From Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. Ro. 15. 19. Ps. 19. 4, 5. Mal. 4. 2.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Esaias is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

I am sought of them that asked not for me; I am found of them that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation that was not called by my name. Is. 65. 1.—Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the Lord thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee. Is. 55. 5.

21 But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

I have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts. Is. 65. 2.—The Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith. Ro. 9. 30.

CHAPTER XI.

I SAY then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel. Ro. 9. 6; 11. 5.—Behold, the eyes of the Lord God are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saying that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the Lord. For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth. Am. 9. 8, 9.

Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I. 2 Co. 11. 22.—Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee. Phi. 3. 5.—Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious; but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. 1 Ti. 1. 13.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Ro. 8. 29; 1 Ki. 19. 10, 18.

5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved. That the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth. For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion. Ro. 9. 27, 11, 15.

6 And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

To him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Ro. 4. 4, 5.—Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace, Ga. 5. 4.—By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast. Eph. 2. 8, 9; Tit. 3. 5.

We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets. But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out. And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God. And, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last. Lu. 13. 26-30.

John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him. Mat. 21. 32.

I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry; who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief. Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting. 1 Ti. 1. 12-16.

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded

Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness. Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone. Ro. 9. 31, 32. For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. Ro. 10. 3.

They are not all Israel, which are of Israel. Ro. 9. 6.—If our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: in whom the God of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. 2 Co. 4. 3, 4. Ro. 11. 20; 9. 18.

8 (According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.

The Lord hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets and your rulers, the seers hath he covered. Is. 29. 10.—The Lord hath not given you a heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day. De. 29. 4.—Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. Is. 6. 9.—Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding; which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not. Je. 6. 21.—Thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house. Eze. 12. 2.—In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive. Mat. 13. 14.—The heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. Ac. 28. 27.

Their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which veil is done away in Christ. But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their heart. 2 Co. 3. 14, 15.

9 And David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them:

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

Ps. 69. 23.

He made him ride on the high places of the earth, that he might eat the increase of the fields; and he made him to suck honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock; butter of kine, and milk of sheep, with fat of lambs, and rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats, with the fat of kidneys of wheat; and thou didst drink the pure blood of the grape. But Jeshurun waxed fat, and kicked; then he forsook God which made him; and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation. De. 32. 13-15.—What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes? And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down. For the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry. Is. 5. 4, 5, 7.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.

Ro. 11. 25-29.

Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. Ac. 13. 46.—When they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles. Ac. 18. 6.—Get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me. I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles. Ac. 22. 18, 21.—Some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not. Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it. Ac. 28. 24, 28.

Ro. 11. 14; 10. 19.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?

Ro. 11. 25, 26.

The Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob. Is. 59. 20.—And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising. Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side. Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee. Is. 60. 3-5.—Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her. For thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream. Is. 66. 10, 12.—Many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem. Mt. 4. 2.

Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the Lord. And many nations shall be joined to the Lord in that day, and shall be my people. Zec. 2. 10, 11.—Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country; and I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness. And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing. Yes, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the Lord of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the Lord. Thus saith the Lord of hosts; In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard that God is with you. Zec. 8, 7, 8, 13, 22, 23.

18 For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office:

He is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel. Ac. 9. 15.—I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles. Ac. 22. 21.—It pleased God, who called me by his grace, to reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen. Gal. 1. 15, 16.—He that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles. Gal. 2. 8.

I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God, that I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost. I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God. Ro. 15. 15, 17.—Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ. Eph. 3. 8.

Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. 1 Co. 4. 1.—God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. 2 Co. 5. 19, 20.—According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry. 1 Th. 1. 11, 12.

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of them.

Let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works. He. 10. 24.—My heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. Ro. 10. 1.—He which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins. Ja. 5. 20.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

Ro. 11. 11, 12, etc.

I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne. Re. 7. 9.—God was in Christ reconciling the world unto himself. 2 Co. 5. 19.—And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unproveable in his sight. Col. 1. 21, 22.—You hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins. Eph. 2. 1.

16 For if the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

Ye shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest unto the priest: and he shall wave the sheaf before the Lord, to be accepted for you. Le. 23. 10, 11.—Ye shall offer up a cake of the first of your dough for a heave offering. Nu. 15. 20.—I will establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee in their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee. Ge. 17. 7.—The unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy. 1 Co. 7. 14.

17 And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree;

The Lord called thy name, A green olive tree, fair, and of goodly fruit. Je. 11. 16.—As for Ishmael, I beheld, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly. But my covenant will I establish with Isaac. Ge. 17. 20, 21.—All these were the children of Keturah. And Abraham gave all that he had unto Isaac. Ge. 25. 4, 5.—Ye know how that afterward, when [Esau] would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected. He. 12. 16, 17.—Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated. Ro. 9. 13.—He said to Jeroboam, Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel, Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee: (but he shall have one tribe for my servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel:) because that they have forsaken me, and have not walked in my ways. 1 Ki. 11. 31, 33.—Ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world: but now in Christ Jesus ye who sometime were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. Eph. 2. 12, 13.—There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. Gal. 3. 28, 29.—The first covenant had ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary. He. 9. 1.

18 Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

Let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. 1 Co. 10. 12.—It is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all. Ro. 4. 16.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear:

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

Be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. 1 Pe. 5. 5.—Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. Phi. 2. 12.—How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow. Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her. Re. 18. 7, 8.

22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

The Lord God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation. Ex. 34. 6, 7.—Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed. Jno. 8. 31.—Whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end. We are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end. He. 3. 6, 14.—Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away. Jno. 15. 2.—They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us. But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him. And now, little children, abide in him. 1 Jno. 2. 19, 27, 28.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graff them in again.

I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn. Zec. 12. 10.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

Eph. 2. 12, 13. Ro. 11. 17.

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

Ro. 11. 20, 21, 7, 8, 5.

Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled. Lu. 21. 24.—All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the Lord: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee. Ps. 22. 27; Ro. 11. 12.

26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

Israel shall be saved in the Lord with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end. Is. 45. 17.—For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee. In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the Lord thy Redeemer. Is. 54. 7, 8.—Behold, I will gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: and I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them: and I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me. Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul. Je. 32. 37, 41.—Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the Lord their God, and David their king; and shall fear the Lord and his goodness in the latter days. Ho. 3. 5.—He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old. Mt. 7. 19, 20.—The Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the Lord. Is. 59. 20.

27 For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the Lord; My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the Lord, from henceforth and for ever. Is. 59. 21.—Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was a husband unto them, saith the Lord: but this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel: After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people. ... I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more. Je. 31. 31, 34.

28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes.

Ro. 11. 11, 12.

The Lord did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye were the fewest of all people: but because the Lord loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the Lord brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. De. 7. 7, 8.—The Lord had a delight in thy fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day. De. 10. 15.

29 For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.

God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good? Nu. 23. 19. I am the Lord, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed. Mal. 3. 6.

30 For as ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:

In time past ye walked according to the course of this world. Eph. 2. 2.

31 Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

The sons of strangers shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee. Is. 60. 10.

32 For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

We have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin. Ro. 3. 9.—The scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. Gal. 3. 22.—God our Saviour, who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time. 1 Ti. 2. 3, 6.

33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

Thy judgments are a great deep. Ps. 36. 6.—We have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace; wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence. Eph. 1. 7, 8.—To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God. Eph. 3. 10. The mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ; in whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. Col. 2. 2, 3.—Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! Ps. 107. 31.—Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection? It is as high as heaven; what canst thou do? deeper than hell; what canst thou know? The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea. Job 11. 7, 9.

34 For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

35 Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

What hast thou that thou didst not receive? 1 Co. 4. 7.—All things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee. 1 Ch. 29. 14.

36 For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all. Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might: and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all. Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name. 1 Ch. 29. 11–13.—To us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him. 1 Co. 8. 6.—All things were created by him, and for him. Col. 1. 16.—By him all things consist. Col. 1. 17; Ro. 12. 1.

CHAPTER XII.

I BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

Ro. 8. 1, 14–18, 26–39; 11. 22, 30.

God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Ro. 5. 8.—And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory. Ro. 9. 23.—What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? O Lord, truly I am thy servant; ... thou hast loosed my bonds. I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord. Ps. 116. 12, 17.—Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Co. 6. 19, 20.—The love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead: and that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. 2 Co. 5. 14, 15.—Yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God. As ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness. Ro. 6. 13, 19. Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death. Phi. 1. 20.

He said unto Aaron, Take thee a young calf for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the Lord. And unto the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, Take ye a kid of the goats for a sin offering; and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt offering; also a bullock and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the Lord. Le. 9. 2, 4.—But cursed be the deceiver, which ... sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing. Mal. 1. 14.—Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 2. 5.—For love's sake I ... beseech thee. Albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides. Phil. 9, 19.

2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. 1 Jno. 2. 15–17. Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? and what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? and what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing. 2 Co. 6. 14–17.

In time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. Eph. 2. 2, 3.—Henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. But ye have not so learned Christ; if so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus: that ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; and be renewed in the spirit of your mind; and that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Eph. 4. 17, 24.—That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles. 1 Pe. 4. 2, 3.—Denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world. Tit. 2. 12.—Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world. Ja. 1. 27.

We are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness. 1 Jno. 5. 19.—Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God. Ja. 4. 4.—No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Mat. 6. 24.—If I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ. Ga. 1. 10.—By whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. Ga. 6. 14.—Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father. Ga. 1. 4.—Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. Eph. 5. 17, 10, 11.—If ye do in any wise go back, and cleave unto the remnant of these nations, even these that remain among you, and shall make marriages with them, and go in unto them, and they to you; know for a certainty that the Lord your God will no more drive out any of these nations from before you; but they shall be snares and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off this good land which the Lord your God hath given you. Jos. 23. 12, 13; 2 Pe. 2. 20.

[Ye] have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him. Col. 3. 10.—The law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good. I delight in the law of God after the inward man. Ro. 7. 12, 22. The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple. The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes. The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. Ps. 19. 7–9.

3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

I have written the more boldly unto you, ... because of the grace that is given to me of God. Ro. 15. 15.—Thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear. Ro. 11. 20.—Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus. Phi. 2. 3, 5.—That no one of you be puffed up for one against another. For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it? 1 Co. 4. 6, 7.—The manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; to another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; ... but all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will. 1 Co. 12. 7-9, 11.

4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office :

5 So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

Ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular. 1 Co. 12. 27.—We being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread. 1 Co. 10. 17.—The church, which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all. Eph. 1. 22, 23.—I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, with all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ; till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: that we, ... speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ: from whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love. Eph. 4. 1-7, 11-13, 15, 16.

6 Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

Mat. 25. 14, 30.

As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 4. 10, 11.—Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them. Ac. 15. 32.—He that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort. Prophecy by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted. 1 Co. 14. 3, 31; Ro. 12. 7; 1 Co. 12. 10, 28; 13. 2; 14. 6.

Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you. Mat. 9. 29; Ro. 12. 3.—To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. Is. 8. 20.

7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching;

When the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration. Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables. Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word. Ac. 6. 1-4; Eph. 4. 11, 12; Ro. 12. 5.

8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

Give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all. Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee. 1 Ti. 4. 13-16. Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. 2 Ti. 4. 2.—Say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it. Col. 4. 17.—Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus: whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily. Col. 1. 28, 29.

Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven. Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth. Mat. 6. 1, 3.—Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind. 1 Pe. 5. 2. Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. 2 Co. 9. 7.

9 Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently. 1 Pe. 1. 22. My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed, and in truth. 1 Jno. 3. 18.—The end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned. 1 Ti. 1. 5.—Ye that love the Lord, hate evil. Ps. 97. 10.—The fear of the Lord is to hate evil. Pr. 8. 13.—I will walk within my house with a perfect heart. I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me. A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person. Ps. 101. 2, 4.—He abhorreth not evil. Ps. 36. 4. I hate and abhor lying: but thy law do I love. Ps. 119. 163.

10 Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another;

Be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous. 1 Pe. 3. 8.—Add ... to godliness, brotherly-kindness; and to brotherly-kindness, charity. 2 Pe. 1. 5, 7.

Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Phi. 2. 3.—All of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. 1 Pe. 5. 5.

11 Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest. Ec. 9. 10.—Seest thou a man diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before mean men. Pr. 22. 29.—Whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men; knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ. Col. 3. 23, 24.—Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth. Eph. 4. 23.—Ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me. I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak. Ac. 20. 34, 35.—We ... wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you: not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us. For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat. 2 Th. 3. 8-10.

12 Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;

Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice. Phi. 4. 4.—Rejoice evermore. 1 Th. 5. 16.—Rejoice, because your names are written in heaven. Lu. 10. 20.—The God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost. Ro. 15. 13.—Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end. He. 3. 6.—By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Ro. 5. 2.—Rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. 1 Pe. 4. 13.

In your patience possess ye your souls. Lu. 21. 19.—Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass. Ps. 37. 7.—I waited patiently for the Lord; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry. Ps. 40. 1.—The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me. For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. Ro. 15. 3, 4.—Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness. Col. 1. 11.—My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing. Ja. 1. 2, 4.—Be patient, ... brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Ja. 5. 7.—This is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully. For what glory is it, if when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God. 1 Pe. 2. 19, 20.—Let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame. He. 12. 1, 2.—We glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; and patience, experience; and experience, hope: and hope maketh not ashamed. Ro. 5. 3-5.—We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers; remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father. And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost: so that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia. 1 Th. 1. 2, 3, 6, 7.—So that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure. 2 Th. 1. 4.—Ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. He. 10. 36.

He spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint. Lu. 18. 1.—Pray without ceasing. 1 Th. 5. 17.—Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving. Col. 4. 2.—Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance. Eph. 6. 18.—Peter ... was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him. Ac. 12. 5.—They continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. Ac. 2. 42.

13 Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality.

As we have ... opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith. Gal. 6. 10.—To do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. He. 13. 16.—Whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shut-teth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? 1 Jno. 3. 17.—The multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common. Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, and laid them down at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need. Ac. 4. 32, 34, 35.—The disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea. Ac. 11. 29.—As touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you: for I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many. 2 Co. 9. 1, 2.—We do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia: how that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality. For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves; praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints. 2 Co. 8. 1-4.—God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister. He. 6. 10.

Use hospitality one to another without grudging. 1 Pe. 4. 9.—Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. He. 13. 2; Ge. 18. 2-8; 19. 1-3.

14 Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you. Mat. 5. 44.—Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously. 1 Pe. 2. 23. Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. Lu. 23. 34.—Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. Ac. 7. 60.—Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it. 1 Co. 4. 12.—Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing. 1 Pe. 3. 9.

15 Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

Whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it. Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular. 1 Co. 12. 26, 27.—When Jesus ... saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled. Jesus wept. Jno. 11. 33, 35.—Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not? 2 Co. 11. 29.

16 Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

The God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Ro. 15. 5, 6.—I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. 1 Co. 1. 10.—Stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel. Phi. 1. 27.—Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. Phi. 2. 2.—I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord. Phi. 4. 2.—Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous. 1 Pe. 3. 8.

Whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister; and whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant: even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. Mat. 20. 26-28. Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men. Phi. 2. 3-7.—Seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not. Je. 45. 5.—Lord, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty: neither do I exercise myself in great matters, or in things too high for me. Surely, I have behaved and quieted myself, as a child that is weaned of his mother: my soul is even as a weaned child. Ps. 131. 1, 2.—My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons. For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment; and ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool: are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts? Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him? Ja. 2. 1-5.

Be not wise in thine own eyes. Pr. 3. 7.—Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is none hope of a fool than of him. Pr. 26. 12.—Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight! Is. 5. 21.—And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know. 1 Co. 8. 2.—If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness. And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain. 1 Co. 3. 18-20.

17 Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

Say not thou, I will recompense evil; but wait on the Lord, and he shall save thee. Pr. 20. 22.—See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men. Abstain from all appearance of evil. 1 Th. 5. 15, 22.

Give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. 1 Th. 5. 14.—Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. 1 Pe. 2. 12.

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

Let us ... follow after the things which make for peace. Ro. 14. 19.—Be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you. 2 Co. 13. 11.—But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. Ja. 3. 17.—Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied. It was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. Jude 2, 3.

19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

Ro. 12. 17.
Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: I am the Lord. Le. 19. 18.—Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me. Pr. 24. 29.—Simeon and Levi are brethren; instruments of cruelty are in their habitations. O my soul, come not thou into their secret; unto their assembly, mine honour, be not thou united: for in their anger they slew a man. ... Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel: I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel. Ge. 49. 5-7.—His disciples James and John ... said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did? But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. Lu. 9. 54, 55.—If ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. Mat. 6. 15.

20 Therefore, if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink: for thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the Lord shall reward thee. Pr. 25. 21, 22.—Love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil. Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful. Lu. 6. 35, 36.—If thou meet thine enemy's ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him again. Ex. 23. 4.—[Saul] said to David, Thou art more righteous than I: for thou hast rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evil. And thou hast shewed this day how that thou hast dealt well with me: forasmuch as when the Lord had delivered me into thine hand, thou killedst me not. 1 Sa. 24. 17, 18.—Then said Abishai to David, God hath delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time. And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not; for who can stretch forth his hand against the Lord's anointed, and be guiltless? David said furthermore, As the Lord liveth, Lord shall smite him; or his day shall come to die; or he shall descend unto battle, and perish. 1 Sa. 26. 8-10.—What shall I do unto thee, thou false tongue? Sharp arrows are done unto thee, with coals of juniper. Psa. 120. 3, 4.—Every man's heart shall melt. Is. 13. 7; Ro. 12. 21.—Love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame. Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it. Ca. 8. 6, 7.

21 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

1 Sa. 24. 17, 18.
He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city. Pr. 16. 32.

CHAPTER XIII.

LET every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, Tit. 3. 1.—Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme, 1 Pe. 2. 13.—Render ... unto Cesar the things which are Cesar's: and unto God the things that are God's. Mat. 22. 21.—Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men. Ac. 5. 29.

By me kings reign, and princes decree justice. By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth. Pr. 8. 15, 16.—The most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will. Da. 4. 32.—He removeth kings, and setteth up kings. Da. 2. 21.—Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above. Jno. 19. 11.

The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace. But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out. And the sergeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans. And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city. Ac. 16. 36-39.—Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned? Ac. 22. 25.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

Unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well. 1 Pe. 2. 14.

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

Ro. 13. 3, 4.
I counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, and that in regard of the oath of God. Ec. 8. 2.

6 For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

Render ... unto Cesar the things which are Cesar's. Mat. 22. 21.

Serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear. We have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence. He. 12. 28, 9.—Let ... the wife see that she reverence her husband. Eph. 5. 33.

Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king. Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. 1 Pe. 2. 17, 18.—Honour thy father and thy mother. Ex. 20. 12. Ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel. 1 Pe. 3. 7.—Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man, and fear thy God. Le. 19. 32.—Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine. 1 Ti. 5. 17.—Honour widows that are widows indeed. 1 Ti. 5. 3.—Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed. 1 Ti. 6. 1.—I am not mad, most noble Festus. Ac. 26. 25.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

Ye shine (shine ye, Marg.) Phi. 2. 15.
All the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Gal. 5. 14.—If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well: but if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convicted of the law as transgressors. Ja. 2. 8, 9.—The end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart. 1 Ti. 1. 5.—Above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. Col. 3. 14; Ro. 13. 9.

9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

Ex. 20. 13-17.
The second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets. Mat. 22. 39, 40.—There is none other commandment greater than these. Mar. 12. 31.—By love serve one another. For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Gal. 5. 13, 14.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil; rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth; beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. 1 Co. 13. 4-7.

11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. Mat. 25. 5.—But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer. And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves. 1 Pe. 4. 7, 8.—Ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief. Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober. For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are drunken in the night. But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation. 1 Th. 5. 4-8.—Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. ... Redeeming the time. Eph. 5. 14, 16.—Whosoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest. Ec. 9. 10.—I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work. Jno. 9. 4.—Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. He. 9. 28.—Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 1 Pe. 1. 5.—He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. Jno. 5. 24.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand; let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.

Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son. Col. 1. 12, 13.—Until the day break, and the shadows flee away. Ca. 2. 17.—For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face. 1 Co. 13. 12. And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light. Re. 22. 5.—Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God? 2 Pe. 3. 11, 12.

And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. Eph. 5. 11.—But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds; and have put on the new man. Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering. Col. 3. 8-10, 12.

The armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left. 2 Co. 6. 7.—Take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance. Eph. 6. 13-18.

13 Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. Phi. 4. 8.

And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. Lu. 21. 34.—For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries. 1 Pe. 4. 3.

14 But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the Whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son. Ro. 8. 29.—Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps: who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth. 1 Pe. 2. 21, 22.—Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. They that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. Gal. 5. 16, 24.—Abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul. 1 Pe. 2. 11.—For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. Gal. 6. 8.

CHAPTER XIV.

HIM that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations.

Ro. 15. 1, 2, 7.
To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak. 1 Co. 9. 22.

2 For one believeth that he may eat all things: another who is weak, eateth herbs.

Every moving thing that liveth shall be meat for you; even as the green herb have I given you all things. But flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat. Ge. 9. 3, 4.—Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat. Da. 1. 8.—Peter said, ... I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean. Ac. 10. 14.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not him that eateth: for God hath received him.

Peter ... said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. Ac. 10. 34, 35.

4 Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

For the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the Lord upholdeth the righteous.—Ps. 37. 17.

5 One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

These are the feasts of the Lord, even holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons. In the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the Lord's passover. And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the Lord. ... In the first day ye shall have a holy convocation. And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave offering: seven sabbaths shall be complete: even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number fifty days; and ye shall offer a new meat offering unto the Lord. And ye shall proclaim on the selfsame day, that it may be a holy convocation unto you: ye shall do no servile work therein: if shall be a statute for ever in all your dwellings throughout your generations. In the seventh month, in the first day of the month, shall ye have a sabbath, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, a holy convocation. Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement: it shall be a holy convocation unto you. The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast of tabernacles for seven days unto the Lord. On the first day shall be a holy convocation. Le. 23. 4, 7, 15, 16, 21, 24, 27, 34, 35.—Let no man ... judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a holiday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. Col. 2. 16, 17.—If our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God. 1 Jo. 3. 21; Is. 8. 20.—That which I see not teach thou me. Job 34. 32; Jno. 16. 2; Ac. 26. 9.

6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

Whether ... ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. 1 Co. 10. 31.—Commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth. 1 Ti. 4. 3.

7 For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Co. 6. 19, 20.—Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death. For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not. For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better. Phi. 1. 20, 23.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Gal. 2. 20.—He died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. 2 Co. 5. 15.—He raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: and hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all. Eph. 1. 20, 23.—I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death. Re. 1. 18.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

Ro. 14. 3.
Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. Ac. 17. 31.

11 For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear. Is. 45. 23.—That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth. Phi. 2. 10.

12 So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

Ro. 14. 10.

For all these things God will bring thee into judgment. Ec. 11. 9.—I and my Father are one. Jno. 10. 30.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more; but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Mat. 7. 1. 3.—Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge. There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another? Ja. 4. 11, 12. Take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak. If meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend. 1 Co. 8. 9, 13.—Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God. 1 Co. 10. 32.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean. Ac. 10. 28.—I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ. Gal. 1. 12. Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake. 1 Co. 10. 25.—Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled. 1 Co. 8. 7.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat for whom Christ died.

For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols; and through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died? 1 Co. 8. 10, 11.—Though I ... understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly. ... Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. 1 Co. 13. 2, 4, 5, 7. My sheep ... shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. Jno. 10. 27, 28; 1 Jno. 2. 1, 2; Ja. 1. 15.

16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of:

Ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. Gal. 5. 13.—Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us: providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. 2 Co. 8. 20, 21.

17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

Meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither if we eat not, are we the worse. 1 Co. 8. 8. Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein. He. 13. 9.—Voe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. Mat. 23. 23. Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness. Mat. 6. 33.—That which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith. Phi. 3. 9.—Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: by whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Ro. 5. 1, 2.—The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Phi. 4. 7.—The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace. Gal. 5. 22; Ro. 15. 13.

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

Mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly. Ro. 16. 17, 18.—If any man serve me, him will my Father honour. Jno. 12. 26; Col. 3. 24.—To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 2. 4, 5.—Accepted in the beloved. Eph. 1. 6.

19 Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.

Seek peace, and pursue it. Ps. 34. 14.—Comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do. 1 Th. 5. 11.—Seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church. 1 Co. 14. 12.—Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. Eph. 4. 29.—Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth. 1 Co. 8. 1.—All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not. 1 Co. 10. 23; Ro. 15. 2; Eph. 4. 12–16.

20 For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

Ro. 14. 14, 15.

We are his workmanship. Eph. 2. 10.—He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ. Phi. 1. 6.—This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. Jno. 6. 29.—Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure. Tit. 1. 15.—Meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither if we eat not, are we the worse. But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak. For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols; and through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died? But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ. Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend. 1 Co. 8. 8–13.

22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before

God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

If our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God. 1 Jno. 3. 21.—Herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men. Ac. 24. 16.

23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

Ro. 14. 14. 1 Co. 11. 29 (margin).

When we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world. 1 Co. 11. 32.—Without faith it is impossible to please him. Heb. 11. 6.—Unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure. Tit. 1. 15.

CHAPTER XV.

WE then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

Ro. 14. 1, 22.

Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. Gal. 6. 2.

2 Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification.

Ro. 14. 19.

Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus. Phi. 2. 4, 5.—[Charity] seeketh not her own. 1 Co. 13. 5.—Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth. Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved. 1 Co. 10. 24, 33.—For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more. To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some. 1 Co. 9. 19, 22.

3 For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. Jno. 6. 38.—If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you. Jno. 13. 14, 15.—The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me. Psa. 69. 9.

4 For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works. 2 Ti. 3. 16, 17.—We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place. 2 Pe. 1. 19.—It is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen? or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope. 1 Co. 9. 9, 10.—Take ... the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience. ... Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy. Ja. 5. 10, 11.—Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition. 1 Co. 10. 11.—Be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forake thee. So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me. He. 13. 5, 6; Ro. 4. 23, 24.—Patience [worketh] experience; and experience, hope. Ro. 5. 4.

5 Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus:

The Lord ... is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 2 Pe. 3. 9.—The Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort. 2 Co. 1. 3.—If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies, fulfil ye my joy, that ye be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. Phi. 2. 1, 2.—I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. 1 Co. 1. 10.

6 That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul. And ... they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is. Ac. 4. 32, 24.

7 Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God.

A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. Jno. 13. 34.—[Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. Jno. 6. 37.—To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved. Eph. 1. 6.

8 Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:

9 And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Mat. 15. 24.—Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities. Ac. 3. 25, 26.—The Lord thy God will raise up unto thee a Prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; unto him ye shall hearken. De. 18. 15.—Other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. Jno. 10. 16.—There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. Gal. 3. 28.—Therefore will I give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the heathen, and sing praises unto thy name. Ps. 18. 49.

10 And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

Rejoice, O ye nations, with his people: for he will avenge the blood of his servants, and will render vengeance to his adversaries, and will be merciful unto his land, and to his people. De. 32. 43.

11 And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.

O praise the Lord, all ye nations: praise him, all ye people. Ps. 117. 1.

12 And again, Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.

There shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. There shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek; and his rest shall be glorious. Is. 11. 1, 10.—So the heathen shall fear the name of the Lord, and all the kings of the earth thy glory. Ps. 102. 15.—The Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David. Re. 5. 5.—I am the root and the offspring of David. Re. 22. 16.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

The Lord is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him. La. 3. 24.—Our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace. 2 Th. 2. 16.—The kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. Ro. 14. 17.—Rejoicing in hope. Ro. 12. 12.—In whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory. 1 Pe. 1. 8.—Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: by whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; and patience experience; and experience, hope: and hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. Ro. 5. 1-5.—Ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body. For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for? But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it. Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities. Ro. 8. 23-26.

14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

Your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. Ro. 1. 8. The fruit of the Spirit is love, ... peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness. Gal. 5. 22.—Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth. 2 Pe. 1. 12.—I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it. 1 Jno. 2. 21.—Let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: ... exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching. He. 10. 24, 25.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God,

Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power. Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ. Eph. 3. 7, 8.

16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

Ro. 11. 13. God ... hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation. 2 Co. 5. 18.—They shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the Lord out of all nations. Is. 66. 20.—Christ ... loved the church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Eph. 5. 25-27.—He hath made us accepted in the beloved. Eph. 1. 6. God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: whereunto he called you by our gospel. 2 Th. 2. 13, 14.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God.

Inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office. Ro. 11. 13.—God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. Gal. 6. 14.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,

He declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry. Ac. 21. 19.—For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles. Gal. 2. 8. I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 1 Co. 15. 10.—By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name. Ro. 1. 5.

19 Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

Jerusalem, Ac. 9. 28, 29. Antioch, 11. 26. Cyprus, 13. 7, 8. Antioch in Pisidia, 13. 14, 44-48. Iconium, 14. 1. Lystra and Derbe, 14. 6, 7. Perga, 14. 25. Pisidia, 14. 24. Phrygia and Galatia, 16. 6. Philippi, 16. 12, 13. Thessalonica, 17. 1, 4. Berea, 17. 10-12. Athens, 17. 16, etc. Corinth, 18. 1-11. Ephesus and Asia, 19. 1-10. Macedonia, 20. 3. Greece, 20. 2, 3, etc.

There sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked: the same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked. Ac. 14. 8, 10.—A certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination ... followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation. And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour. Ac. 16. 16-18.—When Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied. And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul: so that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them. Ac. 19. 6, 11, 12.—There sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead. And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him. Ac. 20. 9, 10.

I cast out devils by the Spirit of God. Mat. 12. 28.—Ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. Ac. 1. 8.—To one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; to another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; to another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues: but all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will. 1 Co. 12. 8-11.

I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house, testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. Ac. 20. 20, 21.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation :

Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labours ; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we should be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly, to preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand. 2 Co. 10. 15, 18.

21 But as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see : and they that have not heard shall understand.

So shall he sprinkle many nations ; the kings shall shut their mouths at him : for that which had not been told them shall they see ; and that which they had not heard shall they consider. Is. 52. 15.—I am sought of them that asked not for me ; I am found of them that sought me not : I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation that was not called by my name. Is. 65. 1.

22 For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you.

We would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again ; but Satan hindered us. 1 Th. 2. 18.

23 But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you ;

Ro. 15. 22.

I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established. Ro. 1. 11.

24 Whosoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you : for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company.

Ac. 15. 3.

25 But now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints.

Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome. Ac. 19. 21.

26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

We do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia ; how that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality. For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves ; praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints. 2 Co. 8. 1-4.

27 It hath pleased them verily ; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

1 Co. 9. 11. Gal. 6. 6.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

Not because I desire a gift : but I desire fruit that may abound to your account. Phi. 4. 17.

29 And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me ;

31 That I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Judæa ; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints ;

Your love in the Spirit. Col. 1. 8.—The fruit of the Spirit is love. Gal. 5. 22.—Thy Spirit is good. Ps. 143. 10.—If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit. Phi. 2. 1.—Ye also helping together by prayer for us. 2 Co. 1. 11.—Epaphras ... saluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers. Col. 4. 12.—Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you : and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men : for all men have not faith. 2 Th. 3. 1, 2.—Certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. Ac. 23. 12.—Certain men which came down from Judæa taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question. Ac. 15. 1, 2 ; 21. 17.

32 That I may come unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you. Ro. 1. 10.—I will return again unto you, if God will. Ac. 18. 21.—I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will. 1 Co. 4. 19.—Ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that. Ja. 4. 15.

33 Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace ; and the God of love and peace shall be with you. 2 Co. 13. 11.—And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Phi. 4. 7.—Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do : and the God of peace shall be with you. Phi. 4. 9.—God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints. 1 Co. 14. 33.—God ... hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ. 2 Co. 5. 18.

CHAPTER XVI.

I COMMEND unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea :

There was ... a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest. And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them ; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors. But ye shall not be so : but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger ; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. Lk. 22. 24-26.—Every one that exalteth himself shall be abased ; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted. Lk. 14. 14.—Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up. Ja. 4. 10.—In lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Phi. 2. 3.—The eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee : nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. Nay much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary. 1 Co. 12. 21, 22.

2 That ye receive her in the Lord, as be-cometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.

3 Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus:

A certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla. Paul ... sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila. Aquila and Priscilla ... took [Apollos] unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly. Ac. 18. 2, 18, 26.

4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

5 Likewise greet the church that is in their house. Salute my wellbeloved Epænetus, who is the firstfruits of Achaia unto Christ.

6 Greet Mary, who bestowed much labour on us.

7 Salute Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen, and my fellowprisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.

If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. 2 Co. 5. 17.—In lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Phi. 2. 3.

8 Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord.

9 Salute Urbane, our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved.

10 Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus' household.

11 Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet them that be of the household of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis, which laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

He hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love: having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved. Eph. 1. 4. 6.—He looked round about on them which sat about him, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren! For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother. Mar. 3. 34, 35.—Intreat ... the elder women as mothers. 1 Ti. 5. 1, 2.

14 Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints which are with them.

16 Salute one another with an holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.

Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity. 1 Pe. 5. 14.

17 Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.

We command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us. If any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. 2 Th. 3. 6, 14.

18 For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself. 1 Ti. 6. 5.

19 For your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil.

Your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. Ro. 1. 8. Be ye ... wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. Mat. 10. 16.—In malice be ye children, but in understanding be men. 1 Co. 14. 20.

20 And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed: it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel. Ge. 3. 15.—The great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. Re. 12. 9, 10.

21 Timotheus my workfellow, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsmen, salute you.

Then came he to Derbe and Lystra: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timotheus, the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greek. Ac. 16. 1.—Timothy, my own son in the faith. 1 Ti. 1. 2.—Our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ. 1 Th. 3. 2.—There were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers, as ... Lucius of Cyrene. Ac. 13. 1.—The Jews which believed not ... assaulted the house of Jason. Ac. 17. 5.—There accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea. Ac. 20. 4.

22 I Tertius, who wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord.

23 Gaius mine host, and of the whole church, saluteth you. Erastus the chamberlain of the city saluteth you, and Quartus a brother.

24 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

The elder unto the wellbeloved Gaius. Thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren and to strangers: which have borne witness of thy charity before the church. 3 Jo. 1. 5, 6.—I baptized none of you but Crispus and Gaius. 1 Co. 1. 14. Two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus. Ac. 19. 22.

25 Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began,

Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling. Jude 24. The Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil. 2 Th. 3. 3.—Now our Lord Jesus Christ ... stablish you in every good word and work. 2 Th. 2. 16, 17.—Stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness. 1 Th. 3. 13.—We preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness. 1 Co. 1. 23.—Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself: that in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him. Eph. 1. 9, 10.—By revelation he made known unto me the mystery; ... which in other ages, was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; that the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel: whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power. Eph. 3. 3, 5-7.—Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: to whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Col. 1. 26, 27.

26 But now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith:

Now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus

Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. 2 Th. 1. 10.—In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began; but hath in due times manifested his word through preaching. Tit. 1. 2, 3.—Those things, which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled. Ac. 3. 18.—The eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man? Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus. Ac. 8. 34, 35.—Go ye ... and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you. Mat. 28. 19, 20. We have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations. Ro. 1. 5.—Faith which worketh by love. Gal. 5. 6.

27 To God only wise, be glory through Jesus Christ for ever. Amen.

Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ; and to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ: to the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God, according to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord: in whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him. Eph. 3. 8-12.—Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. 1 Th. 1. 17.—To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Jude 25.

Written to the Romans from Corinthus, and sent by Phebe, servant of the church at Cenchrea.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,

Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead.) Ga. 1. 1.

The Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. Ac. 18. 17.

2 Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both their's and our's :

3 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized. Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace : for I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee : for I have much people in this city. And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them. Ac. 18. 8-11.

To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints. Ro. 1. 7.—Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus. Eph. 1. 1.—Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called. Jude 1.—For their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth. Jno. 17. 19.—Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. 2 Ti. 1. 9.—He hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love. Eph. 1. 4.—Ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Co. 6. 11; 1. 30.—As he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation ; because it is written, Be ye holy ; for I am holy. 1 Pe. 1. 15, 16.

All that call on thy name. Ac. 9. 14.—Whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved. Ac. 2. 21.—For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek ; for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. Ro. 10. 12.

4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ ;

5 That in everything ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge ;

To one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom ; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit. To another ... prophecy ; ... to another divers kinds of tongues ; to another the interpretation of tongues. 1 Co. 12. 8, 10.—Ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us. 2 Co. 8. 7.—Ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. Ro. 15. 14.—In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. Col. 2. 3.—Of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace. Jno. 1. 16.—The Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things. Jno. 14. 26.

6 Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you :

The testimony of God. 1 Co. 2. 1.—They went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Mar. 16. 20.

7 So that ye come behind in no gift ; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ :

Ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God ; and to wait for his Son from heaven. 1 Th. 1. 9, 10.—Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ. Tit. 2. 13.—For our conversation is in heaven ; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. Phi. 3. 20.—Ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry. He. 10. 36, 37.—When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Col. 3. 4.

8 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ. Phi. 1. 6.—I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it. 1 Th. 5. 23, 24.

The Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you : to the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints. 1 Th. 3. 12, 13.—You, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unproveable in his sight. Col. 1. 21, 22.

9 God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil. 2 Th. 3. 3.—Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; for he is faithful that promised. He. 10. 23.—There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. 1 Co. 10. 13.—And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called; and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified. Ro. 8. 28-30.

Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. Jno. 15. 4.—I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Gal. 2. 20.—Truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. 1 Jno. 1. 3.—Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. 1 Jno. 4. 13.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, with all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. Eph. 4. 1-6.—The God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus. Ro. 15. 5.—Be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you. 2 Co. 13. 11.—Stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel. Phi. 1. 27.—Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. Phi. 2. 2.—Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous. 1 Pe. 3. 8.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

There must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you. 1 Co. 11. 19.

12 Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.

Ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men? For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal? Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that planteth anything, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. 1 Co. 3. 3-7.

A certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus. Ac. 18. 24.—Apollos was at Corinth. Ac. 19. 1.

Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone. Jno. 1. 42.

13 Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius;

Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house. Ac. 18. 8.

Gaius mine host, and of the whole church, saluteth you. Ro. 16. 23.—The elder unto the well beloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth. 3 Jno. 1.

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

Ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints. 1 Co. 16. 15.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

He commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Ac. 10. 48.—Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples. Jno. 4. 2.

I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God. And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth. 1 Co. 2. 1, 4, 13.—We have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. 2 Co. 4. 7.—His bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible. 2 Co. 10. 10.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.

1 Co. 1. 23, 24.
The natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 1 Co. 2. 14.—I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth. Ro. 1. 16.—The weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds; casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ. 2 Co. 10. 4, 5.

19 For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

The wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness. And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain. Therefore let no man glory in men. 1 Co. 3. 19-21.—He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enterprise. He taketh the wise in their own craftiness: and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong. Job. 5. 12, 13.—The wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid. Is. 29. 14.

20 Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

That turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish. Is. 44. 25.—Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools. Ro. 1. 22.

21 For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

Thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight. Lk. 10. 21.

22 For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom :

The Pharisees ... with the Sadducees came, and tempting desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven. Mat. 16. 1.—When he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation: neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you. Luk. 17. 20, 21.

All the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing. Ac. 17. 21

23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness ;

He shall be for a sanctuary ; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. Is. 8. 14.—They were offended in him. Mat. 13. 57.—From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. Jno. 6. 66.—Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience. Be it known unto you ... men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins : and by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming. Ac. 13. 16, 38, 39, 45.

The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ : (he is Lord of all :) that word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached ; how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power : who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil ; for God was with him. And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem ; whom they slew and hanged on a tree : him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly ; not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead. And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. Ac. 10. 36-43.

Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods : because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection. Ac. 17. 18.

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

1 Co. 1. 18.

To them who are the called according to his purpose. For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called : and whom he called, them he also justified. Ro. 8. 28-30.—The vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory, even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles. Ro. 9. 23, 24.

And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead. Eph. 1. 19, 20.—Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. Ro. 10. 4.—O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! Ro. 11. 33.—In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. Col. 2. 3.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men ; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called :

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise ; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty ;

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are :

Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea : for they were fishers. And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men. Mat. 4. 18, 19.—Jesus ... saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom : and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him. And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples. Mat. 9. 9, 10.

When they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled. Ac. 4. 13.—Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him? Jno. 7. 48.—Thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. Mat. 11. 25.—Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him? Ja. 2. 5.—Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger. Ps. 8. 2.

29 That no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption :

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ : according as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love : having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved. In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace. Eph. 1. 3, 7.—In him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. And ye are complete in him. Col. 2. 9, 10.—In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. Col. 2. 3.—Surely, shall one say, in the Lord have I righteousness and strength : even to him shall men come ; and all that are incensed against him shall be ashamed. In the Lord shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory. Is. 45. 24, 25.—He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin ; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.—Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. Ro. 3. 25.—Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification. Ro. 4. 25.

For their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth. Jno. 17. 19.—Ye are washed, ... ye are sanctified, ... ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Co. 6. 11.—They that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. Gal. 5. 24.—We are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. Eph. 2. 10.—You, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unreprouvable in his sight. Col. 1. 21, 22.—Christ ... loved the church, and gave himself for it ; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word. Eph. 5. 25, 26.

Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Tit. 2. 14.—Ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body. Ro. 8. 23.

31 That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

Thus saith the Lord, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches: but let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord which exercise lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in those things I delight, saith the Lord. Je. 9. 23, 24.—God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. Gal. 6. 14.

CHAPTER II.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.

Christ sent me ... to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect. 1 Co. 1. 17.—His letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible. 2 Co. 10. 10.

I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house, testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God. Ac. 20. 20, 21, 27.—The record that God gave of his Son. And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. 1 Jno. 5. 10, 11.

2 For I determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ and him crucified.

I count all things but loss, for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ. Phi. 3. 8.

3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

Paul ... came to Corinth. They opposed themselves and blasphemed. And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment-seat. Ac. 18. 1, 6, 12.—Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first. Gal. 4. 13.

4 And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:

Ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God. 2 Co. 3. 3.—Our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance. 1 Th. 1. 5.

5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. 1 Co. 3. 6, 7.—We have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. 2 Co. 4. 7.—A certain woman named Lydia, ... heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul. Ac. 16. 14.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:

1 Co. 3. 1-3. Phi. 3. 15.

Strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil. He. 5. 14.—Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God. He. 6. 1.—Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ. Eph. 4. 13.—For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness. 1 Co. 3. 19.

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

The mystery, which was kept secret since the world began, but now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith. Ro. 16. 25, 26.—The mystery of Christ which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; that the Gentiles should be fellow heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel. ... The mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ: to the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God, according to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord. Eph. 3. 4, 6, 9-11.—Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: to whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus. Col. 1. 26-28.

Without controversy great is the mystery of godliness; God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. 1 Th. 1. 10.—Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began; but is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. 2 Th. 1. 9, 10.

The God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. 1 Pe. 5. 10.

8 Which none of the princes of this world knew; for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

Thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. Mat. 11. 25.—Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. Lk. 23. 34.—They that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him. Ac. 13. 27.—I wot that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers. Ac. 3. 17.

The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory. Psa. 24. 10.

9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

Since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him. Is. 64. 4.—Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men! Ps. 31. 19.—The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Ph. 4. 7.—Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore. Ps. 16. 11.—Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Mat. 25. 34.

10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

It is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. Mat. 13. 11.—Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. Mat. 16. 16, 17.—No man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him. Mat. 11. 27.—The Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things. Jno. 14. 26.—When he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come. Jno. 16. 13.—To one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; to another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; to another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues: but all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will. 1 Co. 12. 8, 11.—Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost? ... thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God. Ac. 5. 3, 4.

O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor? Ro. 11. 33, 34.—The counsel of his own will. Eph. 1. 11.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

Our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. 2 Co. 1. 12.

Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you: searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow. Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into. 1 Pe. 1. 10, 12.—For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2 Pe. 1. 21.

Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Is. 55. 1.

13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

1 Co. 2. 10, 12.

The Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say. Lu. 12. 12.

We declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers, God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David. Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption: but he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption. Ac. 13. 32, 37.—The preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. 1 Co. 1. 18, 19; 2. 8, 10.

14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

1 Co. 1. 20, 25.

They that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God. Ro. 8. 6, 7.—Certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbling say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection. Ac. 17. 18.—Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Jno. 3. 3.—No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day. It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me. Jno. 6. 44, 45.—If our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: in whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Co. 4. 3, 4, 6.—But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things. 1 Jno. 2. 20.—The Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. Jno. 14. 17.

15 But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

1 Co. 3. 1.

The secret of the Lord is with them that fear him; and he will shew them his covenant. Ps. 25. 14.—Evil men understand not judgment: but they that seek the Lord understand all things. Pr. 28. 5.—If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself. Jno. 7. 17.—When for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat. For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe. But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil. He. 5. 12, 14.—To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. Is. 8. 20.

With me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment. 1 Co. 4. 3.

Who hath directed the Spirit of the Lord, or being his counsellor hath taught him? Is. 40. 13; Ro. 11. 34.

All things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you. Jno. 15. 15.—The gospel which was preached of me is not after man. For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ. Gal. 1. 11, 12.

CHAPTER III.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

1 Co. 2. 15.

With many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it. Mar. 4. 33.—I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Jno. 16. 12.—As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby. 1 Pe. 2. 2.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?

The works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; ... Hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance. Ga. 5. 19-23. Where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work. Ja. 3. 16.—I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have received; and avoid them. Ro. 16. 17.

4 For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos; but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

Ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God. Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament. 2 Co. 3. 3, 6.—Having ... gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us. Ro. 12. 6.—Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock. 1 Pe. 5. 3; 1 Co. 4. 1, 6, 7; 1 Pe. 4. 10, 11.

6 I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.

Paul ... came to Corinth. And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks. And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized. And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them. Ac. 18. 1, 4, 8, 11.—In Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. 1 Co. 4. 15.—Are ye not my work in the Lord? 1 Co. 9. 1.—I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand. 1 Co. 15. 1.

And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus. And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace. Ac. 18. 24, 27.—Apollos was at Corinth. Ac. 19. 1.

By the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 1 Co. 15. 10.—Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God. 2 Co. 3. 5.—A certain woman named Lydia, ... heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul. Ac. 16. 14.

7 So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

He said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. In nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing. 2 Co. 12. 9, 11.—Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain. He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. Jno. 15. 16, 5.

8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

He that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. Jno. 4. 36.—Be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. 1 Co. 15. 58.—They that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. Da. 12. 3.—One star differeth from another star in glory. 1 Co. 15. 41.—Behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. Re. 22. 12.

9 For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.

1 Co. 3. 6.

They went forth and preached every where, the Lord working with them. Mar. 16. 20.

My wellbeloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill: and he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a winepress therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes. Is. 5. 1, 2. A vineyard of red wine. I the Lord do keep it; I will water it every moment. Is. 27. 2, 3.—I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. Jno. 15. 1, 2.

Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 2. 5; 1 Co. 3. 16, 17.—Built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; in whom all the building, fitly framed together, groweth unto a holy temple in the Lord: in whom ye also are built together for a habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. 2. 20-22.

10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

1 Co. 3. 5, 9.

By the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 1 Co. 15. 10.

So have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation. Ro. 15. 20.—The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. Re. 21. 14.

If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed. Ga. 1. 9.

11 For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste. Is. 28. 16; 1 Pe. 2. 4, 6.—Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the son of the living God. And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. Mat. 16. 16, 18. This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. Ac. 4. 11, 12.—Built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone. Eph. 2. 20.—Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. Ro. 10. 4.—The foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity. 2 Th. 2. 19.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

Add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; and to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; and to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. 2 Pe. 1. 5-7.—The foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. Re. 21. 19.

In vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. Mat. 15. 9.—After that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, wherunto ye desire again to be in bondage? Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years. I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain. Gal. 4. 9-11.—As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him: rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving. Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. Col. 2. 6-8.

13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

The day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 1. 8.—Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God. 1 Co. 4. 5.—They shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him. Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not. Mal. 3. 17, 18.—For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. Mal. 4. 1.—In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Th. 1. 8.—Because they have seduced my people, saying, Peace; and there was no peace; and one built up a wall, and, lo, others daubed it with untempered mortar: say unto them which daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it. Eze. 13. 10, 11.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

Is not this a brand plucked out of the fire? Zec. 3. 2.—What is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? 1 Th. 2. 19.—Feed the flock of God; ... and when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. 1 Pe. 5. 2, 4.

15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

1 Co. 3. 8.

Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward. 2 Jno. 8.

Ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning. Am. 4. 11. Others sware with fear, pulling them out of the fire. Jude 23.—If the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear? 1 Pe. 4. 18.

16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

Ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 2 Co. 6. 16.—In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto a holy temple in the Lord: in whom ye also are built together for a habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. 2. 21, 22.—If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. Jno. 14. 23.—God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. 1 Jno. 4. 16.

Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? 1 Co. 6. 19.—I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. Jno. 14. 16-18.—Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost? ... thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God. Ac. 5. 3, 4.—Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 2. 5.

17 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

He which is filthy, let him be filthy still. Re. 22. 11.—There shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bringing upon themselves swift destruction. 2 Pe. 2. 1.

Christ ... loved the church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Eph. 5. 25-27.

18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

1 Co. 1. 19-31.

Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight! Is. 5. 21.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

He taketh the wise in their own craftiness: and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong. Job 5. 13.

20 And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

The Lord knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity. Ps. 94. 11.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are your's;

1 Co. 3. 4-7; 1. 12-15; 4. 6.

22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are your's;

We preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. 2 Co. 4. 5.—He gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers: for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ. Eph. 4. 11, 12.

There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's, but he shall receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life. Mar. 10. 29, 30.—The living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy. 1 Ti. 6. 17.—Having nothing, and yet possessing all things. 2 Co. 6. 10.—We know that all things work together for good to them that love God. Ro. 8. 28.—He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son. Re. 21. 7.—To me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. Phi. 1. 21.

23 And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

If ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. Gal. 3. 29.—My beloved is mine, and I am his. Ca. 2. 16.—Whether we live, ... or die, we are the Lord's. Ro. 14. 8.

His Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; ... being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person. He. 1. 2, 3.—The head of Christ is God. 1 Co. 11. 3.

CHAPTER IV.

LET a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

Who ... is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? 1 Co. 3. 5.—A dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me. Yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel! 1 Co. 9. 17, 16.—Go ye ... and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you. Mat. 28. 19, 20.—We preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. 2 Co. 4. 5.—God ... hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; to wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. 2 Co. 5. 18, 20.—Do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ. Gal. 1. 10.—In all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God. By the word of truth. 2 Co. 6. 4, 7.

A bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God. Ti. 1. 7. Who ... is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. Lu. 12. 42, 43.

I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God; even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: to whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus: whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily. Col. 1. 25, 29.

Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, serving the Lord with all humility of mind, ... and how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house, testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. Neither count I my life dear to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Ac. 20. 18, 21, 24, 28.

I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved. 1 Co. 10. 33.—Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ. 1 Co. 11. 1.—We do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying. 2 Co. 12. 19. Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed. 2 Co. 6. 3.—I ... came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God. For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified. And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom. 1 Co. 2. 1, 2, 4.

Seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not; but have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 2 Co. 4. 1, 2.—We are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ. 2 Co. 2. 17.—As we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts. 1 Th. 2. 4.—We ... do not cease to pray for you. Col. 1. 9.—He gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ. Eph. 4. 11, 12. Every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old. Mat. 13. 52.

They watch for your souls, as they that must give account. He. 13. 17.—Say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it. Col. 4. 17.—As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 4. 10, 11.—Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. 1 Pe. 5. 2, 4; 1 Ti. chaps. 3 and 4; 5. 20-22; 6. 11-14, 20; Ti. 1. 7-9, 13; 2. 1; Col. 1. 7; 4. 7.

Charge some that they teach no other doctrine, neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith. According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry. 1 Ti. 1. 3, 4, 11, 12.—It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him: if we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: if we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness. Foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes. And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient, in meekness instructing those that oppose themselves. 2 Ti. 2. 11, 16, 23, 25.

I charge thee ... before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom: preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. Watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. 2 Ti. 4. 1, 2, 5.—In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity, sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you. These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee. Ti. 2. 7, 8, 15.

This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men. But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. Ti. 3. 8, 9.—We were gentle among ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more. Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men. For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God. Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children. So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us. For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God. Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe: ... ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children. 1 Th. 2. 7-11.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.

The LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart. 1 Sa. 16. 7.

The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. Je. 17. 9, 10.

4 For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

If our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God. 1 Jno. 3. 20, 21.—Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults. Ps. 19. 12.—Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but the Lord pondereth the hearts. Pr. 21. 2.—If thou, Lord, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand? Ps. 130. 3. How should man be just with God? Job 9. 2.—Enter not into judgment with thy servant: for in thy sight shall no man living be justified. Ps. 143. 2.

5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.

Judge not, that ye be not judged. Mat. 7. 1.—Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand. Why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of Christ. Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge thus rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way. Ro. 14. 4, 10, 13.—Thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things. Ro. 2. 1.

Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. 1 Co. 3. 13.—In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel. Ro. 2. 16.—The word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do. He. 4. 12, 13.—God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. Ec. 12. 14.—I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. Ro. 2. 12.—The judgment was set, and the books were opened. Da. 7. 10.

He is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God. Ro. 2. 29.—Thou, even thou only, knowest the hearts of all the children of men. 1 Ki. 8. 39.—He shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday. Ps. 87. 6.—I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works. Re. 2. 23.—When thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth: that thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly. Mat. 6. 3, 4.—Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. Mat. 25. 23.

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

1 Co. 4. 1, 2.

While one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal? Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? 1 Co. 3. 4, 5.—Therefore let no man glory in men. 1 Co. 3. 21.—Be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren. Mat. 23. 8.—By the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; and I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 1 Co. 15. 10.—I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith. Ro. 12. 3.

7 For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Ja. 1. 17.—John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven. Jno. 3. 27.—All these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will. 1 Co. 12. 11.—Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith. Ro. 12. 6.—As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. 1 Pe. 4. 10.

By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast. Eph. 2. 8, 9.—It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phi. 2. 13.

8 Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

Thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked. Re. 3. 17.

What is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? 1 Th. 2. 19.

9 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

Why stand we in jeopardy every hour? I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. 1 Co. 15. 30, 31.—For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh. 2 Co. 4. 11.—As it is written, For whilst ye became companions of them that were so used. He. 10. 33.

10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.

Certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babler say? Ac. 17. 18.—Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad. Ac. 26. 24.—The natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 1 Co. 2. 14.

11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace;

The high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth. Ac. 23. 2.—When they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison. Ac. 16. 23. There came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead. Ac. 14. 19.—Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft. Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one. Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep; in journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; in weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. 2 Co. 11. 23–27.

12 And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:

Ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me. Ac. 20. 34.—Because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers. Ac. 18. 3.—Ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God. 1 Th. 2. 9.—Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you. 2 Th. 3. 8.—For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God. 1 Th. 4. 10.

Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you. Mat. 5. 44.—Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing. 1 Pe. 3. 9.—Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. Lu. 23. 34.—When he was reviled, [he] reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously. 1 Pe. 2. 23.—He kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. Ac. 7. 60.—If thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. Ro. 12. 20.

13 Being defamed; we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day.

Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live. Ac. 22. 22.—We have found this man a pestilent fellow. Ac. 24. 5.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.

I speak as unto my children. 2 Co. 6. 13.—I seek not your's, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved. 2 Co. 12. 14, 15.—Ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children. 1 Th. 2. 11.

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

Are not ye my work in the Lord? If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord. 1 Co. 9. 1, 2.—I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. 1 Co. 3. 6.—He continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them. Ac. 18. 11.—My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you. Gal. 4. 19. Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth. Ja. 1. 18.

16 Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me.

Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ. 1 Co. 11. 1. Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an example. Phi. 3. 17.—Being examples to the flock. 1 Pe. 5. 3.—Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children. Eph. 5. 1.—Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation. He. 13. 7.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.

Timothy, my own son in the faith. 1 Th. 1. 2.—Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ. 1 Th. 3. 2.—I have no man likeminded, who will naturally care for your state. For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's. But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel. Phi. 2. 20–22; 1 Co. 4. 2.

I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances, as I delivered them to you. 1 Co. 11. 2.

18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Macedonia. 1 Co. 16. 5.—Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem. Ac. 19. 21. In this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have a second benefit. To spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth. 2 Co. 1. 15, 23.

I will return again unto you, if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus. Ac. 18. 21.—That I may come unto you with joy by the will of God. Ro. 15. 32.—This will we do, if God permit. He. 6. 3.—Ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that. Ja. 4. 15.

20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

My speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power. 1 Co. 2. 4.—Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God: ... I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. Ro. 15. 19.—Our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake. 1 Th. 1. 5.—The weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds; casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ. 2 Co. 10. 4, 5.—The kingdom of God is within you. Lu. 17. 21.

21 What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

1 Co. 5. 3. 5. Ac. 5, Ananias and Sapphira. Ac. 13. 8-11, Elymas.

I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you: but I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh. 2 Co. 10. 1, 2.—This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established. I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare: since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you. For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you. Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction. 2 Co. 13. 1-4, 10.

CHAPTER V.

IT is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife.

Fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints. Eph. 5. 3.—Cursed be he that lieth with his father's wife. De. 27. 20.

2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us. 1 Co. 4. 8.

Though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season. Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing. For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter. Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you. 2 Co. 7. 8-12.

3 For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed.

4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,

I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Ti. 5. 21.—Whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whosoever sins ye retain, they are retained. Jno. 20. 23. Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them. Mat. 18. 18, 20.

5 To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

Hymeneus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme. 1 Ti. 1. 20.—If any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother. 2 Th. 3. 14, 15.—He that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body. For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep. For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world. 1 Co. 11. 29-32.—Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of many. So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow. Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him. For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things. To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgive any thing, to whom I forgive it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person of Christ; lest Satan should get an advantage of us; for we are not ignorant of his devices. 2 Co. 2. 6-11.

6 Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

1 Co. 5. 2.

Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners. 1 Co. 15. 33.—Looking diligently, ... lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled. He. 12. 15.

7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us:

It is the Lord's passover. For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast. ... And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt. And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a feast to the Lord throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever. Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses. Ex. 12. 11-15.

This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. Eph. 4. 17-19.—Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin; that he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries. 1 Pe. 4. 1-3.

The precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pe. 1. 19.—Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, etc. Re. 5. 12.—Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. Jno. 1. 29.—It was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King! Jno. 19. 14.

8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. 1 Co. 11. 27.

Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. Lu. 12. 1; 1 Co. 5. 7.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle not to company with fornicators :

For what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness ? and what communion hath light with darkness ? 2 Co. 6. 14.—Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. Eph. 5. 11.—If any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. 2 Th. 3. 14.—For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. Eph. 5. 5 ; Ps. 1. 1.

10 Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters ; for then must ye needs go out of the world.

I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil. Jno. 17. 15.—Ye are the salt of the earth. Ye are the light of the world. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Mat. 5. 13, 14, 16.—If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go ; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake. 1 Co. 10. 27.

11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner ; with such an one no not to eat.

We command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly. 2 Th. 3. 6.

12 For what have I to do to judge them also that are without ? do not ye judge them that are within ?

Ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world. Eph. 2. 12.
1 Co. 5. 3-5.

13 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness ; because that which may be known of God is manifest in them ; for God hath shewed it unto them. For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead ; so that they are without excuse. Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness. Who, knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them. Rom. 1. 18-20, 29, 32.
1 Co. 5. 2-5, 9.

CHAPTER VI.

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints ?

When Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law. And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you ; but if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it ; for I will be no judge of such matters. And he drave them from the judgment seat. Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things. Ac. 18. 12-17.

If thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone : if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church : but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as a heathen man and a publican. Mat. 18. 15-17.

2 Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world ? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters ?

The Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High ; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom. Da. 7. 22.—Ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. Mat. 19. 28.—I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them : and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. Re. 20. 4.

3 Know ye not that we shall judge angels ? how much more things that pertain to this life ?

The angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. Jude 6.

4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

The twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables. Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. Ac. 6. 2, 3.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you ? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren ?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong ? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded ?

Resist not evil : but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also. And if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloke also. Mat. 5. 39, 40.—Be at peace among yourselves. See that none render evil for evil unto any man ; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men. 1 Th. 5. 13, 15.

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.

No man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter : because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified. 1 Th. 4. 6.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God ? Be not deceived : neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

The works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. Gal. 5. 19-21.—This ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. Eph. 5. 5.—Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. He. 13. 4.—Without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie. Re. 22. 15; Ge. 19.

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

1 Co. 5. 11.

Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them! Is. 5. 11.—Be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess. Eph. 5. 18.—Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging, and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise. Pr. 20. 1.—Be not among winebibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh: for the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty. Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes? They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine. Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright. At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder. Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things. Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast. They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again. Pr. 23. 20, 21, 29-35.—Whoredom and wine and new wine take away the heart. Ho. 4. 11.—Woe unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that putteth thy bottle to him, and maketh him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness! Hab. 2. 15.—Noah ... planted a vineyard: and he drank of the wine, and was drunken; and he was uncovered within his tent. Ge. 9. 20, 21. In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Kiah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, two years. And his servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him, as he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza steward of his house in Tirzah. And Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him. 1 Ki. 16. 8-10.—Nabal. 1 Sa. 25. 36. Uriah. 2 Sa. 11. 13. Benhadad. 1 Ki. 20. 16. Belshazzar. Da. 5. 1-6. Is. 58. 1-3.

11 And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

You hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins; wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience. Eph. 2. 1, 2.—Mortify ... your members which are upon the earth: fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: for which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience: in the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them. Col. 3. 5-7.—We ourselves also were sometime foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; that being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. Ti. 3. 3-7.

There shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness. Zec. 13. 1.—Christ ... loved the church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word. Eph. 5. 25, 26.—Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, and hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father, etc. Re. 1. 5, 6.—These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Re. 7. 14.

Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Co. 1. 30.—Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; to declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus. Ro. 3. 21-26.

Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them. Eze. 36. 25-27. God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth. 2 Th. 2. 13.—Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 2.—That the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost. Ro. 15. 16.—Jesus ... that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate. Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach. He. 13. 12, 13.—Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. ... By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. He. 10. 9, 10.—He that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren. He. 2. 11.—Inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Ac. 26. 18.—They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth. Jno. 17. 16, 17.—Know that the Lord hath set apart him that is godly for himself. Ps. 4. 3.—Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing. 2 Co. 6. 17.—This is the will of God, even your sanctification. 1 Th. 4. 3.—Now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life. Ro. 6. 22.—Abstain from all appearance of evil. And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it. 1 Th. 5. 22-24.—If a man ... purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work. Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart. 2 Ti. 2. 21, 22.

12 All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

Neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse. But take heed lest by any means this liberty of your's become a stumblingblock to them that are weak. For if any man see thee which hath knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols; wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend. 1 Co. 8. 8-10, 13.—Whosoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake. But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake. 1 Co. 10. 27, 28.—We have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ. 1 Co. 9. 12.—Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification. Ro. 15. 2.

I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection. 1 Co. 9. 27.

13 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them.

Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.

For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence. It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak. For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. Ro. 14. 20, 21, 17.

All are to perish with the using. Col. 2. 22. This is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication. For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. 1 Th. 4. 3, 7.—Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God. Ro. 6. 12, 13.—I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. Ro. 12. 1.—I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. 2 Co. 11. 2; 1 Co. 6. 19, 20.

Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample. (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.) For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself. Phi. 3. 17, 21.—Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body. Eph. 5. 23.

14 And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.

Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it. Ac. 2. 24.—If we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection. If we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. Ro. 6. 5, 8.—If the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you. Ro. 8. 11.—He which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you. 2 Co. 4. 14.—This is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. Jno. 6. 39.

15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

Ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular. 1 Co. 12. 27.—For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. Eph. 5. 30.—For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. 1 Co. 12. 12, 13.

16 What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh. Ge. 2. 24; Mat. 19. 5.

17 But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling. Eph. 4. 4.—Be not conformed to this world: but ye be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. Ro. 12. 2.

18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.

1 Co. 6. 9.

Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house: lest ... thou mourn at the last, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed. Pr. 5. 8, 9, 11; 6. 24–32; 7. 24–27.

19 What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? 1 Co. 3. 16.—For ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 2 Co. 6. 16.

For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself. For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. Ro. 14. 7, 8.—In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto a holy temple in the Lord: in whom ye also are builded together for a habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. 2. 21, 22.

20 For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

Feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Ac. 20. 28.—Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men. 1 Co. 7. 23.—Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree. Gal. 3. 13.—Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. He. 9. 12.—Ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pe. 1. 18, 19.—They sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation. Re. 5. 9.

The love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead: and that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. 2 Co. 5. 14, 15.—Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Tit. 2. 14.—Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light. 1 Pe. 2. 9.

CHAPTER VII.

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

1 Co. 7. 26, 32.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. He. 13. 4.—The Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a help meet for him. Ge. 2. 18.—For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto, his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery; but I speak concerning Christ and the church. Eph. 5. 31, 32.—There was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: and both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage. Jno. 2. 1, 2.

3 Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

Be ready against the third day: come not at your wives. Ex. 19. 15.—The priest answered David, and said, There is no common bread under mine hand, but there is hallowed bread; if the young men have kept themselves at least from women. And David answered the priest, and said unto him, Of a truth women have been kept from us about these three days, since I came out, and the vessels of the young men are holy. 1 Sa. 21. 4, 5.—Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Joel 2. 16.

6 But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment.

1 Co. 7. 12, 25, 40.
I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love. 2 Co. 8. 8.—That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting. 2 Co. 11. 17.

7 For I would that all men were even as I myself. But every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

1 Co. 7. 26, 32.
There be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it. Mat. 19. 12.—Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas? 1 Co. 9. 5.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I.

1 Co. 7. 26, 32.

9 But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. 1 Ti. 5. 14.

10 And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

1 Co. 7. 12, 25, 40.
They are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. Mat. 19. 6.—The Lord hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant. For the Lord the God of Israel, saith that he hateth putting away. Mal. 2.

14, 16.—Whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced, committeth adultery. Mat. 5. 32.

12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

I will establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee in their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee. Ge. 17. 7.—Did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. Mal. 2. 15.—The promise is unto you, and to your children. Ac. 2. 39.—If the root be holy, so are the branches. Ro. 11. 16.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us to peace.

If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men. Ro. 12. 18.—God is not the author of confusion, but of peace. 1 Co. 14. 33.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

Ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands: that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives. 1 Pe. 3. 1.

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.

Unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law. 1 Co. 9. 20.

Certain men which came down from Judea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. My sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God. Ac. 15. 1, 19.—If ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. Gal. 5. 2.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.

For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. Gal. 5. 6.—But a new creature. Gal. 6. 15.—If a man love me he will keep my words. Jno. 14. 23. And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. 1 Jno. 2. 3.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do? And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you. And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages. Lu. 3. 12-14.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christ's servant.

There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. Gal. 3. 28.

If the Son... shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. Jno. 8. 36.—That they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will. 2 Ti. 2. 26.

Being made free from sin, and become servants to God. Ro. 6. 22.—O Lord, truly I am thy servant; I am thy servant, ... thou hast loosed my bonds. Ps. 116. 16.—As free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God. 1 Pe. 2. 16.

23 Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

Ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Co. 6. 20.—Ye were not redeemed with corruptible things as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pe. 1. 18, 19.

24 Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

1 Co. 7. 20.

Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; with good will doing service as to the Lord, and not to men: knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free. Eph. 6. 5-8.—Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed. And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. 1 Ti. 6. 1, 2.—Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again; not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things. Ti. 2. 9, 10.—Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. For this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully. 1 Pe. 2. 18, 19.

25 Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

1 Co. 7. 8, 10, 6, 40.

I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry. 1 Ti. 1. 12.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

Woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people. Lu. 21. 23; 1 Co. 7. 8.

1 Co. 7. 2.

29 But this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble. He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not. Job 14. 1, 2.—But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer. 1 Pe. 4. 7.

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others, which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. 1 Th. 4. 13, 14.—He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Re. 22. 20.—Thou in thy lifetime receivest thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. Lu. 16. 25.—I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry. But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee. Lu. 12. 19, 20.

31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away.

Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but... that they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate. 1 Ti. 6. 17, 18.—Ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. Ja. 4. 14.—The world passeth away, and the lust thereof. 1 Jno. 2. 17.

32 But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

And take heed to yourselves, let at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. Lu. 21. 34.

So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it. Eph. 5. 28, 29.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

1 Co. 6. 20.

Present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. Ro. 12. 1.—Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Mat. 5. 14-16.

Mary ... sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word. But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me. And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: but one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her. Lu. 10. 39-42.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

1 Co. 7. 2, 5-9.

Take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with ... cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. Lu. 21. 34.—That which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. Lu. 8. 14.

Ge. 29. 18.

37 Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind. Ro. 14. 5.

38 So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

1 Co. 7. 26, 32.

Marriage is honourable in all. He. 13. 4.

39 The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.

Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? 2 Co. 6. 14.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord. 1 Co. 14. 37.

CHAPTER VIII.

NOW as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

1 Co. 8. 4, 7, 10, 11.

I know and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself; but to him that esteemeth anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died. Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Ro. 14. 14, 15, 22.—We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification. Ro. 15. 1, 2.—Though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; ... and have not charity, I am nothing. Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up. 1 Co. 13. 2, 4.—Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom. But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth. This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish. For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work. But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace. Ja. 3. 13-18.

2 And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away. For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. 1 Co. 13. 8, 9.

3 But if any man love God, the same is known of him.

The Lord said unto Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name. Ex. 33. 17.—The Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish. Ps. 1. 6.—The Lord is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him. Nu. 1. 7.—The foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. 2 Ti. 2. 19.—I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Mat. 7. 23.—This is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. 1 Jno. 5. 3.—And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also. 1 Jno. 4. 21.—For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men. Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another. Ro. 14. 17-19.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and there is none other God but one.

Ps. 115. 4-8; Is. 44. 8-20.

To whom will ye liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like? They lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith; and he maketh it a god: they fall down, yea, they worship. They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove: yea, one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble. Remember this, and shew yourselves men: bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors. Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me. Is. 46. 5-9.—The Lord he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else. De. 4. 39.

5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)

6 But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? Mal. 2. 10.—One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. Eph. 4. 6.

In him we live, and move, and have our being. Ac. 17. 28.—Of him, and through him, and to him, are all things. Ro. 11. 36.

Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; that they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us. Jno. 17. 20, 21.—The body is ... for the Lord; and the Lord for the body. For ye are bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Co. 6. 13, 20.

Let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. Ac. 2. 36.—There is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus. 1 Ti. 2. 5.

By him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: and he is before all things, and by him all things consist. Col. 1. 16, 17.

We ... joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement. Ro. 5. 11.—Thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; and hast made us unto our God kings and priests. Re. 5. 9, 10.

7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean. And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin. Ro. 14. 14, 23.

8 But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse.

Ro. 14. 17.

9 But take heed lest by any means this liberty of your's become a stumblingblock to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

12 But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

13 Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

Ro. 14. 13.

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: and I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. Jno. 10. 27, 28; Ro. 14. 15.

Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Mat. 25. 40.

CHAPTER IX.

AM I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord?

He is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel. Ac. 9. 15.—As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them. Ac. 13. 2.—Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee. Ac. 26. 17.

Ananias ... said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me. Ac. 9. 17.—The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and see that Just One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth. [I] saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem. Ac. 22. 14, 18.

Though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. 1 Co. 4. 15; Ac. 18. 1-11.

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this,

Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds. 2 Co. 12. 12.

4 Have we not power to eat and to drink?

1 Co. 9. 7-14.

In the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Lu. 10. 7.

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

Marriage is honourable in all. He. 13. 4.—Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas? Mat. 13. 55.—And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever. Mat. 8. 14.

6 Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working?

Because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought; for by their occupation they were tentmakers. Ac. 18. 3.—Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you: not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us. 2 Th. 3. 8, 9; 1 Co. 9. 14-23.

7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

The weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds. 2 Co. 10. 4.

When he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd. Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest. Mat. 9. 36-38.

Feed my lambs. Jno. 21. 15.—Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind. 1 Pe. 5. 2.

8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

De. 25. 4; 1 Ti. 5. 18.

The eyes of all wait upon thee: and thou givest them their meat in due season. Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing. Ps. 145. 15, 16.—Should not I spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle? Jon. 4. 11.

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness. 2 Ti. 3. 16.

1 Co. 9. 7-14.

11 If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

If the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things. Ro. 15. 27.—Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things. Ga. 6. 6.

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

When I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself. 2 Co. 11. 9.

13 Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

The Lord spake unto Aaron, Behold, I also have given thee the charge of mine heave offerings of all the hallowed things of the children of Israel; unto thee have I given them by reason of the anointing, and to thy sons, by an ordinance for ever. This shall be thine of the most holy things, reserved from the fire: every oblation of theirs, every meat offering of theirs, and every sin offering of theirs, and every trespass offering of theirs, which they shall render unto me, shall be most holy for thee and for thy sons. In the most holy place shalt thou eat it; every male shall eat it: it shall be holy unto thee. And this is thine; the heave offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel: I have given them unto thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it. All the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, the firstfruits of them which they shall offer unto the Lord, them have I given thee. And whatsoever is first ripe in the land, which they shall bring unto the Lord, shall be thine; every one that is clean in thine house shall eat of it. Nu. 18. 13.—The priests the Levites, and all the tribe of Levi, shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel: they shall eat the offerings of the Lord made by fire, and his inheritance. De. 18. 1.

14 Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

1 Co. 9. 4, 11.

15 But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

1 Co. 9. 6.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

He trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do. He is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel. Ac. 9. 6, 15.

Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind. And when the chief shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. 1 Pe. 5. 2, 4.

18 What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

1 Co. 8. 9.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

Ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. Gal. 5. 13.

20 And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;

Paul ... circumcised [Timothy] because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek. Ac. 16. 3.—Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law: and they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs. Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them; them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law. Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them. Ac. 21. 20, 21, 23, 24, 26.

21 To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

Neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised: and that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage: to whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you. But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed. For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles; but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision. And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; but when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews? Gal. 2. 3-5, 11-14.

22 To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

We ... that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Ro. 15. 1.—I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved. 1 Co. 10. 33.—I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. 2 Ti. 2. 10.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain.

I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Phi. 3. 14.—Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us. He. 12. 1.

25 And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible.

We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Eph. 6. 12.—Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses. 1 Ti. 6. 12.—I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Ti. 4. 7, 8.—And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. 1 Pe. 5. 4. An inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. 1 Pe. 1. 4.

26 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. 2 Ti. 1. 12.—Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. He. 4. 1.—Give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall: for so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. 2 Pe. 1. 10, 11.

Strive to enter in at the strait gate. Luk. 13. 24.

27 But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

In all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings. 2 Co. 6. 4, 5; 1 Co. 9. 25; Ro. 8. 13.

That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place. Ac. 1. 25.—Balaam. 2 Pe. 2. 15.

CHAPTER X.

MOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea;

The Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way. Ex. 13. 21.—And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left. Ex. 14. 22.

2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

Had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me. Jno. 5. 46.—The Lord thy God will raise up unto thee a Prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; unto him ye shall hearken. De. 18. 15; Mat. 23. 19, 20.

3 And did all eat the same spiritual meat;

Thou gavest also thy good Spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst. Ne. 9. 20; Ex. 16. 15, 35.—And had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven. Ps. 78. 24.—Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat. ... Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven. I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever. Jno. 6. 31, 32, 35, 51, 58.—Unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. He. 4. 2.

4 And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ.

Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. Ex. 17. 6.—And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice: and the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also. Nu. 20. 11.—Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life. Jno. 4. 14.—For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. Jno. 6. 55.—If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive. Jno. 7. 37-39.—Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Is. 55. 1.—I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen. Is. 43. 20.—He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. Is. 53. 5.—This is my body. Mat. 26. 26.

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

Among these there was not a man of them whom Moses and Aaron the priest numbered, when they numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai. For the Lord had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness. And there was not left a man of them, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun. Nu. 26. 64, 65.—The Lord, having saved

not. ¶

afterward destroyed them

6 Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.

The mixt multitude that was among them fell a lusting; and the children of Israel also wept again, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat? And while the flesh was yet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the wrath of the Lord was kindled against the people, and the Lord smote the people with a very great plague. Nu. 11. 4, 33.—To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness: when your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work. Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways: unto whom I swear in my wrath that they should not enter into my rest. Ps. 95. 7, 11.—Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief. He. 4. 11.

7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

Aaron made a molten calf: and they said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation, and said, Tomorrow is a feast to the Lord. And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play. Ex. 32. 3-6.

8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

1 Co. 6. 18.
The people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab. And Moses said unto the judges of Israel, Slay ye every one his men that were joined unto Baal-peor. And those that died in the plague were twenty and four thousand. Nu. 25. 1, 5, 9.

9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.

Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared. Beware of him, and obey his voice, provoke him not; for he will not pardon your transgressions: for my name is in him. Ex. 23. 21.

The people did chide with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why chide ye with me? wherefore do ye tempt the Lord? And he called the name of the place Massah, and Meribah, because of the chiding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the Lord, saying, Is the Lord among us, or not? Ex. 17. 2, 7.—And the people spake against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, neither is there any water; and our soul loatheth this light bread. And the Lord sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and much people of Israel died. Nu. 21. 5, 6.

10 Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

All the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would God we had died in this wilderness! Your carcases shall fall in this wilderness; and all that were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, which have murmured against me. Nu. 14. 2, 29.

The Lord will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the Lord will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in.

The angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it. 2 So. 24. 16.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

Whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning. Ro. 15. 4.—The end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer. 1 Pe. 4. 7.
It is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time. 1 Jno. 2. 18.

12 Wherefore let him that thinketh he taketh heed lest he fall.

Thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear. Ro. 11. 20.—Happy is the man that feareth alway: but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief. Pr. 23. 14.—Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended. Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples. Mat. 26. 33-35.

13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 1. 9, 8.—The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations. 2 Pe. 2. 9.—The Lord is faithful, who shall establish you, and keep you from evil. 2 Th. 3. 3.—Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us. 2 Co. 1. 10.—The Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom. 2 Th. 4. 18.—We count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy. Ja. 5. 11.—Our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. Dn. 3. 17, 18.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.

Come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing. 2 Co. 6. 17.—Little children, keep yourselves from idols. 1 Jno. 5. 21.

15 I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.

We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ. 1 Co. 4. 10; 2 Co. 11. 19.

16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in Christ. Eph. 1. 3.

I do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth. Ge. 9. 12.—Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; for this is the blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. Mat. 26. 28; 1 Co. 11. 23, 24.

Truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 Jno. 1. 3, 6, 7.

He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. I am that bread of life. I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. Jno. 6. 47, 48, 51, 54, 56.—We are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast unto the end. He. 3. 14.

17 For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

We, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another. Ro. 12. 5.—As the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. 1 Co. 12. 12, 13.—Ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. Gal. 3. 26.

18 Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

My kinsmen according to the flesh: who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises; whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came. ... For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel. Ro. 9. 3, 6.

Thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, upon the altar of the Lord thy God: and the blood of thy sacrifices shall be poured out upon the altar of the Lord thy God, and thou shalt eat the flesh. De. 12. 27.

19 What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

We know that an idol is nothing in the world. 1 Co. 8. 4.

20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

They sacrificed unto devils, not to God. De. 32. 17.—They sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils. Ps. 106. 37.

21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

Where are their gods, their rock in whom they trusted, which did eat the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink offerings? let them rise up and help you, and be your protection. De. 32. 37, 38.

22 Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me. Ex. 20. 4, 5.—Thou shalt worship no other god: for the Lord, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous

God: lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go a whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and one call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice. Ex. 34. 14, 15.—They provoked him to jealousy with strange gods, with abominations provoked they him to anger. They sacrificed unto devils, not to God; to gods whom they knew not, to new gods that came newly up, whom your fathers feared not. They have moved me to jealousy with that which is not God; they have provoked me to anger with their vanities: and I will move them to jealousy with those which are not a people; I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation. De. 32. 16, 17, 21.—He is ... mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered? Job 9. 4.

23 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any. 1 Co. 6. 12.

24 Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.

1 Co. 10. 33.

We ... that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification. Ro. 15. 1, 2.

25 Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake:

26 For the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

Every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving. 1 Th. 4. 4.

The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein. Ps. 24. 1.

27 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof:

If any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols? But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ. 1 Co. 8. 10, 12.

I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat. Gen. 1. 29.

29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?

One believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs. Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him. Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand. One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind. Ro. 14. 2, 5.

30 For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks?

He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks. Ro. 14. 6.—Meats which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth. For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving. 1 Th. 4. 3, 4.

81 Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

Whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him. Col. 3. 17.—If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. 1 Ps. 4. 11.

82 Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God:

Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way. Ro. 14. 13.

83 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

1 Co. 10. 24; 9. 19-23.

CHAPTER XI.

BE ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

1 Co. 10. 33.

We ... that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification. For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me. Ro. 15. 1-3.—Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Phi. 2. 4-8.

2 Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances, as I delivered them to you.

Hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle. 2 Th. 2. 15.

8 But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God.

The husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church. Eph. 5. 23.—Thy husband ... shall rule over thee. Ge. 3. 16.—Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. 1 Ty. 2. 11, 12.—Wives, be in subjection to your own husbands. After this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands: even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord. 1 Ps. 3. 1, 5, 6.—My Father is greater than I. Jno. 14. 28.—God ... hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name. Phi. 2. 9.—He hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith, All things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him. And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all. 1 Co. 15. 27, 28.

4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

He that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort. 1 Co. 14. 3.—Judas and Silas, being prophets, ... exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them. Ac. 15. 32.

1 Co. 11. 3, 7-9.

5 But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

It shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions. Ac. 2. 17.—The same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy. Ac. 21. 9.—Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law. And if they will learn anything, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church. 1 Co. 14. 34, 35.

Nu. 5. 18.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

God created man in his own image. Ge. 1. 27.

8 For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.

God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof; and the rib, which the Lord God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man. Ge. 2. 21, 22.

9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.

God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a help meet for him. Ge. 2. 18.

10 For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head because of the angels.

Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she lighted off the camel. For she had said unto the servant, What man is this that walketh in the field to meet us? And the servant had said, It is my master: therefore she took a veil, and covered herself. Ge. 24. 64, 65.

Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation? He. 1. 14.—We ... are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses. He. 12. 1. Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error. Ec. 5. 6.—Before the gods will I sing praise unto thee. Ps. 138. 1.—There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth. Lk. 15. 10.

11 Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

There is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. Gal. 3. 28.

12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things of God.

1 Co. 11. 8.

Man that is born of a woman. Job 14. 1.

Of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Ro. 11. 36.

13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.

16 But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

Every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ. 1 Co. 1. 12.

19 For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him, through whom they come! Lu. 17. 1.—There shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies. 2 Pe. 2. 1.—Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of a prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the Lord your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. De. 13. 3.—They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us. 1 Jno. 2. 19.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear. Jude 12.

22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

Ja. 2. 1, 9.

23 For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

The gospel which was preached of me is not after man. For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ. Gal. 1. 11, 12.
Mat. 28. 28; Mar. 14. 22-24; Lu. 22. 19, 20.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.

If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. Jno. 14. 3.—This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven. Ac. 1. 11.

27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

1 Co. 11. 21, 33, 34.

They crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame. He. 6. 6.

28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates? 2 Co. 13. 5.—I have hated the congregation of evil doers; and will not sit with the wicked. I will wash mine hands in innocency: so will I compass thine altar, O Lord. Ps. 26. 5, 6.—If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me. Ps. 66. 18.—If thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee; leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. Mat. 5. 23, 24.—The eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized? And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. Ac. 8. 36, 37.—Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God. 1 Jno. 3. 21.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

1 Co. 11. 32.

As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. Re. 3. 19.—David ... fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption. Ac. 13. 36.—The word of the Lord came unto the prophet that brought him back; and he cried unto the man of God that came from Judah, saying Thus saith the Lord, Forasmuch as thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the Lord, and hast not kept the commandment which the Lord thy God commanded thee, ... thy carcase shall not come unto the sepulchre of thy fathers. And the prophet took up the carcase of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back: and the old prophet came to the city, to mourn and to bury him. 1 Ki. 13. 20, 22, 29.

31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Psa. 32. 5.—If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 Jno. 1. 9.

32 But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O Lord, and teachest him out of thy law; that thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit be digged for the wicked. Ps. 94. 12, 13.—Ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him: for whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons. Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live? For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous; nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby. He. 12. 5, 11.

83 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

84 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

CHAPTER XII.

NOW concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ: that in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge; even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: so that ye come behind in no gift. 1 Co. 1. 4-7.

2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

At that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world. Eph. 2. 12.—They be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch. Mat. 15. 14.—Taken captive by [the devil] at his will. 2 Th. 2. 26.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

There is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me. Mar. 9. 39.—Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. Mat. 16. 17.—Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God; and every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come. 1 Jno. 4. 2, 3.—Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Mat. 7. 21-23.

4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are differences of administrations; but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ. Eph. 4. 4-6, 11, 12.—Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; or ministry, let us wait on our ministering; or he that teacheth, on teaching; or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness. Ro. 12. 6-8.—As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified. 1 Pe. 4. 10, 11.

Mat. 25. 14-30.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

Not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought; but ... the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory. 1 Co. 2. 6, 7.—How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote afore in few words, whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ) which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; that the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel. To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God. Eph. 3. 3, 6, 10.—It is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. Mat. 13. 11.—Ye ... are ... filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. Ro. 15. 14.—Filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding. Col. 1. 9.

9 To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out? And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you. Mat. 17. 19, 20.

Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: and the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up. Ja. 5. 14, 15.—They brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them. There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits; and they were healed every one. Ac. 5. 15, 16.

10 To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:

The feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out. Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost. Ac. 5. 9, 10.

In these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch. And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Caesar. Ac. 11. 27, 28.

Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God. Ac. 8. 21.—Believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. 1 Jno. 4. 1.—Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write: ... Thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars. Re. 2. 1, 2.

They were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. Ac. 2. 4.—If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret. But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God. Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge. 1 Co. 14. 27–29.

11 But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

1 Co. 12. 6, 18.

God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will. He. 2. 4.—Why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost? ... Thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God. Ac. 5. 3, 4.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ.

Ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular. 1 Co. 12. 27.—As we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office; so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another. Ro. 12. 4, 5; Eph. 4. 4, 11, 12.—Grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ: from whom the whole body fitly joined together, and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love. Eph. 4. 15, 16.—To Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. Gal. 3. 16.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

He shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost. Mat. 3. 11.—It is the Spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing. Jno. 6. 63.—There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. Gal. 3. 28.—Now, in Christ Jesus, ye who sometime were far off, are made nigh by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us; that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby. Eph. 2. 13, 14, 16; 1 Co. 12. 7.—If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive. Jno. 7. 37–39.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

1 Co. 12. 11, 28.

19 And if they were all one member, where

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common. Ac. 4. 32.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

We are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. Eph. 5. 30.

28 And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.

He called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles. Luk. 6. 13.

There were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. Ac. 13. 1.

Look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea, ... hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also. Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus. Timothyus my workfellow. Ro. 16. 1, 3, 21.—Mark ... is profitable to me for the ministry. 2 Th. 4. 11.

The bishops and deacons. Phi. 1. 1.—Salute all them that have the rule over you. He. 13. 24.—For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city. Tit. 1. 5.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

Follow after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy. Covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues. 1 Co. 14. 1, 39.—Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth. 1 Co. 8. 1.—Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect. Mat. 5. 48.

CHAPTER XIII.

THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

Ac. 2.

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets. Mat. 22. 37-40.—Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently. 1 Pe. 1. 22.—We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death. 1 Jno. 3. 14.—Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love. 1 Jno. 4. 7, 8.

2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you. Mat. 17. 20.

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Mat. 7. 21-23.

3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven. Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. Mat. 6. 1, 2.—In Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. The fruit of the Spirit is love. Gal. 5. 6, 22.

4 Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

The Lord God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands. Ex. 34. 6, 7.—Put on ... as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. Col. 3. 12-14.—My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. 1 Jno. 3. 18, 19.

Love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest; for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil. Lu. 6. 35.—Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love. Ro. 12. 10.—And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. Eph. 4. 32.

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

Be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren; be pitiful, be courteous. 1 Pe. 3. 8.

Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth. 1 Co. 10. 24.—Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Phi. 2. 4.—We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification. Ro. 15. 1, 2.

The Pharisees said, He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils. And ... certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth. And Jesus knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts? Mat. 9. 34, 3.

6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth. Pr. 24. 17.—My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words. Rivers of waters run down mine eyes, because they keep not thy law. Ps. 119. 139, 136.—When he was come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it, saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes. Lu. 19. 41, 42.—Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them. Ro. 1. 32.

[Barnabas], when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad. Ac. 11. 23.—I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children walking in truth. 2 Jno. 4.

7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

Love covereth all sins. Pr. 10. 12.—Above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins. 1 Pe. 4. 8.—Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. Gal. 6. 2.

If [thy brother] trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him. Lu. 17. 4.—The servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient, in meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth. 2 Ti. 2. 24, 25.

I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. 2 Ti. 2. 10.

8 Charity never faileth; but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be; but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him. 1 Jno. 3. 2.—God is love. 1 Jno. 4. 8.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. Without faith it is impossible to please him: for that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. He. 11. 1, 6.

Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the veil. He. 6. 19.

CHAPTER XIV.

FOLLOW after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy.

Covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way. 1 Co. 12. 31.

2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself: but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. Eph. 4. 29.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

Sing ye praises with understanding. Ps. 47. 7.—Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. Col. 3. 16. God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. Jno. 4. 24.

16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, than by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.

21 In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods? Jno. 10. 34; Ps. 82. 6.—With stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people. ... Yet they would not hear. Is. 28. 11, 12.—The Lord shall bring a nation against thee from far, ... whose tongue thou shalt not understand. De. 28. 49.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine. Ac. 2. 13.

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

When they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Ac. 2. 37.

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernment of the thoughts and intents of the heart. He. 4. 12.

The Sabaeans ... shall come over unto thee, ... and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee; and there is none else, there is no God. Is. 45. 14.—Ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard that God is with you. Zec. 8. 23.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying.

To one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; ... to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. 1 Co. 12. 8, 10, 7.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.

Despise not prophesyings. Prove all things; hold fast that which is good. 1 Th. 5. 20, 21.—Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits, whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. 1 Jno. 4. 1.—To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. Is. 8. 20.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophecy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was stirred. My heart was hot within me, while I was musing the fire burned: then spake I with my tongue. Ps. 39. 2, 3.

34 Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law.

Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. 1 Ti. 2. 11, 12.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. Eph. 5. 22.—As it is fit in the Lord. Col. 3. 18.—Discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed. Ti. 2. 5.—Be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives. 1 Pe. 3. 1.

36 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?

From you sounded out the word of the Lord ... in Macedonia and Achaia. 1 Th. 1. 8.—From Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. Ro. 15. 19.

37 If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ. 1 Co. 3. 1.

We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error. 1 Jno. 4. 6.

38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you. Mat. 7. 6.—Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch. Mat. 15. 14.—If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness; he is proud, knowing nothing, but dotting about questions and stripes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmising, perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself. 1 Ti. 6. 3, 5.

39 Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

1 Co. 14. 1.

40 Let all things be done decently and in order.

1 Co. 14. 33.

CHAPTER XV.

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

Ac. 13. 4, 5. 1 Co. 1. 4, 8.

2 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. Ro. 1. 16.

He that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it; yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended. Mat. 13. 20, 21.—Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble. But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? Ja. 2. 19, 20.

3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. 1 Pe. 2. 24.

He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. He was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken. Is. 53. 8.—After threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself. Da. 9. 26.—Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day. Lu. 24. 46.

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures :

He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption. Ac. 2. 31.—As Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly ; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. Mat. 12. 40.—Having ... obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come : that Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles. Ac. 26. 22, 23.

5 And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve :

The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon. Lu. 24. 34.—Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them : then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you. Jno. 20. 19, 28.

6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once ; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them. And when they saw him, they worshipped him : but some doubted. Mat. 28. 16, 17.

7 After that, he was seen of James ; then of all the apostles.

To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days. Ac. 1. 3. And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them. Lu. 24. 50.

8 And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time.

I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. Ac. 9. 5 ; 22. 14, 18 ; 26. 16.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ. Eph. 3. 8.—Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious : but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. 1 Ti. 1. 13.—As for Saul, he made havoc of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison. Ac. 8. 3.—Breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord. Ac. 9. 1.—Beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it. Ga. 1. 13.

10 But by the grace of God I am what I am : and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain ; but I laboured more abundantly than they all : yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

In nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing. 2 Co. 12. 11.—Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves ; but our sufficiency is of God ; who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament. 2 Co. 3. 5, 6.—I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily. Col. 1. 29.—For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles. Ga. 2. 8.—It is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you. Mat. 10. 20.—It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phi. 2. 13.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified. 1 Co. 2. 2.—They taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead. Ac. 4. 2.—Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them. Ac. 8. 5.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead ?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen :

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. 1 Pe. 1. 3.—I am the resurrection, and the life : he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. Jno. 11. 25.—Yet a little while, and the world shall see me no more ; but ye see me : because I live, ye shall live also. Jno. 14. 19.—Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification. Ro. 4. 25.—If the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you. Ro. 8. 11.—Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you. 2 Co. 4. 14.—For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. 1 Th. 4. 14.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God ; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ : whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses. Ac. 2. 32.—With great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. Ac. 4. 33.—God raised him from the dead. Ac. 13. 30.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised :

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain ; ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. Ac. 5. 31.—If, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. Ro. 5. 10.—This man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. He. 7. 24, 25.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

All that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. 2 Ti. 3. 12.—As the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ. 2 Co. 1. 5.

1 Co. 15. 29, 32.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

As the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself; and hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man. Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation. Jno. 5. 26-29.—As by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. ... Much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ. Ro. 5. 12, 17.

23 But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

We which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air. 1 Th. 4. 15-17.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed. Da. 7. 13, 14.—The seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever. And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned. Re. 11. 15-17.

25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

Yet have I set my King upon my holy hill of Zion. I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession. Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel. Ps. 2. 6, 9.—The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool. Ps. 110. 1.—This man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God; from henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool. He. 10. 12, 13.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

Death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. Re. 20. 14.—Our Saviour Jesus Christ ... hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. 2 Ti. 1. 10.—As the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil. He. 2. 14.

27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith, All things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.

All things are delivered unto me of my Father. Mat. 11. 27.—All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Mat. 28. 18. Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him. He. 2. 8; Ps. 8. 6.—He raised [Christ] from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: and hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church. Eph. 1. 20-22.—Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him. 1 Pe. 3. 22.

28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

The Father, ... the Son, and ... the Holy Ghost. Mat. 28. 19. The head of Christ is God. 1 Co. 11. 3.—As the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself; and hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man. I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me. Jno. 5. 26, 27, 30.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

At that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem. ... And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him. As for Saul, he made havoc of the church. But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. Ac. 8. 1-3, 12.

30 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren. 2 Co. 11. 26.

31 I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.

What is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? 1 Th. 2. 19.

Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh. 2 Co. 4. 10, 11.—As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Ro. 8. 36.

32 If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die.

I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost. For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries. 1 Co. 16. 8, 9.

Is. 22. 13.

33 Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.

He that walketh with wise men shall be wise; but a companion of fools shall be destroyed. Pr. 13. 20.—Shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness. And their word will eat as doth a canker : of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus ; who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already. 2 Th. 2. 16-18.

34 Awake to righteousness, and sin not ; for some have not the knowledge of God : I speak this to your shame.

Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. Eph. 5. 14.—Now it is high time to awake out of sleep : for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. Ro. 13. 11.—While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. Mat. 25. 5.

35 But some man will say, How are the dead raised up ? and with what body do they come ?

36 Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die :

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain :

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

Jno. 12. 24.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh : but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial : but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars : for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption ; it is raised in incorruption :

Dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return. Ge. 3. 19. They which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage : neither can they die any more : for they are equal unto the angels. Lu. 20. 35, 36.—They that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament ; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. Da. 12. 3.—Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Mat. 13. 43.—Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself. Phi. 3. 21.

43 It is sown in dishonour ; it is raised in glory : it is sown in weakness ; it is raised in power :

Ps. 49. 15.

44 It is sown a natural body ; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart, and was transfigured before them : and his face did shine as the sun. Mat. 17. 1, 2.

45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul ; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life ; and man became a living soul. Ge. 2. 7.—As the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them ; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will. Jno. 5. 21.—He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation ; but is passed from death unto life. The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God : and they that hear shall live. Jno. 5. 24, 25.—It is the spirit that quickeneth ; the flesh profiteth nothing : the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life. Jno. 6. 63.—Thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him. Jno. 17. 2.—The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. Ro. 8. 2.—If the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you. Ro. 8. 11.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural ; and afterward that which is spiritual.

Ye have put off the old man with his deeds ; and have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him. Col. 3. 9, 10.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthy : the second man is the Lord from heaven.

God formed man of the dust of the ground. Ge. 2. 7. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely : and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. Je. 23. 5, 6.—JEHOVAH. Ex. 6. 3.—He is Lord of all. Ac. 10. 36.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy : and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

Though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God. Job. 19. 26.

Our conversation is in heaven ; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ : who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself. Phi. 3. 20, 21.

49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

Adam ... begat a son in his own likeness, after his image. Ge. 5. 3.

Whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son. Ro. 8. 29.—Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be : but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him : for we shall see him as he is. 1 Jno. 3. 2.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God ; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

They which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage : neither can they die any more : for they are equal unto the angels. Lu. 20. 35, 36.—We know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 Co. 5. 1.

An inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. 1 Pe. 1. 4.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery ; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

This we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive, and remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. 1 Th. 4. 15-17.—He which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you. 2 Co. 4. 14.

52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

He shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet; and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. Mat. 24. 31.—The hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation. Jno. 5. 28, 29.—The day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. 2 Pe. 3. 10.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life. 2 Co. 5. 4.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

He will swallow up death in victory. Is. 25. 8.—As the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. He. 2. 14, 15.

55 O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death: O death, I will be thy plagues; O grave, I will be thy destruction. Ho. 13. 14.

56 The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 6. 23.

The law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression. Ro. 4. 15.—And the commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death. For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me. Ro. 7. 10, 11.

57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. Ro. 8. 35-37.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel. Col. 1. 23.—Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless. 2 Pe. 3. 14.

He that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith. Ga. 6. 8-10.

Mat. 25. 31-40.

CHAPTER XVI.

NOW concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

As touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you. 2 Co. 9. 1.—It hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem. Ro. 15. 26.—In these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch. And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cesar. Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea: which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul. Ac. 11. 27-30.

2 Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

The same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you. Jno. 20. 19, 26.—And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them. Ac. 20. 7.—I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day. Ro. 1. 10.

Thou shalt remember the Lord thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth. De. 8. 18.

3 And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem.

4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia.

2 Co. 1. 15, 16.

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

I will return again unto you, if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus. Ac. 18. 21.—I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will. 1 Co. 4. 19.—Ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that. Ja. 4. 15.—In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Pr. 3. 6.

8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.

Ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete. Le. 23. 15.

9 For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

A door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ. Col. 4. 3. Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus. And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God. But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus. Ac. 19. 1, 8, 9.

10 Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

He sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia. Ac. 19. 22.

Ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel. Phi. 2. 22.

11 Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

Let no man despise thy youth. 1 Ti. 4. 12.—He that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me. Lu. 10. 16.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

Who ... is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed? 1 Co. 3. 5.—A certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus. Ac. 18. 24.—Apollos was at Corinth. Ac. 19. 1.

13 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation. Mat. 26. 41.—Let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober. 1 Th. 5. 6.—Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. 1 Pe. 5. 8.—Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God. Re. 3. 2.—Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. Re. 16. 15.

Let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel. Phi. 1. 27.

Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Eph. 6. 10.—Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness. Col. 1. 11.—Be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. 2 Ti. 2. 1.

14 Let all your things be done with charity.

Above all things have fervent charity among yourselves. 1 Pe. 4. 8. 1 Co. 13.

15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,)

I baptized ... the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other. 1 Co. 1. 16.

Salute my wellbeloved Epenetus, who is the firstfruits of Achaia unto Christ. Ro. 16. 5.

God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister. He. 6. 10.

16 That ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.

Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine. 1 Ti. 5. 17.

17 I am glad of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.

When I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me, the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied. 2 Co. 11. 9.

18 For they have refreshed my spirit and your's: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

Receive him ... in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation. Phi. 2. 29.

19 The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.

Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus. Ro. 16. 3.—[Apollos] began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly. Ac. 18. 26.—All the saints which are with them. Ro. 16. 15.

20 All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with an holy kiss.

Salute one another with a holy kiss. Ro. 16. 16.—Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity. 1 Pe. 5. 14.

21 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand.

The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle. 2 Th. 3. 17.

Col. 4. 18. Ro. 16. 22.

22 If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maran-atha.

Let him be accursed. Gal. 1. 8.

The Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all. Jude 14, 15.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

The first epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi by Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus, and Timotheus.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE CORINTHIANS

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia :

2 Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. ... I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee; delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Ac. 26. 15-18.

To the saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus. Eph. 1. 1.—[Charity] believeth all things, hopeth all things. 1 Co. 13. 7.

3 Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ. Eph. 1. 3.—Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. 1 Pe. 1. 3.—I thank my God upon every remembrance of you. Phi. 1. 3.—We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints. Col. 1. 3, 4.—We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers; remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father. 1 Th. 1. 2, 3.—We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth. 2 Th. 1. 3.

I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God. Jno. 20. 17.

Thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth. Ps. 86. 15.

As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you. Is. 66. 13.

4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus. 2 Co. 7. 6.—Thou, Lord, hast holpen me, and comforted me. Ps. 86. 17.—I, even I, am he that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldst be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass; and forgettest the Lord thy maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth. Is. 51. 12, 13.—I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth. ... I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. Jno. 14. 16-18.—Our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts. 2 Th. 2. 16, 17.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus, might be made manifest in our body. 2 Co. 4. 10.—Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace; and labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it. 1 Co. 4. 11, 12.—Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church. Col. 1. 24.—We have not a high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. He. 4. 15.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

Many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear. Phi. 1. 14.

We must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. Ac. 14. 22.—We glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; and patience, experience; and experience, hope. Rom. 5. 3, 4.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. Mat. 5. 4.—If we suffer, we shall also reign with him. 2 Th. 2. 12.—But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. 1 Pe. 5. 10.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:

They were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians. And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre. Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused. Ac. 19. 28, 31, 32.

9 But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead :

Thus saith the Lord, Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the Lord. Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is. Je. 17. 5, 7.

10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us ;

The Jews ... went about to kill me. Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day. Ac. 26. 21, 22.—At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me. Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom. 2 Ti. 4. 16-18.—Samuel took a stone, and set it between Mizpeh and Shenn, and called the name of it Eben-ezer, saying, Hitherto hath the Lord helped us. 1 Sa. 7. 12.—Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all. He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken. Ps. 34. 19, 20.—The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished. 2 Pe. 2. 9.

11 Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ. Phi. 1. 19. I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me; that I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Judea. Ro. 15. 30, 31.—I trust that through your prayers I shall be given unto you. Phile. 22.

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

Herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men. Ac. 24. 16.—We are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ. 2 Co. 2. 17.—But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 2 Co. 4. 2.

My speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power. 1 Co. 2. 4.

By the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 1 Co. 15. 10.

13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end ;

14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are our's in the day of the Lord Jesus.

Part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles. Ac. 14. 4.

What is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? For ye are our glory and joy. 1 Th. 2. 19, 20.—Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain. Phi. 2. 16.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have a second benefit ;

I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established. Ro. 1. 11.

16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judæa.

1 Co. 16. 5, 6.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?

18 But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay.

19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.

The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee; therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee, shall be called the Son of God. La. 1. 35.

When Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ. And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles. Ac. 18. 5, 6.—And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God. Ac. 9. 20.

Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever. He. 13. 8.

20 For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers: and that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. Ro. 15. 8, 9. He is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance. He. 9. 15.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God ;

Ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things. The anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him. 1 Jo. 2. 20, 27.

22 Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

God ... hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit. 2 Co. 5. 5.—Ourselves ... have the firstfruits of the Spirit. Ro. 8. 23.—In whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory. Eph. 1. 13, 14.—Grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Eph. 4. 30.—If any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God. Ro. 8. 9, 14, 16.—The love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. Ro. 5. 5.—The foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. 2 Ti. 2. 19.

23 Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ. Phi. 1. 8.—God is my witness. Ro. 1. 9. The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ ... knoweth that I lie not. 2 Co. 11. 31.—Behold, before God, I lie not. Gal. 1. 20.

What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness? 1 Co. 4. 21.—If I come again, I will not spare. Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction. 2 Co. 13. 2, 10.

24 Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock. 1 Pe. 5. 3.

I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith; that your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again. Phi. 1. 25, 26.

Take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance. Eph. 6. 13-18.

CHAPTER II.

BUT I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. 1 Co. 5. 1.

This selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter. 2 Co. 7. 11.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of many.

In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, to deliver such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. 1 Co. 5. 4, 5.

7 So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Gal. 6. 1.—If any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother. 2 Th. 3. 14, 15.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person of Christ;

Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained. Jno. 20. 23. 2 Co. 2. 6.

11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord,

We sailed away from Philippi ... and came unto them to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days. And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them. Ac. 20. 6, 7.

13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother; but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

When we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears. Nevertheless God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus. 2 Co. 7. 5, 6.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. Ro. 15. 18, 19.

Because of the savour of thy good ointments, thy name is as ointment poured forth. Gal. 1. 3.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish :

16 To the one we are the savour of death unto death ; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things ?

Christ... hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour. Eph. 5. 2.—We preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness ; but unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. 1 Co. 1. 23, 24.—The preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness ; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. 1 Co. 1. 18.—For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see, and that they which see might be made blind. Jno. 9. 39.—Unto you... which believe he is precious. And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient. 1 Pe. 2. 7, 8.—If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin : but now they have no cloke for their sin. Jno. 15. 22. This is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. Jno. 3. 19.

By the grace of God I am what I am : and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain ; but I laboured more abundantly than they all : yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 1 Co. 15. 10.—Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves ; but our sufficiency is of God ; who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament ; not of the letter, but of the spirit : for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. 2 Co. 3. 5, 6.

17 For we are not as many which corrupt the word of God : but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

Our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. 2 Co. 1. 12.—[We] have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully ; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 2 Co. 4. 2.—Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. Col. 2. 8.

CHAPTER III.

DO we begin again to commend ourselves ? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you ?

I am become a fool in glorying ; ye have compelled me : for I ought to have been commended of you : for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing. 2 Co. 12. 11.—When [Apollus] was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him. Ac. 18. 27.

2 Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men :

The seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord. 1 Co. 9. 2.

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God ; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire. Re. 2. 18.

We are labourers together with God : ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building. 1 Co. 3. 9.

He that hath an ear let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches. Re. 2. 7.

The Lord said unto Moses, Come up to me into the mount, and be there ; and I will give thee tables of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written. Ex. 24. 12.

I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts. Je. 31. 33.—I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you ; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh : that they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them. Eze. 11. 19, 20.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward :

2 Co. 3. 12.

5 Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves ; but our sufficiency is of God ;

I am the vine, ye are the branches : He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit : for without me ye can do nothing. Jno. 15. 5.—It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phi. 2. 13.—By the grace of God I am what I am : and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain ; but I laboured more abundantly than they all : yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 1 Co. 15. 10 ; 2 Co. 2. 16.

6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament ; not of the letter, but of the spirit : for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.

I was made a minister according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power. Eph. 3. 7.—According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry. 1 Th. 1. 11, 12.—I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God ; even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints : to whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles ; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory : whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom ; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus : whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily. Col. 1. 25, 29.

Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah. Je. 31. 31.—This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. Mat. 26. 28.—He is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises. He. 8. 6.

Now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held ; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter. Ro. 7. 6.—He is a Jew, which is one inwardly ; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter ; whose praise is not of men, but of God. Ro. 2. 29.—It is the Spirit that quickeneth ; the flesh profiteth nothing : the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life. Jno. 6. 63.—Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law ; ye are fallen from grace. For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision ; but faith which worketh by love. Gal. 5. 4, 6.—The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. Ro. 8. 2.—As many as are of the works of the law are under the curse : for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. Gal. 3. 10.—Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight : for by the law is the knowledge of sin. Ro. 3. 20.—The law worketh wrath. Ro. 4. 15.—The commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death. For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me. Ro. 7. 10, 11.

7 But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away:

The law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just and good. Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful. Ro. 7. 12, 13.

It came to pass, when Moses came down from mount Sinai with the two tables of testimony in Moses' hand, when he came down from the mount, that Moses wist not that the skin of his face shone while he talked with him. And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to come nigh him. Ex. 34. 29, 30.

In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away. He. 8. 13.

8 How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

This is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel; And it shall come to pass in the last days saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh. Ac. 2. 16, 17.—After that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory. Eph. 1. 13, 14.

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith. Ro. 1. 16, 17.—Now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets. Ro. 3. 21.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech:

2 Co. 1. 6; 4. 1, 2.

Great is my boldness of speech toward you. 2 Co. 7. 4.—[Praying] for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the Gospel. Eph. 6. 19.

13 And not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:

Till Moses had done speaking with them, he put a vail on his face. Ex. 34. 33.

Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. Ro. 10. 4.—Let no man ... judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. Col. 2. 16, 17.—The prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you: searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow. Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into. 1 Pe. 1. 10-12; He. 9. 1-14.

14 But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.

Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded (according as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day. ... Blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in. Ro. 11. 7, 8, 25.—For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him. And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain. And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre. Ac. 13. 27, 29.

The god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. 2 Co. 4. 4.

16 Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

This shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people. And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them. Je. 31. 33, 34.—Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the Lord their God, and David their king; and shall fear the Lord and his goodness in the latter days. Ho. 3. 5.—I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him. Zec. 12. 10.—He will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and the vail that is spread over all nations. Is. 25. 7.

17 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

The last Adam was made a quickening spirit. 1 Co. 15. 45.

There is ... now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. Ro. 8. 1, 2.—Because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ. Gal. 4. 6, 7.—If the Son ... shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. Jno. 8. 36.

18 But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

2 Co. 4. 6.

Whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son. Ro. 8. 29.—Giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; and to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; and to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Pe. 1. 5, 8.

CHAPTER IV.

THEREFORE seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;

Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. 1 Th. 1. 13.

Watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. 2 Th. 4. 5.—The Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying, that bonds and afflictions abide me. But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. Ac. 20. 23, 24.

2 But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

We are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ. 2 Co. 2. 17.

I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God. Ac. 20. 27.

3 But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:

With all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 2 Th. 2. 10.—The preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. 1 Co. 1. 18.

4 In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

The devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; and saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. Mat. 4. 8, 9.—He that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not. We know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness. And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true. 1 Jno. 5. 18, 20.—We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Eph. 6. 12.—When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side. Mat. 13. 19.—In time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience. Eph. 2. 2.—I send thee to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God. Ac. 26. 17, 18.—Now shall the prince of this world be cast out. Jno. 12. 31.—The great dragon was cast out, that old serpent called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world. Re. 12. 9.

I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. Jno. 8. 12.—God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Col. 1. 27.

He that hath seen me hath seen the Father. Jno. 14. 9.—No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him. The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. Jno. 1. 18, 14.—The image of the invisible God. Col. 1. 15.—The brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person. He. 1. 3.

The entrance of thy words giveth light; it giveth understanding unto the simple. Psa. 119. 130.

5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved. 1 Co. 10. 33.

Unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. Luk. 2. 11.—The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: he is Lord of all. Ac. 10. 36.

Whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant: even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. Mat. 20. 27, 28. Though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more. 1 Co. 9. 19; 2 Co. 5. 13, 20.

6 For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

God said, Let there be light: and there was light. Ge. 1. 3.

7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling. And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power: that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. 1 Co. 2. 3, 5.

8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

When we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears. 2 Co. 7. 5.

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

Be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me. He. 13. 5, 6.

Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the Lord upholdeth him with his hand. Psa. 37. 24.

10 Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Ro. 8. 36; Psa. 44. 22.—In deaths oft... once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep. 2 Co. 11. 23, 25.—That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death. Phi. 3. 10.—As the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ. 2 Co. 1. 5.—Ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you. Though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. We also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you. 2 Co. 13. 3, 4.—I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee. Ac. 18. 10.—It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him: if we suffer, we shall also reign with him. 2 Th. 2. 11, 12.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

Whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation. 2 Co. 1. 6.—If I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all. Phi. 2. 17.

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

Thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling. I will walk before the Lord in the land of the living. I believed, therefore have I spoken: I was greatly afflicted. Ps. 116. 8-10.

They called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus. But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye. For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard. So when they had further threatened them, they let them go. Ac. 4. 18-21.

14 Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

If the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you. Ro. 8. 11.

Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, ... the only wise God our Saviour. Jude 24, 25.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

Let no man glory in men, For all things are your's. 1 Co. 3. 21.—Whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation. 2 Co. 1. 6.—[I] now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church. Col. 1. 24. I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. 2 Th. 2. 10.

I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 1. 4.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed by day.

2 Co. 4. 8-12.

Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the ways of them. Who passing through the valley of Baca make it a well; the rain also filleth the pools. They go from strength to strength, every one of them in Zion appeareth before God. Ps. 84. 5-7.—Your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth; so that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure. 2 Th. 1. 3, 4.—[Ye] have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him. Col. 3. 10.

17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven. Mat. 5. 11, 12.—For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. Ro. 8. 18.—But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. 1 Pe. 5. 10.—They verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. He. 12. 10.

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

We walk by faith, not by sight. 2 Co. 5. 7.—Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. He. 11. 1.—By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward. By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. He. 11. 24-27.

The world passeth away, and the lust thereof; but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. 1 Jno. 2. 17.—These shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal. Mat. 25. 46.

CHAPTER V.

FOR we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

We desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end. He. 6. 11.

Shortly I must put off this my tabernacle. 2 Pe. 1. 14.—Dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return. Ge. 3. 19.—Them that dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth. Job. 4. 19.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. Jno. 14. 2. By faith [Abraham] sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise: for he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God. Now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city. He. 11. 9, 10, 16.

2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

Ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body. Ro. 8. 23.

Having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better. Phi. 1. 23.—For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. 1 Co. 15. 53.

3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

I counsel thee to buy of me ... white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear. Re. 3. 18.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death? Ro. 7. 24.

Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him. Ge. 5. 24.—Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven. 2 Ki. 2. 11.—When this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. 1 Co. 15. 54.

5 Now he that hath wrought us for the self-same thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

The Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. Ac.

... washed, ... ye are sanctified, ... ye are justified ... by the Spirit of our God. 1 Co. 6. 11.—Why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost? ... thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God. Ac. 5. 3, 4.

The earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession. Eph. 1. 14.—Grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Eph. 4. 30; 2 Co. 1. 22.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord :

I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. Jno. 14. 2, 3.

7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight :)

We look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen : for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. 2 Co. 4. 18.—Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. He. 11. 1.—If we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it. Ro. 8. 25.

8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

Having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ, which is far better. Phi. 1. 23.

9 Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest. He. 4. 11.—Strive to enter in at the strait gate. Luk. 13. 24.

10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the his sheep from the goats. Mat. 25. 31, 32.—We shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God. Ro. 14. 10, 12.—Behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. Re. 22. 12.—The day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; who will render to every man according to his deeds: to them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life: but unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath, tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile; but glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile; for there is no respect of persons with God. Ro. 2. 5, 11.—I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away, and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire. Re. 20. 11, 12, 15.—Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. Gal. 6. 7. Jno. 3. 18; Ro. 8. 1.

11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. He. 10. 31.

The servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient, in meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth. 2 Ti. 2. 24, 25.—And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh. Jude 23.

[We] have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 2 Co. 4. 2.

12 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart.

Do we begin again to commend ourselves? 2 Co. 3. 1.—Ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are our's in the day of the Lord Jesus. 2 Co. 1. 14.

The LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart. 1 Sa. 16. 7.

13 For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

Festus said, ... Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad. Ac. 26. 24.—Many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad. Jno. 10. 20.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead :

The love of Christ, which passeth knowledge. Eph. 3. 19.—This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Jno. 15. 12, 13.—Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. 1 Jno. 3. 16.

We cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard. Ac. 4. 20.

By one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. Ro. 5. 12.—Dead in trespasses and sins. Eph. 2. 1.

15 And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

God our Saviour; who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, sins of the whole world. 1 Jno. 2. 2.—Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Ti. 2. 14.—Forasmuch ... as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind; for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin; that he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. 1 Pe. 4. 1, 2.—I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Gal. 2. 20.—Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Co. 6. 19, 20.—For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself. For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living. Ro. 14. 7-9.

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

I charge thee ... that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality. 1 Ti. 5. 21.—Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I. 2 Co. 11. 22.—I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh: who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises; whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came. Ro. 9. 3-5.—When Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed. For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision. And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation. But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews? Gal. 2. 11-14.—Who-soever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother. Mat. 12. 50.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

I am the vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. Jno. 15. 5.—In the Lord shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory. Is. 45. 25.—Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Co. 1. 30.—He hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love. Eph. 1. 4.—Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. 1 Jno. 4. 13.

In Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature. Gal. 6. 15.—In Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. Gal. 5. 6.

Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Jno. 3. 3.—We are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. Eph. 2. 10.—And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; and that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Eph. 4. 23, 24.

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: for which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience: in the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them. But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds; and have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him. Col. 3. 1, 3, 5, 10.—What things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, and be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith. Phi. 3. 7-9.

18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. 1 Jno. 4. 10. If, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. Ro. 5. 10.

Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. Mar. 16. 15.

19 To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

God was manifest in the flesh. 1 Ti. 3. 16.

Having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven. Col. 1. 20; 2 Co. 5. 15.

Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. Ro. 3. 24, 25.—To him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin. Ro. 4. 5-8.

20 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

The priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the Lord of hosts. Mal. 2. 7.

Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto thee. Job 22. 21.

21 For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. He made his grave with the wicked, ... because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth. He was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors. Is. 53. 6, 9, 12.—Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree. Gal. 3. 13.—Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth. Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. 1 Pe. 2. 22, 24.—Ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin. 1 Jno. 3. 5.

Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. Je. 23. 5, 6.—I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith. Ro. 1. 16, 17.—For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous. Ro. 5. 19.

CHAPTER VI.

WE then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

We are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building. 1 Co. 3. 9.

The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world. Ti. 2. 11, 12.—How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation? He. 2. 3.—The day of salvation. 2 Co. 6. 2.

2 (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

Thus saith the Lord, In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages. Is. 49. 8.

Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded; but ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof: I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh; when your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you. Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me. Pr. 1. 24-28.—Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near. Is. 55. 6.—Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able. When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door. Lu. 13. 24, 25.—Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you. Jno. 12. 35.—Wherefore, as the Holy Ghost saith, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts. He. 3. 7, 8.—If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes. Lu. 19. 42.

3 Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. 1 Co. 4. 1.—Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves; be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues; and ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved. Mat. 10. 16, 18, 22.

Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience. 2 Co. 12. 12.—My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing. Ja. 1. 2, 4.—Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me. Ac. 20. 34.

5 In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

When they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison. Ac. 16. 23.—He commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment hall. Ac. 23. 35.

Some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas; ... but the Jews which believed not, ... gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people. Ac. 17. 4, 5. They were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians. And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre. Ac. 19. 28, 29.

I laboured more abundantly than they all. 1 Co. 15. 10.—Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft. Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one. Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep; in journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; in weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches. 2 Co. 11. 23-28.

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

[We] have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 2 Co. 4. 2.—Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe. 1 Th. 2. 10.

When ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ. Eph. 3. 4.

Thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience. 2 Th. 3. 10.—Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. 2 Th. 4. 2.

Our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance. 1 Th. 1. 5.—I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God. Ro. 15. 18, 19.

I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved. 2 Co. 12. 15.

7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

Not ... handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 2 Co. 4. 2.

My speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power. 1 Co. 2. 4.—The weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds. 2 Co. 10. 4; 6. 6.

Let us ... cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. Let us walk honestly, as in the day. Ro. 13. 12, 13.—Righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. Lu. 1. 6.—Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. Eph. 6. 11.

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;

Some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people. Jno. 7. 12.

9 As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed;

Though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things. 2 Co. 11. 6.—We are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men. 1 Co. 4. 9.

We had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead. 2 Co. 1. 9.—Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh. 2 Co. 4. 10, 11.

The Lord hath chastened me sore: but he hath not given me over unto death. Ps. 118. 18.

10 As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich ; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for their's is the kingdom of heaven. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. Mat. 5. 10, 12.—Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice. Phi. 4. 4.

I have suffered the loss of all things. Phi. 3. 8.
Rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him. Ja. 2. 5.

All things are your's; whether ... the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are your's. 1 Co. 3. 21, 22.—The Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly. Ps. 84. 11.

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

Ye are in our hearts to die and live with you. 2 Co. 7. 3.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

As my beloved sons I warn you. 1 Co. 4. 14.—Ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children. 1 Th. 2. 11.

Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am. Ga. 4. 12.

14 Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

Thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor shew mercy unto them: neither shalt thou make marriages with them; thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son. De. 7. 2, 3.—The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord. 1 Co. 7. 39.

Thou shalt not let thy cattle gender with a diverse kind: thou shalt not sow thy field with mingled seed: neither shall a garment mingled of linen and woollen come upon thee. Le. 19. 19.

Because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. Be not ye therefore partakers with them. For ye were sometime darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light: (for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;) proving what is acceptable unto the Lord. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. Eph. 5. 6, 11.

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils. 1 Co. 10. 21.—Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? If the Lord be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. 1 Ki. 18. 21.—When the Philistines took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon. And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of the Lord. 1 Sa. 5. 2, 3.

He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Mar. 16. 16.

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Mat. 6. 24.—Little children, keep yourselves from idols. 1 Jno. 5. 21.—Covetousness ... is idolatry. Col. 3. 5.

Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? 1 Co. 3. 16.—What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? 1 Co. 6. 19.—In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto a holy temple in the Lord: in whom ye also are builded together for a habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. 2. 21, 22.

I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God. Ex. 29. 45.—I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be my people. Le. 26. 12.—This shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel: After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people. Je. 31. 33.

17 Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the Lord. Is. 52. 11.—Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. Ps. 1. 1. If any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof. 1 Co. 10. 28.

18 And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn. Je. 31. 9.—As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs: heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. Ro. 8. 14, 17.—He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son. Re. 21. 7.

CHAPTER VII.

HAVING therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him: for we shall see him as he is. And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure. 1 Jno. 3. 1, 3.—According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue: whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; and to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; and to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. 2 Pe. 1. 3, 7.—The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Tit. 2. 11-14.—The works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. Gal. 5. 19-21.—Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded. Ja. 4. 8.—Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you. Eze. 36. 25, 26.—Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. Psa. 51. 10.—Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after. Phi. 3. 12.—Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear. Heb. 12. 28.

2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

We are ambassadors for Christ. 2 Co. 5. 20.—He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me. He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward. Mat. 10. 40, 41.

2 Co. 6. 11-13.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

Ye are our epistle written in our hearts. 2 Co. 3. 2.—I have you in my heart. Phi. 1. 7.—Being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us. 1 Th. 2. 8.

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ; that in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge; even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: so that ye come behind in no gift. 1 Co. 1. 4-7.—Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all. Phi. 2. 17.

5 For, when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.

When I came to Troas ... I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia. 2 Co. 2. 12, 13.—We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed. 2 Co. 4. 8, 9.

Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches. 2 Co. 11. 28.—I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would. 2 Co. 12. 20.

6 Nevertheless God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus;

The God of ... consolation. Ro. 15. 5.—I, even I, am he that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldst be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass; and forgettest the Lord thy maker? Isa. 51. 12, 13.—Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God. 2 Co. 1. 4.

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

Out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you. 2 Co. 2. 4.—As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. Re. 3. 19.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

Psa. 32; 51. Peter, Mat. 26. 75.

Cain, Ge. 4. 13-15.—Saul, 1 Sa. 31. 3-6.—Ahiathophel, 2 Sa. 17. 23.—Judas, Mat. 27. 3-5.

11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

By the fear of the Lord men depart from evil. Pr. 16. 6.

Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect. Phi. 3. 12.

If thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. Mat. 5. 29.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. And ye are law one with another. 1 Co. 6. 7.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

We have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you. 2 Th. 3. 4.

CHAPTER VIII.

MOREOVER, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;

2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality.

All they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living. Mar. 12. 44.

3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

The disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea. Ac. 11. 29.—Now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints. For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem. Ro. 15. 25, 26.—Concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye. And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem. And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me. 1 Co. 16. 1, 3, 4.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

A peculiar people, zealous of good works. Tit. 2. 14.

6 Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

By the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain. 1 Co. 15. 10; 2 Co. 8. 1.

7 Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

2 Co. 9. 7.

My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. 1 Jno. 3. 18.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

All things that the Father hath are mine. Jno. 16. 15.—Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men. Phi. 2. 6, 7.—Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. Lu. 9. 58.

He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? Ro. 8. 32.—The unsearchable riches of Christ. Eph. 3. 8.

10 And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the Lord; and that which he hath given will he pay him again. Pr. 19. 17.—Whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, He shall in no wise lose his reward. Mat. 10. 42.—Charge them that are rich ... that they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate; laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life. 1 Ti. 6. 17, 19.—To do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. He. 13. 16.

12 For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. 2 Co. 9. 7.—This poor widow hath cast in more than they all. Lu. 21. 3.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

Their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things. Ro. 15. 27.

15 As it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

Ex. 16. 18.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

2 Co. 8. 6.

Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phi. 2. 12, 13.

18 And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who was also chosen of the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind :

Only Luke is with me. 2 Ti. 4. 11.—Luke, the beloved physician. Col. 4. 14.

20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us :

21 Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

Provide things honest in the sight of all men. Ro. 12. 17.—Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report ; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. Phi. 4. 8.—Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles : that, whereas they speak against you as evil-doers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. 1 Pe. 2. 12.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you : or our brethren be enquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

2 Co. 8. 19.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

CHAPTER IX.

FOR as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you :

2 Co. 8. 4.

2 For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago ; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf ; that, as I said, ye may be ready :

4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

Not grudgingly. 2 Co. 9. 7.

6 But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly ; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth ; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty. The liberal soul shall be made fat : and he that watereth shall be watered also himself. Pr. 11. 24, 25.—He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the Lord ; and that which he hath given will he pay him again. Pr. 19. 17.—He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed ; for he giveth of his bread to the poor. Pr. 22. 9.—Be not deceived ; God is not mocked : for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. And let us not be weary in well-doing : for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. Ga. 6. 7, 9.—Blessed is he that considereth the poor : the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble. The Lord will preserve him, and keep him alive ; and he shall be blessed upon the earth : and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies. The Lord will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing : thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness. Ps. 41. 1-3.

Is. 58. 6-11.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give ; not grudgingly, or of necessity : for God loveth a cheerful giver.

If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren within any of thy gates, in thy land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother : but thou shalt open thine hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth. Thou shalt surely give him, and thine heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him : because that for this thing the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou putteth thine hand unto. De. 15. 7, 8, 10.—Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring me an offering : of every man that giveth it willingly with his heart ye shall take my offering. Ex. 25. 2.—He that giveth, let him do it with simplicity. Ro. 12. 8.

8 And God is able to make all grace abound toward you ; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work :

My God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus. Phi. 4. 19.—Use hospitality one to another without grudging. As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God ; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth : that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 4. 9-11.

9 (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad ; he hath given to the poor : his righteousness remaineth for ever.

He hath dispersed, he hath given to the poor ; his righteousness endureth for ever ; his horn shall be exalted with honour. Ps. 112. 9.—Faith which worketh by love. Ga. 5. 6 ; Ja. 2. 17-26.

10 Now he that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness ;)

11 Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

Take no thought, saying, What shall we eat ? or, What shall we drink ? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed ? But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness ; and all these things shall be added unto you. Mat. 6. 81, 83.

12 For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God;

13 Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men;

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Mat. 5. 16.

14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.

2 Co. 8. 1, etc.

15 Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift.

God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. Jno. 3. 16.—The gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 6. 23.

CHAPTER X.

NOW I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you:

Lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me. 2 Co. 12. 7.

2 But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, where-with I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

I told you before, and foretel you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare: therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction. 2 Co. 13. 2, 10.—What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness? 1 Co. 4. 21.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. 2 Co. 1. 12.

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)

I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth. Ro. 1. 16.—After that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. 1 Co. 1. 21.—Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. Ro. 15. 19.—Our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance. 1 Th. 1. 5.—We have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. 2 Co. 4. 7.—Ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you. For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you. 2 Co. 13. 3, 4.—The Lord said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth. See, I have this day set thee over the nations, and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant. Je. 1. 9, 10.

Lu. 11. 21, 22.

5 Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

It is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. 1 Co. 1. 19.

The word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart. He. 4. 12.

Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart. Mat. 11. 29.

6 And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.

Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment. Jno. 7. 24.—I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling. And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom. 1 Co. 2. 3, 4.

Are they ministers of Christ? ... I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft. 2 Co. 11. 23.—We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error. 1 Jno. 4. 6.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord ~~hath~~ given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first. Ga. 4. 13.

12 For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

2 Co. 10. 18.

Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him. Pr. 26. 12.—Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight! Is. 5. 21.—I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly. Ro. 12. 3.—Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Phi. 2. 3, 4.

13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth. And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks. Ac. 18. 1, 4.

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand.

Yes, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation. Ro. 15. 20; 1 Co. 3. 10.

17 But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

Let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord, which exercise loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth. Je. 9. 24.—God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; and base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are: that no flesh should glory in his presence. But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: that, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. 1 Co. 1. 27-31.—God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. Gal. 6. 14.

18 For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips. Pr. 27. 2.

He is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God. Ro. 2. 29.—Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of that sort it is. If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. 1 Co. 3. 13, 14.—Therefore nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God. 1 Co. 4. 5.—Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. Mat. 25. 21.

2 Co. 10. 17.

CHAPTER XI.

WOULD to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me.

I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing. 2 Co. 12. 11.

2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

I will betroth thee unto me for ever. Ho. 2. 19.—Christ ... loved the church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Eph. 5. 25-27.—Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus. Col. 1. 28.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

The serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made. And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: for God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat. Ge. 3. 1, 4-6.—That old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world. Re. 12. 9.—Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. Col. 2. 8.—Mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple. ... I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil. Ro. 16. 17-19.—Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace. Gal. 5. 4.—The Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils. 1 Ti. 4. 1.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. Gal. 1. 6-8.

5 For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

By the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 1 Co. 15. 10.—Of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me. Gal. 2. 6.

6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

His letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible. 2 Co. 10. 10.—Which things ... we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. 1 Co. 2. 13.—When ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ. Eph. 3. 4.

[We] have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 2 Co. 4. 2.—Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds. 2 Co. 12. 12.

7 Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

He abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tent-makers. Ac. 18. 3.—God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) and hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus. Eph. 2. 4, 6.

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

Ye Philippians know, ... that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only. For even in Thessalonica ye sent one and again unto my necessity. Phi. 4. 15, 16.—Ye remember ... our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God. 1 Th. 2. 9.—Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you: not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us. 2 Th. 3. 8, 9.—I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel. Ac. 20. 33.—The third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not your's, but you. 2 Co. 12. 14.

10 As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost. Ro. 9. 1.

I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void. 1 Co. 9. 15.

11 Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.

I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you. 2 Co. 7. 3.—And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved. 2 Co. 12. 15.

12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ. 1 Co. 9. 12.

Walk in wisdom toward them that are without. Col. 4. 5.

Come with me, and see my zeal for the Lord. 2 Ki. 10. 16.—We commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart. For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause. 2 Co. 5. 12, 13.—I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved. Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ. 1 Co. 10. 33; 11. 1.

13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Mat. 7. 15, 16, 19.—They that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple. Ro. 16. 18.—Believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. 1 Jno. 4. 1.

14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

The devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; and saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. Mat. 4. 8, 9.—There was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the Lord. Job 2. 1.

2 Co. 11. 3.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

Though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. Ga. 1. 8.

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me. 2 Co. 12. 11.

17 That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

I am meek and lowly in heart. Mat. 11. 29.

18 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

In every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge: so that ye come behind in no gift. 1 Co. 1. 6, 7.—Ye are puffed up. 1 Co. 5. 2.

We are the circumcision, which worship God in the Spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh. Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more. Phi. 3. 3, 4.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise.

We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised. 1 Co. 4. 10.

20 For ye suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

False brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage. Ga. 2. 4.—How turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage? Ga. 4. 9.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer. Mat. 23. 14.—They that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple. Ro. 16. 18.

Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; neither as being lords over God's heritage. 1 Pe. 5. 2, 3.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

His letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible. 2 Co. 10. 10.

Great is my boldness of speech toward you. 2 Co. 7. 4.—I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare. 2 Co. 13. 2.—I Paul being absent am bold toward you: but I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh. 2 Co. 10. 1, 2.—We were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention. 1 Th. 2. 2.

22 Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.

For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles. 2 Co. 11. 5.

I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. Ro. 11. 1.

23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft.

I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 1 Co. 15. 10.—The Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. Ac. 20. 23.—Why stand we in jeopardy every hour? I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. 1 Co. 15. 30, 31.

24 Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one.

Forty stripes he may give him, and not exceed: lest, if he should exceed, and beat him above these with many stripes, then thy brother should seem vile unto thee. De. 25. 3.

25 Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

There came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead. Ac. 14. 19.

2 Co. 6. 4, 5.

26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;

After that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him. Ac. 9. 23.—The Jews stirred up the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts. Ac. 13. 50.—There was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them. Ac. 14. 5.—The Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people. Ac. 17. 5.—The Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria. Ac. 20. 3.—As they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. Ac. 21. 31.—When there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle. Ac. 23. 10.

27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place. 1 Co. 4. 11.

28 Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches.

For I would that ye knew what great conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh. Col. 2. 1.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

If meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth. 1 Co. 8. 13.

It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor anything whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak. Ro. 14. 21.

O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth? Ga. 3. 1.

30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

He said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong. 2 Co. 12. 9, 10.

31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob: ... this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations. Ex. 3. 15.

2 Co. 1. 3.

32 In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ. And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him: but their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him. Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket. Ac. 9. 22-25.

CHAPTER XII.

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. 2 Co. 5. 17.

The Spirit took me up, and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldaea. Eze. 11. 24.—The Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip. Ac. 8. 39.—Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter. And immediately I was in the spirit. Re. 4. 1, 2.

To day shalt thou be with me in paradise. Lu. 23. 43.

5 Of such an one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

2 Co. 12. 9, 10.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first. Ga. 4. 13.

So went Satan forth from the presence of the Lord, and smote Job with sore boils. Job 2. 7.—This woman, ... whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years. Lu. 13. 16.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

His bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible. 2 Co. 10. 10.—Our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 1. 3.

He ... prayed the third time, saying the same words. Mat. 26. 44.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

I pray thee, let me go over, and see the good land that is beyond Jordan, that goodly mountain, and Lebanon. But the Lord was wroth with me for your sakes, and would not hear me; and the Lord said unto me, Let it suffice thee; speak no more unto me of this matter. De. 3. 25, 26.

I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. Phi. 4. 13.

I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling. And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power: that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. 1 Co. 2. 3, 5.—We have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. 2 Co. 4. 7.

If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye: for the Spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified. 1 Pe. 4. 14.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

We glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience. Ro. 5. 3.—I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation. 2 Co. 7. 4.

11 I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

They who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me. Ga. 2. 6.

Neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. 1 Co. 3. 7.—Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ. Eph. 3. 8.—When ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do. Lu. 17. 10.

12 Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

In all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses. 2 Co. 6. 4.

13 For what is it wherein you were inferior to other churches, except it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

When I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied. 2 Co. 11. 9.

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not your's, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved. 1 Co. 10. 33.

Though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. 1 Co. 4. 15.

15 And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you. Col. 1. 24.—If I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all. Phi. 2. 17.—I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. 2 Th. 2. 10.—So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us. 1 Th. 2. 8.—I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. Jno. 10. 11.

16 But be it so, I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

We have wronged no man, ... we have defrauded no man. 2 Co. 7. 2.—For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. 2 Co. 1. 12.—Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Mat. 5. 11.

17 Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

2 Co. 8. 6, 18.

19 Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself. 2 Co. 5. 19.—Being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person. He. 1. 3.

I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved. 1 Co. 10. 33.

20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

2 Co. 13. 2, 10.

21 And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. 1 Co. 5. 1.—I gave her space to repent of her fornication: and she repented not. Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds. Re. 2. 21, 22.

CHAPTER XIII.

THIS is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established. De. 19. 15.—If he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. Mat. 18. 16.—He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses. He. 10. 28.

2 I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare:

I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power. What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness? 1 Co. 4. 19, 21.

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.

The seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord. 1 Co. 9. 2.—My speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power. 1 Co. 2. 4.—Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: so that ye come behind in no gift. 1 Co. 1. 6, 7.—When ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe. 1 Th. 2. 13.—In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 5. 4.

4 For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

Made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men; and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Phi. 2. 7, 8.—Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit. 1 Pe. 3. 18.

The exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places. Eph. 1. 19, 20.

Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh. So then death worketh in us, but life in you. 2 Co. 4. 10, 12.—Though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: for the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds. 2 Co. 10. 3, 4.

5 Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

If a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. But let every man prove his own work. Gal. 6. 3, 4.—Let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. 1 Co. 11. 28.—Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord. Le. 3. 40.—I commune with mine own heart: and my spirit made diligent search. Psa. 77. 6.—If our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God. 1 Jno. 3. 21.

I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. 2 Th. 1. 12.

He that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us. 1 Jno. 3. 24.—Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Gal. 2. 20.—If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. Jno. 14. 23.—Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. Jno. 15. 4, 5.—That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith. Eph. 3. 17.—Christ in you, the hope of glory. Col. 1. 27.—My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you. Gal. 4. 19.

I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection; lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway. 1 Co. 9. 27.—Unto the pure all things are pure; but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled. They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate. Tit. 1. 15, 16.—As Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith. 2 Ti. 3. 8.—As they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind. Ro. 1. 28.—Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the Lord hath rejected them. Je. 6. 30.—That which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned. He. 6. 8.—Not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth. 2 Co. 10. 18.

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

Are not ye my work in the Lord? If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord. 1 Co. 9. 1, 2.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.

I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh. 2 Co. 10. 2.

Approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you. Ac. 2. 22.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

When his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did? But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. Lu. 9. 54-56.

9 For we are glad, when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection.

He doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men. La. 3. 33.—They verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. He. 12. 10.

Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. Eph. 6. 10, 11.—I have written

He gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ. Eph. 4. 11-13.—Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus. Col. 1. 28.—All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works. 2 Ti. 3. 16, 17.

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

Rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith. Tit. 1. 13.—As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. Re. 3. 19.

11 Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

Barnabas ... exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord. Ac. 11. 22, 23.—My servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and hath followed me fully, him will I bring into the land wherewith he went; and his seed shall possess it. Nu. 14. 24.

Be of the same mind one toward another. If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men. Ro. 12. 16, 18.—The God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus. Ro. 15. 5.—I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. 1 Co. 1. 10.—Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. Eph. 4. 3.—Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. Phi. 2. 2.—Be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another; love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous. 1 Pe. 3. 8.

Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love. In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another. No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us. 1 Jo. 4. 7-12.

12 Greet one another with an holy kiss.

13 All the saints salute you.

Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity. 1 Pe. 5. 14.

14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

The law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. Jo. 1. 17.

The love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. Ro. 5. 5.—Building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. Jude 20, 21.—Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Ro. 8. 39.

and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive. Jo. 7. 37-39; Jo. 14. 16, 18.—If any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again, to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God and joint-heirs with Christ. Ro. 8. 9, 14-17.—Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you 1 Co. 6. 19.

The second epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi, a city of Macedonia, by Titus and Lucas.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

GALATIANS.

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead ;)

I said, What shall I do Lord ? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus ; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do. Thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard. Depart : for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles. Ac. 22. 10, 15, 21.—Rise, and stand upon thy feet : for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee. Ac. 26. 16.—As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them. And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia. Ac. 13. 2, 4.

Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death : because it was not possible that he should be holden of it. Ac. 2. 24.—Jesus ... said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. He spake of the temple of his body. Jno. 2. 19, 21.

2 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia :

So were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily. Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia, etc. Ac. 16. 5, 6.

3 Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

The Lord God is a sun and shield : the Lord will give grace and glory. Psa. 84. 11.—Of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace. For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. Jno. 1. 16, 17.—Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Ro. 5. 1.—The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Phi. 4. 7.

4 Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father :

I lay down my life for the sheep. No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. Jno. 10. 15, 18.—There is ... one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus ; who gave himself a ransom for all. 1 Ti. 2. 5, 6.—Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Ti. 2. 14.—The life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Ga. 2. 20.

I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil. Jno. 17. 15.—God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. Gal. 6. 14.—All that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life. 1 Jno. 2. 16.—Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God ? The whole world lieth in wickedness. 1 Jno. 5. 5, 19.

Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. ... By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. He. 10. 9, 10.—God, even our Father. 1 Th. 3. 13.

5 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders : and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands ; saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever. And the four beasts said, Amen. Re. 5. 11-14.

6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel :

The seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord. 1 Co. 9. 2. Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ : by whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Ro. 5. 1, 2.

Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law ; ye are fallen from grace. Gal. 5. 4.—After that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage ? Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years. Gal. 4. 9, 10.

7 Which is not another ; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

Certain men which came down from Judea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. Ac. 15. 1.

8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the Lord your God which I command you. De. 4. 2.—I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book : and if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book. Re. 22. 18, 19.

10 For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

As we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts. 1 Th. 2. 4.—Know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God. Ja. 4. 4.

11 But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

Christ, ... who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen. Ro. 9. 5.—Ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me to you-ward: how that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote afore in few words, whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ). Eph. 3. 2, 4.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it:

As for Saul, he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison. Ac. 8. 3.—Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest. Ac. 9. 1.—Many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them. And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities. Ac. 26. 10, 11.

14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day. Ac. 22. 3.—Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless. Phi. 3. 6.

The Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands? He answered and said unto them, ... Laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do. Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition. For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death; but ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free. And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother; making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye. Mar. 7. 5, 8-13.

15 But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself. Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will. Eph. 1. 9, 5.—Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations. Je. 1. 5.—Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. 2 Ti. 1. 9.

16 To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Co. 4. 6.

He is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel. Ac. 9. 15.—Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ. Eph. 3. 8.

18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

When Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple. Ac. 9. 26.

19 But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.

Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James? Mar. 6. 3.—James, the son of Alphaeus. Mat. 10. 3.

21 Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;

He was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem. And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him. Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus. Ac. 9. 28-30.

22 And was unknown by face unto the churches of Judæa which were in Christ:

Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. Jno. 15. 4, 5.

23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

Saul went in with us unto James; and all the elders were present. And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry. And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord. Ac. 21. 18-20.

CHAPTER II.

THEN fourteen years after I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

2 And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain.

When ... Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question. Ac. 15. 2.

3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised :

Then came he to Derbe and Lystra : and, behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timotheus, the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed ; but his father was a Greek : which was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium. Him would Paul have to go forth with him ; and took and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters : for they knew all that his father was a Greek. Ac. 16. 1-3.

4 And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage :

After that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage ? Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years. Ga. 4. 9, 10.—Stand fast ... in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage. Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. Ga. 5. 1, 2.

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour ; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

The wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable. Ja. 3. 17.—Ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. Jude 3.

6 But of those who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me : God accepteth no man's person :) for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me :

Learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another. 1 Co. 4. 6.

There is no respect of persons with God. Ro. 2. 11.

In nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing. 2 Co. 12. 11.

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter :

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles :)

Ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you : and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. Ac. 1. 8.—Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words. Then they that gladly received his word were baptized : and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. Ac. 2. 14, 41.—Many of them which heard the word believed ; and the number of the men was about five thousand. Ac. 4. 4.—By the hands of the apostles

...le. And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women. Inasmuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them. Ac. 5. 12, 14, 15.

Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Ac. 26. 17, 18. I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God ; even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints : to whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles ; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory : whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom ; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus : whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily. Col. 1. 25-29.—All the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them. Ac. 15. 12.

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship ; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

We have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name. Ro. 1. 5.—By the grace of God I am what I am : and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain ; but I laboured more abundantly than they all : yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 1 Co. 15. 10.—Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ. Eph. 3. 8.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor ; the same which I also was forward to do.

The disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea : which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul. Ac. 11. 29, 30.

11 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

Paul ... and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord. Ac. 15. 35.

12 For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles : but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him ; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

When Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him, saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them. Ac. 11. 2, 3.

Peter sat without in the palace : and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee. But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest. Mat. 26. 69, 70.—The fear of man bringeth a snare : but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe. Pr. 29. 25.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

Our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. 2 Co. 1. 12.

Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear. 1 Ti. 5. 20.

Certain men which came down from Judea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. Ac. 15. 1.

15 We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,

At that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world. Eph. 2. 12.

16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

By the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. Ro. 3. 20.—That no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. The law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. Ga. 3. 11, 24.—Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Ro. 5. 1.—Through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins: and by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Ac. 13. 38, 39.—Enter not into judgment with thy servant: for in thy sight shall no man living be justified. Ps. 143. 2.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

If the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory. 2 Co. 3. 9.—If Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. 1 Co. 15. 17.—Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace. Ga. 5. 4; 2. 21.—Ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins. 1 Jno. 3. 5.

19 For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God.

Ye... are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God. Ro. 7. 4.—Sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace. Ro. 6. 14.—Now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter. Ro. 7. 6.

Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 6. 11.—He died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. 2 Co. 5. 15.—How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? He. 9. 14.

20 I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless

I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

Our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. Ro. 6. 8. They that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. Ga. 5. 24.—God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. Ga. 6. 14.—If ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances? Col. 2. 20.

That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith. Eph. 3. 16, 17. Christ in you, the hope of glory. Col. 1. 27.—Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. 1 Jno. 4. 13.

He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God. 1 Jno. 5. 10, 13.—We walk by faith, not by sight. 2 Co. 5. 7.—Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin; that he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. 1 Pe. 4. 1, 2.—Whosoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him. Col. 3. 17.

I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. Jno. 10. 11.—Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Tit. 2. 14.

I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. 2 Ti. 1. 12.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace. Ga. 5. 4.—If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron? He. 7. 11.

CHAPTER III.

O FOOLISH Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

We preach Christ crucified. 1 Co. 1. 23.—As often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. 1 Co. 11. 26.

Ga. 2. 16.

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word. And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost. For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Ac. 10. 44, 46.—Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe. And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us; and put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith. Ac. 15. 7-9.—Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied. Ac. 19. 2, 6.—In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise. Eph. 1. 13.—How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him; God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will? He. 2. 3, 4.

The ministration of condemnation. 2 Co. 3. 9.
The ministration of the Spirit. 2 Co. 3. 8.

3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

After that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereto ye desire again to be in bondage? Ga. 4. 9.—Sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience; which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation. He. 9. 9, 10.—We are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh. Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath wherewith he might trust in the flesh, I more: circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee; concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless. Phi. 3. 3-6.

4 Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward. 2 Jno. 8.

5 He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

Ga. 3. 2.

6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

He believed in the Lord; and he counted it to him for righteousness. Ge. 15. 6; Ro. 4. 3, etc.

7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also; and the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised. Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all. Ro. 4. 11, 12, 16.

8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.

Ge. 12. 3.

The prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2 Pe. 1. 21.—Well spake the Holy Ghost by Isaiah the prophet unto our fathers. Ac. 28. 25.—The Word. Jno. 1. 1.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

Ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. Ga. 3. 26.

Be not faithless, but believing. Jno. 20. 27; Ga. 3. 6.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

We know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Ro. 3. 19.

Cursed be he that confirmeth not all the words of this law to do them. De. 27. 26.

11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.

The just shall live by his faith. Hab. 2. 4; Ro. 1. 17.

12 And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them.

Ye shall ... keep my statutes, and my judgments: which if a man do, he shall live in them: I am the Lord. Le. 18. 5.—A certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou? And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself. And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live. Lu. 10. 25-28.—Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them. But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. Ro. 10. 5, 6, 9.

13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree;

When the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. Ga. 4. 4, 5.—Even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come. 1 Th. 1. 10.—For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.

He that is hanged is accursed of God. De. 21. 23.

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God. Ja. 2. 23.

I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my Spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring. Is. 44. 3.—I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments and do them. Eze. 36. 27.—I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: and also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my Spirit. Joel 2. 28, 29.—He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive. Jno. 7. 38, 39.—Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear. Ac. 2. 33.—In whom ... after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest of our inheritance. Eph. 1. 13, 14; Ga. 3. 2.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed. Unto thy seed will I give this land. Ge. 12. 3, 7.—I will establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee in their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee. Ge. 17. 7.

Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called. That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed. Ro. 9. 7, 8.—As the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. 1 Co. 12. 13.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

The sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years. Ex. 12. 40.

The promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect. Ro. 4. 13, 14.

18 For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

An inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. 1 Pe. 1. 4.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.

What nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day? Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life. De. 4. 8, 9. The law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane. 1 Ti. 1. 9.—By the law is the knowledge of sin. Ro. 3. 20.

Ga. 3. 13.

Who received the law by the disposition of angels. Ac. 7. 53.—The word spoken by angels. He. 2. 2.

They said unto Moses, Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die. And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness where God was. And the Lord said unto Moses, Thus thou shalt say unto the children of Israel, Ye have seen that I have talked with you from heaven. Ex. 20. 19, 21, 22.—I stood between the Lord and you at that time, to shew you the word of the Lord: for ye were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up into the mount. These words the Lord spake unto all your assembly in the mount out of the midst of the fire, ... and he wrote them in two tables of stone, and delivered them unto me. De. 5. 5, 22.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one.

The Lord made a covenant with Abram. Ge. 15. 18.—Abraham ... died. Ge. 25. 8.—The Lord came down upon mount Sinai. Ex. 19. 20.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets; I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. Mat. 5. 17.—Do we ... make void the law through faith? God forbid: yes, we establish the law. Ro. 3. 31.—The law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good. The commandment ... was ordained to life. Ro. 7. 12, 10.

I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. Ro. 7. 9.—By the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. Ro. 3. 20.—By the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life. ... By the obedience of one shall many be made righteous. Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. Ro. 5. 18–20.—I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain. Ga. 2. 21.

22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

Ga. 3. 10.

Enter not into judgment with thy servant: for in thy sight shall no man living be justified. Psa. 143. 2.—We have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin. What things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God. Ro. 3. 9, 19, 23.

God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned. Jno. 3. 17, 18.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

Ga. 3. 19; 4. 1–4.

Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith. He. 12. 2. These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise: God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect. He. 11. 13, 39, 40.—Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you: searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow. Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into. 1 Pe. 1. 10–12.—The darkness is past, and the true light now shineth. 1 Jno. 2. 8.—Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see: for I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them. Lu. 10. 23, 24.

24 Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

Ga. 4. 2, 3.

The law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect. He. 10. 1.—The first covenant had ... ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary. Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience; which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation. He. 9. 1, 9, 10.—Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. Col. 2. 17.—For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. Ro. 10. 4.—And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Ac. 13. 39. Ga. 2. 16.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

Ga. 3. 23; 4. 4, 7.

Ye are not under the law, but under grace. Ro. 6. 14.—God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe. And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us; and put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith. Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they. Ac. 15. 7-11.—My yoke is easy, and my burden is light. Mat. 11. 30.

26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

Ga. 4. 4, 7.

As many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name. Jno. 1. 12.

27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

He is not a Jew which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh; but he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God. Ro. 2. 28, 29.—The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 3. 21.

Now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference. Ro. 3. 21, 22.—Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds; and have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him: where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all. Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longuffering; forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. Col. 3. 9-14.—But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof. Ro. 13. 14.

28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

There is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. Ro. 10. 12.—By one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. 1 Co. 12. 13.—In Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. Ga. 5. 6.

Other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. Jno. 10. 16.—Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; that they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us. Jno. 17. 20, 21.—For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us; having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace; and that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby. Eph. 2. 14-16.—There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling. Eph. 4. 4.

29 And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Ga. 4. 7.

All things are your's; whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours; and ye are Christ's. 1 Co. 3. 21-23.

CHAPTER IV.

I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world:

Ga. 4. 9, 10; 3. 24.

The hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. Jno. 4. 23.

4 But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law,

The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be. Ge. 49. 10.—Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy. Da. 9. 24.

God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. Jno. 3. 16.

I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel. Ge. 3. 15.—Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. Is. 7. 14.—As the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil. He. 2. 14.

Made of the seed of David according to the flesh. Ro. 1. 3.—When eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb. And when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord; (as it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;) and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtle doves, or two young pigeons. After the custom of the law. Lu. 2. 21-24, 27.—Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. But John forbade him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me? And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him. Mat. 3. 13-15.—Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. Mat. 5. 17.

5 To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.

The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. Mat. 20. 28.—Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree. Gal. 3. 13.—Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Tit. 2. 14.—Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. Heb. 9. 12.—In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace. Eph. 1. 7.—Ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pe. 1. 18, 19.—Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances. Eph. 2. 15.

Gal. 3. 26.

Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will. Eph. 1. 5.

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

If ye ... being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him? Luk. 11. 13.—I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever. Jno. 14. 16.—Grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Eph. 4. 30.—Ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. Ro. 8. 9.

When the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me. Jno. 15. 26.—If I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. Jno. 16. 7.

Ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. Ro. 8. 15.—The love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. Ro. 5. 5.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. Ro. 8. 16.

Gal. 3. 29.

8 Howbeit then, when ye knew not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

Ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world. Eph. 2. 12.—We know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one. 1 Co. 8. 4.—Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led. 1 Co. 12. 2.

9 But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us. Ac. 15. 8.

What the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh. Ro. 8. 3.—There is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof. Heb. 7. 18.

10 Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.

Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a holy day, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. Col. 2. 16, 17.

11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace. Gal. 5. 2, 4.—When I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain. 1 Th. 3. 5.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.

I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved. 2 Co. 12. 15.—We beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you; and to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. 1 Th. 5. 12, 13.

What things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, and be found in him, not having mine own righteousness which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith. Phi. 3. 7-9.

13 Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first.

I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling. 1 Co. 2. 3.—Lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me. 2 Co. 12. 7.

14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

The priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the Lord of hosts. Mal. 2. 7.

If that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me. Mat. 10. 40.—When ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe. 1 Th. 2. 13.

15 Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

Gal. 5. 4.

David ... describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. Ro. 4. 6, 7.

17 They zealously affect you, but not well ; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them.

I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. Ro. 10. 2.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men : for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in. Mat. 23. 13.

They ... love ... greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi. Mat. 23. 5-7.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

As ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. Phi. 2. 12.

19 My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you,

In Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. 1 Co. 4. 15.—He shall see of the travail of his soul. Is. 53. 11.

Christ in you, the hope of glory : whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom ; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus : whereunto I labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily. Col. 1. 27-29.—Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus. Phi. 2. 5.—Ye have put off the old man with his deeds ; and have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him. Col. 3. 9, 10.

20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice : for I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law ?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman.

Sarai Abram's wife ... had a handmaid, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar. And Hagar bare Abram a son : and Abram called his son's name, which Hagar bare, Ishmael. Ge. 16. 1, 15.

Sarah conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his old age. Ge. 21. 2.

23 But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh ; but he of the freewoman was by promise.

Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children : but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called. That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God : but the children of the promise are counted for the seed. Ro. 9. 7, 8.—Is any thing too hard for the Lord ? At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son. Ge. 18. 14.

24 Which things are an allegory : for these are the two covenants ; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

This is my body. Mat. 26. 28.

To Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many ; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should

The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat. They bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders. Mat. 23. 2, 4.—And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. He. 10. 11.

26 But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. Re. 21. 2.

Ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear ; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. Ro. 8. 15.

Ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, to the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven. He. 12. 22, 23.—Our conversation is in heaven. Phi. 3. 20.

27 For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not ; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not : for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear ; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child : for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the Lord. Is. 54. 1.—The abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee. Is. 60. 5.

Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles. As he saith also in Osee, I will call them my people, which were not my people ; and her beloved, which was not beloved. And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people ; there shall they be called the children of the living God. Ro. 9. 24, 26.—If ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. Gal. 3. 29.

29 But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, which she had born unto Abraham, mocking. Ge. 21. 9.

The Jews which were of Asia, ... stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him, crying out, Men of Israel, help : This is the man that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place. Ac. 21. 27, 28.—Because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you. Jno. 15. 19, 20.

30 Nevertheless what saith the scripture ? Cast out the bondwoman and her son : for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.

Wherefore she said unto Abraham, Cast out this bondwoman and her son : for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, even with Isaac. And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad, and because of thy bondwoman ; in all that Sarah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice ; for in Isaac shall thy seed be called. Ge. 21. 10, 12.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

Ye are not under the law, but under grace. Ro. 6. 14.

Gal. 5. 1-6, 13, 18.

CHAPTER V.

STAND fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. Mat. 11. 28-30.—You, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses; blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; and having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it. Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances, (touch not; taste not; handle not; which all are to perish with the using;) after the commandments and doctrines of men? Col. 2. 13-17, 20-22.—Certain men which came down from Judea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. Why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they. Ac. 15. 1, 10, 11.—Sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace. Ro. 6. 14.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

As many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. Gal. 3. 10.—Whosoever shall keep the whole law and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. Ja. 2. 10.

4 Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.

Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness. Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone. Ro. 9. 31, 32. If righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain. Gal. 2. 21.

5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. Jno. 3. 5.—Ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. Jude 20, 21.—Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: by whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Ro. 5. 1, 2.—Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Ti. 4. 8.

6 For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love.

In Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision but a new creature. Gal. 6. 15.—Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. 1 Co. 7. 19.—Faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Ja. 2. 17.—Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him. 1 Jno. 5. 1.

7 Ye did run well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?

Let us run with patience the race that is set before us. Heb. 12. 1.—So run, that ye may obtain. 1 Co. 9. 24.

8 This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you.

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel. Gal. 1. 6.—In Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. 1 Co. 4. 15.—God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. 1 Co. 1. 9.—God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man. Ja. 1. 13.

9 A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

We have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you. 2 Th. 3. 4.

11 And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the cross ceased.

As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. Gal. 6. 12.

We preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness. 1 Co. 1. 23.

12 I would they were even cut off which trouble you.

Put away from among yourselves that wicked person. 1 Co. 5. 13.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

Gal. 5. 1.

Take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak. 1 Co. 8. 9.—As free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God. 1 Pe. 2. 16.—Though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more. 1 Co. 9. 19.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: I am the Lord. Le. 19. 18.—Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets. Mat. 22. 39, 40.—All things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets. Mat. 7. 12.—Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Ro. 13. 8, 9.—If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well. Ja. 2. 8.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

There is ... now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. ... We are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh. For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. Ro. 8. 1, 12, 13. Put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof. Ro. 13. 14.—Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul. 1 Pe. 2. 11.

Put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; and be renewed in the spirit of your mind; and ... put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Eph. 4. 22-24.—Our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. Ro. 6. 6.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

I delight in the law of God after the inward man: but I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. Ro. 7. 22, 23.

That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. Jno. 3. 6, 7.—To be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. Ro. 8. 6, 7.

The good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do. Ro. 7. 19.

18 But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. Ro. 8. 14.—Sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace. Ro. 6. 14.—As many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. Ga. 3. 10. The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. Ro. 8. 2.

19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

Out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies. Mat. 15. 19.

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revelings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

If ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth. This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish. Ja. 3. 14, 15.

This ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. Eph. 5. 5.—The time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revelings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries: wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you: who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead. 1 Pe. 4. 3, 5.—

For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie. Ro. 22. 15.

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, 23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

The fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth. Eph. 5. 9.

The love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. Ro. 5. 5.—Ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another. 1 Th. 4. 9.

The God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost. Ro. 15. 13.—The peace of God, which passeth all understanding. Phi. 4. 7.—The wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. Ja. 3. 17.—We are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus. Phi. 3. 3.

Walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, with all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love. Eph. 4. 1, 2.

Shewing all good fidelity. Tit. 2. 10.

The ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. 1 Pe. 3. 4.

And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. 1 Co. 9. 25.

24 And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

If any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. Ro. 8. 9.—Our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. Ro. 6. 6.—For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. Ro. 8. 13.—Put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof. Ro. 13. 14.—Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul. 1 Pe. 2. 11.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. Ro. 6. 4, 5. Ga. 4. 16.

26 Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Phi. 2. 3.

CHAPTER VI.

BRETHREN, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

He that is spiritual judgeth all things. 1 Co. 2. 15.—I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ. 1 Co. 3. 1.

Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him; let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins. Ja. 5. 19, 20.—If any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother. 2 Th. 3. 14, 15. We ... that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Ro. 15. 1.

Let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. 1 Co. 10. 12.

2 Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

We ... that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Ro. 15. 1.

This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you. Jno. 15. 12.

3 For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith. Ro. 12. 3.—If any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know. 1 Co. 8. 2.—Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God. 2 Co. 3. 5.

4 But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.

Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates? 2 Co. 13. 5.—A good man shall be satisfied from himself. Pr. 14. 14.—Our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. 2 Co. 1. 12.

5 For every man shall bear his own burden.

They shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him. Eze. 14. 10.—God ... will render to every man according to his deeds. Ro. 2. 6.

6 Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things? Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel. 1 Co. 9. 11, 14.—If the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things. Ro. 15. 27.

7 Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same. Job 4. 8.—The wicked worketh a deceitful work: but to him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward. Pr. 11. 18.—He that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity. Pr. 22. 8.—They have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind. Ro. 8. 7.—Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy. Ho. 10. 12.—If ye live after the deeds of the body, ye shall live. Ro. 8. 13; Ga. 5. 16, 25.—He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. 2 Co. 9. 6.—God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints and do minister. He. 6. 10.—The water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life. Jno. 4. 14.—This spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive. Jno. 7. 39.—They told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts. These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit. But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. Jude 18–21.

9 And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

But ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing. 2 Th. 3. 13.—Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. 1 Co. 15. 58. For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. He. 10. 36.—Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain. Be ye also patient; establish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh. Ja. 5. 7, 8.—Consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds. He. 12. 3.—Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. Re. 2. 10.—For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end. He. 3. 14.—Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not. 2 Co. 4. 1.

10 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest. Ec. 9. 10.—I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work. Jno. 9. 4.

Do good to them that hate you. Mat. 5. 44.—See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men. 1 Th. 5. 15.

Ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. Ga. 3. 26.—For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God. Eph. 2. 13, 19.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

To draw away disciples after them. Ac. 20. 30.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat: all therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not. For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers. But all their works they do for to be seen of men. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess. Mat. 23. 2–5, 23–25.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte. Mat. 23. 15.

He is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh. Ro. 2. 28.

14 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

We are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh. What things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ. Phi. 3. 8, 7, 8.—To me to live is Christ. Phi. 1. 21.—I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified. 1 Co. 2. 2.

Our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. Ro. 6. 6.—I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Ga. 2. 20; 5. 24.—If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. Col. 3. 1-3.

15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.

In Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. Ga. 5. 6.—Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. 1 Co. 7. 19.—[Ye] have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him: where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all. Col. 3. 10, 11.—If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

2 Co. 5. 17.—Put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; and be renewed in the spirit of your mind; and ... put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Eph. 4. 22-24.—Ye must be born again. Jno. 3. 7.

16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

Peace shall be upon Israel. Ps. 125. 5.—The peace of God, which passeth all understanding. Phi. 4. 7.

Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile! Jno. 1. 47.—For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel. Ro. 9. 6.—But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God. Ro. 2. 29.—They which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. Ga. 3. 7, 29.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. 2 Co. 4. 10.—Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure. 2 Co. 11. 23.—Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church. Col. 1. 24.

Unto the Galatians written from Rome.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

EPHESIANS.

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus :

I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. But rise, and stand upon thy feet : for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee ; delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Ac. 26. 15-18.

The glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry ; who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious : but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 1 Ti. 1. 11-14.

To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints. Ro. 1. 7.—Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints. 1 Co. 1. 2.

This was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus ; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. So mightily grew the word of God, and prevailed. Ac. 19. 17, 20.—He sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church. Take heed ... unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Ac. 20. 17, 28.

They that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren ; but rather do them service, because they are faithful [or, believing, margin] and beloved, partakers of the benefit. 1 Ti. 6. 2.—To them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ. 2 Pe. 1. 1.—Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. Re. 2. 10.—They that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful. Re. 17. 14.

2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord. 2 Pe. 1. 2.—Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Ro. 5. 1.—The counsel of peace shall be between them both. Zec. 6. 13.—The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Phi. 4. 7.—The Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you ; not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Jno. 14. 26, 27.—The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace. Gal. 5. 22.

If ye, ... being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children : how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him ? Lu. 11. 13.—Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come ; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne ; and from Jesus Christ. Re. 1. 4, 5.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ :

Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort. 2 Co. 1. 3.—Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. 1 Pe. 1. 3.

He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things ? Ro. 8. 32.—Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Co. 1. 30.—In him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power. Col. 2. 9, 10.—And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace. For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. Jno. 1. 16, 17.

4 According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love :

We are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth. 2 Th. 2. 13.—Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ : Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied. 1 Pe. 1. 2.—Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people ; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light. 1 Pe. 2. 9.

Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Mat. 25. 34.—They that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world. Re. 17. 8.

We are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. Eph. 2. 10.—Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. 2 Ti. 1. 9.—Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering. Col. 3. 12.—Giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue ; and to virtue knowledge ; and to knowledge temperance ; and to temperance patience ; and to patience godliness ; and to godliness brotherly kindness ; and to brotherly kindness charity. ... Give diligence to make your calling and election sure. 2 Pe. 1. 5-7, 10.

That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world. Phi. 2. 15. We, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness. Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless. 2 Pe. 3. 13, 14.

And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us. Eph. 5. 2.

5 Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,

Whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified. Ro. 8. 29, 30.

As many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name. Jno. 1. 12.—Ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. Ro. 8. 15.—[1] will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. 2 Co. 6. 18.—To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. Gal. 4. 5.—Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God; therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. 1 Jno. 3. 1.—He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son. Re. 21. 7.

I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God. Jno. 20. 17. Ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. Gal. 3. 26.

Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Lu. 12. 32.—Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight. Mat. 11. 26.—The children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth; it was said, ... The elder shall serve the younger. For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion. So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy. Ro. 9. 11, 12, 15, 16.

6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved.

The exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. Eph. 2. 7.

To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 2. 4, 5.—Now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: for all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. Ro. 3. 21, 25.—There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. Ro. 8. 1.—For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.

Lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Mat. 3. 17.

7 In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;

Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus. Ro. 3. 24.—Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree. Gal. 3. 13.

Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity. Tit. 2. 14.—Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. He. 9. 12.—Ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pe. 1. 18, 19.—If we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 Jno. 1. 7, 9.—They sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation. Re. 5. 9.

Col. 1. 14.

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;

Where sin abounded, grace did much more abound. Ro. 5. 20.

Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; to declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus. Ro. 3. 25, 26.

9 Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself:

The mystery of Christ, which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; that the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel. And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ: to the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God. Eph. 3. 4, 6, 9, 10.—Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints; to whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Col. 1. 26, 27.—Without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. 1 Ti. 3. 16.

Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began, but is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. 2 Ti. 1. 9, 10.—He giveth not account of any of his matters. Job. 33. 13.—O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor? Ro. 11. 33, 34.

10 That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him:

The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be. Ge. 49. 10.—But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law. Gal. 4. 4.—God ... hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds. He. 1. 1, 2. Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named. Eph. 3. 15.—Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth. Phi. 2. 9, 10.—[Ye] have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him: where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all. Col. 3. 10, 11.—Ye are come unto mount Zion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, to the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, and to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel. He. 12. 22-24.

Ro. 5. 8, 14.

11 In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will:

If children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. Ro. 8. 17.—That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. Ti. 3. 7.—Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him? Ja. 2. 5.—I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. Ac. 20. 32.—An inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. 1 Pe. 1. 4.—The inheritance of the saints in light. Col. 1. 12.—Of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ. Col. 3. 24.

Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure. Is. 46. 10.

12 That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

Paul ... came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples, he said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost. And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John's baptism. Ac. 19. 1, 3.

Glorify, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile. Ro. 2. 10.
Eph. 1. 6.

13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. Ro. 10. 17.—Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures. Ja. 1. 18.

Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Mar. 16. 15, 16.—I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. Ro. 1. 16.—From a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. 2 Ti. 3. 15.

Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts. 2 Co. 1. 22.—Grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Eph. 4. 30.

I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh. Joel. 2. 28.—If ye, ... being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him? Luk. 11. 13.—I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. Jo. 14. 16, 17.

14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

We know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life. Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit. 2 Co. 5. 1, 4, 5.—Ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. ... Ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body. Ro. 8. 15-17, 23.

The church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Ac. 20. 28.

15 Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints,

We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth charity of every one of you all toward 2 Th. 1. 3.—Faith which worketh by love. Gal. 5. 6.—Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. 1 Pe. 2. 17.—Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently. 1 Pe. 1. 22.

Col. 1. 4.

16 Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;

tion of you in our prayers; remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love. 1 Th. 1. 2, 3.—God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers. Ro. 1. 9.—Without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day. 2 Ti. 1. 3.—God forbid that I should sin against the Lord in ceasing to pray for you. 1 Sa. 12. 23.

Col. 1. 3.

17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him:

I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God. Jno. 20. 17.

Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all. 1 Ch. 29. 11.

We also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding. Col. 1. 9. When he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come. He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. Jno. 16. 13, 14.—No man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him. Mat. 11. 27.—We speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory: which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. 1 Co. 2. 7, 10.—I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the Lord. Je. 24. 7.—If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. Ja. 1. 5.

18 The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

Ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world. Eph. 2. 12.—The god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Co. 4. 4, 6.—We all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord. 2 Co. 3. 18.—Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law. Psa. 119. 18.—I the Lord have called thee, in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles; to open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house. Isa. 42. 6, 7.—Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures. Lu. 24. 45.—The Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Ac. 26. 17, 18.—A certain woman named Lydia, ... which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul. Ac.

Whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified. Ro. 8. 30.—Walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory. 1 Th. 2. 12.—I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body. Phi. 3. 14, 20, 21.—Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ. Tit. 2. 13.—That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. Tit. 3. 7.

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power,

Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness. Psa. 110. 3.—It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phi. 2. 13.—Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us. Eph. 3. 20.—Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 1 Pe. 1. 3-5.

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it. Ac. 2. 24.—I lay down my life, that I might take it again. No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. I and my Father are one. Jno. 10. 17, 18, 30.—Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. Ac. 7. 56.—To which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool? He. 1. 13.

21 Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come:

God ... hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth. Phi. 2. 9, 10.—Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they. He. 1. 4.—For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him. Col. 1. 16. And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it. Col. 2. 15.—And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power. Col. 2. 10.

22 And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church,

All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Mat. 28. 18.—He hath put all things under his feet. 1 Co. 15. 27.—Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him. He. 2. 8.

Grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ: from whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love. Eph. 4. 15, 16.

23 Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all.

Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body. We are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. Eph. 5. 23, 30.—As the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. Ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular. 1 Co. 12. 12, 27.—We, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another. Ro. 12. 5.

Col. 1. 18.

CHAPTER II.

AND you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins;

You, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses. Col. 2. 13.—He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. Jno. 5. 24.—To be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. Ro. 8. 6-8.

2 Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience:

Such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Co. 6. 11.

Be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind. Ro. 12. 2.—Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. 1 Jno. 2. 15-17.—Whosoever is born of God overcometh the world; and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. 1 Jno. 5. 4.

The god of this world. 2 Co. 4. 4.—The Lord said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the Lord, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. Job 1. 7.—We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Eph. 6. 12.

Then entered Satan into Judas. Luk. 22. 3.—The whole world lieth in wickedness. 1 Jno. 5. 19.

8 Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

We ourselves also were sometime foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. Tit. 3. 3.—The time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries. 1 Pe. 4. 3.—Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law. Now the work of the flesh are manifest, which are these: Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. Gal. 5. 16–21.—Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul. 1 Pe. 2. 11.—Both Jews and Gentiles ... are all under sin; as it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one. Rom. 3. 9, 10.—That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. Jno. 3. 6, 7.—Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me. Psa. 51. 5.—By one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. Rom. 5. 12.

Rom. 8. 7, 8.

4 But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace. Eph. 1. 7.—The Lord passed by before him, and proclaimed, The Lord, the Lord God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin. Ex. 34. 6, 7.—Thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth. Psa. 86. 15.—He delighteth in mercy. Mt. 7. 18.

God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Rom. 5. 8.—God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. Jno. 3. 16.—Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. We love him, because he first loved us. 1 Jno. 4. 10, 19.—Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. 2 Ti. 1. 9.—I have loved thee with an everlasting love; therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee. Jer. 31. 3.

5 Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)

When we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. Rom. 5. 6.

Eph. 1. 19, 20.

As the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will. Jno. 5. 21.—It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life. Jno. 6. 63.

If ye ... be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. Col. 3. 1, 3.—Because I live, ye shall live also. Jno. 14. 19.

All have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus. Rom. 3. 23, 24.—Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost.

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ

Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world. Jno. 17. 24.—To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne. Rev. 3. 21.—If we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him: knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more: death hath no more dominion over him. For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. Rom. 6. 8–10.—Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the veil; whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus. Heb. 6. 19, 20.—Our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. Phi. 3. 20.

7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.

The kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared. Tit. 3. 4.

8 For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. 2 Ti. 1. 9.

He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Mar. 16. 16.—Sirs, what must I do to be saved? ... Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved. Act. 16. 30, 31.—It is of faith, that it might be by grace. Rom. 4. 16.

No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day. It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me. Jno. 6. 44, 45.—Unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake. Phi. 1. 29.—A certain woman named Lydia, ... which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul. Act. 16. 14.—Simon Peter ... said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. Mat. 16. 16, 17.

9 Not of works, lest any man should boast.

By the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith. Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law. Rom. 3. 20, 27, 28. If Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. Rom. 4. 2.—The children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth. Rom. 9. 11.—If by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work. Rom. 11. 6.—That no flesh should glory in his presence. But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: that, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. 1 Co. 1. 29-31.

Eph. 2. 5, 8.

10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

Put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Eph. 4. 24.—We are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building. 1 Co. 3. 9.—He that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit. 2 Co. 5. 5.—It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phi. 2. 13.—He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ. Phi. 1. 6.—Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Jno. 3. 3.—If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. 2 Co. 5. 17.—He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked. 1 Jno. 2. 6.—Whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Ro. 8. 29.—He hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love. Eph. 1. 4.—Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Tit. 2. 14.

11 Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;

Look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged. Is. 51. 1.—Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits. Psa. 103. 2.

He is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh; but he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God. Ro. 2. 28, 29.—In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ. Col. 2. 11.—We are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh. Phi. 3. 3.—You, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses. Col. 2. 13.

12 That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:

I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered. Jno. 15. 5, 6.

Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. Ac. 3. 25.—Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises; whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came. Ro. 9. 4, 5.—To Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect. Gal. 3. 16, 17.

The wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness; because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them. For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse. Ro. 1. 18-20.—For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law. Ro. 2. 12.—For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? and how shall they preach, except they be sent? Ro. 10. 13-15.

The riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Col. 1. 27.—Our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace. 2 Th. 2. 16.—Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. 1 Pe. 1. 3.—That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us: which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the veil. Heb. 6. 18, 19.

No man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him. Lu. 10. 22.

13 But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometime were far off are made nigh by the blood

You, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unreprouvable in his sight: if ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard. Col. 1. 21, 23.—When we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son. Ro. 5. 10.—Christ ... hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God. 1 Pe. 3. 18.

Eph. 2. 19-22.

14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Ro. 5. 1.

Other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. Jno. 10. 16.—There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. Gal. 3. 28.—Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean. Ac. 10. 28.—The veil of the temple was rent in twain. Mat. 27. 51.

15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace;

Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross. Col. 2. 14.

As the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. 1 Co. 12. 12, 13. In Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature. Gal. 6. 15.

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby:

God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them. For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 19, 21.—The carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. Ro. 8. 7.—Our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. Ro. 6. 6.—The next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God. But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming. Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. Ac. 13. 44-46.—He said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles. And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live. Ac. 22. 21, 22.—Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway. 1 Th. 2. 16.

17 And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men. Lu. 2. 14.—Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Ro. 5. 1.—Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the Lord. Is. 57. 19.—The promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. Ac. 2. 39.—The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ. Ac. 10. 36.—What nation is there so great, who hath God so nigh unto them, as the Lord our God is in all things that we call upon him for? De. 4. 7.—The children of Israel, a people near unto him. Ps. 148. 14.

18 For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him. Eph. 3. 12.—I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. Jno. 14. 6.—I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. Jno. 10. 9.—By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Ro. 5. 2.—Christ ... hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit. 1 Pe. 3. 18.—Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God. ... Let us ... come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need. He. 4. 14, 16.—Having ... boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; ... let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. He. 10. 19, 20, 22.

As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. Ro. 8. 14, 15.—Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God. Ro. 8. 26, 27.—For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. 1 Co. 12. 13.—The hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father. But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. Jno. 4. 21, 23.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God;

Our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. Phi. 3. 20, Gr.—Ye are come unto mount Zion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, to the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect. He. 12. 22, 23.—The household of faith. Gal. 6. 10.—Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named. Eph. 3. 15.—Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God. 1 Jno. 3. 1.

20 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone;

He gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ. Eph. 4. 11, 12.—We are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building. According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. 1 Co. 3. 9, 10.—The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. Re. 21. 14.—All things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me. Lu. 24. 44.—Holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2 Pe. 1. 21.

Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church. Mat. 16. 18-18.—To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 2. 4, 5.—Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation. Is. 28. 16.—Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? Mat. 21. 42; Ps. 118. 22.

21 In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:

That we ... speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ: from whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love. Eph. 4. 14-16.—Your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God. 1 Co. 6. 19.—Ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 2 Co. 6. 16.

22 In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. Jno. 14. 16, 18, 23.—Ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. Ro. 8. 9.—Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. 1 Jno. 4. 13.

CHAPTER III.

FOR this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles,

I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. Ac. 21. 13.

The Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him, crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place:

and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place. Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains. Ac. 21. 27, 28, 33.—He said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles. And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live. Ac. 22. 21, 22.—If I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the cross ceased. Gal. 5. 11.

2 (If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me to you-ward:

He is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel. Ac. 9. 15.—As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them. Ac. 13. 2.—I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office. Ro. 11. 13.—And the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. Ac. 20. 24. Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. 1 Co. 4. 1.

3 How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote afore in few

For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ. Gal. 1. 12.—Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: to whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Col. 1. 26, 27.—Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Ac. 26. 17, 18.—Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself: that in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him. Eph. 1. 9, 10; 2. 11–22.

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ)

The mystery of the gospel. Eph. 6. 19.—The mystery of the faith. 1 Ti. 3. 9.

5 Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

Now to him that is of power to establish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began, but now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith. Ro. 16. 25, 26.—Of which salvation the prophets have inquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you: searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow. Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven. 1 Pe. 1. 10–12.

6 That the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel.

There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. Gal. 3. 28, 29.—As the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ.

For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. 1 Co. 12. 12, 13; Eph. 2. 14–17.

This is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life. 1 Jno. 2. 25.—That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. Gal. 3. 14.

7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power.

Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily. Col. 1. 29.

8 Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ;

I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. 1 Co. 15. 9. Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. 1 Ti. 1. 15.—The words of Agur, ... Surely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man. I neither learned wisdom, nor have the knowledge of the holy. Pr. 30. 1–3.—In lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Phi. 2. 3.

In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. Col. 2. 3.—Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Co. 1. 30.

9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ:

Without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. 1 Ti. 3. 16.

He hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world. Eph. 1. 4.

All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. Jno. 1. 3.—By him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him. Col. 1. 16.—[God] hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds. He. 1. 2.

10 To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,

They sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; and hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth. And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever. Re. 5. 9–13.

O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! Ro. 11. 33.

11 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:

He hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence; having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself: that in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him: in whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will. Eph. 1. 8-11.—Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. 2 Ti. 1. 9.

12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.

Through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Eph. 2. 18.—Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need. He. 4. 16.—Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; and having a high priest over the house of God; let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. He. 10. 19-22.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

Many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear. Phi. 1. 14.—No man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto. 1 Th. 3. 3.—Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. Ac. 14. 22.

Whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer. 2 Co. 1. 6.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

He ... kneeled down, and prayed. Lu. 22. 41.

15 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

Ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. Gal. 3. 26.

Eph. 1. 10.

16 That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man;

The riches of his grace. Eph. 1. 7.

Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Eph. 6. 10.—Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness. Col. 1. 11.—In the day when I cried thou answeredst me, and strengthenedst me with strength in my soul. Psa. 138. 3.—He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: but they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint. Is. 40. 29-31.—My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. 2 Co. 12. 9.—I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. Phi. 4. 13.

17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,

If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. Jno. 14. 23.—In whom ye also are built together for a habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. 2. 22.—Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Gal. 2. 20.—Rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith. Col. 2. 7.—He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. Mat. 10. 37.

18 May be able to comprehend with all saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints. Eph. 1. 18.

Thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation. Re. 5. 9.—The same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. Ro. 10. 12.

The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him. Psa. 103. 17.

Christ Jesus ... being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Phi. 2. 5-8.—Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Jno. 15. 13.—The Son of man is come to save that which was lost. Mat. 18. 11.

Eph. 2. 1-7.

19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Ro. 8. 35-39.—Having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end. Jno. 13. 1.—As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love. If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love. Jno. 15. 9, 10.—I love them that love me. Pr. 8. 17.

We love him, because he first loved us. 1 Jno. 4. 19.—Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, and hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Re. 1. 5, 6.—Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. 1 Jno. 3. 16.—A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. Jno. 13. 34, 35.—Walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us. Eph. 5. 2.—The love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead: and that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. 2 Co. 5. 14, 15.—Forgive them; for they know not what they do. Lu. 23. 34.—Jesus wept. Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him! Jno. 11. 35, 36.—Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it. Eph. 5. 25.—He that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. Jno. 14. 21.—And his banner over me was love. Gal. 2. 4.—As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Re. 3. 19.

The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. Jno. 1. 14.—For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. Col. 2. 9.—And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace. Jno. 1. 16. Be filled with the Spirit. Eph. 5. 18.—Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled. Mat. 5. 6.—We ... do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding. Col. 1. 9.—

Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost. And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. Ro. 15. 13, 14; Eph. 4. 13.—Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. Phi. 1. 11.

20 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,

Now to him that is of power to establish you according to my gospel. To God only wise, be glory through Jesus Christ for ever. Ro. 16. 25, 27.—Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Jude 24, 25.

He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? Ro. 8. 32.—As it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. 1 Co. 2. 9.

The exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places. Eph. 1. 19, 20.—I ... labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily. Col. 1. 29.

21 Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Mat. 6. 13.—The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying, Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created. Re. 4. 10, 11.—By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name. He. 13. 15.

CHAPTER IV.

I THEREFORE, the prisoner of the Lord,) beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

Eph. 3. 1.
Walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God. Col. 1. 10.—Let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel. Phi. 1. 27. Walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory. 1 Th. 2. 12.—Adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things. Tit. 2. 10.—As he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy. 1 Pe. 1. 15, 16.—Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works. 2 Th. 1. 9.—For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called. Ro. 8. 29, 30.—I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Phi. 3. 14.—Called ... to glory and virtue. 2 Pe. 1. 8.

2 With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;

Put on ... as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. Col. 3. 12, 13.—Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me;

for I am meek and lowly in heart. Mat. 11. 29.—But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance. Gal. 5. 22, 23.

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

4 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;

We, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another. Ro. 12. 5.—As the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. 1 Co. 12. 12, 13

The hope of glory. Col. 1. 27.

5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

To us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him. 1 Co. 8. 6.

It is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. Ro. 3. 30.—We through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. Gal. 5. 5, 6.—The faith which was once delivered unto the saints. Jude 3.

Go ye ... and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Mat. 28. 19.—As many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. Gal. 3. 27, 28.

6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? Mal. 2. 10.—After this manner ... pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven. Mat. 6. 9.—Ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. Gal. 3. 26.

The high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity. Is. 57. 15. God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; and hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, ... for in him we live, and move, and have our being. Ac. 17. 24, 26, 28.

Ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto a holy temple in the Lord: in whom ye also are builded together for a habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. 2. 19, 22.

7 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

Unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability. Mat. 25. 15. All these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will. 1 Co. 12. 11.—Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching; or he that exhorteth, on exhortation. Ro. 12. 6. As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. 1 Pe. 4. 10.

8 Wherefore he saith, When he ascended on high, he led captivity captive, and gave unto men.

Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive: thou hast received gifts for men; yea, for the rebellious also, that the Lord God might dwell among them. Ps. 68. 18.—Having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it. Col. 2. 15.—It is expedient for you that I go away; for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. Jno. 16. 7.—David, ... being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne; he seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption. This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses. Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear. Ac. 2. 29-33.

9 (Now that he ascended; what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?)

No man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven. Jno. 3. 13.

10 He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.)

He raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: and hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all. Eph. 1. 20-23.—Of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace. Jno. 1. 16.—All things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me. Luk. 24. 44.

11 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;

And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues. 1 Co. 12. 28.—There were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. Ac. 13. 1. And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Cesarea; and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him. Ac. 21. 8.—But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. 2 Ti. 4. 5.—Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Ac. 20. 28.—The elders which are among you I exhort, ... feed the flock of God which is among you. 1 Pe. 5. 1, 2.

12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:

Leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God. He. 6. 1.—I count not myself to have apprehended; but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you. Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing. Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample. Phi. 3. 13-17.

The ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. Ac. 20. 24.—[God] hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

2 Co. 5. 19, 20.—Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. Make full proof of thy ministry. 2 Ti. 4. 2, 5.
We do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying. 2 Co. 12. 19.—His body's sake, which is the church. Col. 1. 24.

13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:

14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

Mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple. Ro. 16. 17, 18.—Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace. He. 13. 9.

15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

[We] have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 2 Co. 4. 2.—A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. Jno. 13. 34, 35.—Though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. 1 Co. 13. 2.—Whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Ro. 8. 29.—He is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. Col. 1. 18.

16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. Jno. 15. 5.—For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. 1 Co. 12. 12, 13.
The fruit of the Spirit is love. Gal. 5. 22.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind,

In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 5. 4.
The time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries. 1 Pe. 4. 3.—You hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins; wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. Eph. 2. 1-3.—They ... became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Ro. 1. 21.

18 Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart :

If our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost : in whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. 2 Co. 4. 3, 4.—To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God. Ac. 26. 18.—Ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world. Eph. 2. 12.—The carnal mind is enmity against God : for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. Ro. 8. 7.

19 Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

Having their conscience seared with a hot iron. 1 Ti. 4. 2.

No whoremonger, nor unclean person, ... hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. Let no man deceive you with vain words : for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. Be not ye therefore partakers with them. Eph. 5. 5-7.

Ro. 1. 24-32.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ ;

21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus :

When he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth. ... He shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. Jno. 16. 13, 14.

22 That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts ;

Put off all these ; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds. Col. 3. 8, 9.—Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. Ro. 6. 6.

23 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind ;

Be not conformed to this world : but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that I, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. Ro. 12. 2.—Be in me a clean heart, O God ; and renew a right spirit within me. Ps. 51. 10.

24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

[Ye] have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him. Col. 3. 10.—The night is far spent, the day is at hand : let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. Let us walk honestly, as in the day ; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying. But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof. Ro. 13. 12-14.

As Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. Ro. 6. 4.—If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature : old things are away ; behold, all things are become new. 2 Co. 5. 17. In Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature. Gal. 6. 15.—The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world. Tit. 2. 11, 12.

God created man in his own image. Gen. 1. 27.—We are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. Eph. 2. 10.

25 Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour : for we are members one of another.

Lying lips are abomination to the Lord : but they that deal truly are his delight. Pr. 12. 22.—All liars shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone : which is the second death. Re. 21. 8.

We, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another. Ro. 12. 5.

26 Be ye angry, and sin not : let not the sun go down upon your wrath :

He ... looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts. Mar. 3. 5.—Jesus ... was much displeased, and said, ... Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not. Mar. 10. 14.

I was very angry when I heard their cry. ... And I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them. Ne. 5. 6, 7.

The discretion of a man deferreth his anger ; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression. Pr. 19. 11.—He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding ; but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly. Pr. 14. 29.—Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry : for anger resteth in the bosom of fools. Ec. 7. 9.—Let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath : for the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God. Ja. 1. 19, 20.—Cease from anger, and forsake wrath : fret not thyself in any wise to do evil. Ps. 37. 8.

27 Neither give place to the devil.

To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also : for if I forgive any thing, to whom I forgive it, for your sakes forgive I it in the person of Christ ; lest Satan should get an advantage of us : for we are not ignorant of his devices. 2 Co. 2. 10, 11.—Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Ja. 4. 7.

28 Let him that stole steal no more : but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.

Thou shalt not steal. Ex. 20. 15.—Nor thieves, ... shall inherit the kingdom of God. 1 Co. 6. 10.

Labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. Ac. 20. 35.—Study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands. 1 Th. 4. 11.—Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought ; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you. We hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies. Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread. 2 Th. 3. 8, 11, 12.

29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient : but rather giving of thanks. Eph. 5. 4.—Put off all these ; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. Col. 3. 8.—Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man. Col. 4. 6.

Comfort yourselves together, and edify one another. 1 Th. 5. 11.—Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom ; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. Col. 3. 16.

These words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: and thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. De. 6. 6, 7.—They that feared the Lord spake often one to another: and the Lord hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name. And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels. Mal. 3. 16, 17.—The lips of the wise disperse knowledge. Pr. 15. 7.

Every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. Mat. 12. 36.

30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

They rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit. Is. 63. 10.

After that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory. Eph. 1. 13, 14.—Ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body. Ro. 8. 23.

31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:

Put them in mind... to speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men. Tit. 3. 1, 2.—Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge. Ja. 4. 11.

32 And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

Put on... as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. Col. 3. 12, 13.—Be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous: not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing. 1 Pe. 3. 8, 9.

When ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. Mar. 11. 25.—Peter... said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven. Mat. 18. 21, 22.

Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee? And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him. So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses. Mat. 18. 33-35.

The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 Jno. 1. 7, 9.

CHAPTER V.

BE ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;

Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; that ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. Mat. 5. 44, 45.

Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God. Every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure. 1 Jno. 3. 1, 3.

2 And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour.

A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. Jno. 13. 34.—This is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. 1 Jno. 3. 11, 16.—As touching brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another. 1 Th. 4. 9.

Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father. Gal. 1. 4.

3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;

Mortify... your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry. Col. 3. 5.—Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body. 1 Co. 6. 18.—For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication: that every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour; not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God. For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. 1 Th. 4. 3-5, 7.

The wicked boasteth of his heart's desire, and blesseth the covetous, whom the Lord abhorreth. Ps. 10. 3.—Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. Lk. 12. 15.—Godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment let us be therewith content. But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. 1 Th. 6. 6-11.

4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.

As they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient. Ro. 1. 28.

Let us, who are of the day, be sober. 1 Th. 5. 8.
In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. 1 Th. 5. 18.—It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto thy name, O most High. Ps. 92. 1.—Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing. Ps. 107. 21, 22.—Let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name. He. 13. 15.

5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

The works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness;... of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. Gal. 5. 19, 21.—Without are... whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters. Re. 22. 15.

Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. Ho. 13. 4, 5.

1 Th. 6. 17-19.

6 Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

The wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men. Ro. 1. 18.
Col. 3. 6.

8 For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light:

I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Ac. 26. 17, 18.—Ye were without Christ. Eph. 2. 12.—The light of the world. Jno. 8. 12.

I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness. Jno. 12. 46.—God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Co. 4. 6.—Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. 1 Th. 5. 5.—Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light. 1 Pe. 2. 9.

9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;)

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance. Gal. 5. 22, 23.

Our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. 2 Co. 1. 12, 13.

10 Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

Be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. Ro. 12. 2.—That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ. Phi. 1. 10.

11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. Psa. 1. 1.—I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one no not to eat. 1 Co. 5. 11.

Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? and what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? and what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. 2 Co. 6. 14-18.

We command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us. If any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother. 2 Th. 3. 6, 14, 15.

Men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away. 2 Th. 3. 2, 5.

What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. Ro. 6. 21.—He that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. Gal. 6. 8.

Thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him. Le. 19. 17.

12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

Ro. 1. 24, 26, 27.

13 But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

Every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reprov'd. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God. Jno. 3. 20, 21.

14 Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee. Is. 60. 1.—God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved.) Eph. 2. 4, 5.—Ye will not come to me, that ye might have life. Jno. 5. 40.—I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. Jno. 8. 12.

15 See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,

Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life. Put away from thee a froward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee. Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee. Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established. Turn not to the right hand, nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil. Pr. 4. 23-27. Abstain from all appearance of evil. 1 Th. 5. 22.

16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest. Ec. 9. 10.—I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work. Jno. 9. 4.—As we have ... opportunity, let us do good unto all men. Gal. 6. 10.

He sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church. And when they were come to him, he said unto them, We know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, serving you with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews. The Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. Ac. 20. 17-19, 23, 24.

17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.

Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time. Col. 4. 5.—We ... do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; that ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God. Col. 1. 9, 10.

Be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. Ro. 12. 2.— is the will of God, even your sanctification. 1 Th. 4. 3.—In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. 1 Th. 5. 18.

Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. And five of them were wise, and five were foolish. Mat. 25. 1, 2.—The children of Issachar, which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do. 1 Ch. 12. 32.

18 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;

Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise. Pr. 20. 1.—Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes? They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine. Pr. 23. 29, 30.—Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink. Is. 5. 22.—Take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. Lu. 21. 34.

If ye ... being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him? Lu. 11. 13.—[Barnabas] was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith. Ac. 11. 24.

19 Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. Col. 3. 16.—Is any merry? let him sing psalms. Ja. 5. 13. My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing and give praise. Awake up, my glory; awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early. Ps. 57. 7, 8.—When they had sung a hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives. Mat. 26. 30.—At midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God. Ac. 16. 25.

20 Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;

I will bless the Lord at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth. Ps. 34. 1.—I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the Lord, and the praises of the Lord, according to all that the Lord hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses. Is. 63. 7.—Whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him. Col. 3. 17.—By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name. He. 13. 15.

The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord. Job 1. 21.

Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 2. 5.

21 Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Phi. 2. 3.—Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. 1 Pe. 5. 5.

Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation. Ro. 13. 1, 2.—Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the as supreme; or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well. For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: as free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God. Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king. 1 Pe. 2. 13-17.

22 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord. Col. 3. 18.—Ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives; while they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear. 1 Pe. 3. 1, 2.—Teach the young women ... to be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed. Tit. 2. 4, 5.

Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law. 1 Co. 14. 34.

Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee. Ge. 3. 16.

23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.

24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

The head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man. 1 Co. 11. 3.—He is the head of the body, the church. Col. 1. 18.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;

Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them. Col. 3. 19.—Ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered. 1 Pe. 3. 7.

And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour. Eph. 5. 2.—The life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Ga. 2. 20.

There is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time. 1 Ti. 2. 5, 6.

26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word,

The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 Jo. 1. 7.—This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth. 1 Jo. 5. 6.—Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. Jo. 3. 5.

Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 2.—Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost. Tit. 3. 5.

The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God), by the resurrection of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 3. 21.—Ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you. Jo. 15. 3.—Sanctify them through thy truth; thy word is truth. For their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth. Jo. 17. 17, 19.

Ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit ... being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever. 1 Pe. 1. 22, 23.

27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

You ... hath he reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unproveable in his sight. Col. 1. 21, 22.—Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Jude 24, 25.

He ... shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, having the glory of God. Re. 21. 10, 11.—Thou art all fair, my love; there is no spot in thee. Ca. 4. 7.

28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

I have given them thy word. ... I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil. Jno. 17. 14, 15.—I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth. Jno. 14. 16, 17.—When he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth. ... He shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. Jno. 16. 13, 14.

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man. Ge. 2. 23.—So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another. Ro. 12. 5.—Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? 1 Co. 6. 15.—Ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular. 1 Co. 12. 27.

31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh. Ge. 2. 24.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

CHAPTER VI.

CHILDREN, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord. Col. 3. 20.—Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old. Pr. 23. 22.—He went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them. Lu. 2. 51.

2 Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise;

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Ex. 20. 12.—Honour thy father and thy mother, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee; that thy days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee, in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. De. 5. 16.—Cursed be he that setteth light by his father or his mother. De. 27. 16.—God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and he that curseth father or mother, let him die the death. Mat. 15. 4.

Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you: therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me for ever. Je. 35. 18, 19.

4 And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged. Col. 3. 21.

Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it. Pr. 22. 6.

Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying. Pr. 19. 18.—Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest: yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul. Pr. 29. 17.—Take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: but teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons. De. 4. 9.

These words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: and thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes. And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates. De. 6. 6, 9.

I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the Lord, to do justice and judgment; that the Lord may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him. Ge. 18. 19.

De. 21. 18–21. 1 Ch. 28. 9, 10.

5 Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;

Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God. Col. 3. 22.—Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again. Tit. 2. 9.—Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. 1 Pe. 2. 18.

Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed. And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. 1 Ti. 6. 1, 2.

6 Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

As ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. Phi. 2. 12.

Whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men. Col. 3. 23.—Do all to the glory of God. 1 Co. 10. 31.

8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ. Col. 3. 24.—We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. 2 Co. 5. 10.—Who will render to every man according to his deeds: to them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life. Ro. 2. 6, 7.

9 And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him.

Masters, give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven. Col. 4. 1.—Thou shalt not rule over him with rigour; but shalt fear thy God. Le. 25. 43.—He that is called, being free, is Christ's servant. 1 Co. 7. 22.—There is no respect of persons with God. Ro. 2. 11.—He that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons. Col. 3. 25.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

Be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. 2 Ti. 2. 1.—Trust ye in the Lord for ever: for in the Lord JEHOVAH is everlasting strength. Is. 26. 4.—He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: but they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint. Is. 40. 29, 31.—What is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power. Eph. 1. 19.—Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness. Col. 1. 11.

My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong. 2 Co. 12. 9, 10.—I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. Phi. 4. 13.

11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. Ro. 13. 12.—By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left. 2 Co. 6. 7; Eph. 6. 13-18.

Least Satan should get an advantage of us; for we are not ignorant of his devices. 2 Co. 2. 11.

12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

Strive to enter in at the strait gate. Lu. 13. 24.

I delight in the law of God after the inward man: but I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. Ro. 7. 22, 23.—Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. 1 Jno. 2. 15.—My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not. Pr. 1. 10.

Men shall revile you, and persecute you. Mat. 5. 11.—After the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus. 1 Co. 15. 32.

The Lord said unto Satan, From whence comest thou? And Satan answered the Lord, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. Job 2. 2.

The god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not. 2 Co. 4. 4.—In time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience. Eph. 2. 2.—The prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me. Jno. 14. 30.—Having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it. Col. 2. 15.

The great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony. Re. 12. 9-11.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

The weapons of our warfare are not carnal. 2 Co. 10. 4.

Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. Lu. 8. 12, 13.—Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth. Re. 3. 10.—The great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand? Re. 6. 17; Eph. 6. 11.

14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;

Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning. Lu. 12. 35.—Gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 13.

Our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. 2 Co. 1. 12.

Let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation. 1 Th. 5. 8.—He put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation upon his head. Is. 59. 17.—Herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men. Ac. 24. 16.—Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all thy commandments. Ps. 119. 6.

15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation! Is. 62. 7.—All things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation. 2 Co. 5. 18.—Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: and not only so, but we glory in tribulations also. Ro. 5. 1, 3.

16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: whom resist steadfast in the faith. 1 Pe. 5. 8, 9.—This is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. 1 Jno. 5. 4. By faith ye stand. 2 Co. 1. 24.

Now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness th manifold temptations: that the trial of your faith, being more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls. 1 Pe. 1. 6-9.

How can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God? Ge. 39. 9.

17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God :

1 Th. 5. 8. 1a. 59. 17.

God, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath: that by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us: which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the veil. He. 6. 17-19.

The word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart. He. 4. 12.—Out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations. Re. 19. 15.

The prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2 Pe. 1. 21; 2 Co. 10. 4.

Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. Then the devil leaveth him. Mat. 4. 10, 11.

18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints;

Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving. Col. 4. 2.—Pray without ceasing. 1 Th. 5. 17.—Continuing instant in prayer. Ro. 12. 12.—Be careful for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. Phi. 4. 6.—Daniel ... kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God. Da. 6. 10.—He spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint. Lu. 18. 1.

Ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God. Ro. 8. 15, 27.—God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. Jno. 4. 24.—Praying in the Holy Ghost. Jude 20.

Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation. Mat. 26. 41.—Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is. Mar. 13. 33.—The end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer. 1 Pe. 4. 7.

I will not let thee go, except thou bless me. And he said unto him, What is thy name? and he said, Jacob. And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed. ... And he blessed him there. Ge. 32. 26-29.

19 And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel,

Praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds. Col. 4. 3.—Brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you. 2 Th. 3. 1.—I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me. Ro. 15. 30.

Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word. Ac. 4. 29.—[Saul] spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him. Ac. 9. 29.—Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. Ac. 13. 46.—Paul ... came to Ephesus: ... and he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God. Ac. 19. 1, 8.—Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech. 2 Co. 3. 12.

The mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ. Col. 2. 2.—Without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. 1 Th. 3. 16.

20 For which I am an ambassador in bonds: that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

We are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. 2 Co. 5. 20.

He said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles. And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live. And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, the chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging. Ac. 22. 21, 24.

My bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places; and many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear. Phi. 1. 13, 14.

According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death. Phi. 1. 20.—After that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention. 1 Th. 2. 2.

We ought to obey God rather than men. Ac. 5. 29. Son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house. And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear. Eze. 2. 6, 7.

21 But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things;

22 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.

All my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellowservant in the Lord. Col. 4. 7.—There accompanied him into Asia ... Tychicus and Trophimus. Ac. 20. 4.—Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus. 2 Ti. 4. 12.

23 Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Jno. 14. 27.—Putting on the breastplate of faith and love. 1 Th. 5. 8.

24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Mat. 25. 40.—Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jno. 21. 17.

Written from Rome unto the Ephesians by Tychicus.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE

PHILIPPIANS.

CHAPTER I.

PAUL and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons :

Ac. 16. 1, etc.

If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour. Jno. 12. 26.—Now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life. Ro. 6. 22.—Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Mat. 6. 24.

There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. Ro. 8. 1.—We, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another. Ro. 12. 5.—If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away: behold, all things are become new. 2 Co. 5. 17; Phi. 3. 9.

2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Ro. 1. 7.

3 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you. Col. 1. 3; Ro. 1. 8, 9; 1 Th. 1. 2; 2 Th. 1. 3.

5 For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. 1 Co. 1. 9.—That the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel. Eph. 3. 6.—We are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end. He. 3. 14.

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ :

This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. Jno. 6. 29.—It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phi. 2. 13.—Work of faith. 1 Th. 1. 3.—Waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ: who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 1. 7, 8.—After that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest of our inheritance. Eph. 1. 13, 14.

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace.

I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you. 2 Co. 7. 3.

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

My brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown. Phi. 4. 1.

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment;

The Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you. 1 Th. 3. 12.—Grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. 2 Pe. 3. 18.—We ... do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding. Col. 1. 9.—By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments. 1 Jno. 5. 2; 1 Th. 4. 9, 10; 1 Pe. 1. 22.

10 That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ;

Be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. Ro. 12. 2.—Be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. Eph. 5. 17.

Give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall: for so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. 2 Pe. 1. 10, 11.

The very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Th. 5. 23.

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance. Ga. 5. 22, 23.

I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. Jno. 15. 5.—We are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. Eph. 2. 10.

Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples. Jno. 15. 8.—Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Mat. 5. 16.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee: the remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain. Ps. 76. 10.—Ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good. Ge. 50. 20.—They that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word. Ac. 8. 4.—They which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word. And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord. Ac. 11. 19, 21.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will:

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

There be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. Gal. 1. 7.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

We trust that he will yet deliver us; ye also helping together by prayer for us. 2 Co. 1. 10, 11.—Our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory. 2 Co. 4. 17.—We know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to whom who are the called according to his purpose. If any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. Ro. 8. 28, 9.

20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

None of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself. For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. Ro. 14. 7, 8.—The love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead: and that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. 2 Co. 5. 14, 15.—Ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Co. 6. 20.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Gal. 2. 20.—Ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Col. 3. 3, 4.

I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them. Re. 14. 13.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. 2 Co. 5. 8.—So shall we ever be with the Lord. 1 Th. 4. 17.

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;

26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established; that is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me. Ro. 1. 11, 12.—I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ. Ro. 15. 29.—Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand. 2 Co. 1. 24.—He gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ. Eph. 4. 11, 12.

In whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory. 1 Pe. 1. 8.

27 Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;

Walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called. Eph. 4. 1.—Walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God. Col. 1. 10.

Stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved. Phi. 4. 1.—Be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. 1 Co. 1. 10.—Earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. Jude 3.

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation and that of God.

I, even I, am he that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldst be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass. Isa. 51. 12.—Fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. Mat. 10. 28.

Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer: seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you; and to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power; when he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe. 2 Th. 1. 8-10.

Rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you. 1 Pe. 4. 13, 14.

29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

30 Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God. Eph. 2. 8.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven. Mat. 5. 11, 12.—They departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name. Ac. 5. 41.

CHAPTER II.

IF there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,

As the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ. 2 Co. 1. 5.—Our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts. 2 Th. 2. 16, 17.—The love of Christ which passeth knowledge. Eph. 3. 19.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. 2 Co. 13. 14. Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? 1 Co. 3. 16.—The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God. Ro. 8. 16.

2 Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits. Ro. 12. 16.—The God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus. Ro. 15. 5.—I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. 1 Co. 1. 10; 1 Pe. 3. 8.

3 Let nothing be done through strife or vain-glory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another. Gal. 5. 26.—If ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth. Ja. 3. 14.

We, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another. Ro. 12. 5.—Be clothed with humility. 1 Pe. 5. 5.—Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God. Eph. 5. 21.

4 Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification. Ro. 15. 2.—Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth. Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved. 1 Co. 10. 24, 33.—[Love] seeketh not her own. 1 Co. 13. 5.

5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. Mat. 11. 29.—I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you. Jno. 13. 15.—Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps. 1 Pe. 2. 21.—He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked. 1 Jno. 2. 6.

6 Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

The Word was God. The only begotten of the Father. Jno. 1. 1, 14.—The image of the invisible God. Col. 1. 15.—Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high. He. 1. 3.

The Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son: that all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. Jno. 5. 22, 23.—He that hath seen me hath seen the Father. Jno. 14. 9.—I and my Father are one. Jno. 10. 30.

7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:

He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not. Is. 53. 3.

The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. Mat. 20. 28.—I am among you as he that serveth. Lu. 22. 27.—For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. Jno. 6. 38.

As the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil. In all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. He. 2. 14, 17.—We have not a high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. He. 4. 15.

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

Ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich. 2 Co. 8. 9.—I lay down my life, that I might take it again. No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. Jno. 10. 17, 18.

He fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt. Mat. 26. 39.

Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us. Gal. 3. 13.—Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. He. 12. 2.

9 Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:

Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors. Is. 53. 12.—All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Mat. 28. 18.—We see Jesus, ... crowned with glory and honour. He. 2. 9.—He raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come. Eph. 1. 20, 21.

10 That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever. Re. 5. 13.—Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. 1 Co. 15. 24, 25.

11 And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. Jno. 13. 13.—Let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. Ac. 2. 36.—To this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living. Ro. 14. 9.—To us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him. 1 Co. 8. 6.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. Jno. 6. 28, 29.—Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief. He. 4. 11.—Let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. 2 Co. 7. 1.—Give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fail. 2 Pe. 1. 10.—We desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope to the end: that ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises. He. 6. 11, 12.—Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. He. 4. 1.

13 For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God. 2 Co. 3. 5.—For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast. Eph. 2. 8, 9.—The preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the Lord. Pr. 16. 1.—I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever. Je. 32. 39.—The God of peace ... make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is wellpleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ. He. 13. 20, 21.

14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings:

Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned. Ja. 5. 9.—Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer. 1 Co. 10. 10.

15 That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world;

The children of your Father which is in heaven. Mat. 5. 45. Followers of God, as dear children. Eph. 5. 1.—Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. 1 Pe. 2. 12.

Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Mat. 5. 14, 16.—Ye were sometime darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light. Eph. 5. 8.

16 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

Let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel. Phi. 1. 27.

The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life. Jno. 6. 63.

What is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? 1 Th. 2. 19.

17 Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

None of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. Ac. 20. 24.—Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church. Col. 1. 24.

19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

Ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that. Ja. 4. 15.—I and my Father are one. Jno. 10. 30.

20 For I have no man likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. Mat. 16. 24.—He died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. 2 Co. 5. 15.—I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved. 1 Co. 10. 33.

22 But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

Ac. 16. 1-3.

24 But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellowsoldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.

We preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus: whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily. Col. 1. 28, 29.

Fight the good fight of faith. 1 Ti. 6. 12.—Endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. 2 Ti. 2. 3.

Having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you. Phi. 4. 18.

26 For he lodged after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death : but God had mercy on him ; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits : who forgiveth all thine iniquities ; who healeth all thy diseases ; who redeemeth thy life from destruction ; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies. Ps. 103. 2-4.—Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men ! Ps. 107. 21.—Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints. Ps. 116. 15.

He stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind. Is. 27. 8.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness ; and hold such in reputation :

He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me. Mat. 10. 40.—We beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you ; and to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. 1 Th. 5. 12, 13.—Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine. 1 Th. 5. 17.

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.

I was sick, and ye visited me : I was in prison, and ye came unto me. Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Mat. 25. 36, 40.

CHAPTER III.

FINALLY, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

Rejoice evermore. 1 Th. 5. 16.

I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth. Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance. 2 Pe. 1. 12, 13.

2 Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision.

Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you. Mat. 7. 6.—If ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another. Gal. 5. 15.

He is not a Jew, which is one outwardly ; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh. Ro. 2. 28.—If ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. Gal. 5. 2.—Neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law ; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh. Gal. 6. 13.

3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

He is a Jew, which is one inwardly ; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter ; whose praise is not of men, but of God. Ro. 2. 29.—In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ. Col. 2. 11.—Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiffnecked. De. 10. 16.

God is a Spirit : and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. Jno. 4. 24.—That we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter. Ro. 7. 6.

God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. Gal. 6. 14.

Which stood only in meats and drinks, and diverse washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation. He. 9. 10.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more :

5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews ; as touching the law, a Pharisee ;

He that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man child in your generations. Gen. 17. 12.

My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews ; which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. Ac. 26. 4, 5.

6 Concerning zeal, persecuting the church ; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

Ac. 22. 3, etc. ; 26. 10, 11.

As for Saul, he made havoc of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women, committed them to prison. Ac. 8. 3 ; 9. 1, etc.—Ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it : and profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers. Gal. 1. 13, 14.

If thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments. He saith unto him, Which ? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother : and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up : what lack I yet ? Mat. 19. 17-20.—Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery : but I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. Mat. 5. 27, 28.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

The kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field ; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field. Mat. 13. 44.—If righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain. Gal. 2. 21.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord : for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

By his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many ; for he shall bear their iniquities. Is. 53. 11.—Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches : but let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord which exercise lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth. Je. 9. 23, 24.—This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and

Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. Jno. 17. 3.—I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified. 1 Co. 2. 2; Mar. 10. 28. 30.

9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

Abide in me, and I in you. Jno. 15. 4.—There is ... no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. Ro. 8. 1.—Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood. Ge. 7. 7.

They being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them. Ro. 10. 3, 5.—If they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect. Ro. 4. 14.—But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe. Ro. 3. 21, 22.

A man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ. Gal. 2. 16.—He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Ro. 6. 3, etc.—If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. Col. 3. 1, 2.

Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh. 2 Co. 4. 10, 11.—I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live: yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Gal. 2. 20.—Rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. 1 Pe. 4. 13.—It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him. 2 Ti. 2. 11.

11 If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air: but I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway. 1 Co. 9. 26, 27.—To me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. Phi. 1. 21.

The resurrection of the just. Luk. 14. 14.—The resurrection of life. Jno. 5. 29.

12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect; but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

To me to live is Christ. Phi. 1. 21.—I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me. Ro. 7. 21.

Let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. 2 Co. 7. 1.—Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord: He diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God. Heb. 12. 14, 15.

As [Saul] journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven: and he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? Act. 9. 3, 4.—Is not this a brand plucked out of the fire? 2 Co. 2. 2.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,

14 I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain. 1 Co. 9. 24.—Let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us. Heb. 12. 1.—I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Ti. 4. 7, 8.—The God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. 1 Pe. 5. 10.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

Them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil. Heb. 5. 14.—We ... that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Ro. 15. 1, 8, 13, 14.

Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the Lord. Heb. 6. 3.—Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith. Col. 2. 7.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

Be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. 1 Co. 15. 58.

17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample.

Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ. 1 Co. 11. 1. Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you. Phi. 4. 9.—Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock. 1 Pe. 5. 3.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

Rivers of waters run down mine eyes, because they keep not thy law. Ps. 119. 136.

Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God? For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written. Ro. 2. 23, 24.—There shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. 2 Pe. 2. 1, 2.—Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace. Gal. 5. 4.

19 Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

Mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple. Ro. 16. 17, 18.

Teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. Tit. 1. 11.

To be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. Ro. 8. 6, 7.

20 For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:

Now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; for he hath prepared for them a city. He. 11. 16.—Heavenly places in Christ Jesus. Eph. 2. 6.—Ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, to the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven. He. 12. 22, 23.

For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ. Tit. 2. 11-13.—Unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. He. 9. 28.—Waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 1. 7.

21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. As is the earthly, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. And as we have borne the image of the earthly, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. The trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. 1 Co. 15. 43, 48, 49, 52, 53.—When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Col. 3. 4.

CHAPTER IV.

THEREFORE, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

We are your rejoicing, even as ye also are our's in the day of the Lord Jesus. 2 Co. 1. 14.—What is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? For ye are our glory and joy. 1 Th. 2. 19, 20.—Now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord. For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God? 1 Th. 3. 8, 9.—Stand fast in the faith. 1 Co. 16. 13; Eph. 6. 10, etc.

2 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. Phi. 2. 2.
For the Lord's sake. 1 Pe. 2. 13.

3 And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in the book of life.

The book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. Re. 13. 8; 20. 12.

Thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book. Da. 12. 1.—Rejoice, because your names are written in heaven. Lu. 10. 20.—He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life. Re. 3. 5. Ex. 32. 32. Ps. 69. 28.

4 Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

Rejoice evermore. 1 Th. 5. 16.—Rejoicing in hope. Ro. 12. 12. Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart. Ps. 32. 11.—Rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. 1 Pe. 4. 13.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

Every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. 1 Co. 9. 25.—With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love. Eph. 4. 2.

The time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none; and they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not; and they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away. 1 Co. 7. 29-31.—Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh. Ja. 5. 8.—The end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer. 1 Pe. 4. 7.

Behold, I come quickly. Re. 22. 7.—The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 2 Pe. 3. 9; 2 Th. 2. 2.

6 Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

I would have you without carefulness. 1 Co. 7. 32.—Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved. Ps. 55. 22.—Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you. 1 Pe. 5. 7.—Pray without ceasing. In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. 1 Th. 5. 17, 18.

7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee. Is. 26. 3.—Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. Jno. 14. 27.—The fruit of the Spirit is... peace. Gal. 5. 22. To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it. Re. 2. 17.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

Putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another. Eph. 4. 25.—Provide things honest in the sight of all men. Ro. 12. 17.—Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying. Ro. 13. 13.—He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? Mt. 6. 8.—Be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. 1 Th. 4. 12.—Above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins. 1 Pe. 4. 8.—Adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things. Tit. 2. 10.—Abstain from all appearance of evil. 1 Th. 5. 22.—Let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ. Phi. 1. 27.

9 Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

Be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample. Phi. 3. 17.—I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil: And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. Ro. 16. 19, 20.—The very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Th. 5. 23.

God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints. 1 Co. 14. 33.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, there-with to be content.

Godliness with contentment is great gain. Having food and raiment let us be therewith content. 1 Ti. 6. 6, 8.—Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. He. 13. 5.

12 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel. Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me. Ac. 20. 33, 34.

Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me; lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, Who is the Lord? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain. Pr. 30. 8, 9.

13 I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. Jno. 15. 5.—My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. 2 Co. 12. 9.

The Father of our Lord Jesus Christ ... grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith. Eph. 3. 14-17.

14 Notwithstanding ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

When I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied. 2 Co. 11. 9.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.

God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister. He. 6. 10.—Charge them that are rich in this world, ... that they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate; laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life. 1 Ti. 6. 17-19.—I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. Ac. 20. 35.

18 But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus which were sent from you, an sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptab^{le} God.

Epaphroditus, my brother, and fellow-soldier. Phi. 2. 25.—He forget not: for with such He house, a holy priesthood, to offer up God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. Christ also hath loved us, and hath given Ro. 15. 1, 8, 13, 14. king and a sacrifice to God for a sweet follow on to know the Li 2—But without faith it is impossible him, and established in faith ... worketh by love. Gal. 5. 6.

19 But my God shall reto we have a need according to his riches in glor, same rule, Jesus.

O God, thou art my God. Ps. 63. 1.—I fed me all my life long unto this day, the Angel which led me from all evil, bless the lads. Ge. 48. 15, 16.—The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. Ps. 23. 1.—God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work. 2 Co. 9. 8.—In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace. Eph. 1. 7.—The Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly. Ps. 84. 11.

20 Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren which are with me greet you.

22 All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Cæsar's household.

My bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace. Phi. 1. 13. Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called. Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather. For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's freeman. 1 Co. 7. 20-22.—Not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called. 1 Co. 1. 26.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

It was written to the Philippians from Rome by Epaphroditus.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

COLOSSIANS.

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,

Not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father. Ga. 1. 1.—For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles. Ga. 2. 8; Eph. 1. 1.

2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

To them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints. 1 Co. 1. 2.—Them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ. 2 Pe. 1. 1.—That ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. 1 Jno. 1. 3.—We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. 1 Jno. 3. 14. Through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord. 2 Pe. 1. 2.

3 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

I thank my God upon every remembrance of you. Phi. 1. 3; Ro. 1. 8, 9; 1 Co. 1. 4; Eph. 1. 16.

For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God. Eph. 3. 14.—19.—And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge, and in all judgment; that ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ. Phi. 1. 9, 10.—In every thing by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God. Phi. 4. 6; Col. 1. 9, 10.

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints;

I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth. 3 Jno. 4.

Faith which worketh by love. Ga. 5. 6.—Your work of faith, and labour of love. 1 Th. 1. 3.—Your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth. 2 Th. 1. 3; Eph. 1. 15.—Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints. Phile. 5.—Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God. 1 Pe. 1. 21.—And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment. 1 Jno. 3. 23.

Add to your faith ... charity. 2 Pe. 1. 5, 7.—See that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently. 1 Pe. 1. 22.—God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. 1 Jno. 4. 16.—For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister. He. 6. 10.

5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;

If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men the most miserable. 1 Co. 15. 19.

Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven. Mat. 6. 20.—Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee. Ps. 31. 19.—The hope of his calling, ... the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints. Eph. 1. 18.—Good hope through grace. 2 Th. 2. 16.—Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Th. 4. 8.—A lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ... an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. 1 Pe. 1. 3, 4; Col. 1. 23, 27.—The word of truth, the gospel of your salvation. Eph. 1. 13.

6 Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world: and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth:

Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. Mar. 16. 15.—But I say, Have they not heard? Yes, verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. Ro. 10. 18.—And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations: and then shall the end come. Mat. 24. 14.

I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain. Jno. 15. 16. And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some a hundred. Mar. 4. 8.—For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth. Eph. 5. 9. Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. Phi. 1. 11.

So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. Ro. 10. 17.—The gospel of the grace of God. Ac. 20. 24.—The dispensation of the grace of God. Eph. 3. 2.—For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men. Tit. 2. 11.—This is the true grace of God wherein ye stand. 1 Pe. 5. 12.—Our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power. 1 Th. 1. 5.—Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness. 110. 3.—Lydia ... whose heart the Lord opened. Ac. 16. 14.

We then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain. 2 Co. 6. 1.

7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;

Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God. Col. 4. 12.—Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus. Phil. 23.

For Christ sent me ... to preach the gospel. 1 Co. 1. 17.—The same commit thou to faithful men. 2 Ti. 2. 2.—It is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. 1 Co. 4. 2.—If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine. 1 Ti. 4. 6.—One that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful. 1 Co. 7. 25.—Well done, thou good and faithful servant. Mat. 25. 21.

8 Who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.

The love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost, which is given unto us. Ro. 5. 5.—Jesus Christ: whom having not seen, ye love. 1 Pe. 1. 7, 8.—Obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren. 1 Pe. 1. 22.—The fruit of the Spirit is love. Ga. 5. 22.—For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of ... love. 2 Ti. 1. 7.—Spiritual sacrifices. 1 Pe. 2. 5.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints, cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers. Eph. 1. 15, 16.—Without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers. Ro. 1. 9.—Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power: that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him. 2 Th. 1. 11, 12.—God forbid that I should sin against the Lord in ceasing to pray for you. 1 Sa. 12. 23.—Peter therefore was kept in prison; but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him. Ac. 12. 5.—Pray without ceasing. 1 Th. 5. 17.—We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints. Col. 1. 3, 4.

That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him: the eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints. Eph. 1. 17, 18.

And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; that ye may approve things that are excellent. Phi. 1. 9, 10.—Be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. Ro. 12. 2.—Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. Eph. 5. 17.—I have more understanding than all my teachers: for thy testimonies are my meditation. Ps. 119. 99. If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God. Jno. 7. 17.—Teach me to do thy will. Ps. 148. 10.

But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits. Ja. 3. 17.—And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true. 1 Jno. 5. 20.—If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not: and it shall be given him. Ja. 1. 5; Col. 4. 12.

10 That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God:

Walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory. 1 Th. 2. 12.—Walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called. Eph. 4. 1.—Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ. Phi. 1. 27.—Walk in newness of life. Ro. 6. 4.—See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise. Eph. 5. 15.—We beseech you, ... that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more. 1 Th. 4. 1.

[Enoch] had this testimony, that he pleased God. He. 11. 5.—And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight. 1 Jno. 3. 22.

I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain. Jno. 15. 16. Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples. Jno. 15. 8.—Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. Phi. 1. 11.—The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance. Ga. 5. 22, 23.—Be ready to every good work. Tit. 3. 1. And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work. 2 Co. 9. 8.—Perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is wellpleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ. He. 13. 21.—And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ. Jno. 17. 3.

11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and long-suffering with joyfulness;

According to the riches of his glory, ... strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man. Eph. 3. 16.—Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Eph. 6. 10.—As thy days, so shall thy strength be. De. 33. 25.—Be strong and of a good courage. Jos. 1. 9.

He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength. They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength. Is. 40. 29, 31.—Out of weakness were made strong. He. 11. 34.

My grace is sufficient for thee. 2 Co. 12. 9. I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. Phi. 4. 13.—I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily. Col. 1. 29.

Add ... to knowledge ... patience. 2 Pe. 1. 5, 6.—Ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. He. 10. 36.—Let us run with patience the race that is set before us. He. 12. 1; Ja. 1. 2; Ro. 5. 3.—Be patient ... brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Ja. 5. 7.—Forbearing one another in love. Eph. 4. 2.

12 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light;

My Father, and your Father. Jno. 20. 17. The vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory. Ro. 9. 23.—Holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling. He. 3. 1.—A partaker of the glory that shall be revealed. 1 Pe. 5. 1.

Whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover whom he did predestinate, then he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified. Ro. 8. 29, 30; 2 Co. 5. 5.

Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Mat. 25. 34.—We have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will. Eph. 1. 11.—Heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ. Ro. 8. 17.—The riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints. Eph. 1. 18.

There shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun: for the Lord God giveth them light; and they shall reign for ever and ever. Re. 22. 5.—An inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away. 1 Pe. 1. 4.—Light is sown for the righteous. Ps. 97. 11.—The light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Co. 4. 6.—And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. Re. 21. 23.

13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son :

The god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. 2 Co. 4. 4.—Him that had the power of death, that is, the devil. He. 2. 14.—Having the understanding darkened. Eph. 4. 18.—Ye were sometime darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord : walk as children of light. Eph. 5. 8.—The darkness is past, and the true light now shineth. 1 Jno. 2. 8.

Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people ; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light. 1 Pe. 2. 9.—Passed from death unto life. Jno. 5. 24.—We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Eph. 6. 12.

14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins :

Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us. Ga. 3. 13 ; Eph. 1. 7.—Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity. Tit. 2. 14.—The church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Ac. 20. 28.—Ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers ; but with the precious blood of Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 18, 19.—Without shedding of blood is no remission. He. 9. 22.—Thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation. Ec. 5. 9.

This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. Mat. 26. 28.—To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. Ac. 10. 43.

God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. Eph. 4. 32.—The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 Jno. 1. 7-9.

15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature :

He that hath seen me hath seen the Father. Jno. 14. 9.—Christ, who is the image of God. The glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Co. 4. 4, 6.—The brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person. He. 1. 3.—Being in the form of God. 16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers : all things were created by him, and for him :

Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come. Eph. 1. 21.

All things were made by him ; and without him was not any thing made that was made. Jno. 1. 3.—God, who created all things by Jesus Christ. Eph. 3. 9.—By whom he made the worlds. He. 1. 2.—He that built all things is God. He. 3. 4.

I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was. Pr. 8. 22.—In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. Jno. 1. 1.—Before Abraham was, I am. To us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him ; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him. 1 Co. 8. 6.—All things were made by him ; and without him was not any thing made that was made. 18 And he is the head of the body, the church : who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead ; that in all things he might have the preeminence.

That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth ; even in him. And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all. Eph. 1. 10, 22, 23.—Grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ. Eph. 4. 15.—Christ is the head of the church : and he is the saviour of the body. Eph. 5. 23.

I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending. Re. 1. 8.—The beginning of the creation of God. Re. 3. 14.

Ac. 26. 23.—Jesus Christ, the first begotten of the dead. I am he that liveth, and was dead ; and, behold, I am alive for evermore. Re. 1. 5, 18.

The chiefest among ten thousand. Ca. 5. 10.—All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. 19 For it pleased the Father that in him should all fulness dwell ;

All things are delivered unto me of my Father. Mat. 11. 27. God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him. Jno. 3. 34.—In him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. Col. 2. 9. Christ is all, and in all. Col. 3. 11.

And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace. Jno. 1. 16.—Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ. Eph. 1. 3.

20 And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself ; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

The offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. He. 10. 10.—All things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation ; to wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them ; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. 2 Co. 5. 18, 19.—That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth ; even in him. 21 And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled

Dead in trespasses and sins; wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience. At that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world. Eph. 2. 1, 2, 12.—Haters of God. Ro. 1. 30.—The carnal mind is enmity against God. Ro. 8. 7.—He that is not with me is against me. Mat. 12. 30.—A friend of the world is the enemy of God. Ja. 4. 4.

By their fruits ye shall know them. Mat. 7. 20.—Even their mind and conscience is defiled. They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate. Tit. 1. 15, 16.

And you hath he quickened. Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God. Eph. 2. 1, 19.

22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unreprouvable in his sight:

Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace; and that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby. Eph. 2. 15, 16.—We are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh. He. 10. 19, 20.—Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Tit. 2. 14.

Be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless. 2 Pe. 3. 14.—According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love. Eph. 1. 4.—That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Eph. 5. 27.

The stars are not pure in his sight. Job 25. 5.—Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. Ps. 51. 7.—God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. 1 Th. 4. 7.

The God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. He. 13. 20, 21.

Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen. Jude 24, 25.

23 If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister;

He that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. Mat. 24. 13.—That on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience. Lu. 8. 15.—Rooted and grounded in love. Eph. 3. 17.

We are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end. He. 3. 14.—Rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving. Col. 2. 7.—If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered. Jno. 15. 6.

The hope of righteousness by faith. Gal. 5. 5.—The hope of his calling, and ... the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints. Eph. 1. 12.—For a helmet, the hope of salvation.

1 Th. 5. 8.—The hope of eternal life. Tit. 2. 7.—Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast. He. 6. 19.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. 1 Pe. 1. 3, 4.

Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. Mar. 16. 15.—There were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. Ac. 2. 5.

God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. 2 Co. 5. 19.—Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. 1 Co. 4. 1.—Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power. Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ. Eph. 3. 7, 8.

Now the just shall live by faith; but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him. He. 10. 38.—Kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation. 1 Pe. 1. 5.—My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: and I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. Jno. 10. 27, 28.

24 Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church:

We glory in tribulations also. Ro. 5. 3.—Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. Mat. 5. 11, 12.—I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation. 2 Co. 7. 4.—For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ. And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer. 2 Co. 1. 5, 6.

Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus. 2 Co. 4. 10.—That I may know him, ... and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death. Phi. 3. 10.

25 Whereof I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God;

A dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me. 1 Co. 9. 17.—The dispensation of the grace of God which is given me to youward. Eph. 3. 2.

I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. Ro. 15. 19.—Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering and doctrine. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. 2 Ti. 4. 2, 5.

26 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints:

My gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began, but now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith. Ro. 16. 25, 26.—We speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory. 1 Co. 2. 7.—The mystery of Christ which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; that the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel: and to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God. Eph. 3. 4, 6, 9.—But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath life and immortality to life through the gospel. 2 Th.

without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. 1 Th. 3. 16.

27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory:

O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! Ro. 11. 33.—That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him: the eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints. In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace. Eph. 1. 17, 18, 7.—The unsearchable riches of Christ. Eph. 3. 8.

The kingdom of God is within you. Lu. 17. 21.—I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit. Jno. 15. 5.—And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one: I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one. Jno. 17. 22, 23.—Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? 1 Co. 3. 16.—Christ liveth in me. Gal. 2. 20.—That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith. Eph. 3. 17.—Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. Re. 3. 20.

28 Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus:

I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house. I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God. By the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears. Ac. 20. 20, 27, 31.

That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Eph. 5. 27.—In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unreprouvable in his sight. Col. 1. 22.

Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Co. 1. 30.—For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. He. 10. 14.—The God of peace ... make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ: to whom be glory for ever and ever. He. 13. 20, 21.

29 Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

For I would that ye knew what great conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh. Col. 2. 1.—Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us. Eph. 3. 20.—Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phi. 2. 12, 13.—My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. ... When I am weak, then am I strong. 2 Co. 12. 9, 10.

CHAPTER II.

FOR I would that ye knew what great conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

We were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention. 1 Th. 2. 2.—Unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God; I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. Re. 3. 14, 15.

2 That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;

Our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work. 2 Th. 2. 16, 17.—Comfort the feebleminded. 1 Th. 5. 14.—And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation. 2 Co. 1. 6.

If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies, fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. Phi. 2. 1, 2.—Ye are all one in Christ. Gal. 3. 28.

Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; that they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. Jno. 17. 20, 21.—Let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. 1 Jno. 3. 18, 19.

This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. Jno. 17. 3.—We have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. 1 Co. 2. 12.—The spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him: the eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, and what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places. Eph. 1. 17-20.

To make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ. Eph. 3. 9.—Let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me. Je. 9. 24.

I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him. Mat. 11. 25, 27.—I and my Father are one. The Father is in me, and I in him. Jno. 10. 30, 38.—He that hath seen me hath seen the Father. Jno. 14. 9.

Without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. 1 Th. 3. 16.

3 In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! Ro. 11. 33.—Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. 1 Co. 1. 24.—The unsearchable riches of Christ. Eph. 3. 8.—Thou hast received gifts for men. Ps. 68. 18.—Who of God is made unto us wisdom. 1 Co. 1. 30.—He hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence. Eph. 1. 8.—Yet not the wisdom of this world, ... but we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory. 1 Co. 2. 6, 7.

To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna. Re. 2. 17.

4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.

The sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive. Eph. 4. 14.—Such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. 2 Co. 11. 13.—Take heed that no man deceive you. Mat. 24. 4.—They ... by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple. Ro. 16. 18.

Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. 1 Jno. 4. 1.—Of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. Ac. 20. 30.—Enticing words of man's wisdom. 1 Co. 2. 4.

Let no man deceive you with vain words. Eph. 5. 6; Col. 2. 8.

5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

Absent in body, but present in spirit. 1 Co. 5. 3.—Taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart. 1 Th. 2. 17.—Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? 2 Ki. 5. 26.

Let all things be done decently and in order. 1 Co. 14. 40.—Be ye stedfast, unmovable. 1 Co. 15. 58.—We are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end. He. 3. 14.—Beware, lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness. 2 Pe. 3. 17.

6 As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him:

As many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name. Jno. 1. 12.

Let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ. Phi. 1. 27.—I ... beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called. Eph. 4. 1.—We ... exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more. 1 Th. 4. 1.

7 Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

Trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified. Is. 61. 3.—Built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto a holy temple in the Lord: in whom ye also are builded together for a habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. 2. 20–22.

Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Ye are God's building. 1 Co. 3. 11, 9.—Built up a spiritual house. 1 Pe. 2. 5.—Building up yourselves on your most holy faith. Jude 20.

I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up. Ac. 20. 32.—Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God. 2 Co. 1. 21.

8 Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, deceive you. Je. 23. 8.—Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein. He. 13. 9.—For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. 1 Co. 3. 19.

Profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called: which some professing have erred concerning the faith. 1 Th. 6. 20, 21.

9 For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

They shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us. Mat. 1. 23.—The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. Jno. 1. 14. The Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works. Jno. 14. 10. God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself. 2 Co. 5. 19.—The great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ. Tit. 2. 13. This is the true God, and eternal life. 1 Jno. 5. 20.

10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power:

Ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. Gal. 3. 26.—Accepted in the beloved. Eph. 1. 6.—Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Co. 1. 30.—Made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.—Of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace. Jno. 1. 16.—The fulness of him that filleth all in all. Eph. 1. 23.

Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him. 1 Pe. 3. 22.—Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation? He. 1. 14.

God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Phi. 2. 9–11.

11 In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:

He is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God. Ro. 2. 29.—The Lord thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the Lord thy God. De. 10. 6.—Circumcise yourselves to the Lord, and take away the foreskins of your heart. Je. 4. 4; De. 10. 16.

For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh. Phi. 3. 3.—Our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. Ro. 6. 6.—O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death? Ro. 7. 24.—I am crucified with Christ. Gal. 2. 20.

Put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts. Eph. 4. 22.—Ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds. Col. 3. 8, 9.—If ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. Ro. 8. 13.

12 Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.

Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. Ro. 6. 3, 4.—The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 3. 21.

Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him: knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him. For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 6. 8–11.

Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead. Eph. 5. 14.—The exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead. Eph. 1. 19, 20.—Whom God hath raised up. Ac. 2. 24.—Have faith in God. Mar. 11. 22.—For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God. Eph. 2. 8.—Increase our faith. Lu. 17. 5.

13 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all tres-

You hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins. Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) and hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus. Ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands. Eph. 2. 1, 5, 6, 11.

We thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead. 2 Co. 5. 14.

Son of man, can these bones live? Eze. 37. 3.—This my son was dead, and is alive again. Lu. 15. 24.

If Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you. Ro. 8. 10, 11.—Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. 1 Pe. 1. 3.—Yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead. Ro. 6. 13.

God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them. 2 Co. 5. 19.—The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 Jno. 1. 7.

14 Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace; and that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby. Eph. 2. 15, 16.

Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? Ac. 15. 10; He. 9. 9, 10.

15 And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

How can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house. Mat. 12. 29.—When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace: but when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils. Lu. 11. 21, 22.

Her seed ... shall bruise thy head. Ge. 3. 15.—Thou hast led captivity captive. Ps. 68. 18.—Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors. Is. 53. 12.

I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven. Lu. 10. 18.—The prince of this world is judged. Jno. 16. 11.

Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil. He. 2. 14.—O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 15. 55-57.

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Ro. 8. 37-39.

16 Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days:

Why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no or an occasion to fall in his brother's way. Ro. 14. 10, 13.

Ac. 11. 3, 18. Le. 11. 46, 47.—There is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean. The kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. Ro. 14. 14, 17.

One believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs. Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him. Ro. 14. 2, 3.—Meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse. 1 Co. 8. 8; Ro. 14. 5, 6.

17 Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.

Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount. He. 8. 5; 9. 8-14.—The law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect. He. 10. 1.

The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 Jno. 1. 7.

18 Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,

This I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words. Col. 2. 4.—Many deceivers are entered into the world. Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward. 2 Jno. 7. 8.—Hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown. Re. 3. 11.—All that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life. Re. 13. 8.

There is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus. I will therefore that men pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting. 1 Ti. 2. 5, 8.

Secret things belong unto the Lord. De. 29. 29.

19 And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

Grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ: from whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love. Eph. 4. 15, 16.

No man ever yet hated his own flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church: for we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. Eph. 5. 29, 30.—Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit except it abide in me, I can do nothing. Jno. 15. 4, 5.

That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. Jno. 17. 21.—So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another. Ro. 12. 5.—For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular. 1 Co. 12. 12, 13, 27.

Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. Eph. 4. 3-6.

20 Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances,

Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free. Ga. 5. 1.—Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection. Ro. 6. 3, 5.

God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. Ga. 6. 14.

We, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world. But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage? Ga. 4. 3, 9.—It is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein. He. 13. 9.

21 (Touch not; taste not; handle not;

Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth. 1 Ti. 4. 3.—Or if a soul touch any unclean thing, whether it be a carcase of an unclean beast, or a carcase of unclean cattle, or the carcase of unclean creeping things, and if it be hid from him: he also shall be unclean, and guilty. Le. 5. 2.—Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcase shall ye not touch; they are unclean to you. Le. 11. 8.

22 Which all are to perish with the using;) after the commandments and doctrines of men?

Meat which perisheth. Jno. 6. 27.—Whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him; because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly. Mar. 7. 18, 19.

Their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men. Is. 29. 13.—Their heart is far from me. In vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. Mat. 15. 8, 9.

23 Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. Mat. 23. 27.

Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you. De. 4. 2.

Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. 1 Co. 10. 31.—Not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure. Is. 58. 13.—Make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof. Ro. 13. 14.

CHAPTER III.

IF ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead. Col. 2. 12.—Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection. Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 6. 4, 5, 11.—God, who is rich in mercy, ... even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) and hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus. Eph. 2. 4-6.

Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven. Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Mat. 6. 20, 33.—While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. 2 Co. 4. 18.—Our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body. Ph. 3. 20, 21; He. 11. 13-16.

Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee. ... My portion for ever. Ps. 73. 25, 26.—As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness. Ps. 17. 15.

So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God. Mar. 16. 19.—But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God. Ac. 7. 55.—Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. He. 12. 2.

2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

Set your heart and your soul to seek the Lord your God. 1 Ch. 22. 19.—If riches increase, set not your heart upon them. Ps. 62. 10.—Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and not to covetousness. Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way. Ps. 119. 36, 37.

They that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Ro. 8. 5, 6.—Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 1 Jno. 2. 15.—Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth. Mat. 6. 19.—Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. Lu. 12. 15.—Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things. Phi. 3. 19.

3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein? Ro. 6. 2.—I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Ga. 2. 20.—And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. I and my Father are one. Jno. 10. 28-30.—Because I live, ye shall live also. Jno. 14. 19.—We shall be saved by his life. Ro. 5. 10.

As thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us. Jno. 17. 21.—Ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular. 1 Co. 12. 27.—If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. 2 Co. 5. 17.—We are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. 1 Jno. 5. 20.

The natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 1 Co. 2. 14.—To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it. Re. 2. 17.—We walk by faith, not by sight. 2 Co. 5. 7.—Kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation. 1 Pe. 1. 5.

4 When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.

The Prince of life. Ac. 3. 15; Ga. 2. 20.—The Word of life. 1 Jno. 1. 1.—I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. Jno. 11. 25.—I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. Jno. 14. 6.—He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. 1 Jno. 5. 12.

We know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. 1 Jno. 3. 2.—Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. 1 Th. 4. 17.—Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body. Phi. 3. 21. It is raised in glory. 1 Co. 15. 43.

Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Th. 4. 8.—Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ. Tit. 2. 13.—Unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. He. 9. 28.—When the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. 1 Pe. 5. 4.

Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory. Ps. 73. 24.—Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory. Jno. 17. 24.

5 Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

If ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. Ro. 8. 13. They that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. Ga. 5. 24.—Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. Ro. 6. 6; 7. 23.

Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, ... and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. Ga. 5. 19, 21.

6 For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience:

The wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men. Ro. 1. 18.

7 In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness. For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness. Ro. 6. 19, 20; 7. 5.—And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Co. 6. 11; Tit. 3. 3.

The time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries. 1 Pe. 4. 3.—Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience. Eph. 2. 2.

8 But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us. He. 12. 1.—Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

Ja. 1. 21.—Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. Eph. 4. 29.—Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks. Eph. 5. 4.

9 Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

Putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another. Eph. 4. 25.—Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour. Is. 63. 8.

There shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie. Re. 21. 27.

Put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; and ... put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Eph. 4. 22, 24.—Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. Ro. 6. 6.

10 And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him:

Put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof. Ro. 13. 14.—A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you. Eze. 36. 26.—If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. 2 Co. 5. 17.—Be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. Ro. 12. 2.

Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. Ps. 51. 10.

We all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord. 2 Co. 3. 18.—God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Co. 4. 6.—As he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy. 1 Pe. 1. 15, 16.

11 Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all.

For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. Ro. 10. 12.—By one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. 1 Co. 12. 13; Ga. 3. 28.

Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. 1 Co. 7. 19.—For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. Ga. 5. 6.—But a new creature. Ga. 6. 15.

Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Co. 1. 30.—If ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. Ga. 3. 29.—God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. Ga. 6. 14.

12 Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering:

Whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate, to be conformed to the image of his Son. Ro. 8. 29.—Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 2.—Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, ... knowing brethren beloved, your election of God. 1 Th. 1. 3, 4.—Give diligence to make your calling and election sure. 2 Pe. 1. 10.

The election of grace. And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work. Ro. 11. 5, 6.

He hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love. Eph. 1. 4.—Beloved of God, called to be saints. Ro. 1. 7.—The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. Gal. 5. 22, 23.

Be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. Eph. 4. 32.

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

If ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: but if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. Mat. 6. 14, 15.

Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven. Mat. 18. 21, 22.—If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him. And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him. Lu. 17. 3, 4.—He shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy. Ja. 2. 13.

Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as a heathen man and a publican. Mat. 18. 15-17.

14 And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness.

For charity shall cover the multitude of sins. 1 Pe. 4. 8.—A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. Jno. 13. 34. Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. 1 Jno. 4. 7, 8, 12, 16.—Speaking the truth in love, ... grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ: from whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love. Eph. 4. 15, 16.

Now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three: but the greatest of these is charity. 1 Co. 13. 13.

15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful.

My people shall dwell in a peaceful habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places. Is. 32. 18.—The Lord will bless his people with peace. Psa. 29. 11.—Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee. Is. 26. 3.—Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. Jno. 14. 27.—Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Ro. 5. 1. The kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. Ro. 14. 17.

Whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him. Col. 3. 17.—Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Eph. 5. 20.—Abounding ... with thanksgiving. Col. 2. 7.—Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen. Ro. 7. 12.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. Jno. 5. 39.—The word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Heb. 4. 12.—From a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness. 2 Ti. 3. 15, 16.

These words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: and thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. De. 6. 6, 7.—I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary food. Job 23. 12.—Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee. Psa. 119. 11.—Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart. Ja. 15. 16.

If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. Jno. 15. 7.—Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father. 1 Jno. 2. 24.—Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do. 1 Th. 5. 11.—Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord. Eph. 5. 19.—And when they had sung a hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives. Mat. 26. 30.—Is any merry? let him sing psalms. Ja. 5. 13.—Thy statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage. Psa. 119. 54.

17 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

Whether ... ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. 1 Co. 10. 31.—He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks. Whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living. Ro. 14. 6, 8, 9.—Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 2. 5.

If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 4. 11.—Giving thanks always for all things. Eph. 5. 20.

18 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body. Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband. Eph. 5. 22, 24, 33.—Ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives. 1 Pe. 3. 1.

Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice. Eph. 4. 31.

Thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee. Ge. 3. 16.—The head of the woman is the man. 1 Co. 11. 3.

We ought to obey God rather than men. Ac. 5. 29.—As becometh saints. Eph. 5. 3.

19 Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. Let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself. Eph. 5. 25, 28, 33.—Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered. 1 Pe. 3. 7.—For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband. ... But God hath called us to peace. For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife? 1 Co. 7. 14, 16.

20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is wellpleasing unto the Lord.

Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise; that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth. Eph. 6. 1, 3.—[Jesus] was subject unto them. Lu. 2. 51.—Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. Ex. 20. 12; De. 21. 18–21.—Cursed be he that setteth light by his father or his mother. De. 27. 16.

My son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother: bind them continually upon thine heart, and tie them about thy neck. When thou goest, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee. For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life. Pr. 6. 20, 23.—The eyes that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it. Pr. 30. 17.—If thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments. Honour thy father and thy mother. Mat. 19. 17, 19.

21 Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

Ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Eph. 6. 4.

22 Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God:

With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men: knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free. Eph. 6. 7, 8; Tit. 2. 9.—Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. 1 Pe. 2. 18.

Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed. 1 Ti. 6. 1.—Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord? Phile. 16.—We ought to obey God rather than men. Ac. 5. 29.

The Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart. 1 Sa. 16. 7.—So did not I, because of the fear of God. Ne. 5. 15.—Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. Ec. 12. 13, 14.

23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest. Ec. 9. 10.—For whether we live, we live unto the Lord. Ro. 14. 8.—In every work that ye do, do it as unto the Lord, in the service of the house of God, and in accordance with the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered. 2 Ch. 31. 21.

24 Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.

To him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward. Pr. 11. 18.—Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free. Eph. 6. 8.—Who will render to every man according to his deeds: to them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life. Ro. 2. 6, 7.

If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour. Jno. 12. 26.

25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. 2 Co. 5. 10.—There is no respect of persons with God. Ro. 2. 11.—Who without respect of persons, judgeth according to every man's work. 1 Pe. 1. 17.—The Lord your God is ... a great God, a mighty, and a terrible, which regardeth not persons, nor taketh reward. De. 10. 17.

CHAPTER IV.

MASTERS, give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

Ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him. Eph. 6. 9.—Thou shalt not rule over him with rigour; but shalt fear thy God. Le. 25. 43. Thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and the Lord thy God redeemed thee. De. 15. 15.—Did not he that made me in the womb make him, and did not one fashion us in the womb? Job 31. 15.

I will be a swift witness against ... those that oppress the hireling in his wages. Mal. 3. 5.

2 Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving;

Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints. Eph. 6. 18.—Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. Phi. 4. 6.—Pray without ceasing. In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. 1 Th. 5. 17, 18.

Men ought always to pray, and not to faint. Lu. 18. 1.—I will not let thee go, except thou bless me. Ge. 32. 26.—Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray. Ps. 55. 17.

Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation. Mat. 26. 41.—The end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer. 1 Pe. 4. 7.

Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son. Col. 1. 12, 13.—By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name. He. 13. 15.

3 Withal praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in

That utterance may be given unto me, that I may (mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel. Col. 4. 3.—Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me. Ro. 15. 30.—Brethren, pray for us. 1 Th. 5. 25.

To the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth; I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name. Re. 3. 7, 8.—Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. 1 Co. 4. 1.—Eves the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints. Col. 1. 26.—It is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven. Mat. 13. 11.

The things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel; so that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places; and many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear. Phi. 1. 12-14.—The word of God is not bound. 2 Ti. 2. 9.

4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power. 1 Co. 2. 4.—Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place. For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ. 2 Co. 2. 14, 17.

5 Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time.

See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise. Eph. 5. 15.—Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. Mat. 10. 16.—The wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. Ja. 3. 17.

Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom. Ja. 3. 13.—As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men. Gal. 6. 10; Ec. 9. 10.

6 Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment. Ps. 37. 30.—The lips of the righteous feed many. Pr. 10. 21.—The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious. Ec. 10. 12.

They that feared the Lord spake often one to another: and the Lord hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name. And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels. Mat. 8. 16, 17.—Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things. Mat. 12. 34, 35.—And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. Lu. 4. 22.

7 All my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellowservant in the Lord:

Ac. 20. 4. 2 Ti. 4. 12. Eph. 6. 21.

8 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts:

Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work. 2 Th. 2. 16, 17.

9 With Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things which are done here.

I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds. Phile. 10.

10 Aristarchus my fellowprisoner saluteth you, and Marcus, sister's son to Barnabas, (touching whom ye received commandments: if he come unto you, receive him;)

Ac. 19. 29; 20. 4; 27. 2.

11 And Jesus, which is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellowworkers unto the kingdom of God, which have been a comfort unto me.

12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God.

Epaphras, my fellowprisoner in Christ Jesus. Phile. 23.—If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour. Joe. 12. 26.—The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. Ja. 5. 16; Eph. 4. 11-13; Mat. 5. 48.

The very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Th. 5. 23.

13 For I bear him record, that he hath a great zeal for you, and them that are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis.

14 Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, greet you.

Only Luke is with me. Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world. 2 Ti. 4. 11, 10.

15 Salute the brethren which are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church which is in his house.

Ro. 16. 5.

16 And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read epistle from Laodicea.

1 Th. 5. 27.

17 And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.

2 Ti. 4. 1, 2, 5.

Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Ac. 20. 28; 1 Th. 4. 6.

18 The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

1 Co. 16. 21.

Written from Rome to the Colossians, by Tychicus and Onesimus.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE THESSALONIANS.

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

In every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. Phi. 4. 6.

God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers. Ro. 1. 9; Eph. 1. 16; 2 Th. 1. 3; Phile. 4.

For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe. 1 Th. 2. 13.

3 Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;

Timotheus ... brought us good tidings of your faith and charity. 1 Th. 3. 6.—We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth. Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power. 2 Th. 1. 3, 11.

In Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. Gal. 5. 6.—Faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Ja. 2. 17.

Our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. 2 Co. 4. 17, 18.

4 Knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God.

God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth. 2 Th. 2. 13.—He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ. Phi. 1. 6.—He hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love. Eph. 1. 4.

5 For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

My speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power. 1 Co. 2. 4.—The kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. 1 Co. 4. 20.—As the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: so shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper is the thing whereto I sent it. Is. 55. 10, 11.

Unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding. Col. 2. 2.

Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe: as ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children. 1 Th. 2. 10, 11; 2 Th. 3. 7, 9.

6 And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost:

They ... first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God. 2 Co. 8. 5.—Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ. 1 Co. 11. 1.

And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost. Ac. 13. 52.—The fruit of the Spirit is ... joy. Gal. 5. 22.

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God;

So that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure. 2 Th. 1. 4.—I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. Ro. 1. 8.

10 And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come.

Our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. Phi. 3. 20.—Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ. Tit. 2. 13.

If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. Jno. 14. 3.—This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven. Ac. 1. 11.

The Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God. 1 Th. 4. 16.—The Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels. 2 Th. 1. 7.—Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. Re. 1. 7.

Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it. Ac. 2. 24.

We shall be saved from wrath through him. Ro. 5. 9.—God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Th. 5. 9.

[They] said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: for the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand? Re. 6. 16, 17.—The angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Mat. 13. 49, 50.

CHAPTER II.

FOR yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

Our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance. 1 Th. 1. 5, etc.

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.

Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: to whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus: whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily. Col. 1. 26, 29.

Ac. 16. 22; 17. 1, 3.

3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

We are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ. 2 Co. 2. 17.—We ... have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 2 Co. 4. 1, 2.

4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

A dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me. 1 Co. 9. 17.—The glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry. 1 Th. 1. 11, 12.—Do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ. Gal. 1. 10.

5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; God is witness:

I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel. Ac. 20. 33.

If our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God. 1 Jno. 3. 21.

6 Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

I receive not honour from men. How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only? Jno. 5. 41, 44.—They loved the praise of men more than the praise of God. Jno. 12. 43.

Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you: not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us. 2 Th. 3. 8, 9.—I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not your's, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. 2 Co. 12. 14.—If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ. What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel. 1 Co. 9. 12, 18.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some. 1 Co. 9. 22.—I ... beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you. 2 Co. 10. 1.—He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young. Is. 40. 11.

The servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient. 2 Th. 2. 24.—Rebuke not an elder, but intreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren; the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity. 1 Th. 5. 1, 2.

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. 1 Jno. 3. 16.—I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved. 2 Co. 12. 15.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

Ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me. Ac. 20. 34; 1 Co. 9. 11, 13, 14.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

We have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man. 2 Co. 7. 2.—Our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. 2 Co. 1. 12.

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, 12 That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

We beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more. 1 Th. 4. 1.—I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called. Eph. 4. 1.—Walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God. Col. 1. 10.—Let your conversation be as it becometh the Gospel of Christ. Phi. 1. 27.

God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Th. 2. 13, 14.—Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. 2 Th. 1. 9.

God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. 1 Co. 1. 9.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

He ... that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit. 1 Th. 4. 8.—He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me. Mat. 10. 40.—My temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. Gal. 4. 14.

Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth. Ja. 1. 18. Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever. 1 Pe. 1. 23.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judæa are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews:

I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. Jno. 15. 5.—Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Co. 1. 30.

Partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst ye became companions of them that were so used. For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance. He. 10. 33, 34.

15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:

Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers. Ac. 7. 52.

Saul confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ. And ... the Jews took counsel to kill him. Ac. 9. 22, 23.

16 Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

The Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts. Ac. 13. 50. There came ... certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead. Ac. 14. 19.—When the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people. Ac. 17. 13.—When Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat. Ac. 18. 12.

Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers. Behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city. Mat. 23. 32, 34; 24. 1, 2, 21, 34.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

Though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ. Col. 2. 5.

Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith. 1 Th. 3. 10.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us.

The devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried. Re. 2. 10.—The devil ... put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him. After the sop Satan entered into him. Jno. 13. 2, 27.

19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

We are your rejoicing, even as ye also are our's in the day of the Lord Jesus. 2 Co. 1. 14.—My joy and crown, ... my dearly beloved. Phi. 4. 1.—Behold, I and the children whom the Lord hath given me. Is. 8. 18.

Behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. Re. 22. 12.

CHAPTER III.

WHEREFORE when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone;

They that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed. Ac. 17. 15.

2 And sent Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. Ac. 14. 22.

3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto.

4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory. Eph. 3. 13.

Ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake. Mat. 10. 22.—They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world. Jno. 16. 2, 33.

I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake. Ac. 9. 16.—The Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying, that bonds and afflictions abide me. But none of these things move me; neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. Ac. 20. 23, 24.

Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. 2 Ti. 3. 12.—For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps. 1 Pe. 2. 21.—If children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. Ro. 8. 17.

5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain.

I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. 2 Co. 11. 3.—I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain. Ga. 4. 11.

They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. Lu. 8. 13.

We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth; so that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure. 2 Th. 1. 3, 4.—Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: that the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 5, 7.

6 But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you:

After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth. Ac. 18. 1.

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:

God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus; and not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more. 2 Co. 7. 6, 7.

8 For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth. 3 Jo. 4.

Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. Eph. 6. 10, 11.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;

1 Th. 2. 19, 20.

10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established. Ro. 1. 11.

This also we wish, even your perfection. 2 Co. 13. 9.

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way unto you.

Even our Father. 2 Th. 2. 16.

I and my Father are one. Jno. 10. 30.

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Pr. 3. 5, 6.

12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:

Jesus Christ is Lord. Phi. 2. 11.

A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. Jno. 13. 34, 35.

13 To the end he may stablish your hearts unblamable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 1. 8.—The very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Th. 5. 23.

The Lord my God shall come, and all the saints with thee. Zec. 14. 5.—And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints. Jude 14.—When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory. Mat. 25. 31.—The Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels. 2 Th. 1. 7.

CHAPTER IV.

1 then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 5. 4.—Walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God. Col. 1. 10.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Mat. 28. 20.

3 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:

God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth. 2 Th. 2. 13.—Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of a harlot? God forbid. Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body. 1 Co. 6. 15, 18.—Fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints. Eph. 5. 3.

4 That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

As ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness. Ro. 6. 19.

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God :

God ... gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves. Ro. 1. 24.

6 That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter : because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

The wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men. Ro. 1. 18.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness.

Ye shall be holy : for I the Lord your God am holy. Le. 19. 2.—Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord. He. 12. 14.—As he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation. 1 Pe. 1. 15.

8 He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

He that heareth you heareth me ; and he that despiseth you despiseth me ; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me. Lu. 10. 16.—Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth. 1 Co. 2. 13.—All scripture is given by inspiration of God. 2 Ti. 3. 16.—Prophecy came not in old time by the will of man : but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2 Pe. 1. 21.

9 But as touching brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you : for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another.

The Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things. Jno. 14. 26. Ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things. 1 Jno. 2. 20.

Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Mat. 22. 39.—This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you. Jno. 15. 12.—Walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savour. Eph. 5. 2.—Above all things have fervent charity among yourselves : for charity shall cover the multitude of sins. 1 Pe. 4. 8.—This is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. 1 Jno. 3. 11.

10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia : but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more ;

This I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment. Phi. 1. 9.—Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently. 1 Pe. 1. 22.

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you ;

Let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters. 1 Pe. 4. 15.—Let him that stole steal no more : but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth. Eph. 4. 28.—I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. Ac. 20. 35 ; 2 Th. 3. 7-12.

12 That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

Walk in wisdom toward them that are without. Col. 4. 5.—Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. 2 Co. 8. 21.—Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles : that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. 1 Pe. 2. 12.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

Ye are the children of the Lord your God : ye shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead. De. 14. 1.—Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the house of the Lord, and worshipped : then he came to his own house ; and when he required, they set bread before him, and he did eat. 2 Sa. 12. 20.

Ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world. Eph. 2. 12.

14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept. 1 Co. 15. 20.

15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ. Phi. 1. 23.—Willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. 2 Co. 5. 8.—Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you. 2 Co. 4. 14.—Be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. 2 Th. 2. 2.

16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God : and the dead in Christ shall rise first :

They shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. Mat. 24. 30, 31.—This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven. Ac. 1. 11.—The Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels. 2 Th. 1. 7.—But every man in his own order : Christ the firstfruits ; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming. In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump : for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. 1 Co. 15. 23, 52.—The rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection : on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years. Re. 20. 5, 6.

17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air : and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed. 1 Co. 15. 51. Our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body. Phi. 3. 20, 21.—Where I am, there shall also my servant be. Jno. 12. 26.—If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. Jno. 14. 3.—Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory. Jno. 17. 24.

CHAPTER V.

BUT of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

What shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world? Of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only. Mat. 24. 3, 36.—It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power. Ac. 1. 7.

2 For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

If the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through. Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not. Lu. 12. 39, 40.—The day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. 2 Pe. 3. 10.

Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. Re. 16. 15.—At midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him. Mat. 25. 6.—Take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth. Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man. Lu. 21. 34–36.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power. 2 Th. 1. 9.—They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark; and the flood came, and destroyed them all. Likewise also, as it was in the days of Lot, they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; but the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. Lu. 17. 27–29.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

Ye were sometime darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord; walk as children of light. Eph. 5. 8.—Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son. Col. 1. 12, 13.—Because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth. 1 Jno. 2. 8.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.

While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. Watch therefore; for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh. Mat. 25. 5, 13.

Now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying. Ro. 13. 11–13.—Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. 1 Pe. 5. 8.

7 For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness. Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. Eph. 6. 14, 16, 17.—Gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 13.—Time would fail me to tell of Gedeon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthae; of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets: who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens. He. 11. 32, 34.

I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. 2 Th. 1. 12.—Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets. Mat. 22. 37–40.—Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all thy commandments. Psa. 119. 6.—We ... have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us: which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast. He. 6. 18, 19.

9 For God hath not appointed us to but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,

Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. 1 Th. 2. 4.—For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. Jno. 3. 17.—What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction? Ro. 9. 22.

A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed. 1 Pe. 2. 8.—There are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men. Jude 4.—God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Th. 2. 13, 14.

10 Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

11 Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.

1 Th. 4. 15–18.

12 And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;

13 And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves.

They ... ordained them elders in every church. Ac. 14. 23.—Acknowledge ye them that are such. 1 Co. 16. 18.—Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation. Phi. 2. 29.—Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine. 1 Th. 5. 17.—Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation. Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you. He. 13. 7, 17.

14 Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feebleminded, support the weak, be patient toward all men.

Withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us. 2 Th. 3. 6.

We ... that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Ro. 15. 1.—I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. Ac. 20. 35.

Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. Gal. 6. 1, 2.—With longsuffering, forbearing one another in love. Eph. 4. 2.

15 See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.

Say not thou, I will recompense evil; but wait on the Lord, and he shall save thee. Pr. 20. 22.—Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me: I will render to the man according to his work. Pr. 24. 29.—Resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also. Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you. Mat. 5. 39, 44.—Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing. 1 Pe. 3. 9.

As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith. Gal. 6. 10.

16 Rejoice evermore.

Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice. Phi. 4. 4.—As sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing. 2 Co. 6. 10.

17 Pray without ceasing.

He spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint. Lu. 18. 1.—Watch ye therefore and pray always. Lu. 21. 36.—Continuing instant in prayer. Ro. 12. 12.—Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance. Eph. 6. 18.—Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving. Col. 4. 2.—The end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer. 1 Pe. 4. 7.

18 In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

Whosoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him. Col. 3. 17.—Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Eph. 5. 20.

19 Quench not the Spirit.

Grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Eph. 4. 30.

My Spirit shall not always strive with man. Gen. 6. 3.—They rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them. Is. 63. 10.

Stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands. 2 Th. 1. 6.

20 Despire not prophesying.

He that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort. 1 Co. 14. 3.—Judas and Silas, being prophets, ... exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them. Ac. 15. 32.—He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me. Lu. 10. 16.—Desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy. 1 Co. 14. 1.

21 Prove all things; hold fast that which is good.

Believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. 1 Jno. 4. 1.—Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Mat. 7. 15, 16.—He that is spiritual judgeth all things. 1 Co. 2. 15.—To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. Is. 8. 20.—They received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so. Ac. 17. 11.

Stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle. 2 Th. 2. 15.—Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. Ro. 12. 9.—Hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown. Re. 3. 11.

22 Abstain from all appearance of evil.

Walk honestly toward them that are without. 1 Th. 4. 12.—It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak. Ro. 14. 21.

23 And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself. 2 Co. 5. 19.—In every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Phi. 4. 6, 7.

Sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ. Jude 1.—Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth. Jno. 17. 17.—Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Eph. 5. 25, 27.—Ye are sanctified, ... ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Co. 6. 11.

Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 1. 8.

24 Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it.

God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. 1 Co. 1. 9.—God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. 1 Co. 10. 13.—The Lord is faithful, who shall establish you, and keep you from evil. 2 Th. 3. 3.—Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ. Phi. 1. 6.—Whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified. Ro. 8. 30.—Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation. 1 Pe. 1. 5.

25 Brethren, pray for us.

Praying ... for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ. Col. 4. 3.—Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified. 2 Th. 3. 1.

26 Greet all the brethren with an holy kiss.

27 I charge you by the Lord that this epistle be read unto all the holy brethren.

28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

The first epistle unto the Thessalonians was written from Athens.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

THESSALONIANS.

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ :

Truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. 1 Jno. 1. 3.

2 Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth ;

We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints. Col. 1. 3 ; Eph. 1. 15-17 ; 1 Co. 1. 4, 5.

4 So that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure :

Time would fail me to tell of Gedeon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthae ; of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets : who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens. Women received their dead raised to life again : and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance ; that they might obtain a better resurrection : and others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment. He. 11. 32-36.

Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith ; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds. He. 12. 1-3.

5 Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer :

In nothing terrified by your adversaries : which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God. Psa. 1. 28.—Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake : for their's is the kingdom of heaven. Mat.

5. 10.—Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you : but rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings ; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. 1 Pe. 4. 12, 13.—It is a faithful saying : For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him : if we suffer, we shall also reign with him. 2 Ti. 2. 11, 12.—If children, then heirs ; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. Ro. 8. 17.—We must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. Ac. 14. 22.

6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you ;

For thus saith the Lord of hosts ; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you : for he hath toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye. Zec. 2. 8.

7 And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,

There remaineth ... a rest to the people of God. He. 4. 9.—I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth ; Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours. Re. 14. 13 ; 7. 13, 14.

For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God. 1 Th. 4. 16 ; Mat. 16. 27.

As ... the tares are gathered and burned in the fire ; so shall it be in the end of this world. The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity : and shall cast them into a furnace of fire : there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Mat. 13. 40-42.

8 In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ :

Behold, the Lord will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire. Is. 66. 15.—A certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries. He. 10. 27.—For our God is a consuming fire. He. 12. 29. The heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. 2 Pe. 3. 7 ; Re. 21. 8.—The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God. Ps. 9. 17 ; Ro. 1. 18, etc.—Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile. Ro. 2. 9.

9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power.

Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels: And these shall go away into everlasting punishment. Mat. 25. 41, 46.—Suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. Jude 7.—He shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: and the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever. Re. 14. 10, 11.

In thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore. Psa. 16. 11.

They shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the Lord, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth. Is. 2. 19.

10 When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God. Eph. 3. 10.—What is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? For ye are our glory and joy. 1 Th. 2. 19, 20.—Lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; and cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Re. 7. 9-12.

11 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power:

Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace. 2 Ti. 1. 9.—Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Lu. 12. 32.—Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will. Eph. 1. 5.

Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ. Phi. 1. 6.—Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 1 Pe. 1. 5.—Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith. He. 12. 2.

12 That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

I am glorified in them. Jno. 17. 10.

Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory. Jno. 17. 24.

CHAPTER II.

NOW we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him,

Exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching. He. 10. 25.—The Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. 1 Th. 4. 16, 17.

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. 1 Jno. 4. 1.

He ... spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear. Lu. 19. 11.—After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them. Mat. 25. 19. As he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world? And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. Mat. 24. 3-6.

This gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come. Mat. 24. 14.—Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. 1 Co. 15. 24.—But now we see not yet all things put under him. He. 2. 8.

The seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever. And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned. And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged. Re. 11. 15-18.

We, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness. 2 Pe. 3. 13.

He hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. Ac. 17. 31.

When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats: and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels. Mat. 25. 31-34, 41; Re. 20; 21.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;

The Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron; forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth. 1 Th. 4. 1-3.—Those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition. Jno. 17. 12; Re. 13. 11; 19. 20.

4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

Da. 7. 23-26; 11. 36; Re. 13. 1, 6.

The house of God, which is the church of the living God. 1 Th. 3. 15.—Unto the church of God which is at Corinth. 1 Co. 1. 2.—Ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 2 Co. 6. 16.

5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

There shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their pernicious ways. 2 Pe. 2. 1, 2.—Every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world. 1 Jno. 4. 3.

I saw a woman sit on a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication: and upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. Re. 17. 3-6.

Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels. Col. 2. 18. Jno. 11. 48; 19. 12; Da. 7. 23-26.

8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:

A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened. I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame. Da. 7. 10, 11.—He shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked. Is. 11. 4.

The word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twined sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart. He. 4. 12; Re. 2. 16.

Out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. Re. 19. 15.

I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters. And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication. Re. 14. 6-8.—Alas that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come. And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all. Re. 18. 10, 21.

9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,

The magicians did so with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt. Ex. 8. 7.—There shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; inasmuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. Mat. 24. 24.—He doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men. Re. 13. 13.

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

It was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads. Re. 9. 4.—All that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. Re. 13. 8.

This is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. Jno. 3. 19.

11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

My people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would none of me. So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust: and they walked in their own counsels. Ps. 81. 11, 12.—As they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind. Ro. 1. 28.—If our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: in whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. 2 Co. 4. 3, 4.

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

He that believeth not shall be damned. Mar. 16. 16.

13 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:

Knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God. 1 Th. 1. 4. Whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover whom he did predestinate, then he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified. Ro. 8. 29, 30.—He hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love. Eph. 1. 4.—Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 2.—The foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity. 2 Ti. 2. 19.—Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth. Ja. 1. 18.

14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory. 1 Th. 2. 12.—I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. 2 Ti. 2. 10.—The God of all grace, ... hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus. 1 Pe. 5. 10.—The glory which thou gavest me I have given them. Jno. 17. 22.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord. 1 Th. 3. 8.—Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong. 1 Co. 16. 13.—My brethren, dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved. Phi. 4. 1.

I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances, as I delivered them to you. 1 Co. 11. 2.

16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace,

I and my Father are one. Jno. 10. 30.—Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. 1 Jno. 4. 10.—Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood. Ro. 1. 5.—Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. 1 Pe. 1. 3.—Hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. Ro. 5. 5.—The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen. 2 Co. 13. 14.

17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.

The Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort. 2 Co. 1. 3.

Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 1. 8.

CHAPTER III.

FINALLY, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you :

Praying ... for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ. Col. 4. 3.—Pray ye ... the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest. Mat. 9. 38.

2 And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men ; for all men have not faith.

I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me ; that I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Judæa. Ro. 15. 30, 31.—By grace are ye saved through faith ; and that not of yourselves ; it is the gift of God. Eph. 2. 8.

3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil.

God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able ; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. 1 Co. 10. 13.—The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished. 2 Pe. 2. 9.—I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil. Jno. 17. 15.—He that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not. 1 Jno. 5. 18.

4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

The fruit of the Spirit is love. Gal. 5. 22.—Praying in the Holy Ghost, keep yourselves in the love of God. Jude 20, 21.—Patient continuance in well doing. (Marg.) Ro. 2. 7 ; He. 12. 1, etc.—Be patient, ... brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord : that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy. Ja. 5. 7, 11.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.

I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner ; with such an one no not to eat. Them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person. 1 Co. 5. 11, 13.—I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned ; and avoid them. Ro. 16. 17 ; 2 Th. 3. 11, 12, 14, 15 ; 1 Th. 6. 3-5 ; 2 Jno. 10, 11.

7 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us : for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you ;

Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe. 1 Th. 2. 10.—Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ. 1 Co. 11. 1.

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought ; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you :

Because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought : for by their occupation they were tentmakers. Ac. 18. 3.—Ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me. Ac. 20. 34. And labour, working with our own hands. 1 Co. 4. 12.

9 Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather ? Nevertheless we have not used this power ; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ. 1 Co. 9. 12.—Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, The labourer is worthy of his reward. 1 Th. 5. 18.—The workman is worthy of his meat. Mat. 10. 10.

When I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man. But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion. 2 Co. 11. 9, 12.

Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do. Phi. 4. 9.—Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample. Phi. 3. 17.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground ; for out of it wast thou taken : for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return. Ge. 3. 19.—Let him that stole steal no more : but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth. Eph. 4. 28.

11 For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies.

If any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel. 1 Th. 5. 8.

Let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters. 1 Pe. 4. 15.—Tattlers ... and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not. 1 Th. 5. 13.

12 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

Study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands. 1 Th. 4. 11.

13 But ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing.

Let us not be weary in well doing : for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. Gal. 6. 9.—Be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. 1 Co. 15. 58.

14 And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

If he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church : but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as a heathen man and a publican. Mat. 18. 17.

2 Th. 3. 6.

15 Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart : thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him.

Le. 19. 17.—Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness ; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Gal. 6. 1.

16 Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.

God is not the author of confusion, but of peace. 1 Co. 14. 33. Live in peace ; and the God of love and peace shall be with you. 2 Co. 13. 11 ; 1 Th. 5. 23.

Nu. 6. 24-27.

17 The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle : so I write.

18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand. 1 Co. 16. 21. The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Col. 4. 18.

The second epistle to the Thessalonians was written from Athens.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO

T I M O T H Y.

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope;

We trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. 1 Ti. 4. 10.—Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began, but is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. 2 Ti. 1. 9, 10; Ti. 3. 4, etc.

Christ in you, the hope of glory. Col. 1. 27.

2 Unto Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

Ye know the proof of him, that as a son with the father he hath served with me in the gospel. Phi. 2. 22.—Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord. 1 Co. 4. 17.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine, Acts, chaps. 19, 20.

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. Ga. 1. 6-8.

4 Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.

Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. Foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes. 2 Ti. 2. 14, 23.—Avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. Ti. 3. 9.—Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. Col. 2. 8.

5 Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:

All the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Ga. 5. 14.—Now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

1 Co. 13. 13.—Let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. 1 Jno. 3. 18, 19; 1 Pe. 1. 22.

How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? He. 9. 14.

6 From which some having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

The law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good. Ro. 7. 12.

If there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law. Ga. 3. 21.—Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. Ro. 10. 4.—The just shall live by faith. Ga. 3. 11.

9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. Ga. 5. 22, 23.

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Co. 4. 6.

The unsearchable riches of Christ. Eph. 3. 8.—The grace that is given to me of God. Ro. 15. 15.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry;

Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God; who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament. 2 Co. 3. 5, 6.

13 Who was before a blasphemers, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

As for Saul, he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison. Ac. 8. 3; 9. 1; 22. 4.—Beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it. Gal. 1. 13.

Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth. Ro. 9. 18.—Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind. Jno. 9. 39.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

Where sin abounded, grace did much more abound. Ro. 5. 20.—By the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 1 Co. 15. 10.—By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God. Eph. 2. 8.—Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little. Lu. 7. 47.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. Lu. 5. 32.—The Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost. Lu. 19. 10.—God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Ro. 5. 8.—Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began, but is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ. 2 Ti. 1. 9, 10.

I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. 1 Co. 15. 9.

16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

Whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. Ro. 15. 4.

He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him. Jno. 3. 36.

17 Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

The blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords; who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. 1 Ti. 6. 15, 16.—To God only wise, be glory, through Jesus Christ, for ever. Ro. 16. 27.—To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Jude 25.

The Lord is King for ever and ever. Psa. 10. 16.—There was given (the Son of man) dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed. Da. 7. 14.—The eternal Spirit. He. 9. 14.

No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him. Jno. 1. 18.

Blessed be thou, Lord God of Israel our father, for ever and ever. Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all. 1 Ch. 29. 10, 11.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;

Lu. 1. 66, 67, 76, etc.

Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses. 1 Ti. 6. 12.

19 Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck:

Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. 1 Ti. 3. 9.—These things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. Ti. 3. 8.—Shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid. Ro. 6. 15.—Faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Ja. 2. 17.—Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Mat. 7. 21.

Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness. Jude 3, 4.

They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us. 1 Jno. 2. 19.

20 Of whom is Hymenæus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

Their word will eat as doth a canker; of whom is Hymenæus and Philetus. 2 Ti. 2. 17.—Alexander the coppersmith did us much evil. 2 Ti. 4. 14.

If he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as a heathen man and a publican. Mat. 18. 17.—Deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. 1 Co. 5. 5.

CHAPTER II.

I EXHORT therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints; and for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel. Eph. 6. 18, 19.—Pardon, I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people according unto the greatness of thy mercy, and as thou hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now. And the Lord said, I have pardoned according to thy word. Nu. 14. 19, 20.—God forbid that I should sin against the Lord in ceasing to pray for you. 1 Sa. 12. 23; Ex. 32. 11, etc.

A multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good Lord pardon every one that prepareth his heart to seek God, the Lord God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary. And the Lord hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people. 2 Ch. 30. 18, 20.

The secret things belong unto the Lord our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law. De. 29. 29.—After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Mat. 6. 9, 10.

2 For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

Seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the Lord for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace. Ja. 29. 7.—Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. Ro. 13. 1.

8 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour;

Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. 2 Ti. 1. 9.

4 Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God: and not that he should return from his ways, and live? Eze. 18. 23.—God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. Jno. 3. 16, 17.—The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men. Ti. 2. 11.

The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 2 Pe. 3. 9.—O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not! Lu. 13. 34.

This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. Jno. 17. 3.—In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth. 2 Ti. 2. 25.

5 For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

The Father, ... the Son, and ... the Holy Ghost. Mat. 28. 19. Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else. Is. 45. 22.—The Lord our God is one Lord. Mar. 12. 29.—There is none other God but one. To us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him. 1 Co. 8. 4, 6.—One Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. Eph. 4. 5, 6.

The Mediator of the new testament. He. 9. 15.—If any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: and he is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. 1 Jno. 2. 1, 2. He is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. He. 7. 25.

We see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man. Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil. Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. He. 2. 9, 14, 17.

6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time.

Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Ti. 2. 14.—The Son of man came ... to give his life a ransom for many. Mat. 20. 28.—In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace. Eph. 1. 7.

Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. Jno. 1. 29.

Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. Mar. 16. 15.—Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit. Eph. 3. 5.—[God] hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me, according to the commandment of God our Saviour. Ti. 1. 3; Ro. 5. 6; Ga. 4. 4.

7 Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God. Eph. 3. 7.—We are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. 2 Co. 5. 20.

The minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God. Ro. 15. 16.

8 I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded. Ja. 4. 8.—Having a high priest over the house of God; let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. He. 10. 21, 22; 1 Jno. 3. 20, 22.

If thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee; leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. Mat. 5. 23, 24.

What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them. Mar. 11. 24.

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed. For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord. Ja. 1. 5, 7.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

Whose adorning, let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel; but let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. 1 Pe. 3. 3, 4; Is. 3. 18, etc.

11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

Let your women keep silence in the churches. 1 Co. 14. 34.—As the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. Eph. 5. 24.

13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

The rib, which the Lord God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man. Ge. 2. 22.

And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat. The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat. Unto the woman he said,

I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee. Ge. 3. 6, 13, 16.

15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

e shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name for he shall save his people from their sins. Mat. 1. 21.

CHAPTER III.

THIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.

Paul and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons. Phi. 1. 1.—From Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church. And... said unto them,... Take heed... unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Ac. 20. 17, 18, 28.—For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ. Eph. 4. 12.

2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach;

If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children, not accused of riot, or unruly. For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not selfwilled, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre; but a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate; holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. Tit. 1. 6, 9.

I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears. Ac. 20. 29-31.

3 Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous;

The elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock. 1 Pe. 5. 1-3.—I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel. Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me. Ac. 20. 33, 34.—The servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient. 2 Ti. 2. 24.

4 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity;

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the Lord, to do justice and judgment; that the Lord may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him. Ge. 18. 19.—As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord. Jos. 24. 15.

I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way. O when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart. A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person. Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath a high look and a proud heart will not I suffer. Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me. He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house: he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight. Ps. 101. 2, 4, 7.

6 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall. Pr. 16. 18.

7 Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

Walk honestly toward them that are without. 1 Th. 4. 12.—Give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. 1 Ti. 5. 14.—Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwelt there. Ac. 22. 12.

8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

When the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration. Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables. Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word. And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch. Ac. 6. 1-5.

They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak. Ps. 12. 2.

Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities. 1 Ti. 5. 23.

9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people. And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake. Ac. 6. 8, 10.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? 1 Co. 3. 16.—And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto a holy temple in the Lord; in whom ye also are built together for a habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. 2. 20, 22.

16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure. 1 Jno. 3. 1-3.

Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Is. 9. 6.—Emmanuel. Mat. 1. 23. The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. Jno. 1. 14; 14. 9-11.—Christ Jesus: who being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men. Phi. 2. 5-7.

I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him. And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost. Jno. 1. 32, 33; 15. 26.—He will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: of sin, because they believe not on me. Jno. 16. 8, 9.—This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses. Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear. For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, until I make thy foes thy footstool. Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. Ac. 2. 32-36.—Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit. 1 Pe. 3. 18; 1 Jno. 5. 6.

The angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone around about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host: praising God. Lu. 2. 9-11, 13.—The devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him. Mat. 4. 11.—There appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him. Lu. 22. 43; Mat. 28. 2; Jno. 20. 12. While they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven. Ac. 1. 10, 11.

Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. Ac. 13. 46, 48.—He that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles. Ga. 2. 8; Eph. 3. 5, 6, 8.

Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. Ro. 10. 18; Col. 1. 27, 28.—Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth. Col. 1. 6.

While he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven. Lu. 24. 51.—Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him. 1 Pe. 3. 22.—From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool. He. 10. 13.

CHAPTER IV.

NOW the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

The prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2 Pe. 1. 21.—When he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come. Jno. 16. 13.

I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them. Da. 7. 21.—Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition. For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. 2 Th. 2. 3, 7; 2 Th. 2. 18; 3. 13.—There shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts. 2 Pe. 3. 8; 2. 1. Ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time. 1 Jno. 2. 18.

There are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. Jude 4.—False apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. 2 Co. 11. 13, 14.

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron:

Through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not. 2 Pe. 2. 8.

3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. He. 13. 4.

If ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances? Col. 2. 20.—Meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse. 1 Co. 8. 8.—For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. Ro. 14. 17.

In vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man. Mat. 15. 9, 11.

Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat. Ge. 1. 29.—Every moving thing that liveth shall be meat for you; even as the green herb have I given you all things. Ge. 9. 8.

4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean. Ro. 14. 14.—If I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks? Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. 1 Co. 10. 30, 31.

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

The people will not eat until he come, because he doth bless the sacrifice. 1 Sa. 9. 13.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth. Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance. Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance. 2 Pe. 1. 12, 13, 15. As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby. 1 Pe. 2. 2.

7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance.

Meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse. 1 Co. 8. 8.—Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh. Col. 2. 23.

Delight thyself ... in the Lord; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart. Ps. 37. 4.—For the Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly. Ps. 84. 11.

Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Mat. 6. 33; 19. 29.

We know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. Ro. 8. 28.

10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

1 Co. 4. 11, 12.

By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward. He. 11. 24–26.—Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy. 1 Ti. 6. 17; Ps. 107. 6, etc.

Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. Jno. 1. 29.—He died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. 2 Co. 5. 15.

11 These things command and teach.

12 Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee. Ti. 2. 15.

Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ. 1 Co. 11. 1. Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock. 1 Pe. 5. 3.—In all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings; by pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned. 2 Co. 6. 4, 6.—In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine showing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity. Ti. 2. 7.

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. Gal. 5. 22, 23.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

Stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands. 2 Ti. 1. 6.—As ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church. 1 Co. 14. 12.—I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power. Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ. Eph. 3. 7, 8.

When they had prayed, they laid their hands on them. Ac. 6. 6.—Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost. Ac. 8. 17.—When they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. Ac. 13. 3.—When Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied. Ac. 19. 6.

15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.

We will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word. Ac. 6. 4.—The Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. Ac. 20. 23, 24.—To me to live is Christ. Phi. 1. 21.

16 Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.

Feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Ac. 20. 28.

If thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul. Eze. 33. 9.—They that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. Da. 12. 3. If any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him; let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins. Ja. 5. 20.

CHAPTER V.

REBUKE not an elder, but intreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;

2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man, and fear thy God: I am the Lord. Le. 19. 32.

3 Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise; that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth. Eph. 6. 1. 3; Ge. 45. 10, 11.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

[Anna] was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day. Lu. 2. 37.—Let thy widows trust in me. Je. 49. 11.—He spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint. Lu. 18. 1.

6 But she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth.

Dead in trespasses and sins. Eph. 2. 1.

7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,

I commend unto you Phoebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea. Ro. 16. 1.

The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord. 1 Co. 7. 39.

10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

There was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did. Ac. 9. 36.

When [Lydia] was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us. Ac. 16. 15.

Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. He. 13. 2.—Use hospitality one to another, without grudging. 1 Pe. 4. 9.

He poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet. Jno. 13. 5, 14.

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;

12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? 2 Co. 6. 14.

13 And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.

Teach the young women ... to be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed. Tit. 2. 4, 5.

For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies. Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread. 2 Th. 3. 11, 12.

I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. Mat. 12. 36.

14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

Walk in wisdom toward them that are without. Let your speech be alway with grace, seasoned with salt. Col. 4. 5, 6.

15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

So hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel. 1 Co. 9. 14.—Know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you; and ... esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. 1 Th. 5. 12, 13.—Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation. Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief. He. 13. 7, 17.

We preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus: whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily. Col. 1. 28, 29.

18 For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, The labourer is worthy of his reward.

In the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Lu. 10. 7; De. 25. 4; 1 Co. 9. 9.

19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses.

One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established. De. 19. 15.

20 Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

There are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, ... wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith. Tit. 1. 10, 13.—Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him. Le. 19. 17.—Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things. Ac. 5. 5; De. 13. 6, 11.

21 I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations. Mat. 25. 31, 32.—The angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. Jude. 6.

Henceforth know we no man after the flesh. 2 Co. 5. 16.

22 Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.

As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost ~~me~~ Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them. And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid ~~their~~ hands on them, they sent them away. Ac. 13. 2, 3.

He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son. If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: for he that biddeth him God speed, is partaker of his evil deeds. 2 Jno. 9. 11.—I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men. Ac. 20. 26.

23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.

Not given to wine. 1 Ti. 3. 3; 4. 4.

24 Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.

I ... have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed. 1 Co. 5. 3; Ac. 8. 18, etc.; 1. 16, etc.

25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

He must have a good report of them which are without. 1 Ti. 3. 7.—A certain disciple ... named Timotheus, ... which was well reported of by the brethren, ... him would Paul have to go forth with him. Ac. 16. 1. 3.—Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Mat. 5. 16.

When thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth: that thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly. Mat. 6. 3, 4.

CHAPTER VI.

LET as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ. Eph. 6. 5; Col. 3. 22; Tit. 2. 9, 10.—Not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. 1 Pe. 2. 18.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

Partakers of the heavenly calling. Partakers of Christ. Ite. 3. 1, 14.—A partaker of the glory that shall be revealed. 1 Pe. 5. 1.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;

Though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you, than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. Gal. 1. 8.—If I come again, I will not spare: since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me. 2 Co. 13. 2, 3.—It is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you. Mat. 10. 20.

4 He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings,

If any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing, even as he ought to know. 1 Co. 8. 2.
Foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes. 2 Ti. 2. 23.

5 Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself.

Mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. Ro. 16. 17.—What things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord. Phi. 3. 7, 8.

6 But godliness with contentment is great gain.

Godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. 1 Ti. 4. 8.—A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked. Ps. 37. 16.—Better is little with the fear of the Lord than great treasure and trouble therewith. Pr. 15. 16.

God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work. 2 Co. 9. 8.—Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. He. 13. 5.

7 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither. Job. 1. 21.—Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased: for when he dieth he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him. Ps. 49. 16, 17.—Surely every man walketh in a vain shew: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them. Ps. 39. 6; Luk. 12. 19–21.

8 And having food and raiment let us be therewith content.

Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on, so that I come again to my father's house in peace; then shall the Lord be my God: and this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be God's house: and of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee. Gen. 28. 20–22.—Give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me: lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, Who is the Lord? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain. Pr. 30. 8, 9.—Give us this day our daily bread. Mat. 6. 11.

9 But they that will be rich fall into temptation, and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

He ... that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. Mat. 13. 22.

10 For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

Teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. Tit. 1. 11.

Jos. 7. 24, 25; 2 Ki. 5. 25, etc.—Judas ... said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver. Mat. 26. 14, 15. And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself. Mat. 27. 5.

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

Come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you. 2 Co. 6. 17; Phi. 4. 8, 9.

Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. 1 Co. 4. 1, 2.—Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart. Mat. 11. 29.

12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

Endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. 2 Ti. 2. 3. Give diligence to make your calling and election sure: ... for so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. 2 Pe. 1. 10, 11.

Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised.) He. 10. 23.

13 I give thee charge in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession;

I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom; preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. 2 Ti. 4. 1, 2.

Pilate ... said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Jno. 18. 37.

14 That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ:

Be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. Let no man deceive you by any means. 2 Th. 2. 2, 3.

15 Which in his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords;

They asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel? And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power. Ac. 1. 6, 7.

The Lamb ... is Lord of lords, and King of kings. Re. 17. 14.

16 Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

The everlasting God. Ro. 16. 26.—I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. Re. 22. 13.—The eternal Spirit. He. 9. 14.

His countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength. And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. Re. 1. 16, 17.—Thou canst not see my face: for there shall no man see me, and live. Ex. 33. 20.—Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father. Jno. 6. 46.

Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created. Re. 4. 11.

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;

How hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! Mar. 10. 24.—Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness. Ps. 52. 7.—Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven. Pr. 23. 5.

We both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. 1 Th. 4. 10.—He did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness. Ac. 14. 17.—He giveth to all life, and breath, and all things. Ac. 17. 25.—Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Mat. 6. 31, 33.

18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate;

To do good, and to communicate, forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. He. 13. 16.—Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality. Ro. 12. 13.—Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things. Gal. 6. 6.

19 Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven. Mat. 19. 21.—Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations. Luk. 16. 9.—Godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. 1 Th. 4. 8.—He which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. 2 Co. 9. 6.—Faith which worketh by love. Gal. 5. 6.

20 O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called:

That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us. 2 Ti. 1. 14.—Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gain-sayers. Ti. 1. 9.—Watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. 2 Th. 4. 5.

The wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. 1 Co. 3. 19.

21 Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

Put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. 2 Ti. 2. 14.

The first to Timothy was written from Laodicea, which is the chiefest city of Phrygia Pacatiana.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

T I M O T H Y .

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. ... I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee; delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Ac. 26. 15-18.

2 To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

My own son in the faith. 1 Th. 1. 2.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day. Ac. 23. 1.—Whom I am, and whom I serve. Ac. 27. 23.—Our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. 2 Co. 1. 12.—God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers. Ro. 1. 9.

4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy; They all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck. Ac. 20. 37.

5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

Timotheus, the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed. Ac. 16. 1.—From a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. 2 Th. 3. 15.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

1 Th. 4. 14.—Quench not the Spirit. 1 Th. 5. 19.—The manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. 1 Co. 12. 7.—Say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it. Col. 4. 17.

7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

Ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. Ro. 8. 15.—There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love. 1 Jo. 4. 18.

Ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you. Ac. 1. 8.—My speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power; that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. 1 Co. 2. 4, 5.

8 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;

I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth. Ro. 1. 16.—The Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. Ac. 20. 23, 24.—I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. Ac. 21. 13.—Who-soever ... shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels. Mar. 8. 38.

Watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. 2 Th. 4. 5.—I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong. 2 Co. 12. 10.

9 Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began;

Tit. 3. 4.

Whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called. Ro. 8. 29, 30; Ep. 1. 3. 7.—God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Th. 2. 13, 14.

According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord. Eph. 3. 11.—According to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself. Eph. 1. 9.—In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began. Tit. 1. 2.

The Lord did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye were the fewest of all people: but because the Lord loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the Lord brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. De. 7. 7, 8.

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:

Christ in you, the hope of glory. Col. 1. 27.—Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you. 1 Pe. 1. 20; He. 2. 14.

O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? 1 Co. 15. 55.

I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Jno. 11. 25, 26.

11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

By revelation he made known unto me the mystery. Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ. Eph. 3. 3, 8.—Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time. Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, ... a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verily. 1 Ti. 2. 6, 7.

He is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: for I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake. Ac. 9. 15, 16.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound. Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. 2 Ti. 2. 9, 10; Lu. 12. 4, etc.

Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost. Lu. 23. 46.—Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. Ac. 7. 59.

Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator. 1 Pe. 4. 19.—The Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom. 2 Ti. 4. 18.

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Ti. 4. 7, 8.

13 Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

Continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them. 2 Ti. 3. 14.—Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. Tit. 1. 9.—Ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you. Ro. 6. 17.

Whosoever is not of faith is sin. Ro. 14. 23.

If ye love me, keep my commandments. Jno. 14. 15.—By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. Jno. 13. 35.—Though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. 1 Co. 13. 2.

14 That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

The glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. 1 Ti. 1. 11.—The word of reconciliation. 2 Co. 5. 19. The Spirit also helpeth our infirmities. Ro. 8. 26.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia be turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world. At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me. 2 Ti. 4. 10, 16.

If after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them. But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire. 2 Pe. 2. 20-22.

He. 6. 4-8.

16 The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus; for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain:

17 But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister. He. 6. 10.—Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Mat. 25. 40.

When we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him. Ac. 28. 16.

CHAPTER II.

THOU therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Eph. 6. 10.—He said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. 2 Co. 12. 9.—I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. Phi. 4. 13.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

Ho that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the Lord. Je. 23. 23.—Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. 1 Co. 4. 1, 2.

3 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

Watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. 2 Th. 4. 5.

4 No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day. 2 Th. 4. 7, 8.

Every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air: but I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway. 1 Co. 9. 25-27.

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. Ja. 1. 5.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel:

Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh; and declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead. Ro. 1. 3, 4; He. 12. 2, 3.—I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; by which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; and that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures. 1 Co. 15. 1-4.

9 Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

Many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear. Phi. 1. 14.

10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

Whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation. 2 Co. 1. 6.—Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church. Col. 1. 24.

The God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. 1 Pe. 5. 10.

11 It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein? If we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection: knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. For he that is dead is freed from sin. Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. Ro. 6. 2, 5-8.

Ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Col. 3. 3, 4.

12 If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us:

Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations. And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me; that ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel. Lu. 22. 28-30; Mat. 10. 33; Mar. 8. 38.—To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne. Re. 3. 21.—If children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. Ro. 8. 17.—Rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. 1 Pe. 4. 13.

13 If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.

What if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect? Ro. 3. 3.—God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good? Nu. 23. 19.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

Doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth. 1 Th. 6. 4, 5.

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained. 1 Th. 4. 6.—We labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him. 2 Co. 5. 9.—Do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ. Gal. 1. 10.—Not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts. 1 Th. 2. 4.

I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able. 1 Co. 3. 2.

16 But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

Avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. Tit. 3. 9.

17 And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymenæus and Philetus;

Hymenæus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme. 1 Th. 1. 20.

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above. Col. 3. 1.

They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us. 1 Jno. 2. 19.

19 Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

There shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders; inasmuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. Mat. 24. 24.—Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste. Is. 28. 16.—Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 2. 5.

Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. Upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. Mat. 16. 18, 19.—Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 3. 11.

The Lord is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him. Nu. 1. 7.—I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. Jno. 10. 14.—The Lord will shew who are his, and who is holy. Nu. 16. 5.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Mat. 7. 22, 23.—As he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy. 1 Pe. 1. 15, 16.—They that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. Gal. 5. 24.

20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.

The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter! La. 4. 2.

Mat. 13. 24–30.

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul. 1 Pe. 2. 11.—The end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned: from which some having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling; desiring to be teachers of the law. 1 Ti. 1. 5–7.—Now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity. 1 Co. 13. 13.

Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord. He. 12. 14.—God hath called us to peace. 1 Co. 7. 15.—He that will love life and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile: let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it. 1 Pe. 3. 10, 11.—The wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable. Ja. 3. 17.

The church of God which is at Corinth, ... them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. 1 Co. 1. 2.—The prayer of the upright is his delight. Pr. 15. 8.—These people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. Mat. 15. 8.

23 But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient,

Behold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my Spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gentiles. He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets. A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench. Mat. 12. 18–20.—Learn of me; for I am meek. Mat. 11. 29.—I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ. 2 Co. 10. 1.—Remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears. Ac. 20. 31.

25 In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

If a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Gal. 6. 1.—Be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear. 1 Pe. 3. 15.

Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee. Ac. 8. 22.

God our Saviour ... will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. 1 Ti. 2. 3, 4.—Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. Ac. 5. 31.

26 And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices. 2 Co. 2. 11.—I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God. Ac. 26. 17, 18.—The Lord said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. Job 1. 12.—Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above. Jno. 19. 11.—The God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. Ro. 16. 20.

CHAPTER III.

THIS know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come.

The Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron. 1 Ti. 4. 1, 2.—There shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts. 2 Pe. 3. 3.—Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time. 1 Jno. 2. 18. They told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts. Jude 18.

Then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another. And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. This gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come. Mat. 24. 10–12, 14.

2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

That day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God. 2 Th. 2. 3, 4.

Ro. 1. 30, 31.

3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

4 Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate. Ti. 1. 16.

6 For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,

7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

A scooner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not: but knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth. Pr. 14. 6.—Be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive. Eph. 4. 14.

8 Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.

Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh, and they did so as the Lord had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and it became a serpent. Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers: now the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments. For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents. Ex. 7. 10-12.

Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the Lord hath rejected them. Je. 6. 30.—As they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient. Rom. 1. 28.

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as their's also was.

Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods. Ex. 7. 12.—The magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not. Ex. 8. 18.—The magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils; for the boil was upon the magicians. Ex. 9. 11.

10 But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience,

I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified. 1 Co. 2. 2.—Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews: and how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house, testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. Ac. 20. 18-21.

The things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay? But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay. For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea. 2 Co. 1. 17-19.—To me to live is Christ. Phi. 1. 21.—I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved. 2 Co. 12. 15.

11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me.

Acts 13; 14.

We despaired even of life: but we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead: who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us. 2 Co. 1. 8-10.—Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all. Psa. 34. 19.

12 Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.

Whoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. Lu. 14. 27.—The world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. Jno. 17. 14.—We must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. Ac. 14. 22.—No man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto. 1 Th. 3. 3.

13 But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: that they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. 2 Th. 2. 11, 12.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;

When ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe. 1 Th. 2. 13.—He that heareth you heareth me. Lu. 10. 16.

15 And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

These words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: and thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. De. 6. 6, 7.

Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. Jno. 5. 39.

In whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls. Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you: searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow. 1 Pe. 1. 8-11.

16 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

The prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2 Pe. 1. 21.—Whosoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. Rom. 15. 4.

The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple. The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes. The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb. Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward. Psa. 19. 7-11.

Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word. Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee. Psa. 119. 9, 11.

17 That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

Thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. 1 Th. 6. 11.—If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work. 2 Th. 2. 21.

CHAPTER IV.

I CHARGE thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;

He commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. Ac. 10. 42.—When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats. Mat. 25. 31, etc.—I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. Re. 20. 12, 13.

2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine.

Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus: whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily. Col. 1. 28, 29.

It pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom: but we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness. 1 Co. 1. 21, 23. God ... hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. 2 Co. 5. 19, 20.

If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God. 1 Pe. 4. 11.—The word of this salvation. Ac. 13. 26.—The word of faith. Ro. 10. 8.—The word of life. Phi. 2. 16.—The engrafted word which is able to save your souls. Ja. 1. 21.—All the words of this life. Ac. 5. 20.

3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying. 1 Ti. 1. 4.—Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth. Ti. 1. 14.

5 But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry.

Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief. He. 13. 17.

Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all. 1 Ti. 4. 15.

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

If I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all. Phi. 2. 17.

I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better. Phi. 1. 23.—Shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me. 2 Pe. 1. 14.

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life. 1 Ti. 6. 12; 1 Co. 9. 24—27.—Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. Re. 2. 10.

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

When the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. 1 Pe. 5. 4.—An inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. 1 Pe. 1. 4.

Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. Ja. 1. 12.

When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Col. 3. 4.—Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ. Ti. 2. 13.

He will swallow up death in victory. And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the Lord; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation. Is. 25. 8, 9.

9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:

10 For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.

Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. 1 Jo. 2. 15, 17.—Whoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. Ju. 14. 33.—No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Ju. 16. 13.

Col. 4. 14. Phile. 24. 2 Co. 8. 23.

11 Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry.

All they which are in Asia be turned away from me. 2 Ti. 1. 15.—Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, greet you. Col. 4. 14.

Aristarchus my fellowprisoner saluteth you, and Marcus, sister's son to Barnabas, ... and Jesus, which is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellowworkers unto the kingdom of God, which have been a comfort unto me. Col. 4. 10, 11; Ac. 15. 37.

12 And Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus.

That ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things: whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose. Eph. 6. 21, 22.

13 The cloke that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments.

We both hunger, and thirst, and are naked. 1 Co. 4. 11.—In cold and nakedness. 2 Co. 11. 27.

14 Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works:

15 Of whom be thou ware also; for he hath greatly withstood our words.

They drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. Ac. 19. 33.—Hymeneus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme. 1 Ti. 1. 20.

The workers of iniquity, which speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts. Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them after the work of their hands; render to them their desert. Ps. 28. 3, 4.—The sons of Zeruiah be too hard for me: the Lord shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness. 2 Sa. 3. 39.

16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.

All the disciples forsook him, and fled. Mat. 26. 56.
Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. Ac. 7. 60.

17 Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.

When they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak. For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you. Mat. 10. 19, 20.—The Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome. Ac. 23. 11.—He said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. 2 Co. 12. 9.

The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished. 2 Pe. 2. 9.

Your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. 1 Pe. 5. 8.

18 And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

The second epistle unto Timotheus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Ephesians, was written from Rome, when Paul was brought before Nero the second time.

The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. Ps. 121. 7.—The Lord... forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever. Ps. 37. 28.

19 Salute Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.

Paul... came to Corinth; and found a certain Jew named... born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; ... and because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers. Ac. 18. 1, 3.—Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus: who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles. Ro. 16. 3; 2 Ti. 1. 16-18.

20 Erastus abode at Corinth: but Trophimus have I left at Miletum sick.

21 Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.

He sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus. Ac. 19. 22.—Erastus the chamberlain of the city saluteth you. Ro. 16. 23.

For they had seen before with him in the city Trophimus an Ephesian. Ac. 21. 29.

22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

They shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us. Mat. 1. 23.—Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Mat. 28. 20.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL

TO

T I T U S.

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godliness;

Whose I am, and whom I serve. Ac. 27. 23.

So hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth. And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. Ac. 13. 47, 48.

Great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. 1 Ti. 3. 16.—His divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue. 2 Pe. 1. 3, etc.—According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love. Eph. 1. 4.

2 In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

The promise of life which is in Christ Jesus. 2 Ti. 1. 1.—A lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. 1 Pe. 1. 3.

God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good? Nu. 23. 19.—Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath. He. 6. 17.

Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. 2 Ti. 1. 9, 10.—Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Mat. 25. 34.

3 But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

The preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began. Ro. 16. 25.—Paul an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope. 1 Ti. 1. 1.—We trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. 1 Ti. 4. 10.

4 To Titus, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Titus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you. 2 Co. 8. 23; 1 Ti. 1. 2.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:

They ... ordained them elders in every church. Ac. 14. 23.—Bishops. Phi. 1. 1.

6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.

1 Ti. 3. 2-9, 12.

7 For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not selfwilled, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. 1 Co. 4. 1, 2.—The elders ... I exhort, ... Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind. 1 Pe. 5. 1, 2.

9 Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me. 2 Ti. 1. 13.

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

Mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple. Ro. 16. 17, 18.

Certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. Ac. 15. 1.

12 One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

Reprova, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. 2 Ti. 4. 2.—The servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient, in meekness instructing those that oppose themselves. 2 Ti. 2. 24, 25.

14 Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

In vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. Mat. 15. 9.

15 Unto the pure all things are pure; but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

There is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean. For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence. Ro. 14. 14, 20.—Commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth. For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving. 1 Ti. 4. 3, 4.—He that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin. Ro. 14. 23.—Purifying their hearts by faith. Ac. 15. 9.

CHAPTER II.

BUT speak thou the things which become sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness. Pr. 16. 31.

For love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such a one as Paul the aged. Phile. 9.—The elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth. I beseech thee, lady, ... that we love one another. 2 Jno. 1. 5.

Be ye also patient; establish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh. Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience. Ja. 5. 8, 10.

3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. Eph. 5. 22.—Ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives. Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well. 1 Pe. 3. 1, 6.—I will ... that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. 1 Ti. 5. 14.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober minded.

Flee ... youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart. 2 Ti. 2. 22.

7 In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,

Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. 1 Ti. 4. 12.—Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being examples to the flock. 1 Pe. 5. 3.

I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him. For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles. 2 Co. 11. 3, 5.—But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. Gal. 1. 8.—For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ. 2 Co. 2. 17.—Not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 2 Co. 4. 2.

8 Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

Walk in wisdom toward them that are without. Let your speech be alway with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man. Col. 4. 5, 6.—Ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies? Nu. 5. 9.—Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men. 1 Pe. 2. 12, 15.—Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ. 1 Pe. 3. 16.

9 Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again;

Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; with good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men: knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free. Eph. 6. 5, 8.—Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. 1 Pe. 2. 18.

Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed. And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort. 1 Ti. 6. 1, 2.

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity lity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Mat. 5. 16.—Be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world. Phi. 2. 15.

11 For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men,

If through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many. Ro. 5. 15.—That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. Jno. 1. 9.—God our Saviour ... will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time. 1 Ti. 2. 3, 6.

12 Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. How shall we that are dead to sin, live any longer therein? Ro. 6. 1, 2.—Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. 2 Ti. 1. 9.—According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love. Eph. 1. 4.—For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. 1 Th. 4. 7.—That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. 1 Pe. 4. 2.—For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. 1 Jno. 2. 16.

13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;

We look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. Phi. 3. 20.—Waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 1. 7. Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God. 2 Pe. 3. 12.—The hope which is laid up for you in heaven. Col. 1. 5.

Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. He. 9. 28.—When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Col. 3. 4.

The Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. 1 Th. 4. 16, 17.

Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. 1 Jno. 3. 2.

The Lord Jesus Christ, ... shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom. 2 Ti. 4. 1.—The Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Th. 1. 7, 8.

The Son of man ... shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels. Lu. 9. 26.

14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world. Gal. 1. 4; Eph. 5. 2.—Who gave himself a ransom for all. 1 Ti. 2. 6.—He died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. 2 Co. 5. 15.—The life which

I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Gal. 2. 20.

Such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens. He. 7. 26.—Let Israel hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption. And he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities. Ps. 130. 7, 8.

We are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. Eph. 2. 10.—Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light. 1 Pe. 2. 9.—If ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people. Ex. 19. 5.

15 These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

Reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. 2 Ti. 4. 2.

Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. 1 Ti. 4. 12.—He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me. Lu. 10. 16.

CHAPTER III.

PUT them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work,

Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. Ro. 13. 1.—Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme; or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well. 1 Pe. 2. 13, 14.

As we have ... opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith. Gal. 6. 10.

2 To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

Put on, ... as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering. Col. 3. 12.—Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice. Eph. 4. 31.

3 For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Co. 6. 9, 11.—You hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins. We all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. Eph. 2. 1, 3.—Ye were sometime darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light. Eph. 5. 8.—For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revelings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries. 1 Pe. 4. 3.

4 But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men. Ti. 2. 11.—In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. 1 Jno. 4. 9, 10.—There is no God else beside me; a just God and a Saviour; there is none beside me. Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else. Is. 45. 21, 22.

5 Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast. Eph. 2. 8, 9.—Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. 2 Ti. 1. 9.—Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. Gal. 2. 16.—Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. Ro. 3. 20.

Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. Jno. 3. 3, 5.

Be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. Ro. 12. 2.—Put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; and be renewed in the spirit of your mind. Eph. 4. 22, 23.

6 Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified. Jno. 7. 37, 39.—Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear. Ac. 2. 33.

7 That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus. Ro. 3. 24.—Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Ro. 5. 1. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. Whom he justified, them he also glorified. Ro. 8. 16, 17, 30.—This is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. 1 Jno. 5. 11, 12.—In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began. Ti. 1. 2.

8 This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.

Be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. 1 Co. 15. 58.—Faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Ja. 2. 17.

Ti. 2. 14.

9 But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

Let no man ... judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days; which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. If ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances, (touch not; taste not; handle not; which all are to perish with the using;) after the commandments and doctrines of men? Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh. Col. 2. 16, 17, 20, 23.

10 A man that is an heretic after the first and second admonition reject;

11 Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck: of whom is Hymeneus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme. 1 Ti. 1. 19, 20.—If he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as a heathen man and a publican. Mat. 18. 17.—Mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. Ro. 16. 17.—Withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us. And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. 2 Ti. 3. 6, 14.—Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away. 2 Ti. 3. 5.—If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: for he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds. 2 Jno. 10, 11.

12 When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.

Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus. 2 Ti. 4. 12.—Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord. Eph. 6. 21.

13 Bring Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

A certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus. Ac. 18. 24; 1 Co. 1. 12.

14 And let our's also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful.

15 All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

So labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. Ac. 20. 35.—Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth. Eph. 4. 28.—Ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God. 1 Th. 2. 9.—Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account. Phi. 4. 17.—Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers; which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well: because that for his name's sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles. We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellow-helpers to the truth. 3 Jno. 5. 8.

It was written to Titus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Cretians, from Nicopolis of Macedonia.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON.

PAUL, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellowlabourer,

I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called. Eph. 4. 1. To make known the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in bonds. Eph. 6. 19, 20.
Phile. 9.

2 And to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus our fellowsoldier, and to the church in thy house :

Say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it. Col. 4. 17.

3 Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. 1 Pe. 5. 5.—The God of peace. He. 13. 20.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. 1 Co. 16. 23. Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you : not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Jno. 14. 27.

4 I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy. Phi. 1. 3, 4.—God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers. Ro. 1. 9.

5 Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints ;

Faith which worketh by love. Ga. 5. 6.—Your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints. Eph. 1. 15.

6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.

7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Mat. 5. 16.—Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles : that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. 1 Pe. 2. 12.—By the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men. 2 Co. 9. 13.

8 Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient,

9 Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds :

I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ. 2 Co. 10. 1.

Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. Col. 4. 9.

Though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers : for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. 1 Co. 4. 15.

11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me :

12 Whom I have sent again : thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels :

Phile. 10.

13 Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel :

14 But without thy mind would I do nothing ; that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.

Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give ; not grudgingly, or of necessity : for God loveth a cheerful giver. 2 Co. 9. 7.

15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever ;

16 Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord ?

17 If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as myself.

Partakers of the heavenly calling. He. 3. 1.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account ;

VER. 19.]

PHILEMON.

[VER. 25.

19 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

For in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.
1 Co. 4. 15.

20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord.

21 Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say.

22 But withal prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given unto you.

Ye also helping together by prayer for us. 2 Co. 1. 11.

23 There salute thee Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus;

Epaphras our dear fellowservant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ. Col. 1. 7.—Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God. Col. 4. 12.

24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas, my fellowlabourers.

25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, greet you. Col. 4. 14.—Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world. Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry. 2 Ti. 4. 10, 11.—Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark. Ac. 12. 25.—Gaius and Aristarchus, whose surname was Mark. Ac. 12. 25.—Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel. Ac. 19. 29.

Written from Rome to Philemon, by Onesimus a servant.

toward men. Lu. 2. 10, 11, 13, 14.—I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever. Re. 5. 11-13.

7 And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

Who maketh his angels spirits; his ministers a flaming fire. Pe. 104. 4; 103. 20, 21.—Whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation. Da. 9. 21.—The mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha. 2 Ki. 6. 17.

8 But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre. Ps. 45. 6.

The Word was God. Jno. 1. 1.—One like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days. And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed. Da. 7. 13, 14.—Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. Is. 9. 7.—Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness. Is. 32. 1.—I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. Je. 23. 5.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

He had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth. Is. 53. 9.—Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth. 1 Pe. 2. 22.

I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God. Jno. 20. 17.

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor. This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears. Lu. 4. 18, 21.—God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him. Jno. 3. 34.—God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power. Ac. 10. 38.

The fruit of the Spirit is ... joy. Gal. 5. 22.

Both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren. For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham. Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren. He. 2. 11, 16, 17.—Truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. 1 Jno. 1. 3.

10 And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:

11 They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end. Ps. 102. 25-27.

Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner. Is. 51. 6.—Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away. Mat. 24. 35. The heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. 2 Pe. 3. 7.

The day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. 2 Pe. 3. 10.—I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. Re. 20. 11.—And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. Re. 21. 1.

I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty. Re. 1. 8.—Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever. He. 13. 8.

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

Jesus asked them, saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David. He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool? Mat. 22. 41, 44; Ps. 110. 1.—Ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Mar. 14. 62; Lu. 22. 69.—After the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God. Mar. 16. 19.—Who is even at the right hand of God. Ro. 8. 34. He raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places. Eph. 1. 20.—Where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Col. 3. 1.—He must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. 1 Co. 15. 25.

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them. Ps. 34. 7.—He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. Ps. 91. 11.

The angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which are here; lest thou be consumed in the iniquity of the city. Ge. 19. 15.—My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me. Da. 6. 22.—The angel ... said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings. Lu. 1. 19.—The angel of the Lord came upon him, ... and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands. Ac. 12. 7; 10. 1-6.—There stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve, saying, Fear not, Paul. Ac. 27. 23, 24.

If children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ. Ro. 8. 17.—That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. Tit. 3. 7.

CHAPTER II.

THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.

Take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life. De. 4. 9.—Moses truly said unto the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you. And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people. Ac. 3. 22, 23.—My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: ... because they have left off to take heed to the Lord. Ho. 4. 6, 10; Lu. 8. 12, 15.

2 For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;

The Lord came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir unto them; he shined forth from mount Paran, and he came with ten thousands of saints: from his right hand went a fiery law for them. De. 33. 2.—Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it. Ac. 7. 53.—It was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator. Gal. 3. 19.

He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses. He. 10. 28.—The soul that doeth ought presumptuously, ... shall be cut off from among his people. Because he hath despised the word of the Lord, and hath broken his commandment, that soul shall utterly be cut off. Nu. 15. 30, 31.—Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, ... offered strange fire before the Lord, which he commanded them not. And there went out fire from the Lord, and devoured them. Le. 10. 1, 2.—While the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man that gathered sticks upon the sabbath day. And all the congregation brought him without the camp, and stoned him with stones, and he died; as the Lord commanded Moses. Nu. 15. 32, 36.

Your eyes have seen what the Lord did because of Baal-peor: for all the men that followed Baal-peor, the Lord thy God hath destroyed them from among you. De. 4. 3.—Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come. 1 Co. 10. 11.

3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace? He. 10. 29.—See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven. He. 12. 25.—He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. Jno. 12. 48.

God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. Jno. 3. 16.—He is able ... to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him. He. 7. 25.

Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God. Mar. 1. 14.—And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. And ye are witnesses of these things. Lu. 24. 47, 48.—But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. Ac. 1. 8.—And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him. Ac. 5. 32; 10. 39.

4 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will?

They went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Mar. 16. 20.—Many wonders and signs were done by the apostles. Ac. 2. 43.—Long time ... abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands. Ac. 14. 3.—God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul. Ac. 19. 11.—I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God. Ro. 15. 18, 19.—My speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power. 1 Co. 2. 4.

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak.

The powers of the world to come. He. 6. 5.—I create new heavens and a new earth. Is. 65. 17.—The seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever. Re. 11. 15.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

Ps. 8. 4, 8.

Lord, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him? or the son of man, that thou makest account of him? Ps. 144. 3.—What is man, that thou shouldest magnify him? and that thou shouldest set thine heart upon him? Job. 7. 17.

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people, ... through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us, to give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace. Lu. 1. 68, 78, 79.

7 Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him. Mat. 4. 11.—There appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him. Lu. 22. 43.

8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.

He raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: and hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church. Eph. 1. 20, 22.—Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Mat. 28. 18.—He hath put all things under his feet. He must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. 1 Co. 15. 27, 25.

9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

[Jesus Christ] made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name; that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Phi. 2. 7–11.

If children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. Ro. 8. 17, 18.

Make crowns, and set them upon the head of Joshua ... the high priest; and speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, saying, Behold the man whose name is The BRANCH; ... even he shall build the temple of the Lord; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and he shall be a priest upon his throne. Zec. 6. 11-13.—For thou prevailest him with the blessings of goodness; thou settest a crown of pure gold on his head. His glory in thy salvation: honour and majesty hast thou laid upon him. Ps. 21. 3, 6.—Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O most mighty, with thy glory and thy majesty. And in thy majesty ride prosperously. Ps. 45. 3, 4.—On his head were many crowns. Re. 19. 12.

Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. Jno. 1. 29.—God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. Jno. 3. 16.—He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.—Receive not the grace of God in vain. 2 Co. 6. 1.—He is the propitiation for our sins: and not for our's only, but also for the sins of the whole world. 1 Jno. 2. 2.

They sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation. Re. 5. 9.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

Thus it behoved Christ to suffer. Lu. 24. 46.—That he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus. Ro. 3. 26.

Of him, and through him, and to him, are all things. Ro. 11. 36.

I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; and cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Re. 7. 9, 10, 14.—I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people. Is. 55. 4.—Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered; and being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him. He. 5. 8, 9.—The God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. 1 Pe. 5. 10.

11 For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren,

We are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. By one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. He. 10. 10, 14.—Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate. He. 13. 12.—If the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh: how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? He. 9. 13, 14.—The blood of Jesus Christ ... cleanseth us from all sin. 1 Jno. 1. 7.

He stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren! For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother. Mat. 12. 49, 50.—Go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God. Jno. 20. 17.

12 Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

Ps. 22. 22.

13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I and the children which God hath given me.

The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust. Ps. 18. 2.—I will wait upon the Lord, that hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him. Is. 8. 17.—The Lord God will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded. Is. 50. 7.—I can of mine own self do nothing. Jno. 5. 30; He. 2. 18.

Behold, I and the children whom the Lord hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel. Is. 8. 18.—Those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition. Jno. 17. 12.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us. Jno. 1. 14.—God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh. Ro. 8. 3.—Who ... made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men. Phi. 2. 6, 7.—Jesus Christ ... hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. 2 Ti. 1. 10.—When this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 15. 54-57.

I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death. Re. 1. 18.

16 For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

If ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. Gal. 3. 29.

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

Every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins: who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity. He. 5. 1, 2.

18 For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

We have not a high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. He. 4. 15; Mat. 4. 1-3, etc.; 26. 37-39. Consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds. He. 12. 3.—My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. 2 Co. 12. 9.

CHAPTER III.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;

Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. 2 Ti. 1. 9.—Whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified. Ro. 8. 30.—God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. 1 Th. 4. 7.—Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints. 1 Co. 1. 2.—I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Phi. 3. 14.

As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. Jno. 20. 21.—Such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself. He. 7. 26, 27.

He. 2. 17, 18.

2 Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house.

I do always those things that please him. Jno. 8. 29.—I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do. Jno. 17. 4.

My servant Moses is not so, who is faithful in all mine house. Nu. 12. 7.—I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the Lord my God commanded me. De. 4. 6.—Thus did Moses: according to all that the Lord commanded him, so did he. Ex. 40. 16.

The house of God, which is the church of the living God. 1 Th. 3. 15.—The vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel. Is. 5. 7.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God.

Behold the man whose name is The BRANCH; and he shall grow up out of his place, and he shall build the temple of the Lord. Zec. 6. 12.—Upon this rock I will build my church. Mat. 16. 18.

This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: who received the lively oracles to give unto us. Ac. 7. 38.

5 And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;

Now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets. Ro. 3. 21.—The law having a shadow of good things to come. He. 10. 1.

6 But Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

All mine are thine, and thine are mine. While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name. Jno. 17. 10, 12.

Ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 2 Co. 6. 16.—In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto a holy temple in the Lord: in whom ye also are builded together for a habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. 2. 21, 22.—Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 2. 5.

By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Ro. 5. 2.—If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel. Col. 1. 23.—We desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end. He. 6. 11.—He that endureth to the end shall be saved. Mat. 10. 22.—Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward. For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him. But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul. He. 10. 35, 38, 39.—They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us. 1 Jno. 2. 19.

7 Wherefore (as the Holy Ghost saith, To day if ye will hear his voice,

The Spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his word was in my tongue. 2 Sa. 23. 2.—David himself said by the Holy Ghost, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool. Mar. 12. 36.—This scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas. Ac. 1. 16.

Boast not thyself of to-morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth. Pr. 27. 1.—Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near. Is. 55. 6.—Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation. 2 Co. 6. 2.

Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. Re. 3. 20.

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness;

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

Remember, and forget not, how thou provokedst the Lord thy God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious against the Lord. De. 9. 7.—Because all those men which have seen my glory, and my miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, have tempted me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice; surely they shall not see the land which I swear unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that provoked me see it. Nu. 14. 22, 23.—Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents. 1 Co. 10. 9.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.

How oft did they provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert! Yea, they turned back and tempted God, and limited the Holy One of Israel. Ps. 78. 40, 41.—Grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Eph. 4. 30.

They did not like to retain God in their knowledge. Ro. 1. 28.

11 So I swear in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.)

As truly as I live, saith the Lord, as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you: your carcasses shall fall in this wilderness; and all that were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, which have murmured against me, doubtless ye shall not come into the land, concerning which I swear to make you dwell therein, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Josiua the son of Nun. Nu. 14. 28, 30.—The Lord's anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation, that had done evil in the sight of the Lord, was consumed. Nu. 32. 13.

12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

From within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness. Mar. 7. 21, 22.—They tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his testimonies: but turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitful bow. Ps. 78. 56, 57.—My people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water. Je. 2. 13.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

Thou knewest not the time of thy visitation. Lu. 19. 44.—Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. Jno. 12. 35, 36.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. Re. 2. 10.—To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne. Re. 3. 21.

15 While it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

My servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and hath followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereto he went. Nu. 14. 24.—I wholly followed the Lord my God. And Moses sware on that day, saying, Surely the land wherupon thy feet have trodden shall be thine inheritance, and thy children's for ever, because thou hast wholly followed the Lord my God. Jos. 14. 8, 9.

17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

De. 1. 12, etc.; 9. 23, etc.
They despised the pleasant land, they believed not his word: but murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the Lord. Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness. Psa. 106. 24-26.

CHAPTER IV.

LET us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Mat. 7. 21-23.

2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

The scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham. Gal. 3. 8, 9.

3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Mat. 11. 28.—Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: by whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Ro. 5. 1, 2.—It is a righteous thing with God to recompense ... to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven. 2 Th. 1. 6, 7.—Here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus. And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours. Re. 14. 12, 13.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

On the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. Ge. 2. 2.—In six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day. Ex. 20. 11.—In six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed. Ex. 31. 17.

5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

Your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which ye have despised. Nu. 14. 31.

7 (Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

That is, Joshua, margin.
Ye are not as yet come to the rest and to the inheritance, which the Lord your God giveth you. De. 12. 9.—After that the Lord had given rest unto Israel from all their enemies round about, ... Joshua waxed old. Jos. 23. 1.

9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

Let no man therefore judge you ... in respect of a holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: which are a shadow of things to come. Col. 2. 16, 17.—God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. Re. 21. 4.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.)

The Forerunner is for us entered. He. 6. 20.—I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do. Jno. 17. 4.
Not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law. Phi. 3. 9.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

Give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall: for so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. 2 Pe. 1. 10, 11.—Strive to enter in at the strait gate. Lu. 13. 24.—So run, that ye may obtain. And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. 1 Co. 9. 24, 25.—I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Phi. 3. 14.

12 For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

The lively oracles. Ac. 7. 38.—Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever. 1 Pe. 1. 23.

Is not my word like a fire? saith the Lord; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces? Je. 23. 29.—The weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds; casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ. 2 Co. 10. 4, 5.—I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth. Ro. 1. 16.—When ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe. 1 Th. 2. 13.

He hath made my mouth like a sharp sword. Is. 49. 2.—Out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword. Re. 1. 16.—Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth. Re. 2. 16.—The sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. Eph. 6. 17.

Not ... handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 2 Co. 4. 2.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

His eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings. Job. 34. 21.—Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance. Ps. 90. 8.

O Lord, thou hast searched me, and known me. Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off. Thou compassedst my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways. For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether. If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me. Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee. Ps. 139. 1, 4, 11, 12.

The Lord looketh on the heart. 1 Sa. 16. 7.—Hell and destruction are before the Lord: how much more then the hearts of the children of men? Psa. 15. 11.—I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. Je. 17. 10.

These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass; I know thy works. Re. 2. 18, 19.

He shall lay the burnt offering, and cut it into his pieces. His inwards ... shall he wash in water. Le. 1. 6, 9.—Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts. Psa. 51. 6.—Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting. Psa. 139. 23, 24.

14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.

Holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus. He. 3. 1; 7. 21, etc.—Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. He. 9. 12, 24.

Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; and having a high priest over the house of God; let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised.) He. 10. 19, 23.—Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God. 1 Pe. 3. 22.

15 For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief. Is. 53. 3.—Being forty days tempted of the devil. And in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered. Lu. 4. 2.—Jesus ... being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well. Jno. 4. 6. When Jesus ... saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groined in the spirit, and was troubled, and said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see. Jesus wept. Jno. 11. 33, 35.—The scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things: laying wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him. Lu. 11. 53, 54.—Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations. Lu. 22. 28.

Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me. Jno. 14. 30.—He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.—Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth. 1 Pe. 2. 22.—Ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin. 1 Jno. 3. 5.

16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

He shall be a priest upon his throne. Zec. 6. 13.—Thou shalt put the mercy seat above upon the ark. ... And there I will meet with thee. Ex. 25. 21, 22.—Christ Jesus; whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation [or mercy seat]. Ro. 3. 24, 25.—Through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Eph. 2. 18.—In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him. Eph. 3. 12.

CHAPTER V.

FOR every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

If the priest that is anointed do sin according to the sin of the people; then let him bring for his sin, which he hath sinned, a young bullock without blemish unto the Lord for a sin offering. Le. 4. 3.—Aaron shall offer his bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make an atonement for himself, and for his house. Le. 16. 6.—Moses said unto Aaron, Go unto the altar, and offer thy sin offering, and thy burnt offering, and make an atonement for thyself, and for the people; and offer the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them; as the Lord commanded. Le. 9. 7.—Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself. He. 7. 27.

4 And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

Take thou unto thee Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office. Ex. 28. 1.—Thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall wait on their priest's office: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death. Nu. 3. 10.

They withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It appertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the Lord, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; neither shall it be for thine honour from the Lord God. Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the Lord, from beside the incense altar. And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the Lord. 2 Ch. 26. 18, 19, 21.—To be a memorial unto the children of Israel, that no stranger, which is not of the seed of Aaron, come near to offer incense before the Lord; that he be not as Korah, and as his company: as the Lord said to him by the hand of Moses. Nu. 16. 40.

5 So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.

Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God. Jno. 8. 54.

Ps. 2. 7.

6 As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

The Lord hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek. Ps. 110. 4.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared;

O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not; and in the night season, and am not silent. Ps. 22. 2.—Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour. Jno. 12. 27. And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt. He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done. And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words. Mat. 26. 39, 42, 44.

And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt. Mar. 14. 36.—Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels? Mat. 26. 53.

There appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him. Lu. 22. 43.—Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. Jno. 12. 28.—In my distress I called upon the Lord, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears. He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of many waters. He brought me forth also into a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me. Ps. 18. 6, 16, 19.—Thou hast heard me from the horns of the unicorns. He hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; neither hath he hid his face from him; but when he cried unto him, he heard. Ps. 22. 21, 24.

8 Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered;

I was not rebellious, neither turned away back. I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting. Is. 50. 5, 6.—And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Phi. 2. 8.

9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

It became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. He. 2. 10.—The third day I shall be perfected. Lu. 13. 32.—Declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead. Ro. 1. 4.—Such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens. He. 7. 26.—Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. He. 9. 12.—The salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. 2 Ti. 2. 10.—Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel. Mar. 1. 14, 15.—He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Mar. 16. 16.—By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed. He. 11. 8.

10 Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec.

Ps. 110. 4.

11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.

In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive: for this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. Mat. 13. 14, 15.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

Unto them were committed the oracles of God. Ro. 3. 2.—I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ. I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able. 1 Co. 3. 1, 2; Eph. 1. 3, etc.

13 For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

Henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine. Eph. 4. 14.—Him that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations. Ro. 14. 1.

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness; that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works. 2 Ti. 3. 16, 17.—Wherein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith. Ro. 1. 17.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

The natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man. 1 Co. 2. 14, 15.—This I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; that ye may approve things that are excellent. [try things that differ. marg.] 2nd 1. 9, 10.

CHAPTER VI.

THEREFORE leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,

If ... perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron? For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law. For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof. For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God. He. 7. 11, 12, 19.

The foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity. 2 Ti. 2. 19.—Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. Eze. 18. 30.—John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. Mar. 1. 4.

The works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. Gal. 5. 19, 21.—The wages of sin is death. Rom. 6. 23.

He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. Jno. 5. 24.—Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. For by it the elders obtained a good report. But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. Heb. 11. 1, 2, 6.

2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.

Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience; which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation. He. 9. 9, 10; Mar. 7. 3, 4.—John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus. When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. Ac. 19. 4, 5.

Thou shalt bring the Levites before the Lord: and the children of Israel shall put their hands upon the Levites: and Aaron shall offer the Levites before the Lord for an offering of the children of Israel, that they may execute the service of the Lord. Nu. 8. 10, 11.—As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them. And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. Ac. 13. 2, 3; 19. 6.

That the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living. Lu. 20. 37, 38.—My flesh ... shall rest in hope. For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. Ps. 16. 9, 10.—Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead. Is. 26. 19. Many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. Da. 12. 2.—The Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both. Ac. 23. 8.

Enoch, ... the seventh from Adam, prophesied ... saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed. Jude 14, 15.—The Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire. A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened. Da. 7. 9, 10.

When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats: and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels: ... and these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal. Mat. 25. 31, 34, 41, 46.—He hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. Ac. 17. 31.

3 And this will we do, if God permit.

Ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that. Ja. 4. 15.—Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God. 2 Co. 3. 5.

4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

Call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions. He. 10. 32.—Touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth. And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know. 1 Co. 8. 1, 2.—Though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; ... and have not charity, I am nothing. 1 Co. 13. 2. Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man whose eyes are open hath said: he hath said, which heard the words of God, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open. Nu. 24. 3, 4.

To one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; to another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; to another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues. 1 Co. 12. 8, 10.—They of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost. For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Ac. 10. 45, 46.—I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift. Ro. 1. 11.—No man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost. 1 Co. 12. 3.

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and a holy, and observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly. Mar. 6. 20.—He that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it; yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended. Mat. 13. 20, 21.—My Father giveth you the true bread from heaven. I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. Jno. 6. 32, 51.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Mat. 7. 22, 23.—Then went up Moses, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu... they saw God, and did eat and drink. Ex. 24. 9, 11.

As he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee. Ac. 24. 25.

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

If we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries. He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses: of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace? He. 10. 26, 29.

If after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them. 2 Pe. 2. 20, 21.

All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men. And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come. Mat. 12. 31, 32.—Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness. 2 Pe. 2. 15.

Nadab and Abihu died before the Lord, when they offered strange fire before the Lord. Nu. 3. 4.—The Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not. Jude 5.—I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do always err in their heart; and they have not known my ways. So I sware in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest. He. 3. 10, 11.—From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. Jno. 6. 66. Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place. Ac. 1. 25.

They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us. But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things. 1 Jno. 2. 19, 20.

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me, and I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. Jno. 10. 27, 28.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God:

See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the Lord hath blessed: therefore God give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine. Ge. 27. 27, 28.—Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: thou settlest the furrows thereof: thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing thereof. Ps. 65. 10.—

He that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. Mat. 13. 23.—Every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. Jno. 15. 2.

8 But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is high unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

Cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life; thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee. Ge. 3. 17, 18.—Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Mat. 7. 19.—If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. Jno. 15. 6.

What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes? And now go to, I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down; and I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned, nor digged; but there shall come up briers and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it. Is. 5. 4, 6.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

We are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul. He. 10. 39.—To be spiritually minded is life and peace. Ro. 8. 6. Mat. 5. 3, 8.—If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. 2 Co. 5. 17.—In Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. Gal. 5. 6.—We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. 1 Jno. 3. 14.

10 For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

Whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward. Mat. 10. 42.—The King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Mat. 25. 40.—Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God. Ac. 10. 4.—The multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common. Ac. 4. 32.—And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need. Ac. 2. 45.

11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end:

Give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall: for so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. 2 Pe. 1. 10, 11.—Let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. 1 Jno. 3. 18, 19.

Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience. He. 10. 22.

Unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgment of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ. Col. 2. 2.

We are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end. Whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end. He. 3. 14, 6.—Gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 13.

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

He. 11. 3, etc.

We have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good: and are ye still? be not slothful to go, and to enter to possess the land. Ja. 18. 9.—His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant. Mat. 25. 26.

Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us. He. 12. 1.—To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life. Ro. 2. 7.—Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope. 1 Th. 1. 3.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he swore by himself,

14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

By myself have I sworn, saith the Lord, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son: that in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore. Ge. 22. 16, 17.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

The Lord your God hath multiplied you, and, behold, ye are this day as the stars of heaven for multitude. De. 1. 10.

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel: for he hath visited and redeemed his people, and hath raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant; the oath which he swore to our father Abraham. Luk. 1. 68, 69, 72, 73.—Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad. Jno. 8. 56.

The word of the Lord came unto Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward. Ge. 15. 1.

The beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom. Luk. 16. 22.

16 For men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

Now therefore swear unto me here by God that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son. And Abraham said, I will swear. Ge. 21. 23, 24.—I will make thee swear by the Lord, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites. Ge. 24. 3.

The herdmen of Gerar did strive with Isaac's herdmen, saying, The water is ours'. Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar. And they said, ... Let there be now an oath betwixt us, ... and let us make a covenant with thee. And they ... swore one to another: and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace. Ge. 26. 20, 26, 28, 31.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath:

The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations. Ps. 33. 11.—Thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth. Is. 25. 1.—My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure. Yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it. Is. 46. 10, 11.—I am the Lord, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed. Mal. 3. 6.—The promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed. Ro. 4. 13, 16.—The gifts and calling of God are without repentance. Ro. 11. 29.—The Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Ja. 1. 17.

If ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. Gal. 3. 29.—In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will. Eph. 1. 11.

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:

The word of the Lord endureth for ever. 1 Pe. 1. 25.—The Lord swears and will not repent. He. 7. 21.

God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good? Nu. 23. 19.—God that cannot lie. Tit. 1. 2.

Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts. 2 Th. 2. 16, 17.—Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost. Ro. 15. 13.

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Ps. 46. 1.—Ye shall appoint your cities to be cities of refuge for you; that the slayer may flee thither, which killeth any person at unawares. Nu. 35. 11.

Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life. 1 Th. 6. 12.

19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the veil;

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. 1 Pe. 1. 3, 4.—The hope which is laid up for you in heaven. Col. 1. 5.—For a helmet, the hope of salvation. 1 Th. 5. 8.—If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Col. 3. 1.

20 Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. He. 4. 14.—For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. He. 9. 24.—This man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. He. 7. 24, 25.—Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever. He. 13. 8.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself: that where I am, there ye may be also. Jno. 14. 2, 3.—Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept. 1 Co. 15. 20.—Whom have I in heaven but thee? Ps. 73. 25.

CHAPTER VII.

FOR this Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

The king of Sodom went out to meet [Abram], after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer, and of the kings that were with him. ... And Melchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine: and he was the priest of the most high God. And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be Abram of the most high God, possessor of heaven and earth: and blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him tithes of all. Ge. 14. 17-20.

In Judah is God known: his name is great in Israel. In Salem also is his tabernacle, and his dwelling place in Zion. Ps. 76. 1, 2.

The man whose name is The BRANCH; ... he shall ... sit and rule upon his throne; and he shall be a priest upon his throne. Zec. 6. 12, 13.

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. Je. 23. 6.—In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth. Ps. 72. 7.

Righteousness and peace have kissed each other. Ps. 85. 10.—Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Ro. 5. 1.—Having made peace through the blood of his cross. Col. 1. 20.—The Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all. 2 Th. 3. 16.

3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually.

Of the children of the priests: the children of Habaiah, ... sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found. Ezra 2. 61, 62.—In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. Jno. 1. 1.—But thou, Beth-lehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting. Mi. 5. 2.—I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was. Pr. 8. 23.—I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty. Re. 1. 8.—The birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost. Mat. 1. 18.—Thy years shall have no end. Ps. 102. 27.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

Thy name shall be Abraham; for a father of many nations have I made thee. Ge. 17. 5.—He received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also. Ro. 4. 11.

5 And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

No man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron. He. 5. 4.

I have given the children of Levi all the tenth in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, even the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. Nu. 18. 21.—All the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land, or of the fruit of the tree, is the Lord's. And concerning the tithe of the herd, or of the flock, even of whatsoever passeth under the rod, the tenth shall be holy unto the Lord. Le. 27. 30, 32.

6 But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ. Eph. 1. 3.—By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come. By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph. He. 11. 20, 21.

Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them, The Lord bless thee, and keep thee: the Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace. Nu. 6. 23-26.

8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore. Re. 1. 18.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.

Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob: and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren. Mat. 1. 2.

11 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

The law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect. Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second. And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins: but this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God. For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. He. 10. 1, 5, 9, 11, 12, 14.—If righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain. Gal. 2. 21.

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come. Ge. 49. 10.—There shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. Is. 11. 1.—Jesus ... the son of Joseph, ... the son of David, ... the son of Juda. Lu. 3. 23, 31, 33.—Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh. Ro. 1. 3.—The Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book. Re. 5. 5.—I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star. Re. 22. 16.—JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS. Jno. 19. 19.

The Lord separated the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of the Lord, to stand before the Lord to minister unto him, and to bless in his name, unto this day. De. 10. 8; Nu. 3. 5-8.

The people of Judah took Uzziah, ... and made him king. He transgressed against the Lord his God, and went into the temple of the Lord to burn incense, ... and ... was a leper unto the day of his death. 2 Ch. 26. 1, 16, 21.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross. Col. 2. 14.—Which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation. He. 9. 10; 7. 18.

As the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself. Jno. 5. 26.—We are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. 1 Jno. 5. 20.—I am the first and the last: I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore. Re. 1. 17, 18.—The Prince of life. Ac. 3. 15.—I know that my Redeemer liveth. Job 19. 25.

He. 7. 3, 8.

17 For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

The Lord hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek. Psa. 110. 4.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

What the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh. Ro. 8. 3.—Before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. Gal. 3. 23, 24.—But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, wherunto ye desire again to be in bondage? Gal. 4. 9.

19 For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God.

The priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God. But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people: the Holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing; which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience. He. 9. 6-9.

Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets. Ro. 3. 20, 21.—By him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Ac. 13. 39. I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. Jno. 14. 6.

Now in Christ Jesus ye who sometime were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us; having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; ... for through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Eph. 2. 13, 15, 18.—In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him. Eph. 3. 12.—By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Ro. 5. 2.

Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus. He. 10. 19.—Let us ... come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need. He. 4. 16.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:

21 (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:)

22 By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. Is. 53. 5.—Now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises. He. 8. 6.—And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance. He. 9. 15.—Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, ... the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel. He. 12. 24.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:

The holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons' after him, to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them. And that son that is priest in his stead shall put them on seven days. Ex. 29. 29, 30.—The priest, whom he shall anoint, and whom he shall consecrate to minister in the priest's office in his father's stead, shall make the atonement. Le. 16. 32.—Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son; and Aaron died there in the top of the mount. Nu. 20. 28.

24 But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. Jno. 6. 37, 39.—I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. 2 Th. 1. 12.—Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy. Jude 24.—Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. Ro. 8. 34.

If, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. Ro. 5. 10.—Because I live, ye shall live also. Jno. 14. 19.—If any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 1 Jno. 2. 1.

For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. He. 9. 24.

26 For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;

The priests ... shall be holy unto their God, and not profane the name of their God: for the offerings of the Lord made by fire, and the bread of their God, they do offer; therefore they shall be holy. Neither shall he go in to any dead body, nor defile himself. Le. 21. 1, 6, 11.—Thou shalt make holy garments for Aaron thy brother for glory and for beauty. And thou shalt make a plate of pure gold, and grave upon it, like the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD. ... Upon the forefront of the mitre it shall be. And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall hallow in all their holy gifts; and it shall be always upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before the Lord. Ex. 28. 2, 36-38.

We have not a high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. He. 4. 15.—If any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 1 Jno. 2. 1.—He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.—Ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin. 1 Jno. 3. 5.—How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? He. 9. 14.—The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, ... therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. Lu. 1. 35.—I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God. Mar. 1. 24.

He that is holy. Re. 3. 7.—Which of you convinceth me of sin? Jno. 8. 46.—When the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man. Lu. 23. 47.—He had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth. Is. 53. 9.—Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth. 1 Pe. 2. 22.—The precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pe. 1. 19.

He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things. Eph. 4. 10.

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself.

This is that which thou shalt offer upon the altar; two lambs of the first year day by day continually. And I will sanctify ... both Aaron and his sons, to minister to me in the priest's office. Ex. 29. 38, 44.—And Aaron shall offer his bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make an atonement for himself, and for his house. Then shall he kill the goat of the sin offering, that is for the people. Le. 16. 6, 15.

Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many. He. 9. 12, 28.—One sacrifice for sins for ever. He. 10. 12.—In that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. Ro. 6. 10.

28 For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore.

Ps. 110. 4.

It became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. He. 2. 10.—And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him. He. 5. 9.

CHAPTER VIII.

NOW of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high. He. 1. 3; 10. 12.

[Stephen] being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, and said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. Ac. 7. 55, 56.

Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. He. 4. 14.—He wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places. Eph. 1. 20.

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Col. 3. 1. Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. He. 12. 2.

2 A minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

A high priest over the house of God. He. 10. 21.—The house of God, which is the church of the living God. 1 Ti. 3. 15.—Ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto a holy temple in the Lord: in whom ye also are builded together for a habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. 2. 19-22.

Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. He. 9. 24.

3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

Le. 16. 11, 15, 16; 1. 2, etc.; 23. 37, etc.

When he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me: in burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure. Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God. And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins: but this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God. He. 10. 5-7, 11, 12.—Christ ... hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour. Eph. 5. 2.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood. He. 7. 14.—That no stranger, which is not of the seed of Aaron, come near to offer incense before the Lord. Nu. 16. 40.

5 Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle; for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect. He. 10. 1.—Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. Col. 2. 17.

Look that thou make them after their pattern, which was shewed thee in the mount. Ex. 25. 40.—And thou shalt rear up the tabernacle according to the fashion thereof which was shewed thee in the mount. Ex. 26. 30.

6 But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises.

[God] hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. If that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious. 2 Co. 3. 6, 11.

Moses ... took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, All that the Lord hath said will we do, and be obedient. And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the Lord hath made with you concerning all these words. Ex. 24. 6-8.

Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law; then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second. He. 10. 8, 9.

He. 7. 22.

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

What the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh. Ro. 8. 3.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was a husband unto them, saith the Lord: but this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people. And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more. Je. 31. 32-34.

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

The anger of the Lord was hot against Israel; and he said, Because that this people hath transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto my voice; I also will not henceforth drive out any from before them of the nations which Joshua left when he died. Ju. 2. 20, 21.

They rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the Lord had charged them, that they should not do like them. And they left all the commandments of the Lord their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made a grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal. And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the Lord, to provoke him to anger. Therefore the Lord was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only. 2 Ki. 17. 15-18.—Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth. Je. 15. 1.—Ye are not my people, and I will not be your God. Ho. 1. 9.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

A new heart ... will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them. And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God. I will also save you from all your uncleanness. Eze. 36. 26-29.—I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God. Ho. 2. 23.—I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness. Zec. 8. 8.

Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. Ac. 2. 41.—That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. Ro. 8. 4.

Ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart. 2 Co. 3. 3.—Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light: which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God. 1 Pe. 2. 9, 10.

I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. 2 Co. 6. 16-18.

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

They shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the Lord. Eze. 34. 27.—All thy children shall be taught of the Lord; and great shall be the peace of thy children. Is. 54. 13.—The earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea. Is. 11. 9.—This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. Jno. 17. 3.—Ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things. The anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things. 1 Jno. 2. 20, 27.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins. Is. 43. 25.—O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me. I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and as a cloud, thy sins. Is. 44. 21, 22.—The iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve. Je. 50. 20.—He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subvert our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old. Mi. 7. 19, 20.—This is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins. Ro. 11. 27.

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 Jno. 1. 9.—You, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses. Col. 2. 13.—Verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation. Jno. 6. 24.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

CHAPTER IX.

THEN verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

Let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them. Ex. 25. 8.—There I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by my glory. Ex. 29. 43.—And the Kohathites set forward, bearing the sanctuary. Nu. 10. 21.

2 For there was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread; which is called the sanctuary.

Thou shalt make a candlestick of pure gold: ... his shaft and his branches ... shall be of the same. Ex. 25. 31.—The seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches. Re. 1. 20.—I am the vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. Jno. 15. 5.—Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Mat. 5. 16.

The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread. Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar? 1 Co. 10. 16-18.—Truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. If we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 Jno. 1. 3, 7.

3 And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the holiest of all;

Thou shalt make a veil of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen of cunning work: with cherubims shall it be made. And thou shalt hang up the veil under the taches, that thou mayest bring in thither within the veil the ark of the testimony: and the veil shall divide unto you between the holy place and the most holy. And thou shalt put the mercy seat upon the ark of the testimony in the most holy place. And thou shalt make a hanging for the door of the tent, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework. Ex. 26. 31, 33, 34, 36.

4 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant;

5 And over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

He shall take a censer full of burning coals of fire from off the altar before the Lord, and his hands full of sweet incense beaten small, and bring it within the veil: and he shall put the incense upon the fire before the Lord, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy seat that is upon the testimony, that he die not. Le. 16. 12, 13.

Moses said unto Aaron, Take a pot, and put an omer full of manna therein, and lay it up before the Lord, to be kept for your generations. As the Lord commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Testimony, to be kept. Ex. 16. 33, 34.

Moses spake unto the children of Israel, and every one of their princes gave him a rod apiece, for each prince one, according to their fathers' houses, even twelve rods: and the rod of Aaron was among their rods. And Moses laid up the rods before the Lord in the tabernacle of witness. And it came to pass, that on the morrow Moses went into the tabernacle of witness; and, behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi was budded, and brought forth buds, and bloomed blossoms, and yielded almonds. And the Lord said unto Moses, Bring Aaron's rod again before the testimony, to be kept for a token against the rebels; and thou shalt quite take away their murmurings from me, that they die not. Nu. 17. 6, 8, 10.

I ... came down from the mount, and put the tables in the ark which I had made; and there they be, as the Lord commanded me. De. 10. 5.—There was nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone, which Moses put there at Horeb, when the Lord made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt. 1 Ki. 8. 9.—He made the mercy seat of pure gold. And he made two cherubims of gold, beaten out of one piece made he them, on the two ends of the mercy seat. And the cherubims spread out their wings on high, and covered with their wings over the mercy seat, with their faces one to another; even to the mercy seatward were the faces of the cherubims. Ex. 37. 6, 7, 9.—And he took and put the testimony into the ark, and set the staves on the ark, and put the mercy seat above upon the ark. Ex. 40. 20.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

The Lord said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the holy place within the vail before the mercy seat, which is upon the ark; that he die not: for I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat. And Aaron shall bring the bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and shall make an atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the sin offering which is for himself. Then shall he kill the goat of the sin offering, that is for the people, and bring his blood within the vail, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat. And this shall be an everlasting statute unto you, to make an atonement for the children of Israel for all their sins once a year. And he did as the Lord commanded Moses. Le. 16. 2, 11, 15, 34.—If any soul sin through ignorance, then he shall bring a she goat of the first year for a sin offering. And the priest shall make an atonement for the soul that sinneth ignorantly, when he sinneth by ignorance before the Lord, to make a ² atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him. But the ³ ul that doeth ought presumptuously, ... the same reproacheth the Lord; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people. His iniquity shall be upon him. Nu. 15. 27, 28, 30, 31.

8 The Holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

The prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2 Pe. 1. 21.

I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. Jno. 14. 6.—A new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh. He. 10. 19, 20.—The veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom. Mat. 27. 51.

I dwell in the high and holy place. Is. 57. 15.—And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth. Re. 21. 27.

For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect. For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins. But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year. For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins. And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. He. 10. 1-4, 11.—There is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof. For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God. He. 7. 18, 19.

Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law. Gal. 3. 21.

Thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise. Psa. 51. 16, 17.

10 Which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

These are the beasts which ye shall eat among all the beasts that are on the earth. Whatsoever parteth the hoof, and is clovenfooted, and cheweth the cud, among the beasts, that shall ye eat. Nevertheless these shall ye not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the hoof: as the camel, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you. Le. 11. 2-4, etc.

The Lord spake unto Aaron, saying, Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die. Le. 10. 8, 9.—When either man, or woman shall separate themselves to vow a vow of a Nazirite, to separate themselves unto the Lord: he shall separate himself from wine and strong drink, and shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes. Nu. 6. 2, 3.—All drink that may be drunk in every such vessel shall be unclean. Le. 11. 34.

Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with water. And he poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him, to sanctify him. Le. 8. 6, 12.—Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet: when they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near unto the altar, they washed; as the Lord commanded Moses. Ex. 40. 31, 32.

This is the law of the sin offering. When there is sprinkled of the blood thereof upon any garment, thou shalt wash that whereon it was sprinkled in the holy place. And if it be sodden in a brasen pot, it shall be both scoured, and rinsed in water. Le. 6. 25, 27, 28.—If his offering be of the flocks, ... the priest ... shall wash the inwards and the legs with water. Le. 1. 10, 12, 13. Thus shall Aaron come into the holy place: with a young bullock for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering. He shall put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these are holy garments; therefore shall he wash his flesh in water, and so put them on. And Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall put off the linen garments, which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there: and he shall wash his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his burnt offering. Le. 16. 3, 4, 23, 24.—The priest shall take cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer. Nu. 19. 6, 12, 17, 19.—He that toucheth the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days. He shall purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean. Nu. 19. 13, 12.—This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing. He that is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water, that he may be clean. Le. 14. 2, 8; 17. 15, 16.

But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. Jno. 4. 23.—Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances. Eph. 2. 15.—Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, ... which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. Col. 2. 16, 17.

11 But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ. Eph. 1. 3.

We have such a high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens; a minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man. He. 8. 1, 2.—Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. He spake of the temple of his body. Jno. 2. 19, 21.—We know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 Co. 5. 1.

12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

Aaron shall bring the goat upon which the Lord's lot fell, and offer him for a sin offering. Thus shall Aaron come into the holy place: with a young bullock for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering. Le. 16. 9, 3.

It is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins. He. 10. 4.—The God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect. He. 13. 20.—And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain. Re. 5. 6.

In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace. Eph. 1. 7.—Ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pe. 1. 18, 19.—They sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation. Re. 5. 9.

13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth in the purifying of the flesh:

Nu. 19. 17-19.

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

If we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 Jno. 1. 7.

Christ ... hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit. 1 Pe. 3. 18.—For God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him. Jno. 3. 34.—The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor. Lu. 4. 18.

Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour. Eph. 5. 2.—Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Tit. 2. 14; 1 Pe. 1. 18, 19.

Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience. He. 10. 22. This my son was dead, and is alive again. Lu. 15. 24.—You hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins. Eph. 2. 1.—The wages of sin is death. Ro. 6. 23.

Yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead. Ro. 6. 13.

15 And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament. He. 7. 22.—Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and ... the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel, He. 12. 24.—He is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises. He. 8. 6.

Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. Ro. 3. 25.—These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city. And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise: God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect. He. 11. 13, 16, 39, 40.

Whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified. Ro. 8. 30.

Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. 1 Pe. 1. 2-4.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.

17 For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

I am the Lord that brought thee out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give thee this land to inherit it. And he said, Lord God, whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it? And he said unto him, Take me a heifer of three years old, and a she goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old. ... And he took unto him all these, and divided them in the midst. Ge. 15. 7-10. The covenant which they had made before me, when they cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof. Je. 34. 18.

18 Whereupon neither the first testament was deduced without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,

20 Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basons; and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar. And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, All that the Lord hath said will we do, and be obedient. And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the Lord hath made with you concerning all these words. Ex. 24. 6-8.

This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. Mat. 26. 28.

21 Moreover he sprinkled likewise with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

He shall take of the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it with his finger upon the mercy seat eastward; and before the mercy seat shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times. Le. 16. 14, etc.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.

The life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul. Le. 17. 11. These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the throne of God. Re. 7. 14, 15.

23 It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:

If any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 1 Jno. 2. 1.—Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. Ro. 8. 34.—He is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. He. 7. 25.

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

Aaron shall make an atonement ... once in a year with the blood of the sin offering of atonements. Ex. 30. 10.—Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the holy place. In the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, ye shall afflict your souls: ... for on that day shall the priest make an atonement for you, to cleanse you, that ye may be clean from all your sins before the Lord. And he ... shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about. Le. 16. 2, 29, 30, 18.

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

Christ ... hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God. 1 Pe. 3. 18.—We are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. He. 10. 10.—Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar zealous of good works. Tit. 2. 14.—For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous. Ro. 5. 19.—For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace. Ro. 6. 14.—The sting of death is sin. ... But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 15. 56, 57.

27 And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:

There is ... a time to be born, and a time to die. Ec. 3. 1, 2.—Dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return. Ge. 3. 19.—All go unto one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again. Ec. 3. 20.

God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. Ec. 12. 14.—He hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. Ac. 17. 31.—We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ: that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. 2 Co. 5. 10.—I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them; and they were judged every man according to their works. Re. 20. 12, 13.—Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him. Lu. 12. 5.

28 So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

In that he died, he died unto sin once. Ro. 6. 10.—This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. Mat. 26. 28.—Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. 1 Pe. 2. 24.—He was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin. 1 Jno. 3. 5.

If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself: that where I am, there ye may be also. Jno. 14. 3.—This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven. Ac. 1. 11.—Ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ: who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 1. 7, 8.—Our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself. Phi. 3. 20, 21.—The Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. 1 Th. 4. 16, 17.—Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ. Tit. 2. 13.—Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat. 2 Pe. 3. 12.

He was numbered with the transgressors. Is. 53. 12.—He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin. 2 Co. 5. 21.

It shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the Lord; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation. Is. 25. 9.

CHAPTER X.

FOR the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

Let no man judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. Col. 2. 16, 17.—The holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true. Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience. He. 9. 24, 9.

4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

Wherewith shall I come before the Lord, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves of a year old? Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? Mi. 6. 6, 7.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me:

Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou opened: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required. Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me, I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart. Ps. 40. 6-8.

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

Samuel said, Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams. 1 Sa. 15. 22.—I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before me. I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he goats out of thy folds. For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills. Ps. 50. 8-10.—Thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering. Ps. 51. 16. To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the Lord: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he goats. Is. 1. 11.—I desired mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings. Ho. 6. 6.—I hate, I despise your feastsdays, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies. Though ye offer me burnt offerings, and your meat offerings, I will not accept them; neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beasts. Am. 5. 21, 22.

This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him. Mat. 17. 5.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory? And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. Lu. 24. 26, 27.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

For their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth. Jno. 17. 19.—Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate. He. 13. 12.—Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Co. 1. 30.—Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Co. 6. 11.—Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called. Jude 1.—Whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Ro. 8. 29.

11 And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

This is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the Lord; two lambs of the first year without spot day by day, for a continual burnt offering. Nu. 28. 3.

12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.

The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool. Ps. 110. 1.—For he must reign till he hath put all enemies under his feet. 1 Co. 15. 25.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

While we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. Ro. 5. 8, 9.—There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. Ro. 8. 1.

15 Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

The prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2 Pe. 1. 21.

16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

This shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people. And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more. Je. 31. 33, 34.

17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins. Is. 44. 22.—In those days, and in that time, saith the Lord, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found. Je. 50. 20.—Thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back. Is. 38. 17.—As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us. Ps. 103. 12.—Thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. Mi. 7. 19.—Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered. Ps. 32. 1.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,

For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Eph. 2. 18.—In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him. Eph. 3. 12.

20 By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. Jno. 14. 6.—Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. He. 7. 25.

Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost. And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom. Mat. 27. 50, 51.

21 And having an high priest over the house of God;

A great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God. He. 4. 14.—Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end. He. 3. 6.—The house of God, which is the church of the living God. 1 Th. 3. 15.

22 Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

Let us ... come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need. He. 4. 16. Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts. Ps. 51. 6.—Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God. 1 Jno. 3. 21.—Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile! Jno. 1. 47.

The eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized? And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. Ac. 8. 36, 37.—Through faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood. He. 11. 28.

Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with water. And he brought ... the ram of consecration: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram. And he slew it; and Moses took of the blood of it, and put it upon the tip of Aaron's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot. Le. 8. 6, 22, 23.

If the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh; how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? He. 9. 13, 14.

And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified, in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Co. 6. 11.—A glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Eph. 5. 27.

Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost. Ti. 3. 5.—The answer of a good conscience toward God. 1 Pe. 3. 21.—Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. 2 Co. 7. 1.

23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;)

Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the veil. He. 6. 19. Let us hold fast our profession. He. 4. 14.

God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. 1 Co. 1. 9.—There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. 1 Co. 10. 13.—Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it. 1 Th. 5. 24.—The Lord is faithful, who shall establish you, and keep you from evil. 2 Th. 3. 3.—He abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. 2 Ti. 2. 13.

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:

Let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. 1 Jno. 3. 18, 19.—As we have ... opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith. Gal. 6. 10.—Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Mat. 25. 40.

25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

They continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. Ac. 2. 42.

Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end. He. 3. 12-14.

His disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple. And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world? Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled. Mat. 24. 1-3, 34.

The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness. 2 Pe. 3. 9, 11.

Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless. 2 Pe. 3. 14.—That day shall not come, except there come a falling away first. 2 Th. 2. 3.—The Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith. 1 Ti. 4. 1.

26 For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

It is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, and have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, if they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame. But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak. He. 6. 4-6, 9.—We are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth. 2 Th. 2. 13.

If after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them. 2 Pe. 2. 20, 21.

When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none. Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation. Mat. 12. 43-45.

All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men. Mat. 12. 31.—There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it. 1 Jno. 5. 16.

The soul that doeth ought presumptuously ... shall be cut off from among his people. Nu. 15. 30.—Cleanse thou me from secret faults. Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression. Psa. 19. 12, 13.

In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; and that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will. 2 Ti. 2. 25, 26; Lu. 15. 11, etc.

Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 3. 11.—Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. Ac. 4. 12.

All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. Jno. 6. 37, 39.—For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Ro. 8. 38, 39.—Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ. Phi. 1. 6.

27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

The Jews ... both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men: forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost. 1 Th. 2. 14-16.—After thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God. Ro. 2. 5.—In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Th. 1. 8.—Then shall he say ... unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels. Mat. 25. 41.—But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death. Re. 21. 8.

28 He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:

If there be found among you, within any of thy gates which the Lord thy God giveth thee, man or woman, that hath wrought wickedness in the sight of the Lord thy God, in transgressing his covenant, at the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he that is worthy of death be put to death. De. 17. 2, 6.—If any soul sin through ignorance, then he shall bring a she goat of the first year for a sin offering. And the priest shall make an atonement for the soul that sinneth ignorantly, when he sinneth by ignorance before the Lord, to make an atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him. Nu. 15. 27, 28.

29 Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation? He. 2. 3. See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven. He. 12. 25.

By his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. He. 9. 12; 10. 10.—The God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect. He. 13. 20, 21.

All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men. And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come. Mat. 12. 31, 32.—The Lord said, My Spirit shall not always strive with man. Ge. 6. 3.—Grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Eph. 4. 30.

30 For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people.

31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

To me belongeth vengeance, and recompence. De. 32. 35.—O Lord God, to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, shew thyself. Lift up thyself, thou Judge of the earth. Ps. 94. 1, 2.—It is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. Ro. 12. 19.—He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people. Ps. 60. 4.—Behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. Re. 22. 12.

Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him. Lu. 12. 5.—Our God is a consuming fire. He. 12. 29.

32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions;

33 Partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst ye became companions of them that were so used.

Those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost. He. 6. 4.—God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Co. 4. 6.—Shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light. 1 Pe. 2. 9.

Unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake. Phi. 1. 29.

34 For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.

My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations. Ja. 1. 2.—Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. Mat. 5. 12.—And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name. Ac. 5. 41.—Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal. Mat. 6. 20.

I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. Ro. 8. 18.—For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord: (for we walk by faith, not by sight.) 2 Co. 5. 1, 6, 7.

Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward. He. 11. 26.—An inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: that the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory. 1 Pe. 1. 4-8.

36 For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise.

In your patience possess ye your souls. Lu. 21. 19.—Let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. Gal. 6. 9.—Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longuffering with joyfulness. Col. 1. 11.—Be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises. He. 6. 12. Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing. Ja. 1. 3, 4.—Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls. 1 Pe. 1. 9.—The promise of eternal inheritance. He. 9. 15.

37 For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

The vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry. Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith. Hab. 2. 3, 4.—Jesus ... departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple. And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. And ... the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world? This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled. Mat. 24. 1-3, 34.

Be patient, ... brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain. Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh. Ja. 5. 7, 8.—The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 2 Pe. 3. 9.

Behold, I come quickly. He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus. Re. 22. 7, 20.

38 Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith. Ro. 1. 16, 17.—The life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Gal. 2. 20.—That no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. Gal. 3. 11.

God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. Jno. 3. 16.—He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. Jno. 5. 24.—Sirs, what must I do to be saved? Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house. Ac. 16. 30, 31.—By grace are ye saved through faith. Eph. 2. 8.

They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us. 1 Jo. 2. 19.

CHAPTER XI.

NOW faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. 2 Co. 4. 18.—For we walk by faith, not by sight. 2 Co. 5. 7.—Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls. 1 Pe. 1. 8, 9.

2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

8 Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. Ge. 1. 1.—By the word of the Lord were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth. For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast. Ps. 33. 6, 9.

4 By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh.

Abel ... brought of the firstlings of his flock and of the fat thereof. And the Lord had respect unto Abel and to his offering. Ge. 4. 4.—There came a fire out from before the Lord, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and the fat. Le. 9. 24.

Without shedding of blood is no remission. He. 9. 22.—Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for their's is the kingdom of heaven. Mat. 5. 10.—Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous. 1 Jno. 3. 12.

5 By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him. Ge. 5. 24.—They that are in the flesh cannot please God. Ro. 8. 8.—Elijah. 2 Ki. 2. 11–18.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

We ... preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God. Ac. 14. 15.—Ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God. 1 Th. 1. 9.—We trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. 1 Th. 4. 10.—He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. Jno. 3. 18.—Ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart. Je. 29. 13.

7 By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them: and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth. Make thee an ark. Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he. Ge. 6. 13, 14, 22.

Fear God, and keep his commandments. Ec. 12. 13.

I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, and be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith. Phi. 3. 8, 9.—Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe. Ro. 3. 22. He. 11. 1.

8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

The Lord had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee. So Abram departed, as the Lord had spoken unto him. Ge. 12. 1, 4.—Then came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran; and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell. Ac. 7. 4.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

The Lord appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land. And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Beth-el, and pitched his tent, having Beth-el on the west, and Hai on the east: and there he builded an altar unto the Lord. Ge. 12. 7, 8.—Then Abram removed his tent, and came and dwelt in the plain of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the Lord. Ge. 13. 18.

And Abraham ... spake unto the sons of Heth, saying, I am a stranger and a sojourner with you: give me a possession of a buryingplace with you. Ge. 23. 3, 4.—Isaac departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there. And he builded an altar there, and called upon the name of the Lord, and pitched his tent there. Ge. 26. 17, 25.—Jacob came to Shalem, a city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan-aram; and pitched his tent before the city. Ge. 33. 18.—Israel journeyed, and spread his tent beyond the tower of Edar. Ge. 35. 21.

10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

Here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come. He. 13. 14.—Ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem. He. 12. 22.—I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. Re. 21. 2, 14.—We know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 Co. 5. 1.—In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. Jno. 14. 2.

11 Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

God said, Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name Isaac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him. Ge. 17. 19.—Now Abraham and Sarah were old and well stricken in age. Ge. 18. 11.—Sarah ... bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him. Ge. 21. 2.—Being fully persuaded that what he had promised, he was able also to perform. Ro. 4. 21.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

In blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies. Ge. 22. 17.—The Lord your God hath multiplied you, and, behold, ye are this day as the stars of heaven for multitude. De. 1. 10.

13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die: but God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers. Ge. 48. 21.—I have waited for thy salvation, O Lord. Ge. 49. 18.—Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad. Jno. 8. 56.

I am a stranger and a sojourner with you. Ge. 23. 4.—Jacob said unto Pharaoh, The days of the years of my pilgrimage are a hundred and thirty years. Ge. 47. 9.—We are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none abiding. 1 Ch. 29. 15.—I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were. Ps. 39. 12.—I am a stranger in the earth: hide not thy commandments from me. Ps. 119. 19.

14 For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.

He. 11. 10.

15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.

Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran his son's son, and Sarai his daughter in law, his son Abram's wife: and they went forth with them from Ur of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Canaan; and they came unto Haran, and dwelt there. Ge. 11. 31.

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

An inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. 1 Pe. 1. 4.

God said ... unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations. Ex. 3. 15.

17 By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac, and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son,

I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God. Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name Isaac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him. Ge. 17. 8, 19; 22. 1, etc.

God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son. Jno. 3. 16; 1 Jno. 4. 9.

18 Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called:

In Isaac shall thy seed be called. Ge. 21. 12.

19 Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off. And Abraham said unto his young men, Abide ye here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again to you. Ge. 22. 4, 5.—The third day he shall rise again. Mat. 20. 19.

20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

Ge. 27. 27-40; 28. 1-4.

21 By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

Israel bowed himself upon the bed's head. Ge. 47. 31; 48. 5-20.

22 By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

Joseph said unto his brethren, I die: and God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land unto the land which he sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, ... and ye shall carry up my bones from hence. Ge. 50. 24, 25.

And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him. Ex. 13. 19.

23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.

When she saw him that he was a goodly child, she hid him three months. Ex. 2. 2.

Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every son that is born ye shall cast into the river. Ex. 1. 22.

24 By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

The child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. Ex. 2. 10.—And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds. And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel. And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian: for he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not. Ac. 7. 22-25.

25 Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness. Ps. 84. 10.—All that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. 2 Ti. 3. 12.—I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. Ro. 8. 18.—The triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment. Job. 20. 5.

26 Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward.

In thee shall all families of the earth be blessed. Ge. 12. 3.—The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come. Ge. 49. 10.—There shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts, and saying, Where is the promise of his coming? 2 Pe. 3. 3, 4.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven. Mat. 5. 11, 12.—Rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you. 1 Pe. 4. 13, 14.—Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach. He. 13. 13.—If so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. Ro. 8. 17, 18.—If we suffer, we shall also reign with him. 2 Ti. 2. 12.

27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian : and he sat down by a well. Ex. 2. 15.

Our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory ; while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen : for the things which are seen are temporal ; but the things which are not seen are eternal. 2 Co. 4. 17, 18.—Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith ; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. He. 12. 1, 2.—The blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords ; who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto ; whom no man hath seen, nor can see. 1 Ti. 6. 15, 16.

28 Through faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.

Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said unto them, Draw out and take you a lamb according to your families, and kill the passover. And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood. For the Lord will pass through to smite the Egyptians ; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the Lord will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you. Ex. 12. 21, 23.

Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood. Ro. 3. 25.

29 By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land : which the Egyptians assaying to do were drowned.

The Lord said unto Moses, ... Speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward. And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground : and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left. And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen. And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them ; there remained not so much as one of them. Ex. 14. 15, 22, 23, 28.

He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up : so he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness. And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy. And the waters covered their enemies : there was not one of them left. Then believed they his words ; they sang his praise. Psa. 106. 9—12.

30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

Jos. 6. 12—20.

31 By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace.

The ... spies went in, and brought out Rahab, and ... all her kindred, and left them without the camp of Israel. Jos. 6. 23.

Joshua ... sent ... two men to spy secretly, saying, Go view the land, even Jericho. And they went, and came into a harlot's house, named Rahab, and lodged there. Jos. 2. 1.

The book of the generation of Jesus Christ. Salmon begat Booz of Rahab. Mat. 1. 1, 5.

32 And what shall I more say ? for the time would fail me to tell of Gedeon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthae ; of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets :

Judges, chaps. 6, 7 ; 4. 6, etc. ; 15, 16 ; 11. 32, etc.

Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield : but I come to thee in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied. 1 Sa. 17. 45.

1 Sa. 7. 9.

33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,

Jos. chaps. 6—12 ; 1 Sa. 7 ; 2 Sa. chaps. 5, 8.

David ... did as God commanded him : and they smote the host of the Philistines. 1 Ch. 14. 16, 17.—Judges and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy gates, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, throughout thy tribes : and they shall judge the people with just judgment. De. 16. 18.

Be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises. For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he swore by himself, saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee. And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise. He. 6. 12—15.

Then went Samson down ... to Timnath, ... and, behold, a young lion roared against him. And the Spirit of the Lord came mightily upon him, and he rent him as he would have rent a kid. Ju. 14. 5, 6.—David said unto Saul, Thy servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock : and I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth : and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him. 1 Sa. 17. 34, 35.—My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me : forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me. Da. 6. 22.

34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt. Da. 3. 25.

Elisha, the prophet that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel the words that thou speakest. ... And he said, Go and spy where he is, that I may send and fetch him. And it was told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan. Therefore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and a great host : and they came by night, and compassed the city about. And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed unto the Lord, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha. 2 Ki. 6. 12—14, 18.—The hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death. Je. 26. 24.

Tell Hezekiah, ... Thus saith the Lord, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears : behold, I will heal thee : on the third day thou shalt go up unto the house of the Lord. 2 Ki. 20. 5.

Samson called unto the Lord, and said, O Lord God, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes. And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood. ... And he bowed himself with all his might ; and the house fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that were therein. So the dead which he slew at his death were more than they which he slew in his life. Ju. 16. 28—30.

He found a new jawbone of an ass, and put forth his hand, and took it, and slew a thousand men therewith. Ju. 15. 15.—David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled. 1 Sa. 17. 51.

35 Women received their dead raised to life again : and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance ; that they might obtain a better resurrection :

And the word of the Lord came unto [Elisha], saying, Arise, get thee to Zarephath : ... behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee. And it came to pass, ... that the son of the woman ... fell sick; and his sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in him. And the Lord heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived. 1 Ki. 17. 8, 9, 17, 22.—When Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed. He went in therefore, and shut the door upon them twain, and prayed unto the Lord. Then he returned, and walked in the house to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him: ... and the child opened his eyes. And he called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. ... And when she was come in unto him, he said, Take up thy son. 2 Ki. 4. 32, 33, 35, 36.

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment:

Joseph's master took him, and put him into the prison. Ge. 39. 20.—And [Ahab] the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah ... unto Amon the governor; ... and say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace. 1 Ki. 22. 26, 27. Pashur smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks. Je. 20. 2.—The princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, and put him in prison. Je. 37. 15.

37 They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goat-skins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

The Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the Lord? And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king. 2 Ch. 24. 20, 21. Elijah. 2 Ki. 1.

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

For it was so, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of the Lord, that Obadiah took a hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water. 1 Ki. 18. 4.—And he came thither unto a cave, and lodged there; and, behold, the word of the Lord came to him, and he said unto him, What doest thou here, Elijah? 1 Ki. 19. 9.

39 And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people, and hath raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began: that we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant; the oath which he sware to our father Abraham. Lu. 1. 68-73.—In thee shall all families of the earth be blessed. Ge. 12. 3.

40 God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

Blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them. Mat. 13. 16, 17.

Now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe. Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past. Ro. 3. 21, 22, 25.—Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you: searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven. 1 Pe. 1. 10, 12.—That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ. Eph. 1. 10.

CHAPTER XII.

WHEREFORE seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

I will sing of the mercies of the Lord for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations. O Lord God of hosts, who is a strong Lord like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee? Ps. 89. 1, 8.—O Lord, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth. Is. 25. 1.—Great is thy faithfulness. La. 3. 23.—Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them. Ps. 22. 4.—Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee. Trust ye in the Lord for ever: for in the Lord JEHOVAH is everlasting strength. Is. 26. 3, 4.

Let us therefore cast off the works of darkness. Ro. 13. 12.—Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. 1 Jno. 2. 15.—Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers. 2 Co. 6. 14.—Casting all your care upon him. 1 Pe. 5. 7.—What things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, and be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; if by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead. Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus. Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Phi. 3. 7-14.

The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe. Pr. 29. 25.—Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. He. 3. 12.—Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain. And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. 1 Co. 9. 24, 25.—To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life. Ro. 2. 7.—I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness. 2 Ti. 4. 7, 8.

2 Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high. He. 1. 3.

3 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also. Jno. 15. 20.—If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household? Mat. 10. 25.

Let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. Gal. 6. 9.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions; partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst ye became companions of them that were so used. For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance. He. 10. 32-34.—They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. Re. 12. 11.—Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. 1 Jno. 3. 16.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

My son, despise not the chastening of the Lord; neither be weary of his correction. Pr. 3. 11.—Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty. Job 5. 17.—If ye will not be reformed by me by these things, but will walk contrary unto me; then will I also walk contrary unto you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins. Le. 26. 23, 24.

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

Whom the Lord loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth. Pr. 3. 12.—As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. Re. 3. 19. Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O Lord, and teachest him out of thy law. Ps. 94. 12.—I know, O Lord, that thy judgments are right, and that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me. Ps. 119. 75.—Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. Ja. 1. 12.

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

Thou shalt also consider in thine heart, that, as a man chasteneth his son, so the Lord thy God chasteneth thee. De. 8. 5. I will be his father, and he shall be my son. If he commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men. 2 Sa. 7. 14.—He that spareth his rod hateth his sons: but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes. Pr. 13. 24.

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world. Jno. 16. 33.

9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

The God of the spirits of all flesh. Nu. 16. 22.—In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind. Job 12. 10.—The spirit shall return unto God who gave it. Ec. 12. 7.—A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the Lord of hosts. Mal. 1. 6.—Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you. 1 Pe. 5. 6, 7.

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

As he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy. 1 Pe. 1. 15, 16; Le. 19. 2.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

Before I was afflicted I went astray: but now have I kept thy word. Ps. 119. 67.—Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: by whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; and patience, experience; and experience, hope: and hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. Ro. 5. 1-5.

Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them. Ps. 119. 165.—The work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance for ever. Is. 32. 17.

12 Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees. Is. 35. 3.—I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory. Eph. 3. 13.

13 And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.

Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established. Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil. Pr. 4. 26, 27.

It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak. Ro. 14. 21.

Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Gal. 6. 1.

14 Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:

Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it. Ps. 34. 14.—If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men. Ro. 12. 18.—Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace. Ro. 14. 19.—Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart. 2 Ti. 2. 22.—Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God. Mat. 5. 8, 9.—Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be; but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure. 1 Jno. 3. 2, 3.—There shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth. Re. 21. 27.

15 Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

We beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain. 2 Co. 6. 1.—Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. He. 3. 12.—Lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from the Lord our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you a root that beareth gall and wormwood. De. 29. 18.—The rathor, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall. 2 Pe. 1. 10.

Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? 1 Co. 5. 6; Ga. 5. 9.—Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners. 1 Co. 15. 33.

16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

Fornication, and all uncleanness, ... let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints. Eph. 5. 3.—Jacob sold pottage: and Esau came from the field, and he was faint: and Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray thee, with that same red pottage; for I am faint. ... And Jacob said, Sell me this day thy birthright. And he sold his birthright unto Jacob. Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentiles; and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way: thus Esau despised his birthright. Ge. 25. 29-31, 33, 34.

17 For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said unto his father, Bless me, even me also, O my father. And Isaac answered and said unto Esau, Behold, I have made him thy lord. ... And Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, even me also, O my father. And Esau lifted up his voice, and wept. And Isaac his father answered and said unto him, Behold, thy dwelling shall be the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above; and by thy sword shalt thou live, and shalt serve thy brother. ... And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him. Ge. 27. 34, 37-41.—Him hath God exalted ... to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. Ac. 5. 31.—Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. Jno. 6. 37.

18 For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

Whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death. Ex. 19. 12.—The mountain burned with fire unto the midst of heaven, with darkness, clouds, and thick darkness. De. 4. 11.—There were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that was in the camp trembled. And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the Lord descended upon it in fire: and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount quaked greatly. And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and God answered him by a voice. Ex. 19. 16, 18, 19.—And they said unto Moses, Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die. Ex. 20. 19.

These are the two covenants: the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar. For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children. Ga. 4. 24, 25.

Ye are not under the law, but under grace. Ro. 6. 14.—Ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. Ro. 8. 15.—God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. 2 Ti. 1. 7.

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

There shall not a hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live. Ex. 19. 13.—What things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe. Ro. 3. 19-22.

22 But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,

Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion. Ps. 2. 6.—Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King. Ps. 48. 2.—[He] chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion which he loved. And he built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath established for ever. Ps. 78. 68, 69.

They that trust in the Lord shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever. Ps. 125. 1.—In mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the Lord hath said. Joel 2. 32.—The Lord shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever. Mt. 4. 7.

And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him a hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads. Re. 14. 1.

Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all. Ga. 4. 26.—I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. Re. 21. 2.

The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels: the Lord is among them, as in Sinai, in the holy place. Ps. 68. 17.—Thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him. Da. 7. 10.—Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation? He. 1. 14.—And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. Re. 5. 11, 12.

23 To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,

All the firstborn are mine; for on the day that I smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I hallowed unto me all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast; mine shall they be. Nu. 3. 13.—The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ. For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Ro. 8. 16, 17, 29.—Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures. Ja. 1. 18.—These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb. Re. 14. 4.

Rejoice, because your names are written in heaven. Lu. 10. 20. All that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. Re. 13. 8.

The Lord, the righteous judge. 2 Ti. 4. 8.—God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel. Ro. 2. 16; 3. 6.—Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead. 1 Pe. 4. 5.—For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. Ec. 12. 14.—God is the judge: he putteth down one, and setteth up another. Ps. 75. 7.

These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes. Re. 7. 14-17.

24 And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

For this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance. He. 9. 15; 10. 22.—And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; for this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. Mat. 26. 27, 28.

Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the Lord hath made with you concerning all these words. Ex. 24. 8.—The blood of Jesus Christ ... cleanseth us from all sin. 1 Jno. 1. 7.—Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus. He. 10. 19.—Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 2.—Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. He. 10. 22.

The voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground. Ge. 4. 10.
Ac. 2. 36-38.

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:

When the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming. Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. Ac. 13. 45, 46.

With whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness? He. 3. 17.—He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses: of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace? He. 10. 28, 29.—If the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward; how shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him ...? He. 2. 2, 3.—He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me. Lu. 10. 16.

26 Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

Mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the Lord descended upon it in fire: ... and the whole mount quaked greatly. Ex. 19. 18.

Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land. Hag. 2. 6.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away. He. 8. 13.

Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed. Ps. 102. 25, 26.—The day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. 2 Pe. 3. 10.—The heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. Re. 6. 14.—And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. Re. 20. 11.—And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. Re. 21. 1.

The God of heaven [shall] set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed. Da. 2. 44.—I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed. Da. 7. 13, 14.

28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:

And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him. Da. 7. 27. Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations. And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me. Lu. 22. 28, 29.—Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, and hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion. Re. 1. 5, 6.—For thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; and hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth. Re. 5. 9, 10.—To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne. Re. 3. 21.

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. Ro. 12. 1, 2.—And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear. 1 Pe. 1. 17.

29 For our God is a consuming fire.

The Lord thy God is a consuming fire, even a jealous God. De. 4. 24.—A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his enemies round about. Ps. 97. 3.—The sight of the glory of the Lord was like devouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the children of Israel. Ex. 24. 17.—God is jealous, and the Lord revengeth; the Lord revengeth, and is furious; the Lord will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies. The Lord is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the Lord hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet. The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein. Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him. Na. 1. 2, 3, 5, 6.

Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him. Ps. 50. 3.—Behold, the Lord will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire. Is. 66. 15.—In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Th. 1. 8.—A certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries. He. 10. 27.

CHAPTER XIII.

LET brotherly love continue.

Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another. Ro. 12. 10.—As touching brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another. 1 Th. 4. 9.—Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently. 1 Pe. 1. 22.

Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. 1 Pe. 2. 17.—Be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous. 1 Pe. 3. 8.—Above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins. 1 Pe. 4. 8.—[Add] to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. 2 Pe. 1. 7.

This is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death. Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. 1 Jno. 3. 11, 14, 18.—Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. 1 Jno. 4. 7.

If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen? And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also. 1 Jno. 4. 20, 21.

2 Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.

Use hospitality one to another without grudging. 1 Pe. 4. 9.—Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality. Ro. 12. 13.—[Abraham] looked, and, lo, three men stood by him: and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground, and said, My Lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant. And he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat. And the men turned their faces from thence, and went toward Sodom: but Abraham stood yet before the Lord. Ge. 18. 2, 3, 8, 22.—And there came two angels to Sodom at even; and Lot sat in the gate of Sodom: and Lot seeing them rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground; and he said, Behold now, my lords, turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. Ge. 19. 1, 2.—I was an hungry, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in. Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Mat. 25. 35, 40.

3 Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

Remember my bonds. Col. 4. 18.—Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me. Mat. 25. 36.—Weep with them that weep. Ro. 12. 15. He. 13. 1, 2.

4 Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

God created man in his own image; ... male and female created he them. Ge. 1. 27.—And the Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a help meet for him. Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh. Ge. 2. 18, 24.

Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female, and said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. Mat. 19. 4, 6.—Yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant. And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Mal. 2. 14, 15.

To avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband. 1 Co. 7. 2.

The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord. 1 Co. 7. 39, etc.

There was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: and both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage. Jno. 2. 1, 2.—The husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church. Eph. 5. 23.

Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas? 1 Co. 9. 5.—The Lord said unto Moses, Speak unto the priests, ... and say unto them, ... They shall not take a wife that is ... profane; neither shall they take a woman put away from her husband: for he is holy unto his God. And he that is the high priest among his brethren, ... he shall take a wife in her virginity. Le. 21. 1, 7, 10, 13.

A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife. Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife. 1 Ti. 3. 2, 12.—The Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron; forbidding to marry. 1 Ti. 4. 1, 3.

The works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, ... envying, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. Gal. 5. 19, 21; 1 Co. 6. 9, 10.—This ye know, that no whoremonger, nor uncleanness, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. Eph. 5. 5.

Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: for which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience. Col. 3. 5, 6.—Without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters. Re. 22. 15.

5 Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment? Mat. 6. 25, 34.—Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. Lu. 12. 15; Eph. 5. 3.

I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. Phi. 4. 11, 12.—Godliness with contentment is great gain. Having food and raiment let us be therewith content. 1 Ti. 6. 6, 8.

Behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of. Ge. 28. 15.—Be strong and of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them: for the Lord thy God, he is that doth go with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee. The Lord, he is that doth go before thee; he will be with thee, he will not fail thee, neither forsake thee: fear not, neither be dismayed. De. 31. 6, 8.—There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life: as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee: I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee. Jos. 1. 5.

David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed: for the Lord God, even my God, will be with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee. 1 Ch. 28. 20.—I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread. Ps. 37. 25.

6 So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? Ps. 27. 1.—In God have I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can do unto me. Ps. 56. 11.—The Lord is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me? Ps. 118. 6.

7 Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation.

They stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. Ac. 7. 59.—[Herod] killed James the brother of John with the sword. Ac. 12. 2.

Be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises. He. 6. 12.

8 Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

Thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end. Ps. 102. 27; He. 1. 12.—I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty. Fear not; I am the first and the last. Re. 1. 8, 17.—This man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. He. 7. 24, 25.

9 Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

Henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive. Eph. 4. 14.—Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. Col. 2. 8.—Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. 1 Jno. 4. 1.

The Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; ... commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth. 1 Th. 4. 1, 3.—For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. Ro. 14. 17.

He. 9. 8, 12.

10 We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.

Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. Jno. 6. 54, 55.—The Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. 1 Co. 11. 23–26.

He shall take ... his handful, of the flour of the meat offering, and of the oil thereof, and all the frankincense which is upon the meat offering, and shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour, even the memorial of it, unto the Lord. And the remainder thereof shall Aaron and his sons eat. This is the law of the sin offering: In the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the sin offering be killed before the Lord: it is most holy. The priest that offereth it for sin shall eat it. Le. 6. 15, 16, 25, 26.

11 For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp.

No sin offering, whereof any of the blood is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation to reconcile within in the holy place, shall be eaten: it shall be burnt in the fire. Le. 6. 30.—The bullock for the sin offering, and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall one carry forth without the camp; and they shall burn in the fire their skins, etc. Le. 16. 27; 4. 5, 12, 21.

12 Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate.

Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Tit. 2. 14.

He ... went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha: where they crucified him. Jno. 19. 17, 18.—Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree. Gal. 3. 13.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach.

Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp. ... And it came to pass, that every one which sought the Lord went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the camp. Ex. 33. 7, 8.—Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. He. 12. 2.

If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified. 1 Pe. 4. 14.—They departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name. Ac. 5. 41.—Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward. He. 11. 26.

14 For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

The city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem. He. 12. 22.—Our conversation [citizenship, Gr.] is in heaven. Phi. 3. 20. He looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God. Now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city. He. 11. 10, 16.—Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest. Mt. 2. 10.

15 By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name.

Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 2. 5.—Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Eph. 5. 20.—Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me. Ps. 50. 23.—I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving. Ps. 116. 17.—I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving. This also shall please the Lord better than an ox or bullock that hath horns and hoofs. Ps. 69. 30, 31.—If he offer it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with oil, of fine flour, fried. Le. 7. 12.

16 But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith. Gal. 6. 10.—Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality. Ro. 12. 13.

Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; that they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate; laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life. 1 Ti. 6. 17-19.

Phi. 4. 18; He. 6. 10.

17 Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

Know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you; and ... esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. 1 Th. 5. 12, 13.—Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine. 1 Ti. 5. 17.

Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. Eze. 3. 17.

I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men. Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Ac. 20. 26, 28.

Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment. ... He that judgeth me is the Lord. Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God. 1 Co. 4. 1-5.

What is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? For ye are our glory and joy. 1 Th. 2. 19, 20.—We are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish. 2 Co. 2. 15.

18 Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.

Brethren, pray for us. 1 Th. 5. 25.—Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified. 2 Th. 3. 1.—I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me. Ro. 15. 30.—That utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel. Eph. 6. 10.—Withal praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ. Col. 4. 3.

Herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men. Ac. 24. 16.—I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day. Ac. 23. 1. Our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. 2 Co. 1. 12.

19 But I beseech you the rather to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

I trust that through your prayers I shall be given unto you. Phile. 22.

20 Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant,

Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. 2 Th. 3. 16.—Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do; and the God of peace shall be with you. Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Phi. 4. 9, 6, 7.—The very God of peace sanctify you wholly. 1 Th. 5. 23.—Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you. 2 Co. 13. 11.—God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints. 1 Co. 14. 33.—Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the Lord; and I will heal him. Is. 57. 19.

God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power. 1 Co. 6. 14.—Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God. 1 Pe. 1. 21.—The chief Shepherd shall appear. 1 Pe. 5. 4.—I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. Jno. 10. 11, 14.—I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. Eze. 34. 23.—He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young. Is. 40. 11.—The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Ps. 23. 1-3.—Ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls. 1 Pe. 2. 25.

21 Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

The God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. 1 Pe. 5. 10.—Our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work. 2 Th. 2. 16, 17.—Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. Phi. 1. 11.

It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phi. 2. 13.

Ye ... are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 2. 5.

22 And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation: for I have written a letter unto you in few words.

I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ. 2 Co. 10. 1.

23 Know ye that our brother Timothy is set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.

24 Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of Italy salute you.

25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

Written to the Hebrews from Italy by Timothy.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE

J A M E S.

CHAPTER I.

JAMES, a servant of God, and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas? Mat. 13. 55.—Jude, the ... brother of James. Jude 1.

There were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. Ac. 2. 5.—At that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem: and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles. Ac. 8. 1.

2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations;

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven; for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. Mat. 5. 11, 12.—Rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. 1 Pe. 4. 13.

If any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf. 1 Pe. 4. 16.—They departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name. Ac. 5. 41; He. 10. 34; 1 Pe. 1. 6.

No chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby. He. 12. 11.

Lead us not into temptation. Mat. 6. 13.—Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. Mat. 26. 41.—God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. 1 Co. 10. 13.

3 Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

We glory in tribulations also, knowing that tribulation worketh patience. Ro. 5. 3.—That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise, and honour, and glory, at the appearing of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 7.

4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

Ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. He. 10. 36.—Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Ja. 5. 7, etc. Add ... to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness. 2 Pe. 1. 5, 6.

5 If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Pr. 3. 5, 6; 2. 3-7; 1 Ki. 3. 11, 12.

Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. Mat. 7. 7.—Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you. Jno. 16. 23.—This is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us: and if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him. 1 Jno. 5. 14, 15.

6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

All things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive. Mat. 21. 22.—What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them. Mar. 11. 24.

8 A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Mat. 6. 24.

9 Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted:

Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him? Ja. 2. 5.—Ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich. 2 Co. 8. 9.—Blessed be ye poor: for your's is the kingdom of God. Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh. Luk. 6. 20, 21.—As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things. 2 Co. 6. 10.

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

Let not the rich man glory in his riches. Je. 9. 23.—Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy. 1 Ti. 6. 17; Lu. 16. 22, etc.

All flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away. 1 Pe. 1. 24.—And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. 1 Jno. 2. 17.

12 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

Happy is the man whom God correcteth; therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty. Job 5. 17.—My son, despise not the chastening of the Lord; neither be weary of his correction: for whom the Lord loveth he correcteth, even as a father the son in whom he delighteth. Pr. 3. 11, 12.—Every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life. Mat. 19. 29.—Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. Re. 2. 10; 1 Ti. 4. 5-8.—Faith ... worketh by love. Gal. 5. 6.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:

Thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no. De. 8. 2.—If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and giveth thee a sign or a wonder, and the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them; thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the Lord your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. De. 13. 1-3.—Be ye holy; for I am holy. 1 Pe. 1. 16.

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself; but in me is thine help. Ho. 13. 9.

For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies. Mat. 15. 19.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

With many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrowen in the wilderness. Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. 1 Co. 10. 5, 6.—The desire of the righteous is only good: but the expectation of the wicked is wrath. Pr. 11. 23.

What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 6. 21, 23.

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

The living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy. 1 Ti. 6. 17.—He giveth to all life, and breath, and all things. Ac. 17. 25.

God said, Let there be light: and there was light. Ge. 1. 3, 14, 15.—God is light and in him is no darkness at all. 1 Jno.

1. 5.—That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. Jno. 1. 9.

God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good? Nu. 23. 19; 1 Sa. 15. 29.

I am the Lord, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed. Mal. 3. 6.—The gifts and calling of God are without repentance. Ro. 11. 29.

18 Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Jno. 3. 3.—As many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. Jno. 1. 12, 13.—Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever. 1 Pe. 1. 23.

Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Tit. 3. 5, 6.—Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Tit. 2. 14.—You hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. Eph. 2. 1, 10; Le. 23. 10.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors. Pr. 8. 34.

If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body. Ja. 3. 2.—In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but he that refraineth his lips is wise. Pr. 10. 19.

He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city. Pr. 16. 32.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

Put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. Col. 3. 8; 1 Pe. 2. 1, 2.

That on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience. Lu. 8. 15.

The gospel of Christ ... is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth. Ro. 1. 16.—The holy scriptures ... are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. 2 Ti. 3. 15.—The word of truth, the gospel of your salvation. Eph. 1. 13.

22 But be ye ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Mat. 7. 21.—Blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it. Lu. 11. 28.—If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them. Jno. 13. 17.—Not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified. Ro. 2. 13.—Lo, thou art unto them as a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do them not. Eze. 33. 32.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

13. 14.

fast ... in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage. Gal. 5. 1.

13 For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard. Pr. 21. 13.—If ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. Mat. 6. 15.—Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. Mat. 7. 1, 2.

O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me: shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellowservant, even as I had pity on thee? And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him. So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses. Mat. 18. 32-35; 25. 41-45.

Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy. Mt. 7. 18.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Mar. 16. 16.—By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God; not of works, lest any man should boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. Eph. 2. 8-10.—Faith ... worketh by love. Gal. 5. 6.

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. 1 Jno. 3. 18, 19.

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away. Jno. 15. 2.—Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Mat. 7. 18-20.

By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. Jno. 13. 35.—If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth. 1 Jno. 1. 6.—He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked. If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that doeth righteousness is born of him. 1 Jno. 2. 6, 29.

Giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; and to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; and to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins. 2 Pe. 1. 5-9.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

There met him two possessed with devils, ... and, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? Mat. 8. 28, 29.—There was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God. Mar. 1. 23, 24.—The evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know. Ac. 19. 15.

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, ... the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised. For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect: because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression. Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all. Ro. 4. 1, 12-16.—By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac. He. 11. 17; Ge. 22.

Whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him. 1 Jno. 2. 5.

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God.

He believed in the Lord; and he counted it to him for righteousness. Ge. 15. 6.

Abraham my friend. Is. 41. 8.—Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. Jno. 15. 14.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

If Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glorify but not before God. He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; and being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness. Ro. 4. 2, 20-22.—Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness. Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. And the law is not of faith; but, The man that doeth them shall live in them. Ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. Gal. 3. 6, 7, 12, 26, 29.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Mat. 5. 16.—The kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men. Ro. 14. 17, 18.

Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: for I was a hungry, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in. Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Mat. 25. 34, 35, 40.

25 Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace. He. 11. 31; Jos. 2.

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAPTER III.

MY brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

Be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren. Mat. 23. 8.—Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being examples to the flock. 1 Pe. 5. 3.

For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more. Lu. 12. 48.—When we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world. 1 Co. 11. 32.

2 For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

There is no man that sinneth not. 1 Ki. 8. 46.—Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin? Pr. 20. 9. There is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not. Ec. 7. 20.—If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 1 Jno. 1. 8.

Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile. Ps. 34. 13.—If any man among you seem to be religious, and brideth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain. Ja. 1. 26.—By thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned. Mat. 12. 37.

3 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

Death and life are in the power of the tongue. Pr. 18. 21.—The Lord shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh proud things. Ps. 12. 3.

6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

An ungodly man diggeth up evil; and in his lips there is as a burning fire. Pr. 16. 27.

Those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart, and they defile the man. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies. Mat. 15. 18, 19.

Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost? Ac. 5. 3.

7 For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent: adders' poison is under their lips. Ps. 140. 3.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. Ge. 1. 26.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.

Foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes. And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient, in meekness instructing those that oppose themselves. 2 Ti. 2. 23–25.

14 But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish.

16 For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Ja. 1. 17.

Ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men? 1 Co. 3. 3.—The works of the flesh are manifest. Of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. Ga. 5. 19, 21.

17 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

We gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you. Ga. 2. 5.

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance. Ga. 5. 22, 23.

18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord. He. 12. 14.

CHAPTER IV.

FROM whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members?

Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God. Ro. 6. 12, 13.—I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. Ro. 7. 23.—For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. Gal. 5. 17.

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. Mat. 7. 7.

3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.

If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me. Ps. 66. 18; Pr. 1. 28, 30.

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Jno. 15. 19.—Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers. Come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. 2 Co. 6. 14, 17, 18.

Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 1 Jno. 2. 15.—If I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ. Gal. 1. 10.

5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy?

6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

Though the Lord be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: but the proud he knoweth afar off. Ps. 138. 6.—He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree. Lu. 1. 52.—Be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. 1 Pe. 5. 5.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world. 1 Pe. 5. 8, 9.—Neither give place to the devil. Eph. 4. 27.—Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. Eph. 6. 11.

8 Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.

Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. Is. 55. 6, 7.—Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the Lord. Ho. 6. 1, 3.

O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity. Take with you words, and turn to the Lord: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips. Ho. 14. 1, 2.

Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil. Is. 1. 16.—Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel? Eze. 18. 30, 31.—Every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure. 1 Jno. 3. 3.

No man can serve two masters. Mat. 6. 24.

9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. Lu. 23. 28.

10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

Humble yourselves ... under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time. 1 Pe. 5. 6.

11 Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12 There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice. Eph. 4. 31.

Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven. Lu. 6. 37.—Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way. Ro. 14. 4, 13.

Judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God. 1 Co. 4. 5.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour. Ex. 20. 16.

13 Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

Boast not thyself of tomorrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth. Pr. 27. 1; Lu. 12. 18, 20.

14 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle. ... my life is wind. Job 7. 6, 7.—As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth. For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more. Ps. 103. 15, 16.

rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not; and they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away. 1 Co. 7. 29-31.

The world passeth away, and the lust thereof; but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. 1 Jno. 2. 17.

15 For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

This will we do, if God permit. He. 6. 3.

16 But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.

17 Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

That servant, which knew his Lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. Lu. 12. 47; Ro. 2. 17, 18; Mat. 25. 24-30.

CHAPTER V.

GO to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

Woe unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation. Lu. 6. 24.—They that will be rich fall into temptation, and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. 1 Th. 6. 9.—He that trusteth in his riches shall fall. Pr. 11. 28.

Jesus ... departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple. And Jesus said unto them, ... There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. Then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. Mat. 24. 1, 2, 21.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.

Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal. Mat. 6. 20.

After thy hardness and impenitent heart, treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God. Ro. 2. 5.

4 Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth.

The wages of him that is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning. Le. 19. 13.—At his day thou shalt give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down upon it; for he is poor, and setteth his heart upon it: lest he cry against thee unto the Lord, and it be sin unto thee. De. 24. 15.—Woe unto him that ... useth his neighbour's service without wages, and giveth him not for his work. Je. 22. 13; Mal. 3. 5.

5 Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

They spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave. Job 21. 13.—There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day. Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivest thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. Lu. 16. 19, 25.

6 Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

The Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers. Ac. 7. 52.—I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. Ac. 9. 5.—The Jews ... both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; ... forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost. 1 Th. 2. 14-16.

Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels? But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be? Mat. 26. 53, 54.

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. And they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. Mat. 24. 2, 30.—Behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. Re. 22. 12.—Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. Phi. 4. 5.

Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the Lord your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month. Joel 2. 23.

9 Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door.

I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked. How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors. Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory. Ps. 73. 3, 19, 24.

When ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors. Mat. 24. 33.

10 Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection: and others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment: they were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented; (of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth. He. 11. 35-38.

11 Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O Lord, and teachest him out of thy law. Ps. 94. 12.—Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for their's is the kingdom of heaven. Mat. 5. 10.—Ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake; but he that endureth to the end shall be saved. Mat. 10. 22.—To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life. Ro. 2. 7.

Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord. Job 1. 21.—What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? Job 2. 10.

Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him. Job 13. 15.—He knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold. Job 23. 10.—The Lord turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the Lord gave Job twice as much as he had before. Job 42. 10.

The Lord is longsuffering, and of great mercy. Nu. 14. 18.—The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy. Ps. 103. 8.

12 But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain. Ex. 20. 7.—Ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths: but I say unto you, Swear not at all. But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil. Mat. 5. 33, 34, 37.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

Call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me. Ps. 50. 15.—In my distress I called upon the Lord, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears. Ps. 18. 6.

The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow. Then called I upon the name of the Lord; O Lord, I beseech thee, deliver my soul. Gracious is the Lord, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful. The Lord preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he helped me. Ps. 116. 3-6.—I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul. I cried unto thee, O Lord: I said, Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living. Attend unto my cry; for I am brought very low: deliver me from my persecutors; for they are stronger than I. I poured out my complaint before him; I shewed before him my trouble. Ps. 142. 4-6, 2.

At midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God. Ac. 16. 25; Mat. 26. 38, 39.—Speaking to yourselves in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord. Eph. 5. 19.

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

They cast out many devils, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them. Mar. 6. 13.—If ye have faith, and doubt not, ... if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done. And all things whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive. Mat. 21. 21, 22.—These signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover. Mar. 16. 17, 18.

To one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; ... to another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; to another the working of miracles. 1 Co. 12. 8-10.

Jesus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee. Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house. And he arose, and departed to his house. Mat. 9. 2, 6, 7.

16 Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

If thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone. Mat. 18. 15.

The Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. Ro. 8. 26.

By the obedience of one shall many be made righteous. Ro. 5. 19.

Abraham prayed unto God: and God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his maidservants. Ge. 20. 17.—When Moses prayed unto the Lord, the fire was quenched. Nu. 11. 2.

Pardon, I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people according unto the greatness of thy mercy. And the Lord said, I have pardoned according to thy word. Nu. 14. 19, 20.—I fell down before the Lord, as at the first, forty days and forty nights; I did neither eat bread, nor drink water, because of all your sins which ye sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of the Lord, to provoke him to anger. For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, wherewith the Lord was wroth against you to destroy you. But the Lord hearkened unto me at that time also. And the Lord was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron also the same time. De. 9. 18-20.

Samuel called unto the Lord; and the Lord sent thunder and rain that day. 1 Sa. 12. 18.—[Jeroboam] said unto the man of God, Entreat now the face of the Lord thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God besought the Lord, and the king's hand was restored him again. 1 Ki. 13. 6.

When Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed. He went in therefore, and shut the door upon them twain, and prayed unto the Lord. ... And the child opened his eyes. 2 Ki. 4. 32, 33, 35.

Isaiah ... sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, That which thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria I have heard. 2 Ki. 19. 20.—Turn again, and tell Hezekiah the captain of my people, ... I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will heal thee. 2 Ki. 20. 5.

Peter ... was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him. And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod. And ... he came to the house of Mary ... where many were gathered together praying. Ac. 12. 5, 11, 12.

17 Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.

1 Ki. 17. 1, etc.

18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

Elijah went up to the top of Carmel: and he cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees. And it came to pass, in the mean while, that the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. 1 Ki. 18. 42, 45.

19 Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him;

20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.

Beloved, ... beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness. 2 Pe. 3. 17.—Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Gal. 6. 1.

Sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Ja. 1. 15.

Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered. Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth not iniquity. Ps. 32. 1, 2.—I even I, am he that bloteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins. Is. 43. 25.—The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 Jno. 1. 7.

Hatred stirreth up stripes: but love covereth all sins. Pr. 10. 12.—Have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins. 1 Pe. 4. 8.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL

P E T E R.

CHAPTER I.

PETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

The names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Simon, who is called Peter. Mat. 10. 2.—Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs. Feed my sheep. Jno. 21. 15, 16.

2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

A chosen generation. 1 Pe. 2. 9.—He hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love. Eph. 1. 4; Ro. 8. 29, 30.—God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit, and belief of the truth. 2 Th. 2. 13.

If any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. Ro. 8. 9.

Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the Lord hath made with you concerning all these words. Ex. 24. 8; Le. 16. 14, 16.—Almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission. He. 9. 22.

If the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh; how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? He. 9. 13, 14.

The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 Jno. 1. 7.

Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. He. 10. 22.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

As many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. Jno. 1. 12, 13.—Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. Jno. 3. 3, 5.

God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) and hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus. Eph. 2. 4, 6.—Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth. Ja. 1. 18.—By the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost. Tit. 3. 5.

Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept. 1 Co. 15. 20.—God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace. 2 Th. 2. 16.—Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the veil; whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus. He. 6. 19, 20.

4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light. Col. 1. 12.

We, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness. 2 Pe. 3. 13; Re. 21. 1, 2.

Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Th. 4. 8.—The hope which is laid up for you in heaven. Col. 1. 5.

5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

Sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ. Jude 1.—I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. Jno. 10. 28, 29.—Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it. 1 Th. 5. 24. Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 1. 8.

The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore. Ps. 121. 7, 8.—The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower. Ps. 18. 2.

After that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession. Eph. 1. 13, 14.

By faith ye stand. 2 Co. 1. 24.

When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Col. 3. 4.—When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe ... in that day. 2 Th. 1. 10.—Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Mat. 25. 34.

6 Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations :

We have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also : knowing that tribulation worketh patience. Ro. 5. 2, 3.—Rejoicing in hope ; patient in tribulation. Ro. 12. 12.—The God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. 1 Pe. 5. 10.

7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ :

Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you : but rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings ; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. 1 Pe. 4. 12, 13.—I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried. Zec. 13. 9.

To them who, by patient continuance in well-doing, seek for glory, and honour, and immortality, eternal life. Ro. 2. 7.—To the angel of the church in Philadelphia write. Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth. Behold, I come quickly : hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown. Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out : and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God : and I will write upon him my new name. Re. 3. 7, 10, 12.

8 Whom having not seen, ye love ; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory :

If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maran-atha. 1 Co. 16. 22.—We love him, because he first loved us. 1 Jno. 4. 19.

Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed : blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed. Jno. 20. 29.—We walk by faith, not by sight. 2 Co. 5. 7.—Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. By faith [Moses] forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king : for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. He. 11. 1, 27.

I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord : for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, and be found in him. Phi. 3. 8, 9 ; Ro. 5. 2.

9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation ; but is passed from death unto life. Jno. 5. 24.—There is ... now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus. Ro. 8. 1.

10 Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you :

Many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them ; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them. Mat. 13. 17.

11 Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

The testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy. Re. 19. 10.

12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven ; which things the angels desire to look into.

These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise : God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect. He. 11. 13, 39, 40.

They went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Mar. 16. 20.—They were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. Ac. 2. 4.—Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts. 2 Co. 1. 22.

To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God. Eph. 3. 10.

13 Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ ;

Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning. Lu. 12. 35.—Your loins girt about with truth. Eph. 6. 14.

Take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. Lu. 21. 34.—The end of all things is at hand : be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer. 1 Pe. 4. 7.—Let us not sleep, as do others ; but let us watch and be sober. Let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love ; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation. 1 Th. 5. 6, 8.—Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ. Tit. 2. 13.

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith : henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day : and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Ti. 4. 7, 8.—Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many ; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. He. 9. 28 ; 1 Jno. 3. 2.

14 As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance :

Be not conformed to this world ; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God. Ro. 12. 2.—Every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure. 1 Jno. 3. 3.—That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. 1 Pe. 4. 2.

15 But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation ;

Let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. 2 Co. 7. 1.—For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. 1 Th. 4. 7.—Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord. He. 12. 14.—Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness. 2 Pe. 3. 11.

16 Because it is written, Be ye holy ; for I am holy.

I am the Lord your God : ye shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and ye shall be holy ; for I am holy. Le. 11. 44.

17 And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear :

Peter ... said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons. Ac. 10. 34.—There is no respect of persons with God. Ro. 2. 11; De. 10. 17, 20.

God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. Ec. 12. 14.—We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. 2 Co. 5. 10.

Here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come. He. 13. 14.

Serve the Lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling. Ps. 2. 11.—My flesh trembleth for fear of thee; and I am afraid of thy judgments. Ps. 119. 120.—Happy is the man that feareth alway. Pr. 28. 14.

18 Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage. Gal. 5. 1.

19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot;

Your lamb shall be without blemish. Ex. 12. 5.—He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, ... because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth. Is. 53. 7, 9.—Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. Jno. 1. 29.—He was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin. 1 Jno. 3. 5.

Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. 1 Jno. 4. 10. By his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. He. 9. 12.—Ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Co. 6. 20.

20 Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you,

The Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. Re. 13. 8. The mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God. The eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord. Eph. 3. 9, 11.—His own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began, but is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. 2 Ti. 1. 9, 10.

When the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. Gal. 4. 4, 5.

21 Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me. Jno. 12. 44.—I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. Jno. 14. 6.

We see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man. He. 2. 9.—God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name. Phi. 2. 9.—He raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places. Eph. 1. 20.

Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? Ro. 8. 34, 32.

22 Seeing ye have purified your souls in obey-ing the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently :

God ... bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, ... purifying their hearts by faith. Ac. 15. 8, 9.—Ye are washed, ... ye are sanctified, ... ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Co. 6. 11.—Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost. Ti. 3. 5.—It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phi. 2. 13.

Let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. 1 Jno. 3. 18.—Be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous. 1 Pe. 3. 8.—Above all things have fervent charity among yourselves. 1 Pe. 4. 8.

By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. Jno. 13. 35.—He hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love. Eph. 1. 4.

23 Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. Jno. 3. 5.—Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth. Ja. 1. 18.—Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. 1 Jno. 3. 9.

24 For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

25 But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field: the grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the Spirit of the Lord bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass. The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever. Is. 40. 6-8.—The world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. 1 Jno. 2. 17.

CHAPTER II.

WHEREFORE laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,

Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice. Eph. 4. 31. Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. Gal. 5. 21.—Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls. Ja. 1. 21.

2 As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby :

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works. 2 Ti. 3. 16, 17.

3 If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious.

O taste and see that the Lord is good. Ps. 34. 8.—His fruit was sweet to my taste. Ca. 2. 3.—He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself. 1 Jno. 5. 10.

4 To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

Have ye not read this scripture: The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner? Mar. 12. 10; Ps. 118. 22.—Simon Peter ... said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered, ... Upon this rock I will build my church. Mat. 16. 18.—Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 3. 11.—Ye will not come to me, that ye might have life. Jno. 5. 40.

He is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. He. 7. 25; De. 12. 5, 6.

5 Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

Ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto a holy temple in the Lord: in whom ye also are builded together for a habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. 2. 19-22.—Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? 1 Co. 3. 16.

Kings and priests unto God. Re. 1. 6; Mi. 6. 6-8.—I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. Ro. 12. 1.—By him ... let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name. He. 13. 15.

6 Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste. Is. 28. 16.

7 Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ. Phi. 3. 8.

Them that do not believe. Ro. 15. 31.

This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. Ac. 4. 11.

8 And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed.

He shall be ... for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. Is. 8. 14; Lu. 2. 34.

As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel? Eze. 33. 11.

If our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: in whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. 2 Co. 4. 3, 4.

9 But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:

If ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: ... and ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation. Ex. 19. 5, 6; Zec. 6. 13.—Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 2. According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love: having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will. Eph. 1. 4, 5.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Mat. 5. 16.—Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit. Jno. 15. 8.—Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Tit. 2. 14.—Purchased with his own blood. Ac. 20. 28.

10 Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

He saith also in Osee, I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved. And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God. Ro. 9. 25, 26.

Ye are not my people, and I will not be your God. Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God. Ho. 1. 9, 10.—I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God. Ho. 2. 23.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;

We are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh. For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. Ro. 8. 12, 13.—But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof. Ro. 13. 14.

Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. Gal. 5. 16, 17, 19-21.

12 Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

Walk honestly toward them that are without. 1 Th. 4. 12.—Herein do I exercise myself to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men. Ac. 24. 16.—Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness because of mine enemies. Ps. 5. 8. Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ. 1 Pe. 3. 16.

13 Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;

Render ... unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's. Mat. 22. 21.—Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation. Ro. 13. 1, 2.

14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well.

For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: for he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. Ro. 13. 3, 4.

15 For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you. Tit. 2. 8.

16 As free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.

There is ... now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus. Ro. 8. 1.—Sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace. Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness. Ro. 6. 14, 18.—Brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. Gal. 5. 13.—Take heed lest by any means this liberty of your's become a stumblingblock to them that are weak. 1 Co. 8. 9.

17 Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

Render ... to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour. Ro. 13. 7.—As we have ... opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith. Gal. 6. 10.

Be thou in the fear of the Lord all the day long. Pr. 23. 17.

18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed. 1 Tim. 6. 1.

19 For this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God.

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for their's is the kingdom of heaven. Mat. 5. 10.

21 For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

Let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. He. 12. 1, 2.

22 Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:

He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21. We have not a high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. He. 4. 15.

Such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself. He. 7. 26, 27.—Ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin. 1 Jno. 3. 5.

23 Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously:

The Jews ... said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil? Jesus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me. Jno. 8. 48, 49.—He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. Is. 53. 7.—When he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing. Mat. 27. 12, 39–44.—Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. Lu. 23. 34.—Consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds. He. 12. 3.

24 Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. Is. 53. 4, 6, 11.

Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. He. 9. 28.—Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Tit. 2. 14.—Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 6. 11.

25 For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

I have gone astray like a lost sheep; seek thy servant. Ps. 119. 176.—All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way. Is. 53. 6.

I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David: he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. Eze. 34. 23.—Our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep. He. 13. 20.—I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. Jno. 10. 11, 14, 16.

Then drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him. And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them. And he spake this parable unto them, saying, What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost. Lu. 15. 1–6.

CHAPTER III.

LIKewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives;

2 While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church; and he is the saviour of the body. Therefore, as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. Eph. 5. 22-24; Col. 3. 18; 1 Ti. 2. 11-14.

The head of the woman is the man. He is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man. For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man. Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man. 1 Co. 11. 3, 7-9.

What knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife? 1 Co. 7. 16.

3 Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

I will therefore... that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; but (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works. 1 Ti. 2. 8-10; 2e. 3. 16-18.

4 But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

The meek will be guide in judgment: and the meek will he teach his way. Ps. 25. 9.—He will beautify the meek with salvation. Ps. 149. 4.—Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth. Mat. 5. 5.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

6 Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

My lord being old also. Ge. 18. 12.

The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe. Pr. 29. 25.

7 Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.

Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. Eph. 5. 25, 28.—Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them. Col. 3. 19.

Not... as the Gentiles which know not God. 1 Th. 4. 5.

The gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 6. 23.

If two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven. Mat. 18. 19.

8 Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous:

The God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded one toward another according to Christ Jesus. Ro. 15. 5.—I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. 1 Co. 1. 10.—Fulfill ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. Phi. 2. 2.

Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently. 1 Pe. 1. 22.—Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another. Ro. 12. 10.—Be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. Eph. 4. 32.

My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death. 1 Jno. 3. 18, 19, 14.

9 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing.

See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men. 1 Th. 5. 15.—Say not thou, I will recompense evil; but wait on the Lord, and he shall save thee. Pr. 20. 22.—Resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also. Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you. Mat. 5. 39, 44.

Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it: being defamed, we intreat. 1 Co. 4. 12, 13.

Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Mat. 25. 34.

10 For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good? Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile. Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it. Ps. 34. 12-14.

Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof. Pr. 18. 21.—Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. Eph. 4. 29.—If any man among you seem to be religious, and brideth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain. Ja. 1. 26.

In their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God. Re. 14. 5.

11 Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it.

Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. Ro. 12. 9.—To do good and to communicate forget not; for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. He. 13. 16.

If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men. Ro. 12. 18.—Let us... follow after the things which make for peace. Ro. 14. 19.—Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord. He. 12. 14.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.

The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry. The face of the Lord is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth. Ps. 34. 15, 16.—The eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to shew himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him. 2 Ch. 16. 9.

If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me. Ps. 66. 18.

13 And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him. Pr. 16. 7.—And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. Ro. 8. 28.

14 But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

Rejoice, and be exceeding glad; for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. Mat. 5. 12.—Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. Ja. 1. 12.

Sanctify the Lord of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread. Is. 8. 13.

15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear:

Receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear: for our God is a consuming fire. He. 12. 28, 29. I will speak of thy testimonies also before kings, and will not be ashamed. Ps. 119. 46; Ac. 4. 8, etc.; 24. 14, etc.; 26. 22, etc.

16 Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

Our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world. 2 Co. 1. 12.

1 Pe. 2. 12.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.

18 For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit:

For even hereunto were ye called; because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps: who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously: who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls. 1 Pe. 2. 21–25.—He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.

Whom God hath raised up. Ac. 2. 24.

19 By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison;

By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith. He. 11. 7.—God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; and spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly. 2 Pe. 2. 4, 5.

Holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2 Pe. 1. 21.—The Spirit of Christ which was in them. 1 Pe. 1. 11.

Reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. Jude. 6.

20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.

In the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark. Mat. 24. 38.

The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness: but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 2 Pe. 3. 9.

God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. And the Lord said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth. Yet his days shall be a hundred and twenty years. Ge. 6. 5, 7, 3.

21 The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

The ark ... wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved. 1 Pe. 3. 20.—Go ye ... and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Mat. 28. 19.—There is ... now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus. Ro. 8. 1.

He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Mar. 16. 16.—With the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. Ro. 10. 10.—For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: but he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God. Ro. 2. 28, 29.

Declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead. Ro. 1. 4.—If Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. 1 Co. 15. 17.

22 Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. Ro. 8. 34.—If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Col. 3. 1.—Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come. Eph. 1. 21.—God ... hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth and things under the earth. Phi. 2. 9, 10.

CHAPTER IV.

FORASMUCH then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

Christ ... suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps: who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously : who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness : by whose stripes ye were healed. 1 Pe. 2. 21-24.

Wherefore ... let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us. For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds. He. 12. 1, 3.

How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein? Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. Ro. 6. 2-12.

I am crucified with Christ : nevertheless I live ; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me : and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Ga. 2. 20.—They that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. Ga. 5. 24.—Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not : whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him. 1 Jno. 3. 6.

2 That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.

He died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. 2 Co. 5. 15.

3 For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries :

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you :

In time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience. Eph. 2. 2.—We ourselves also were sometime foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. Tyt. 3. 3.

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead.

He hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained ; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. Ac. 17. 31.—We shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. Every one of us shall give account of himself to God. Ro. 14. 10, 12.

Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him. Jude 14, 15.—Behold, the judge standeth before the door. Ja. 5. 9.

6 For for this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But the end of all things is at hand : be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

Little children, it is the last time : and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists ; whereby we know that it is the last time. 1 Jno. 2. 18.—The night is far spent, the day is at hand : let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. Ro. 13. 12.

Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. Phi. 4. 5.—Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is ; but exhorting one another : and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching. He. 10. 25.

But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness ; but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness ? 2 Pe. 3. 8, 9, 11.

And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. Lu. 21. 34.—Pray without ceasing. 1 Th. 5. 17.

8 And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves : for charity shall cover the multitude of sins.

Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently. 1 Pe. 1. 22.—Above all ... put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. Col. 3. 14.

Love covereth all sins. Pr. 10. 12.

Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him ? till seven times ? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times : but, Until seventy times seven. Mat. 18. 21, 22.

If a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness ; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Ga. 6. 1.—Be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. Eph. 4. 32.

9 Use hospitality one to another without grudging.

Be not forgetful to entertain strangers ; for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. He. 13. 2.—Distributing to the necessity of saints ; given to hospitality. Ro. 12. 13.—Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give ; not grudgingly, or of necessity ; for God loveth a cheerful giver. 2 Co. 9. 7.

10 As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

Charge them that are rich in this world, ... that they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate. 1 Th. 5. 17, 18.—Well done, thou good and faithful servant : thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things : enter thou into the joy of thy lord. Mat. 25. 21.

11 If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God ; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth : that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. 1 Co. 4. 1, 2.—To the law and to the testimony : if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. Is. 8. 20.—Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. Eph. 4. 29.

Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith ; or ministry, let us wait on our ministering ; or he that teacheth, on teaching ; or he that exhorteth, on exhortation : he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity ; he that ruleth, with diligence ; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness. Ro. 12. 6, 8.

As touching the ministering to the saints, ... every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give ; not grudgingly, or of necessity : for God loveth a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound toward you : that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work. 2 Co. 9. 1, 7, 8.

Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. 1 Co. 10. 31.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you :

Ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations : that the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 6, 7.—Thou, O God, hast proved us : thou hast tried us, as silver is tried. Ps. 66. 10.—Remember the word that I said unto you, 'The servant is not greater than his lord.' If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you. Jno. 15. 20.

13 But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings ; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad : for great is your reward in heaven : for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. Mat. 5. 11, 12.—Count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations. Ja. 1. 2.—We glory in tribulations. Ro. 5. 3 ; Ac. 5. 41.

Joint-heirs with Christ ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. Ro. 8. 17.—As ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation. 2 Co. 1. 7.—Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church. Col. 1. 24.—If we suffer, we shall also reign with him : if we deny him, he also will deny us. 2 Ti. 2. 12.

Blessed is the man that endureth temptation : for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. Ja. 1. 12.—The God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. 1 Pe. 5. 10.

14 If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye ; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you : on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

We all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory even as by the Spirit of the Lord. 2 Co. 3. 18.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters.

For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently ? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God. 1 Pe. 2. 20.

Study to be quiet, and to do your own business. 1 Th. 4. 11.

16 Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed ; but let him glorify God on this behalf.

They departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name. Ac. 5. 41.

17 For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God : and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God ?

The time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service. Jno. 16. 2 ; 1 Th. 2. 14, 16.—When the Lord hath performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria. Is. 10. 12.—Slay utterly old and young, ... but come not near any man upon whom is the mark ; and begin at my sanctuary. Eze. 9. 8.

When we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world. 1 Co. 11. 32.

18 And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear ?

Strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it. Mat. 7. 14.—Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life. 1 Ti. 6. 12.—We must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. Ac. 14. 22.

19 Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

Into thine hand I commit my spirit : thou hast redeemed me, O Lord God of truth. Ps. 31. 5.—I also suffer these things : nevertheless I am not ashamed : for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. 2 Ti. 1. 12.

CHAPTER V.

THE elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed :

They ... ordained them elders in every church. Ac. 14. 23.

He took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy. Mat. 26. 37.—Ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. Ac. 1. 8.

Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou ? Jesus answered him, Whither I go thou canst not follow me now ; but thou shalt follow me afterwards. Jno. 13. 36.

If children, then heirs ; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. Ro. 8. 17, 18.—Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day : and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Ti. 4. 8.

We desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end : that ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises. He. 6. 11, 12.

2 Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly ; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind ;

Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these ? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord ; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs. Feed my sheep. Jno. 21. 15, 16.

Take heed ... unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Ac. 20. 28.

If I do this thing willingly, I have a reward ; but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me. 1 Co. 9. 17.—A bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God ; ... not given to filthy lucre. Tit. 1. 7.

3 Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock.

Jesus ... said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, but it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister. Mat. 20. 25, 26.—Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy. 2 Co. 1. 24.

I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not. 3 Jno. 9.

For the Lord's portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance. De. 32. 9.

Be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. 1 Ti. 4. 12.—In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works. Ti. 2. 7.

4 And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

Our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep. He. 13. 20. I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. Eze. 34. 23.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man, and fear thy God: I am the Lord. Le. 19. 32.—Children, obey your parents in the Lord. Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters. Eph. 6. 1, 5.—Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. Ro. 13. 1. Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account. He. 13. 17.

In honour preferring one another. Ro. 12. 10.—Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God. Eph. 5. 21.—Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Phi. 2. 3.

He giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble. Ja. 4. 6.—Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the Lord: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished. Pr. 16. 5.—Thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones. Is. 57. 15.—To this man will I look, even to him that is poor, and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word. Is. 66. 2.

The meek will he guide in judgment: and the meek will he teach his way. Ps. 25. 9.

6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:

Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up. Ja. 4. 10.

7 Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved. Ps. 55. 22.—Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass. Ps. 37. 5.—Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. Phi. 4. 6.

Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. For your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. Mat. 6. 25, 32.—Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him. For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust. Ps. 103. 13, 14.

8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

The end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer. 1 Pe. 4. 7.—Take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. Watch ye therefore, and pray always. Lu. 21. 34, 36.

The Lord said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the Lord, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. Job 1. 7.

Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat: but I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not. And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death. And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me. Lu. 22. 31, 34.

9 Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Ja. 4. 7.—Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. Eph. 6. 11.

All that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. 2 Ti. 3. 12.

10 But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen. He. 13. 20, 21.—For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory. 2 Co. 4. 17.

I will strengthen them in the Lord; and they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the Lord. Zec. 10. 12.—The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever: forsake not the works of thine own hands. Ps. 138. 8.

12 By Silvanus, a faithful brother unto you, as I suppose, I have written briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand.

Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren. Ac. 15. 22.—I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand. 1 Co. 15. 1.

13 The church that is at Babylon, elected together with you, saluteth you; and so doth Marcus my son.

14 Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity. Peace be with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL

P E T E R.

CHAPTER I.

SIMON Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ :

By grace are ye saved through faith ; and that not of yourselves : it is the gift of God. Eph. 2. 8.

Peter rose up, and said, ... God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe. Ac. 15. 7.—Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe. Ro. 3. 22.

2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. Jno. 17. 3.

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue :

For it pleased the Father that in him should all fulness dwell. Col. 1. 19.—Of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace. Jno. 1. 16.—My grace is sufficient for thee. 2 Co. 12. 9.

Whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called : and whom he called, them he also justified : and whom he justified, them he also glorified. Ro. 8. 29, 30.

4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises : that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. 2 Co. 7. 1.—Put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Eph. 4. 24.

5 And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue ; and to virtue knowledge ;

We desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end. He. 6. 11.

O man of God, ... follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses. 1 Ti. 6. 11, 12.

This I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment ; that ye may approve things that are excellent ; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ ; being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. Phi. 1. 9-11.

6 And to knowledge temperance ; and to temperance patience ; and to patience godliness ;

Every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown ; but we an incorruptible. I therefore so run, not as uncertainly ; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air : but I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection. 1 Co. 9. 25-27.

Let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing. Ja. 1. 4.—To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life. Ro. 2. 7.

Let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear. He. 12. 28.

7 And to godliness brotherly kindness ; and to brotherly kindness charity.

This commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also. 1 Jno. 4. 21.—By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. Jno. 13. 35.

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit ; so shall ye be my disciples. Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. Jno. 15. 8, 14.

9 But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now. 1 Jno. 2. 9.—How shall we that are dead to sin, live any longer therein ? Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death ? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death : that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. Ro. 6. 2-4.

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure : for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall :

Whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected : hereby know we that we are in him. He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked. 1 Jno. 2. 5, 6.—Let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. 1 Jno. 3. 18, 19.

The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God. Ro. 8. 16.—Our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world. 2 Co. 1. 12.

We give thanks to God always for you all, ... remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father; knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God. 1 Th. 1. 2, 4.—And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end. He. 6. 11.

Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. Kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation. 1 Pe. 1. 2, 5.

11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Th. 4. 6, 8.—These be the last words of David. He hath made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure: for this is all my salvation, and all my desire. 2 Sa. 23. 1, 5.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

I ... am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God. Ro. 15. 14, 15.—To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe. Phi. 3. 1.—I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth. 1 Jno. 2. 21.

Seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness. 2 Pe. 3. 17.

14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

Peter ... answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk? The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus. And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong. Ac. 3. 12, 13, 16.

Repent ye ... and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; and he shall send Jesus Christ; which before was preached unto you: whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things. Ac. 3. 19, 21.

He raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: and hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church. Eph. 1. 20, 22.

The Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power; when he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe ... in that day. 2 Th. 1. 7, 10.

Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart, and was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light. Mat. 17. 1, 2.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

A bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him. Mat. 17. 5.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.

When the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid. Mat. 17. 6.

Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. Ex. 3. 5; Jos. 5. 15.

19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts:

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path. Ps. 119. 105.

God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Co. 4. 6.—Now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. 1 Co. 13. 12.

20 Knowing that this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

When he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: ... and he will shew you things to come. Jno. 16. 13.

21 For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men in God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow. 1 Pe. 1. 11.

All scripture is given by inspiration of God. 2 Th. 3. 16.—The Spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his word was in my tongue. 2 Sa. 23. 2.

CHAPTER II.

BUT there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron: and he said, Thus saith the Lord, With these shalt thou push the Syrians, until thou have consumed them. And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the Lord shall deliver it into the king's hand. 1 Ki. 22. 11, 12.—A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land; the prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof? Je. 5. 30, 31.

Many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. Mat. 24. 11.—Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. Ac. 20. 30.—The Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils. 1 Ti. 4. 1.—Believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. 1 Jno. 4. 1.—There must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you. 1 Co. 11. 19.

Workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works. 2 Co. 11. 3, 13, 15.

They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him. Ti. 1. 16.—Ye are bought with a price. 1 Co. 6. 20.—Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us. Gal. 3. 13.—There is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time. 1 Ti. 2. 5, 6.

3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

They that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple. Ro. 16. 18.—Men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness. 1 Ti. 6. 5. Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. Ti. 1. 11.—We are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ. 2 Co. 2. 17.

4 For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;

The angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. Jude 6.—And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever. Re. 20. 10.

5 And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

The Lord said unto Noah, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation. And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him into the ark, because of the waters of the flood. And every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; ... and Noah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark. Ge. 7. 1, 7, 23.

6 And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;

Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them, in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. Jude 7.—The Lord rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the Lord out of heaven; and he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground. Ge. 19. 24, 25.

7 And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:

While he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the Lord being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth, and set him without the city. Ge. 19. 16.

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)

Rivers of waters run down mine eyes, because they keep not thy law. Ps. 119. 136.—Go ... through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof. Eze. 9. 4.

9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:

Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all. Ps. 34. 19.—There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. 1 Co. 10. 13.

Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth. Re. 3. 10.

I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked. Ps. 73. 3.

Enoch ... prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him. Jude 14, 15.

10 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

Whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. Ite. 13. 4.—Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities. These speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves. Jude 8, 10.

Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not. Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words. 3 Jno. 9, 10.—Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake, whether it be to the king, as supreme; or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well. Honour all men. ... Honour the king. 1 Pe. 2. 13, 14, 17.

11 Whereas, angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord.

Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil, he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee. Jude 9.

12 But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

Taken captive by [the devil] at his will. 2 Ti. 2. 26.

13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you;

These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear. Jude 12.—When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper. For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken. 1 Co. 11. 20, 21.

14 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

Whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. Mat. 5. 28.

Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil. Je. 13. 23.

Out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies. Mat. 15. 19.

As they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind. Ro. 1. 28.

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet.

Nu. 22. 5-7, etc. Jos. 13. 22.

Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core. Jude 11.

17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

Clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever. Jude 12, 13.—Be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive. Eph. 4. 14.

18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error.

These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage. Jude 16.—

They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. Lu. 8. 13.

19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin. Jno. 8. 34.—Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness? Ro. 6. 18.

20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation. Mat. 12. 45.

For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, and have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, if they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame. For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh out upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God: but that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned. He. 6. 4-8.

For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries. He. 10. 26, 27.

21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

That servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more. Lu. 12. 47, 48.—If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloke for their sin. Jno. 15. 22.

They went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us. 1 Jno. 2. 19.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool returneth to his folly. Pr. 26. 11.

CHAPTER III.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance. 2 Pe. 1. 13.—I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it. 1 Jno. 2. 21.

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour :

But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. Jude 17.—Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you. 1 Pe. 1. 10.

Be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 13. Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh. Ja. 5. 8.

3 Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

They told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts. Jude 18.—The Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils. 1 Tm. 4. 1.—As ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time. 1 Jno. 2. 18.

4 And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

Let him make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it: and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it! Is. 5. 19.—If that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken; the lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers. Lu. 12. 45, 46.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:

A scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not: but knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth. Pr. 14. 6.

This is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reprov'd. Jno. 3. 19, 20.

God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters. Ge. 1. 6, etc.—Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear. He. 11. 3.

6 Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened. And every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; ... and Noah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark. Ge. 7. 11, 23.

7 But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

The waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh. Ge. 9. 15.

Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed. Ps. 102. 25, 26.—The heavens shall vanish away like smoke. Is. 51. 6.

In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Th. 1. 8.

I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire. Re. 20. 11, 12, 14, 15.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

A thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night. Ps. 90. 4.

9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

The vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry. Hab. 2. 3.—Shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them? I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Lu. 18. 7, 8.—Therefore will the Lord wait, that he may be gracious unto you, ... the Lord is a God of judgment: blessed are all they that wait for him. Is. 30. 18.

The longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah. 1 Pe. 3. 20.—As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel? Eze. 33. 11.—Despiseest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? Ro. 2. 4.—Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. 1 Tm. 2. 4.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. But know this, that if the good man of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up. Mat. 24. 42, 43.

Yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them. 1 Th. 5. 2, 3.—Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee. Re. 3. 8.

Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. Re. 16. 15.—Heaven and earth shall pass away. Mat. 24. 35.—I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. Re. 21. 1.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness,

The world passeth away, and the lust thereof; but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. 1 Jno. 2. 17.

12 Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

There shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh. Lk. 21. 25-28.—Ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 1. 7.—Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ. Ti. 2. 13.

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

Behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind. Is. 65. 17.—I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. Re. 21. 1.

And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life. Re. 21. 27. Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie. Re. 22. 14, 15.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

Being justified by faith we have peace with God. Ro. 5. 1. To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints. 1 Th. 3. 13.—Be at peace among yourselves. And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Th. 5. 13, 23.—Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 1. 8.

Little children, abide in him; that when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming. If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that doeth righteousness is born of him. 1 Jno. 2. 28, 29.

15 And account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you;

Give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall: for so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. 2 Pe. 1. 10, 11.—Despise thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? Ro. 2. 4.

When Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed. Ga. 2. 11.—Let the righteous smite me; it shall be a kindness: and let him reprove me; it shall be an excellent oil. Pr. 141. 5.

Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth. 1 Co. 2. 13.

16 As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

The earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. Ro. 8. 19.—Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. 1 Co. 15. 24.—When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Col. 3. 4.—The Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Th. 1. 7, 8.—Keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Ti. 6. 14.—Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. He. 9. 28.

Whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover, whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified. Ro. 8. 29, 30.—Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth. Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will? Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Ro. 9. 18, 20.

O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! Ro. 11. 33.

Called of God a high priest after the order of Melchisedec. Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing. He. 5. 10, 11.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware, lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness.

Henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive. Eph. 4. 14.—Be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. 1 Co. 15. 58.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby. 1 Pe. 2. 2.—We do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; that ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God. Col. 1. 9, 10.—Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the Lord. Ho. 6. 3.

All men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. Jno. 5. 23.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL

J O H N.

CHAPTER I.

THAT which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life;

That holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. Lu. 1. 35.

I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was. Pr. 8. 23.—In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. Jno. 1. 1.

And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. Jno. 1. 14.—For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty. 2 Pe. 1. 16.

Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have. Lu. 24. 39.—Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing. Jno. 20. 27.

In him was life; and the life was the light of men. Jno. 1. 4.

2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. Jno. 11. 25.—I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. Jno. 14. 6.—This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. Jno. 17. 3.

God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. 1 Jno. 5. 11, 12, 20.

Without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. 1 Ti. 3. 16.—He was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin. 1 Jno. 3. 5.

3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

We cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard. Ac. 4. 20.

That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us. Jno. 17. 21.—Partakers of the divine nature. 2 Pe. 1. 4.—Partakers of his holiness. He. 12. 10.—The Father himself loveth you. Jno. 16. 27.

Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Co. 1. 30.—Through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Eph. 2. 18.—The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and, the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. 2 Co. 13. 14.

4 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full. Jno. 15. 11.—Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full. Jno. 16. 24.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

The Father of lights. Ja. 1. 17.—O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! Ro. 11. 33.

I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. Jno. 8. 12.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now. 1 Jno. 2. 4, 9.—What fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? 2 Co. 6. 14.

Ye were sometime darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light: (for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;) proving what is acceptable unto the Lord. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. Eph. 5. 8-11.

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. Jno. 12. 36.

But ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Co. 6. 11.—We have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace. Eph. 1. 7. That loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood. Re. 1. 5; He. 9. 13, 14.

8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

There is no man that sinneth not. 1 Ki. 8. 46.—How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman? Job 25. 4.—Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin? Pr. 20. 9.—There is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not. Ec. 7. 20.—In many things we offend all. Ja. 3. 2.

9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

If they shall confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespass which they trespassed against me, and that also they have walked contrary unto me; ... if then their uncircumcised hearts be humbled, and they then accept of the punishment of their iniquity: then will I remember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land. Le. 26. 40-42.—He looketh upon men, and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not; he will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light. Job 33. 27, 28.

Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin. Ps. 51. 2.—I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Ps. 32. 5.

He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy. Pr. 28. 13.

All have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; to declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus. Ro. 3. 23-26.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

I acknowledge my transgressions; and my sin is ever before est, be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. Ro. 3. 4.

CHAPTER II.

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

Ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children. 1 Th. 2. 11.—How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein? Ro. 6. 2.

Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. Ro. 8. 34.—There is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus. 1 Ti. 2. 5.—He is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. He. 7. 25.—Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. He. 9. 24.

Thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins. Mat. 1. 21.

The forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made a high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec. He. 6. 20.

He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.

2 And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for our's only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. 1 Jno. 4. 10. Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God. Ro. 3. 25.—God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them. 2 Co. 5. 19.—Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. Jno. 1. 29.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

Why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? Lu. 6. 46.—If ye love me, keep my commandments. If a man love me, he will keep my words. Jno. 14. 15, 23.

A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. Jno. 13. 34.—My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. 1 Jno. 3. 18, 19.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.
